WILLIAM CLAY FORD

OWNER AND CHAIRMAN

In an age where ownership changes and franchise moves in professional sports have become alarmingly commonplace, William Clay Ford continues to provide the Detroit Lions organization, its fans and the community with unwavering stability and sound leadership.

His commitment to the franchise is imprinted on virtually every aspect of the organization. By combining one of the finest sports and entertainment venues, Ford Field, and a world-class headquarters and training environment with a strong management team, Mr. Ford has instilled the organization with the right mix of fuel that will power the further development of the entire Lions organization.

"I am really pleased about the changes to our team over the past 18 months," Mr. Ford said. "It really all started with the hiring of Rod (Marinelli). Rod brings such a strong passion and purpose to everything he does. His attitude is positive and infectious, and I do believe his approach has had an excellent impact on our entire football team."

"I also share Rod's excitement for this upcoming season. Rod has made it clear that our goal is to become a championship football team. Every decision we make as an organization is made with that one thing in mind—to win a Super Bowl title. Winning a championship for our city, state and for the entire Lions fan base is the most important objective we have, and we will always keep that goal as our primary objective."

"Rod's focus over the past year and a half has been to find the players who match his vision of what it takes to win that championship. He and Matt (Millen) have done a very good job of acquiring those types of players. While Rod will be the first to tell you that we still have to do it on the field, when you consider all the positive changes to our team—in terms of attitude and confidence, not to mention talent—then it's easy to share Rod's excitement and anticipation for this season."

One thing, and one thing only, remains the utmost goal to Mr. Ford, and that is for the Detroit Lions to win a Super Bowl. Mr. Ford understands that in the current competitive realities of the NFL, reaching the game's ultimate prize can be a quick climb. Not only is having the coaching staff and front office in place necessary for this ascension, but providing vital infrastructure, such as a new stadium and new practice facility, is also important in the rise to the top.

Further evidence of Mr. Ford's commitment can be found in the Lions' return "home" to a new downtown Detroit stadium, Ford Field, in 2002. The $500 million stadium enhances the Lions' ability to compete in several facets of the game. In this NFL age of salary cap and free agency, the revenues produced from Ford Field will help level the economic playing field with the Lions' NFL counterparts.

Ford Field has already influenced NFL leadership as it became the overwhelming factor in Detroit being awarded the right to host Super Bowl XL in February 2006. That championship game clearly added to the city's economic landscape in numerous ways, including a $260 million boost to Metro Detroit, and the impact the Ford family had on bringing the Super Bowl to Detroit was apparent.

"We wouldn't be here if it were not for the Ford family, who led the way in developing Ford Field as a catalyst for the redevelopment of downtown Detroit, including the return of the Super Bowl to Detroit," former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue pronounced in 2006 during his annual state of the league press conference held just prior to Super Bowl XL. "And the Ford family's leadership has certainly been a big part, not just of the NFL and NFL history, but of Detroit and our nation's history."

Ford Field is serving as a springboard, shaping further revitalized growth in the city of Detroit. The stadium's effect on the city will continue to be comprehensive with its contributions as it hosts several events besides Lions' games.

In May 2003, the Detroit News honored Mr. Ford as a Michiganian of the Year for 2003, an annual tribute to select citizens who made significant contributions to the state or local community, as he brought the Lions "back home" and opened Ford Field's doors to reap benefits for Detroit. In September 2005, he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

Additional confirmation of his steadfast dedication to the team was the completion of the team's $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park, Mich., that opened in April 2002 as the NFL's premier training center. Thanks to Mr. Ford's addition of the Lions Headquarters and Training Facility, the entire organization is now developing year-round in a world-class environment. Both the short-term and long-term impact are significant as the team trains under conditions second-to-none. This joint venture between the Lions and Ford Land Development Corporation provides state-of-the-art facilities for players' off-season workouts, training camp, and in-season meetings and practices.

"I am really pleased about the changes to our team over the past 18 months. It really all started with the hiring of Rod (Marinelli). Rod brings such a strong passion and purpose to everything he does. His attitude is positive and infectious, and I do believe his approach has had an excellent impact on our entire football team. I also share Rod's excitement for this upcoming season. Rod has made it clear that our goal is to become a championship football team. Every decision we make as an organization is made with that one thing in mind—to win a Super Bowl title. Winning a championship for our city, state and for the entire Lions fan base is the most important objective we have, and we will always keep that goal as our primary objective," Mr. Ford said.

ADMINISTRATION AND COACHING

Throughout his tenure as owner, William Clay Ford has guided the Detroit Lions organization with a sense of balance, integrity and honest leadership. Never one to seek the limelight, Mr. Ford has not sought public accolades for his many contributions to football, the automotive industry and his community.

Known as Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, his relationship with the Lions began during his childhood when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934.

He became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become the Lions' president in 1961.

In November 1963, Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million and officially took over the club January 10, 1964. The 2007 season will mark the 44th year of Mr. Ford's sole ownership of the club.

Many consider the 2007 off-season one of the team's most productive in recent memory. Key players obtained via free agency and through trades, in addition to another excellent draft, are prime reasons for optimism.

"There are many positive aspects about the team that Matt and Rod have put together," Mr. Ford said. "The first thing that really impressed me is that we have constructed this team based on a formula that was established when we hired Rod.

"Last year, the new offensive and defensive systems were implemented, and now, with a roster of improved talent we believe that we are in position to compete at a high level."

Of course, Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automotive industry, he being the only surviving grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

For the entire Ford family, 2003 marked a year of great pride and celebration as Ford Motor Company commemorated its historic 100 years as an icon in American industry.

In May 2005, Mr. Ford retired from the Board of Directors of Ford Motor Company after nearly 57 years of service. He remains director emeritus on the Board of Directors. Mr. Ford most recently served as a member of the Board of Directors and was on the company's Finance Committee, and in years past served on its Governance Committee. He had been a board member since 1948 and was chairman of the company's Design Committee from its inception in 1957 until his retirement as vice chairman in March 1989.

Utilizing his expertise in design, Mr. Ford was also on special assignment as a design consultant focusing on the Jaguar.

During his career with the company, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction and acclaim as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939. In 1973, Mr. Ford was appointed vice president-Product Design.

Mr. Ford was elected to the Board of Directors in 1948 and began his employment at Ford following graduation from Yale University. He served several executive positions before appointment as vice president and general manager of the Continental Division in 1954. In 1956, he assumed responsibility for corporate product planning and design.

When the Design Committee of Ford's Policy and Strategy Committee was formed in 1957, Mr. Ford became the committee's first chairman, a post he held until retirement in 1989.

In 1978, Mr. Ford was elected chairman of the Executive Committee and appointed a member of the Office of the Chief Executive. He was elected vice chairman of the Board in 1980 and chairman of the Finance Committee in 1987. He retired as chairman of the Finance Committee in 1995.

The youngest of Edsel's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. Following a tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Air Corp in World War II, he enrolled at Yale, where he lettered in both tennis and soccer at the Ivy League school. As a collegian, he won league tennis titles in singles and doubles, and he earned All-American honorable mention honors in soccer. In fact, he was a nationally-ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries relegated him to the sidelines. Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer, while registering a remarkable seven (7) holes-in-one over the years.

He graduated from Yale with a bachelor's of science degree in economics and then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff. He later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

Mr. Ford also is chairman emeritus of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford. He is an honorary life trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, is a national trustee for the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of America and honorary chair of the United Way Community Services. He is also on the Texas Heart Institute National Advisory Council. Mr. Ford received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, Calif., in 1981.

Mr. Ford's generosity as a benefactor was again recognized in 1997, as the outdoor courts of the University of Michigan's new tennis center were named in his honor. Also, a new addition to Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital (which bears the name of Mr. Ford's grandfather) opened in 1996 - The William Clay Ford Center for Athletic Medicine - which is one of the leading sports medicine treatment and research institutions in the country.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They are the parents of three daughters—Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth—and a son, William Clay Ford, Jr., who serves as the Lions Vice Chairman, in addition to his role as Executive Chairman of Ford Motor Company.

"There are many positive aspects about the team that Matt and Rod have put together. The first thing that really impressed me is that we have constructed this team based on a formula that was established when we hired Rod. Last year, the new offensive and defensive systems were implemented, and now, with a roster of improved talent we believe that we are in position to compete at a high level," Mr. Ford said.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD, JR.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr. has made a positive and lasting impact on the Detroit Lions since assuming his current post of vice chairman in February 1995. He remains focused not only on creating a winner in the present, but also on ensuring success well into the 21st century, both on and off the field.

On the field, Ford shares his father's commitment and devotion to the Lions and sustains a burning passion to win. Like his father, he wants nothing less than to see the Lions regarded as one of the premier franchises in the National Football League and to produce a championship for the City of Detroit.

"While the road to a championship, which remains our primary focus, has not been easy, I do share Coach Marinelli's anticipation and confidence as we prepare for the 2007 season," Ford said. "From the beginning, Rod has talked about the importance of his players having 'football character' and how that quality will lead to success on the field.

"Coach Marinelli has also made it very clear that he expects to win and that he has very high expectations for our team this season. I love the confidence he has in our players. He has a vision of what it takes to build a championship team and he has not wavered from that vision since he became our head coach.

"I am also encouraged with how Rod and his staff, along with Matt (Millen) and our player personnel department, have transformed our roster with players who have the type of football character Rod demands in his team."

To see Ford's influence off the field, one has to look no further than Ford Field in downtown Detroit and the team's headquarters and practice facility in Allen Park. Both are considered the best respectively in all of sports, and were shaped by Ford's resolve for the Lions to be a leader in the NFL.

Ford's role was instrumental as the Lions announced plans in August 1996 to build a new stadium. His dedication and commitment to the fans was never more evident than when he spearheaded the team's stadium negotiations. Due largely to his determination and perseverance, the Lions struck a deal with the City of Detroit and Wayne County that established the foundation for the Lions to return to downtown Detroit in 2002.

Ford's vision of a downtown stadium had perhaps its finest moment to date when it played host to Super Bowl XL in February 2006. It received extraordinary reviews by the international community.

In addition to developing new homes for the team to practice and play, Ford played a vital role in Detroit's bid for Super Bowl XL. Through his leadership, the Ford Family, the Lions and Ford Motor Company were integral in Detroit's impressive hosting of Super Bowl XL that exceeded expectations. Overall, there was a $260 million economic impact generated by Super Bowl XL, including $100 million in downtown improvements, $10 million on emerging businesses—the most in Super Bowl history—and $6 million in the NFL/Boys & Girls Club Youth Education Town—the largest in the country.

Though satisfied with progress made so far by the development of Ford Field, Ford continues to push for the stadium to become an even greater benefit to the community and its growth.

"In just the first five years at Ford Field, several extraordinary events have taken place there, but we are just scratching the surface," Ford said. "You can easily see the impact events at Ford Field are making by the numerous people flocking downtown to the variety of year-round events. The entertainment experience is incredible. When we launched this project, our goal was to make this venue a centerpiece to Detroit's Renaissance, and we believe our impact will be even greater in the years to come."

Since the decision was made to move to downtown Detroit, Ford also wanted to provide a world-class practice facility to complement the team's stadium project. The $36 million Allen Park facility, which opened in April 2002, has been identified as the best facility in the NFL. Its state-of-the-art football facilities, including an indoor practice facility with a regulation-size field, provide the ideal training center for NFL players and coaches.

William Clay Ford, Jr. has strongly supported an active community outreach program which has been recognized as the best of any team in all of professional sports. Through Ford's support, Detroit Lions Charities, which has awarded more than $4.3 million in total donations during its 17-year history, continue to serve Detroit and the State of Michigan. In each of the past three years, Detroit Lions Charities distributed an average of $500,000 to various organizations. Featured among the Lions' philanthropic efforts is the collaborative effort with Detroit Public Schools and Communities in Schools of Detroit to open the Detroit Lions Academy. The school, which opens its doors for its seventh year this fall, offers an alternative school environment for approximately 130 sixth, seventh and eighth grade students. Ford has been a significant supporter of the team's involvement in other numerous community programs, such as the sponsorship of the Think Detroit PAL youth football program.

Ford continues to be on the forefront of influential and wide-ranging issues league-wide, as evidenced by his inclusion on the NFL International Committee.

In Ford's 12 years in his current role, he has helped the Lions take major steps forward on several fronts. Ford has strongly supported an active community outreach program which has been recognized as the best of any team in all of professional sports.

Through Ford's support, Detroit Lions Charities, which has awarded more than $4.3 million in total donations during its 17-year history, continue to serve Detroit and the State of Michigan.

Ford has been a significant supporter of the team's involvement in other numerous community programs, such as the sponsorship of the Think Detroit PAL youth football program.

Under Ford's guidance the team has launched one of the industry's most aggressive marketing campaigns, which currently centers on enhanced revenue streams derived primarily from Ford Field. Over the past eight years, the Lions have reached major achievements in ticket sales. In 1999, the team instituted a new ticket sales policy, including the introduction of the largest "Family Section" in the NFL that is now a part of the Ford Field experience. In 2001, the Lions initiated a waiting list for season tickets. Since Ford Field opened in 2002, every Lions' home game—50 regular and preseason games—have sold out and been televised locally in the Detroit Metro broadcast area.

Ford Field will play host to the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four in 2009, along with the Midwest Regional Finals in 2008. Detroit also landed the 2010 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four. Both collegiate championships at Ford Field could reset attendance records for their respective events.

Under Ford's direction, the Lions began publishing an Internet site, which was one of the first official team sites launched in pro sports. The club also entered into a partnership with Infinity Broadcasting (now CBS Radio), a relationship it extended in 2005, for the Lions' radio broadcast rights and started production on weekly radio and television shows that air throughout the season.

In other past roles within the NFL structure, Ford has served on the NFL's Finance Committee and NFL Properties Committee.

Though football remains a passion for Ford, his father and his family, his top priority remains serving as Ford Motor Company's Executive Chairman. His current role is a professional and personal commitment, as he leads the company founded by his great-grandfather, American automotive pioneer Henry Ford. A member of the Board of Directors since 1988, he assumed the role of Chairman of the Board January 1, 1999. He also served as Chief Executive Officer from October 2001 through September 2006. Additionally, he serves as Chairman of the Board's Finance Committee and as a member of the Environmental and Public Policy Committee.

Among his many outside leadership roles, he serves as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford, Chairman of the Detroit Economic Club, and Chairman of the Executive Committee of Detroit Renaissance.

Born in Detroit in 1957, he is an avid fly fisherman and car enthusiast, enjoys playing hockey and tennis, and is a black belt in the martial art of Tae Kwon Do. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Princeton University and a master of science degree in management from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

MATT MILLEN

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

For Lions President and CEO Matt Millen, success in the National Football League is simple: "The team that wins the Super Bowl is successful and the 31 other teams are not."

Millen also believes that no team can achieve that success without the proper leadership from its head coach, and that is why the decision to hire Rod Marinelli in 2006 may prove to be the very best move Millen has made during his tenure as team president.

During the Lions' head coaching search, Marinelli distinguished himself as the type of individual Millen believed was clearly needed to lead the Lions. Millen saw in Marinelli a head coach who would emphasize the game's vital elements, including what Marinelli refers to as the non-talented characteristics that players must possess in order to be successful in the NFL. Since then, Millen and Marinelli have worked in concert to formulate a roster of players who embody the "football character" qualities Marinelli so strongly believes are necessary for success in the NFL.

Focusing on shaping the roster according to this vision, Millen, along with the team's player personnel department, orchestrated perhaps more significant player moves this past off-season than any prior year of his tenure. These moves included trades involving veteran players and draft picks, re-signing key free agents, targeting and signing veteran free agents and being one of the most active movers on a draft day that saw the Lions end up with four picks among the first 61 players selected.

Even before free agency started, the team re-signed wide receiver Mike Furrey, who led the NFC in receptions (98) last year, and made trades with Denver (acquired running back Tatum Bell, tackle George Bell and a fifth-round draft pick) and St. Louis (acquired additional fifth round pick.).

Then in free agency, the team targeted not only talented players who would fit the team's offensive and defensive systems, but players who also possess those qualities demanded by Marinelli. The key free agency additions include: defensive end Dewayne White, running back T.J. Duckett, wide receiver Shaun McDonald, cornerback Travis Fisher and guard Edwin Mulitalo.

On draft day after the Lions stayed put with the second overall pick, the team executed four trades during the second round, which netted the team three second round picks, and the Lions moved up on the second day to take an additional fourth-round selection.

Among Millen's past draft picks are anchors of the Lions' line of scrimmage. The defense features draftees Pro Bowl defensive tackle Shaun Rogers (2001), defensive tackle Shaun Cody (2005), defensive end Kalimba Edwards (2002), and defensive end Cory Redding (2003), and he added to that group when he selected DE Ikaika Alama-Francis in the second round of the 2007 NFL Draft. On offense, tackle Jeff Backus (2001) was re-signed to join returning starting center Dominic Raiola (2001). Backus and Raiola have started the past 80 games together, the longest streak of any pair of offensive linemen heading into the 2007 season.

Players are vital in the NFL, and several players have been drafted to meet that need. In April, the Lions did not hesitate to take wide receiver Calvin Johnson who was universally acclaimed as the best player and biggest playmaker not only in this year's draft, but perhaps the best draft prospect in the past several years. With that mindset, the 2004 NFL Draft may go down as one of the best in team history. Entering the draft, Millen traded the sixth pick to Cleveland, moved down one spot and received the Browns' second round choice (37th overall). With the seventh pick, Millen selected wide receiver Roy Williams, who set three rookie franchise records (receptions, touchdowns and receiving yards) and earned a spot in the Pro Bowl after his third season in the league by leading the NFC in receiving yards (1,310) in 2006. Williams, with 23, has the second-most touchdown receptions in franchise history among Lions' players through their first three NFL seasons.

He then used one of the team's second round picks to obtain the 30th overall pick from Kansas City, which was used to draft running back Kevin Jones. Paying immediate dividends, Jones led rookies in rushing and was the NFL's leading rusher the final seven games in 2004.

On defense, talent and speed has been a priority. Since 2003, the team has added at linebacker Boss Bailey (2003), Teddy Lehman (2004), Alex Lewis (2004) and 2006 first-rounder Ernie Sims, who led the team and all NFC rookies with 144 tackles. The defensive backfield has been fortified in the draft with the selection of Keith Smith (2004), Stanley Wilson (2005), Daniel Bullocks (2006) and safety Gerald Alexander (2007).

With greater importance now placed on the draft in the salary cap era, the Lions have set that as a top priority when building the roster. Millen has selected 23 players on the first day of the draft and 19 still remain on the Lions' roster.

Millen has also been able to make considerable progress in free agency. Last year, the team signed quarterback Jon Kitna, who not only provided the type of leadership needed at that position but he became the second player in team history to throw for over 4000 yards. Joining Kitna and Furrey in a very productive 2006 free agency class was tight end Dan Campbell and linebacker Paris Lenon.

Millen made his mark in the NFL with a distinguished 12-year playing career at linebacker, playing for three franchises: Oakland/L.A. Raiders (1980-88), San Francisco 49ers (1989-90) and Washington Redskins (1991). He retired following the '91 season as the only player in NFL history to earn four Super Bowl rings with three different teams (Raiders: Super Bowls XV, XVII; 49ers: Super Bowl XXIV; Redskins: Super Bowl XXVI).

He was originally Oakland's second-round selection out of Penn State in 1980 and made a trip to the Pro Bowl following the 1988 season. While at Penn State, Millen was a three-year starter and earned first-team All-America honors as a junior in 1979.

Upon retirement from the NFL, Millen made the transition from the playing field to the broadcast booth as analyst for CBS and FOX. From 1995-2000 he worked alongside veteran broadcaster Dick Stockton. His work with the NFL TV networks was highly regarded among his broadcast peers and personnel around the league. Millen was also a member of the CBS Radio Monday Night crew from 1997-00. Along with his TV and radio roles, Millen co-hosted a weekly radio show syndicated nationally for the NFLPA.

Born March 12, 1958 in Hokendauqua, Pa., Millen and his wife, Patricia, have four children: Matthew, Jr., Marcus, Michalyn and Marianne. Marcus is a cadet at Army and a member of the Black Knights' football program.

TOM LEWAND

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Tom Lewand, in his 12th year with the Detroit Lions organization, was promoted to executive vice president and chief operating officer February 1, 2003. In his position, Lewand operates as the team's chief contract negotiator and architect of the salary cap, and oversees all day-to-day business operations of both the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. This includes the management of finance, football administration, player development, security, equipment operations, medical staff, ticketing, sales and marketing, public/media relations, broadcasting, human resources, Ford Field operations and administration, and the development of Ford Field's lease space in the stadium's progression as a multi-use facility.

An extremely talented, creative and aggressive businessman, Lewand has held a myriad of positions and responsibilities within the front office during his tenure with the Lions, most recently as executive vice president and chief operating officer of Detroit Lions Properties, LLC and vice president of salary cap.

On a league-wide level, Lewand is also involved in key business and labor issues. He serves on the NFL Management Council's Club Executives Committee and was on the Committee on Revenue Sharing Qualifiers and the Special Committee on League Economics. Lewand represents the organization for all league-level business matters.

Lewand's leadership positions every aspect of the Lions' organization, including Ford Field operations, to significantly impact the Lions' drive for a Super Bowl title. For Lewand, everything from football transactions to Ford Field events influences the team's ability to compete and win.

In 2006, this vision was clear as he worked alongside Matt Millen to hire new head coach Rod Marinelli, and then with both Millen and Marinelli in putting together a highly-regarded and experienced coaching staff.

During his tenure with the Lions, Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling nearly $800 million since 1996. His contract highlights include: the Lions' last 15 first-round draft choices, RB Barry Sanders' last NFL contract, the contracts of Pro Bowl players (WR Roy Williams, DT Shaun Rogers, CR De Bly, DE Robert Porcher, DT Luther Elliss, LB Stephen Boyd, WR/KR Desmond Howard, K Jason Hanson and TE David Sloan) and recent free agent acquisitions.

Under Lewand's guidance and direction, Ford Field has become the crown jewel of downtown Detroit and serves as a cornerstone in the city's urban renewal and revitalization efforts. The facility opened to rave reviews in 2002, with the publisher of the Detroit Free Press stating that Ford Field "tells [Detroiters] who we are and suggests what we can be. Now it's up to the rest of us to create a downtown and a city that matches the vision Ford Field realizes."

Ford Field shined in 2006 when the city of Detroit hosted Super Bowl XL. Lewand served as the point person for the Lions and Ford Field on the Host Committee for Super Bowl XL, and was among the key figures leading the city's hosting of the game and events surrounding Super Bowl XL, which was widely-acclaimed as successful and critical to Detroit's future growth. Previously, Lewand played an instrumental role in developing the strategic bid plan in pursuit of Super Bowl XL.

With an eye on the future, he also represented the organization in its successful bid to host the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four and 2008 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Regional and the 2010 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

This past spring, Ford Field hosted WWE's Wrestlemania 23 that set a new Ford Field all-events attendance record (80,103) and had a $25 million impact on the Metro Detroit area.

Additionally, Lewand continues to lead in the development of Ford Field events, including college football (Division I regular season games, MAC Championship and Motor City Bowl), MHSAA high school football, concerts, motorsports and various trade shows.

Lewand possesses a strong educational background, having received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1991, and completing both a law degree at the University of Michigan Law School and his master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan Business School in 1996. Lewand aided the University of Michigan football program in various capacities on a volunteer basis while attending the school. He also worked for the Lions on a part-time basis while completing work on his graduate degrees.

In 1991, Lewand served as an environmental advisor for the Governor of Indiana, Evan Bayh. Following a year in that position, he entered graduate school at Michigan. He spent time working for the law firm of Dickinson, Wright, Moon, Van Dusen and Freeman in Detroit, and the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis. In the summer of 1993, he worked in the White House in the Counsel's Office for Presidential Personnel.

Lewand's family history is also entrenched in the Detroit area community. His father, F. Thomas Lewand, works as an attorney and was both the Chief of Staff for former Governor James Blanchard and the Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party. His late grandfather, Joseph B. Sullivan, was a judge in the Michigan Court of Appeals and was the deputy mayor of Detroit in the 1960s.

Lewand is active in the community, acting as Chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau and serving on the Boards of Directors of the Downtown Detroit Partnership, the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation and the Parade Company. He also is on the Corporate Advisory Board for the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business. Lewand was named as one of Crain's Detroit Business "40 Under 40" in 1998, which honored and recognized 40 top business people in the Detroit area under the age of 40. Lewand has also been recognized nationally twice, in 2003 and 2005, by the Sports Business Journal as one of the top "40 under 40" sports executives in the United States.

He and his wife, Suzanne, have four daughters: Cayleigh, Paige, Shannon and Erin.

MARTIN MAYHEW

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Now in his seventh season with the Detroit Lions, Martin Mayhew serves as senior vice president and assistant general manager. He plays an integral role in coordinating the team's salary cap objectives and player contract negotiations. He also assists Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer Tom Lewand on all team matters pertaining to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement and League policies and procedures. In addition, Mayhew assists with the team's pro and college scouting and player evaluation.

Mayhew is responsible for football operations (team travel, training camp operations, security, medical staff, equipment operations, video department and cafeteria staff), and he oversees the Lions' football-related legal matters and human resources.

Mayhew originally joined the Lions in February 2001 as one of President and CEO Matt Millen's major additions to the front office staff. He entered the organization in the role of senior director of football administration/staff counsel, but after illustrating his talents and work ethic for two years, was promoted on February 3, 2003 to senior vice president of football/legal affairs. His most current promotion came on October 14, 2004, when Millen appointed him senior vice president and assistant general manager.

Prior to joining the Lions, Mayhew was director of football administration for the XFL, where he was instrumental in developing policies and procedures for the start-up pro football league. Mayhew also organized the League's training camps and supervised team officials in planning of practices and other team activities.

Throughout his journey leading up to his current post, Mayhew has kept an eye on the future and has always thought one step ahead, as evidenced by his strategic exposure to several jobs and internships while earning his law degree from Georgetown's Law Center (2000). He is one of two Lions' front office executives with law degrees, and he is also a member of the Florida Bar.

During the 1999 NFL season, while attending law school, Mayhew served a nine-month internship in the Washington Redskins' pro personnel department, which exposed him to the responsibilities of an NFL scouting department. While with the Redskins, he scouted

NFL players and late NFL cuts and also assisted in the evaluation of college players for the 2000 NFL Draft. Mayhew also had two separate internship stints with the NFL in both the Labor operations and Legal departments. In the labor operations, Mayhew worked closely with NFL executives on issues involving player contracts and the salary cap. With the legal Department, Mayhew assisted in-house labor counsel of the NFL by researching legal issues, digesting cases in preparation for arbitration hearings and drafting legal memoranda related to player injury and non-injury grievances. He also was exposed to corporate law while working for Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld, L.L.P. in Washington D.C., one of the NFL's primary firms used as outside counsel. At Akin Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld, he researched legal issues, wrote legal documents and assisted firm associates and partners in preparation for litigation.

Mayhew played nine years in the NFL as a cornerback for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96). He was the Bills' 10th-round selection in the 1988 NFL draft and was a starter on the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team.

Mayhew entered the league after graduating from Florida State with a bachelors of science degree in business management. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSida Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles' football and track teams. Between graduation and the draft, Mayhew was a corporate trainee at First Union National Bank in Charlotte, N.C.

Mayhew has also been extremely involved within the community throughout his professional career. In 1993, while playing for Tampa Bay, Mayhew was given the Chelo Huerta Community Service Award, and the following year he was a nominee for the True Value Hardware Man of the Year. From 1995-96, Mayhew was the Bucs' United Way Spokesperson. Mayhew is a member of the American Bar Association and the Sports Lawyers Association.

Mayhew and his wife, Sabrina, have a daughter, Sierra, and two sons, Ryan and Justin.

CHAMPIONSHIP EXPERIENCE

The Lions coaching staff features several members, including Head Coach Rod Marinelli, who all have coached or played in the Super Bowl. Marinelli and the team's coordinators have a combined five appearances and three titles in the NFL's championship game.

- Marinelli was the Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line for Tampa Bay during the team's Super Bowl XXXVII title run. On that same staff was Defensive Coordinator Joe Barry who was the Buccaneers linebackers coach.
- Offensive Coordinator Mike Martz has two appearances, with the St. Louis Rams, in the Super Bowl, one as a coordinator (SB XXXIV) and one as a head coach (XXIX).
- Special Teams Coach Stan Kwan was on San Diego's staff for Super Bowl XXIX.
- Other coaches who have coached or played in the Super Bowl include: Coordinator of Physical Development Jason Arapoff (coached with Washington in SB XXIV), Offensive Line Coach Jim Colletto (coached with Baltimore in SB XXXV), Assistant Special Teams Coach Sam Gash (played for New England in SB XXXI and Baltimore in SB XXXV), Assistant Wide Receivers Coach Shawn Jefferson (played for San Diego in SB XXIX and New England in XXXI), Running Backs Coach Wilbert Montgomery (played for Philadelphia in SB XV and coached for St. Louis in XXXIV) and Director of Football Operations Cedric Saunders (Tampa Bay in SB XXXVII).
- From Super Bowl XXXIV-XXXVII, the NFL's title game featured at least one Lions' coach.

ROD MARINELLI

HEAD COACH

Years with Lions: 2
Years as NFL Head Coach: 2
Years in NFL: 12

When new Detroit Lions Head Coach Rod Marinelli talks about life in the National Football League, he'll tell you it's the "non-talented issues" that separate the winners from the losers.

While every team has a comparable level of "talent" within its roster, things like: fundamentals... work ethic... attention to detail... leadership... passion... and commitment truly make the difference in the NFL, according to the Lions' head coach. These qualities comprise Marinelli's mantra for success, and he will remind anyone listening that none of the aforementioned attributes take any talent.

Marinelli also talks about wanting a roster made up of players who have true "football character"—players who have such a profound love of football that they will not allow anything to compromise or interfere with their desire and preparation to be the very best they can be.

In a short time, Marinelli's approach has helped drastically reshape this team's roster. And from day one, he has based everything on his vision of a championship for the Detroit Lions. Marinelli's first step last season was to establish and focus on this championship vision and combine it with a consistent approach to what he firmly believes equates to success.

That approach was perhaps the most important element of the team's success last season. They showed great progress at the end of the season, finishing with a win at Dallas when the Cowboys were fighting for homefield advantage for the playoffs. It was this win and how the team fought every step of the way that will serve as a standard for success in 2007.

Following Marinelli's hiring, he knew he needed an offensive coordinator who could take this young, talented team to new heights. That process got off to a great start with the hiring of Mike Martz. Last year, the team went from 26th in passing during the 2005 season to seventh. Quarterback Jon Kitna became the second Lions' quarterback to throw for 4,000 yards in team history. Wide receiver Roy Williams led the NFC in receiving yards (1,310) and wide receiver Mike Furrey led the NFC in receptions (98). With 61 pass receptions, the second-most by a back in team history, running back Kevin Jones proved his versatility. Free agent tight end Dan Campbell, one of the league's best blockers at that position, proved he could contribute in the passing game by stretching the field. With key additions on the offensive line, in the backfield and more playmakers at the receiver spot, this offense looks to reach new heights in year two of Marinelli's tenure.

Defensively, the team focused significantly on fundamentals, principles, assignments and discipline as Marinelli brought in a defensive philosophy that has been extremely successful in places like Tampa Bay, Indianapolis and Chicago. Additionally, Marinelli hired Joe Barry as the team's defensive coordinator following the 2006 season. The highly-sought after Barry, who coached linebackers at Tampa Bay and was a member of the Buccaneers world championship team, will direct a unit that now better understands this defense and knows what it takes to execute it.

Last year, Marinelli was able to target key building blocks on defense, like rookie Ernie Sims, defensive tackles Cory Redding and Shaun Rogers, and develop young players such as safety Daniel Bullocks and cornerback Stanley Wilson, who will forge an aggressive defensive attitude that Marinelli believes will be the engine that will drive the Lions to a championship run.

From 1996-2005, few teams were more synonymous with championship defense than the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. One of the key pieces during the Bucs' decade of defensive dominance was Rod Marinelli, who joined the staff as defensive line coach in 1996 and was promoted with the additional title of assistant head coach in 2002. Marinelli quickly developed a reputation as an innovative instructor in the finer points of technique, leverage and balance, while becoming one of the NFL's premier defensive line coaches.

During this 10-year period, the Buccaneers defensive line consistently proved to be one of the most respected units in the NFL. Perennial All-Pro and Pro Bowl defensive linemen Warren Sapp and Simeon Rice became two of the most dominating pass rushers in the modern era under Marinelli.

The success of Marinelli's defensive line was illustrated by the fact that the top six sack totals in Buccaneers' history all occurred during his tenure. In Marinelli's 10 years with the Buccaneers, the team recorded 416 sacks, with 328.5 coming courtesy of his defensive line. The 328.5 sacks registered by Marinelli's line rank first in the NFL among all defensive lines in those 10 seasons. Additionally, the Buccaneers' defensive front four garnered Top 5 rankings in sacks during six of the 10 seasons under Marinelli. Among individual leaders, a Tampa Bay defensive lineman has ranked in the league's Top 15 in sacks on eight occasions and in the Top 10 six times, including 14.0 sacks in 2005 by Rice (third in the NFL).

In addition to helping players achieve personal success, Marinelli, who has coached on the collegiate and pro levels for the last 31 seasons, has directed one of the most productive defensive line units in the NFL. Among the numerous defensive highlights, the defensive line played a major role in setting an NFL record for consecutive games with a sack (69) from 1999-03.

During the 2005 campaign, the defensive linemen were once again stalwarts on the team finishing as the league's top defensive unit. Tampa Bay finished sixth in both rushing and passing defense.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

By finishing at the top of the league in defense, the Buccaneers extended their streak of nine-straight seasons ranked in the Top 10 in total defense, dating back to 1997. The nine-year streak was the longest active streak prior to Marinelli being hired in Detroit and the second-longest streak since the 1970 merger. With a ranking of eighth in points allowed in 2005, the Buccaneers finished in the Top 10 in points allowed each season since Marinelli joined the Buccaneers staff in 1996.

In 2004, Marinelli's line paced a defense that finished fifth in the NFL in total defense and first in pass defense. The Buccaneers' 2004 season sack total of 45 tied for second in the NFL and was the second-highest total in team history behind the 55 sacks recorded by the Buccaneers' defense in 2000. Most impressively, the Buccaneers led the NFL in sacks per pass play, recording one sack every 10.7 pass plays.

In '04, Rice became only the 22nd player in NFL history to reach the 100-sack plateau and his 119.0 career sacks rank second among active players. Since joining forces with Marinelli in 2001, Rice was arguably the most dominating pass rusher in the NFL. Rice's 67.5 sacks from 2002-05 were tied for the most in the NFL, and led all active players with 33 career multi-sack games (18 as a member of the Bucs) after the 2005 season. His 67.5 sacks through 2005 and under the direction of Marinelli ranked him third on Tampa Bay's all-time sack list behind Sapp (77.0) and Lee Roy Selmon (78.5).

The 2003 season saw the Buccaneers' defensive line garner 31 of the team's 36 sacks. Rice earned his third-career and second consecutive Pro Bowl selection while totaling 15 sacks to tie for second in the NFL. His 15 sacks were the third-most in a single season in Bucs' history and the third-highest single-season total in his career. Rice's four-sack effort in Week 6 at Washington earned him NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors while also tying the franchise single-game sack record.

As one of the game's all-time great defensive tackles, Sapp anchored the interior of Marinelli's defensive line for the final time in 2003. Marinelli was instrumental in the development of Sapp, who set a Buccaneers single-season mark with 16.5 sacks in 2000. Sapp earned his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl nomination in 2003, and along with LB Derrick Brooks, broke Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's team record for total appearances (6) and consecutive appearances (6). His 5.0 sacks ranked second on the team, marking the eighth consecutive year under Marinelli that Sapp either led or ranked second on the team in sacks. In fact, Sapp averaged 9.3 sacks per season during his eight seasons under Marinelli and his 74.0 sacks tied for fifth in the NFL during that time and ranked second among defensive tackles.

Rice and Sapp were vital in Tampa Bay's success in 2002 as both garnered AP All-Pro first-team honors. Marinelli played a large role in the Buccaneers' first Super Bowl title, as his dominating front four helped to secure the Buccaneers' first-ever championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. The Buccaneers' defense posted 43 sacks in 2002, which tied for sixth in the NFL, with the defensive line responsible for 36 of the sacks. The line's strong 2002 campaign culminated with an unparalleled performance in the Super Bowl as Raiders quarterback Rich Gannon was pressured into throwing a Super Bowl-record five interceptions. The defensive line finished the Super Bowl with 5.0 sacks, four passes defended and a forced fumble.

In 2002 under Marinelli, Rice had arguably his most productive season as a professional as he was named to his second Pro Bowl and first with Tampa Bay. He finished the season first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 15.5 sacks. Rice also set a NFL single-season record by posting two or more sacks in five consecutive games and finished 2002 with a team-leading six forced fumbles. In Super Bowl XXXVII, Rice notched 2.0 sacks and five tackles while also dropping Gannon behind the line of scrimmage to thwart a Raiders' two-point conversion attempt. Sapp was named to his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (tying the club record for total appearances and consecutive appearances) while starting all 16 games. Sapp finished with 7.5 sacks, good for second on the team and tied for first in the NFC among defensive tackles. Sapp was first among defensive linemen with 78 tackles, while also notching a career-high two interceptions, along with a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and three passes defended.

In 2001, his unit was spearheaded by the efforts of Rice, who signed with the Buccaneers in the off-season. Despite the transition into a new defense, Rice led the team with 11.0 sacks in 2001.

The Buccaneers' defensive line wreaked havoc in opposing backfields during the 2000 season, yet another nod to Marinelli. His troops finished tied for second in the NFL after racking up a single-season record 55 sacks, 45.5 of which came courtesy of the team's front four. Sapp posted 16.5 sacks in 2000, breaking Lee Roy Selmon's single-season mark of 13.0 established in 1978. Sapp added a career-high 76 tackles, easing the transition for second-year McFarland, who posted 6.5 sacks. Marinelli also oversaw the development of defensive end Marcus Jones, who ripped through opposing defensive lines to record a career-high 13.0 sacks.

Sapp collected a then career-high 12.5 sacks in 1999, earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press and his third Pro Bowl berth. He became the first Buccaneer since Selmon (1979) to win the AP honor. Sapp's linemates also turned in outstanding seasons. Defensive tackle Brad Culpepper paced the line with 72 tackles and added 6.0 sacks, while first-year starter Steve White emerged as a force during Tampa Bay's playoff run. And Jones, who moved from tackle to end, collected 36 tackles and 7.0 sacks after posting just 32 stops and 1.0 sack in his three previous seasons.

In 1998, Marinelli's unit collected 37 sacks and ranked eighth in the league against the run. In 1997, Tampa Bay's defensive line racked up a club single-season record 44 sacks. That season, Sapp emerged as a bona fide star as the Buccaneers made their first playoff appearance in 15 years.

A veteran of 20 seasons as a college assistant coach, Marinelli came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 season as the defensive line coach at Southern California under John Robinson. From 1992-94, Marinelli was the assistant head coach/defensive line coach for head coach Bruce Snyder at Arizona State. In 1993, three of his starting linemen earned All-Pac 10 honors. Shante Carver was an All-American pick and was also a finalist for the Outland and Lombardi trophies before being selected in the first round of the draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

From 1983-91, Marinelli coached the defensive line at California, adding assistant head coach to his title for his final two seasons with the Golden Bears. Snyder became the school's head coach in 1987 and retained Marinelli. While at California, Marinelli coached several future NFL players including Chidi Ahanotu, Rhett Hall and Natu Tuatagaloa.

Marinelli's first college coaching job came in 1976 from Snyder, who was then the head coach at Utah State. From 1976-81, Marinelli oversaw the Aggies' defensive line before becoming Utah State's offensive line/special teams coach for the 1982 campaign. In six seasons as the defensive line coach for Utah State, three players (Rulon Jones, Mike Perko and Shawn Miller) won conference Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Marinelli began his coaching career at his alma mater, Rosemead High School in San Gabriel Valley, Calif., from 1973-75 where he also taught history. In June 2007, Rosemead High School honored Marinelli by renaming the school's football field "Rod Marinelli Stadium".

That honor goes beyond just a name on the stadium, but it immortalizes Marinelli's appreciation for high school football and what it means to him. Marinelli always understands the value that teachers and coaches have on young kids, and he knows that neither he nor his players would be at this level today without someone who made an impact on them. With that in mind, Marinelli, on June 8 of this year, took his team to Detroit Renaissance High School for its final "OTA" session of the spring. He invited high school players and coaches from the Detroit Public Schools as special guests, and met with the group following the team's workout.

"You take a moment to give thanks and to be grateful because each and every one of our players, our coaches, our staff – all of us have a story about how somebody affected our lives in a very positive and meaningful way," Marinelli said.

"And if you had a chance to play high school football or high school sports, you really know what I mean by that. A teacher, a coach, somebody affects your life because we're not all here by ourselves. We didn't do it by ourselves. We all had someone help us along the way. I believe that.

"So it (the practice at Renaissance High) gave us a chance to give some thanks and gratitude to all the coaches and teachers who have played and continue to play such an important role in the lives of high school student-athletes.

"I believe that high school teachers and coaches are two of the greatest resources in our country, so it's important to express our appreciation for the tremendous work they do with our young people."

Marinelli's college playing career was split due to a one-year tour of duty in Vietnam. In 1968, he played offensive and defensive tackle at Utah. After his service in the military, he attended California Lutheran from 1970-72, earning NAIA All-America honors as an offensive tackle in '72. Marinelli earned his bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in history from California Lutheran.

Born in Rosemead, Calif., Rod and his wife, Barbara, have two daughters, Chris and Gina. Chris is married to Joe Barry, the Lions defensive coordinator. Marinelli also has two granddaughters and two grandsons.

JOE BARRY DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Years in NFL: 8

Joe Barry, one of the NFL's bright, young defensive coaches, was hired January 3, 2007 as the team's defensive coordinator. He previously spent six seasons as the linebackers coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

During his tenure with Tampa Bay, Barry helped the Buccaneers defense to a Top-5 NFL ranking four times, including the top-overall ranking in 2002 and 2005. Linebackers under Barry were named to the Pro Bowl seven times, including LB Derrick Brooks (2001-06 seasons) and LB Shelton Quarles (2002 season), during his six seasons. Additionally, Brooks was named the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year in Barry's second season as the team's linebackers coach.

In 2002, Barry was a member of the Bucs' coaching staff that led Tampa Bay to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII, the franchise's first world championship.

The Buccaneers linebacking corps proved to be a consistent strength of the Bucs' vaunted defense from 2001-06. During his six-year tenure, Tampa Bay tied for the most interception returns for touchdowns by linebackers (7) in the NFL and tied for sixth-most interceptions by linebackers with 23. From 2001-06, the Buccaneers allowed the second-lowest yards per game average (285.7), the least passing yards per game (177.2) and the least rushing touchdowns (51). They had the second-best points per game average (17.4) and the ninth-best rushing yards per game (108.5). In 2002, the Buccaneers defense allowed a league-low 11.3 points per game, the fifth-lowest tally during a 16-game schedule (since 1978).

From 2001-05, Tampa Bay ranked in the Top-6 in overall defense each season, and the club was in the Top-6 in passing defense, including the top-ranked passing defense in 2002 and 2004. For those five seasons, Tampa Bay allowed the lowest tally of yards per game (277.0), lowest passing yards per game (170.7), lowest points per game allowed (16.5) and the seventh-lowest rushing yards per game (106.3).

Also notable in the Bucs' defensive success is that Tampa Bay tied for the most shutouts (5) in the NFL between 2002-06.

In 2005, the linebacking corps under Barry's direction was critical in Tampa Bay claiming its second NFC South division title in four years (2002 and 2005). The group, led by perennial All-Pro Brooks, helped the Bucs' defense rank first in the NFL for the second time in four years. It marked the ninth consecutive year the defense finished among the NFL's Top-10, tied for the second-longest streak in the league since 1970. The defensive unit also ranked sixth in the league in pass defense, which was the ninth time since 1996, including five straight, that the defense has finished in the Top-10 in that category. Additionally, the Tampa Bay run defense ranked in the Top-10 in 2005, finishing the season ranked sixth against the run.

Since Brooks began working with Barry in 2001, Brooks has earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors (2002), garnered six-straight Pro Bowl appearances (2002-2007) and received AP All-Pro first or second team honors five times (2001-2005). Additionally, Brooks has led the team in tackles in five of his six seasons with Barry.

In 2002, Brooks, in addition to his NFL Defensive Player of the Year honor, earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He was selected to the AP All-Pro first-team for the third time in his career as he led the defense in tackles (170). While his defensive leadership and sure tackling were consistently evident in 2002, it was his penchant for finding the end zone that routinely separated him as he recorded three interception returns for touchdowns, making him the only linebacker in NFL history to ever accomplish such a feat. He also added a fumble return for a touchdown. Brooks' four touchdowns on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He again found the end zone in the win against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, intercepting a Rich Gannon pass and returning it 44 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter to secure the Buccaneers' first Super Bowl title.

Quarles has also had an impressive six-year stretch under Barry. He earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2002 as he totaled a then career-high 159 tackles in his first season as the starter at middle linebacker after moving over from his starting spot at strongside linebacker. Quarles arguably proved to be Tampa Bay's most versatile defender over the past six seasons while playing at all three linebacker positions for Barry. In 2005, starting alongside Brooks for the seventh consecutive season, Quarles became the first player other than Brooks to lead the team in tackles since 1997, ending Brooks' impressive seven-year run. Quarles finished with a career-high 196 tackles.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers in 2001, Barry spent the 2000 season as defensive quality control coach for the San Francisco 49ers and the 1999 season coaching linebackers under John Robinson at UNLV. Before that, he worked with linebackers and defensive ends at Northern Arizona for three seasons from 1996-98.

Barry was a two-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Southern Cal and then worked as a defensive graduate assistant for two seasons (1994-95) at USC. He served as a co-captain during his senior year in 1993. Barry began his college playing career at Michigan from 1989-90 where he was recruited and played for legendary head coach Bo Schembechler.

Barry's father, Mike, is currently the assistant offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions. His father-in-law, Rod Mannelli, was the assistant head coach for the Buccaneers and also coached the defensive line from 1996-2005 seasons before being named the Lions head coach in January 2006.

During the 2002 and 2005 offseasons, Barry was selected by Buccaneers Head Coach Jon Gruden to attend the NFL's Coaches Career Development Symposium. In 2003, Barry lent his coaching knowledge to "NFL 101," a program that educates women on the terminology, formations, strategy and basics of football.

Barry and his wife, Chris, have two daughters, Camryn and Lauren, and twin sons Nickolas and Samuel.

STAN KWAN SPECIAL TEAMS

Years in NFL: 17

Stan Kwan is entering his eighth overall season with the Detroit Lions. He was named the Lions special teams coordinator following the retirement of Chuck Priefer. Kwan worked with Priefer for 12 seasons, five with the San Diego Chargers (1992-96) and seven in Detroit (1997-00, 2004-06).

In 2006, Kwan helped coach a special teams unit that had the NFC's second-best punt return average (11.3) and third best net punting average (38.2) and gross punting average (45.0).

Kwan spent three seasons (2001-03) with the Arizona Cardinals as special teams assistant/defensive quality control before returning to Detroit prior to the 2004 season. Throughout his pro coaching career, Kwan has served in a variety of support roles including designing computer diagrams of plays, compiling both offensive and defensive playbooks, breaking down of special teams film, providing statistical analysis on the league and college combine testing.

Kwan's career in the NFL originally began in 1991 in the Chargers organization.

For three years, Kwan played baseball at San Diego State

Prior to matriculating to San Diego State, Kwan spent one year at South Mountain Community College in Phoenix where he was the first freshman to be named captain of the baseball team.

He attended Phoenix Camelback High School where he set school career records for batting average, runs scored, stolen bases, on-base percentage and walks. In his junior year, Camelback was the top-ranked team in the state and was ranked 16th in the nation. He earned all-state honors twice as a shortstop and doubled as the school's quarterback where he set the school single-game passing record (327 yards).

MIKE MARTZ OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Years in NFL: 16

Mike Martz returns for his second season as the Lions' offensive coordinator. In his first season with Detroit, the Lions finished seventh in the NFL in passing offense after the team finished no better than 23rd in the four previous seasons and 26th in 2005 (23rd in 2004, 24th in 2003 and 25th in 2002). The team's 3,820 net passing yards in 2006 were the second-most in franchise history.

In 2006, Martz guided veteran signal-caller Jon Kitna as he threw for 4,208 passing yards and became the second Lions' quarterback to throw for 4,000 yards in a season. Kitna finished first in the NFL in completions (373) and second in attempts (596), both franchise single-season records. He was the only passer in 2006 and first since QB Kurt Warner in 2001, under Martz's tutelage, to throw for 200 yards in 15 games. His 62.58 completion percentage was the second-highest single-season tally in team history.

The quarterback spot was not the only position that was greatly improved under Martz's offense, but the team wide receivers also proved quite productive. Roy Williams and Mike Furrey became the first Detroit receiver tandem to each record over 1,000 yards since 1999, and Williams led the NFC in receiving yards (1,310) and Furrey led the NFC in receptions (98).

In the backfield, RB Kevin Jones had his most complete season prior to his injury in Game 12. Jones added a career-high 61 receptions, the second most by a Lions' running back in team history, to his hard-nosed rushing, and he was as effective as a blocker in the passing game. His 61-catch season more than doubled his previous career high of 28 catches in 2004.

At tight end, Dan Campbell helped the team stretch the field by leading the league in average yards per receptions among tight ends with 14.7 (minimum 20 receptions), and a career-high nine receptions of his 21 went for at least 20 yards.

With Williams playing in last year's Pro Bowl, a wide receiver playing under Martz when he was either a position coach, coordinator or head coach has been named to the Pro Bowl 10 times.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

Martz brought to Detroit an offensive philosophy and system that are not only benchmarks in the NFL, but were catalysts for the St. Louis Rams' five playoff appearances in six years, four 10-win seasons, three division titles, two Super Bowl appearances and one world championship (Super Bowl XXXIV).

When Martz re-joined the Rams organization as offensive coordinator in 1999, the Rams began one of the most impressive turnarounds in the history of the league. Between 1998 and 1999, St. Louis went from 4-12 to 13-3 and from last place in the NFC West to Super Bowl champions. Offensively, the Rams went from 27th overall (29th in rushing and 22nd in passing) to the best offensive unit in '99 (fifth in rushing and first in passing). Since that season, the Rams offense, dubbed "The Greatest Show on Turf," has reigned as one of the most successful offenses in recent history.

As a team, the Rams offense scored 526 points in '99, which is the fourth-best in NFL history, and accumulated a 17.8 margin of victory, which was third-best since 1950. The following season, they set a franchise record (third-best in NFL history) with 540 points. After scoring 503 points in 2001, St. Louis became the first NFL team to score at least 500 points in three straight seasons.

Martz has the highest career points scored per game for any head coach in NFL history with 26.5 points per game (85 games). His record as a head coach when his team has a lead in the fourth quarter is a remarkable 55-5 (.917), the highest among head coaches since the 1970 merger.

Indicative of Martz's coaching abilities was the dawn of QB Kurt Warner's career, which would include two NFL MVP awards and one Super Bowl MVP award. Prior to his arrival in St. Louis, Warner played in one game and had career passing tallies of 4-of-11 for 39 yards and a 47.2 rating. In '99, Warner emerged as one of the league's stars as he accumulated gaudy totals of 499 attempts, 325 completions, a 65.1 completion percentage, 4,353 yards, 41 touchdowns and a 109.2 passing rating. Warner's passing rating is the seventh-highest single-season rating for a quarterback in league history.

Overall, St. Louis was in the Top-10 in total offense five times over a six-year span from 1999-2004, and ranked first three-straight years (1999-2001). The Rams are one of only six teams in NFL history to lead the league three-consecutive seasons in total offense and the first to do so since San Diego from 1980-83.

From 1999-2001, St. Louis led the league in average yards per play three-straight seasons (6.45 in 1999, 6.98 in 2000 and 6.64 in 2001), and the Rams accumulated a 6.69 yards per play average over those three seasons, which was the highest in the NFL and the only average above 6.00.

From 1999-2004, Martz's passing offense did not rank below fifth in the league, and it was first from 1999-2001. In 1999 and 2001, the team's rushing units were the fifth-best in the NFL in those respective seasons.

Over that six-year span, Martz's unit was ranked high in several key offensive categories. Over those six season seasons, St. Louis ranked first in net offensive yards-per-game (386.1), net yards-per-offensive play (7.12), scrimmage yards (rushing and gross passing)-per-game (404.3), scrimmage yards-per-combined rushes and receptions (8.4), 20+-yard plays (469), gross passing yards-per-game (295.4) and yards-per-pass attempt (8.14).

During Martz's six full seasons ('99-04), the Rams ranked first in the NFL in points-per-game (27.6), net points differential (+576) and team touchdowns (316). Additionally, St. Louis garnered the second-highest passing rating (92.1), and was one of only three teams (Indianapolis, 96.7 and Minneapolis, 91.0) with a passing rating over 90.0 in that six-year span.

Martz's offensive philosophy, focusing on his ideal that "this is a game of speed and attitude," not only exists in passing the football, but also emphasizes the running game as a vital element to offensive production. As offensive coordinator in '99, Martz's rushing attack ranked second in the league with a 4.8 yards-per-rush average, and RB Marshall Faulk finished the year ranked fifth in the league with 1,381 yards and had the best yards-per-rush average (5.5). Between 1998 and 1999, the Rams went from an 86.6 rushing yards-per-game average to 128.7, and rushing average of 3.5 to 4.8.

From 1999-2004, the Rams scored the third-most rushing touchdowns in the league with 100. In Martz's first three seasons (1999-2001), St. Louis tallied the most rushing touchdowns (59) and garnered the best yards-per-rush average (4.82) during that three-year period.

The Rams earned three-consecutive NFL MVP awards (Warner, 1999 and 2001, Faulk, 2000), which was the first time in NFL history that one team had the outright winner in three-straight seasons. Faulk became only the second player (after Houston RB Earl Campbell from 1978-80) to be honored with the NFL Offensive Player of the Year award three-straight seasons (1999-2001).

For five-straight seasons (2000-04) under Martz, WR Torry Holt recorded 1,300 receiving yards becoming the first receiver in NFL history with five-straight 1,300-yards seasons. When combined with Roy Williams' 06 1,300-yard season and when Isaac Bruce accomplished this feat in 1995-96 and 2000, Martz's receivers have registered 1,300 yards in a single season an extraordinary 10 times.

Martz's 2005 season as the Rams head coach was cut short when he missed the last 11 games due to a heart ailment. During his five full seasons (2000-04) as the Rams head coach, Martz accumulated a record of 51-29 (.638) in the regular season and 54-33 (.621) overall. Only five coaches in NFL history have more regular season wins in their first five seasons. Prior to the 2005 season, Martz had the fourth-best regular season record among active coaches. His 24 wins during his first two seasons (2000-01) is the third-highest in NFL history, and his 43 regular season wins during his first four seasons as head coach is tied for the third-highest in league history.

Martz began preparing for his coaching opportunity at San Diego's Madison High in the 1960s. He spent many Saturday nights at San Diego Stadium watching Don Coryell's San Diego State offensive powerhouses and Sunday afternoons watching Sid Gillman's offensively creative San Diego Chargers.

Martz is a Summa Cum Laude graduate of Fresno State, where he played tight end in 1972. He was a tight end at the University of California-Santa Barbara in 1971 and transferred to Fresno when UCSB dropped football. Martz also played two seasons at San Diego Mesa Community College. Martz was sophomore class president at Mesa Community College.

Martz's first coaching appointment was at Bullard High School in Fresno, California, in 1973. He also coached at San Diego Mesa (1974, 1976-77), San Jose State (1975), Santa Ana College in Santa Ana, California (1978), Fresno State (1979), University of the Pacific (1980-81), and Minnesota (1982). He was quarterbacks and receivers coach at Arizona State from 1983-87 and was the Sun Devils' offensive coordinator in 1984 and from 1988-91.

Martz was born in Sioux Falls, S.D., and moved to San Diego at the age of eight. Martz and his wife, Julie, have three sons, Chris, David, and Tim, and a daughter, Emily. Tim is currently serving on the Lions coaching staff as an offensive quality control coach.

Jason Arapoff enters his seventh season directing the Lions' strength and conditioning program. His primary role is to oversee the physical fitness of all Lions' players.

Focusing equally on the off-season regimen and the regular season program, Arapoff utilizes high-end cardiovascular strength training and free weight equipment in the team's state-of-the-art facility. His hands-on training techniques emphasize a balance of muscular strength and cardiovascular fitness, and are underscored by a comprehensive, personalized approach to each athlete. He also has introduced a shift toward more football-specific activities that encompass high-intensity protocols to train the entire body.

Arapoff arrived in Detroit prior to the 2001 season with 13 years of experience with the Washington Redskins. While serving as the team's conditioning director for nine years, he was instrumental Mike Barry will assist with the offensive line for his second year in Detroit. He returned to the professional coaching ranks prior to the 2006 season after spending two decades coaching offensive linemen at the collegiate level. Barry also coached with the New Orleans/Portland Breakers (1984-85) and the San Antonio Gunslingers (1984) of the USFL.

Before joining the Lions, Barry spent three seasons (2003-05) as the offensive line coach at North Carolina State, where he coached Sean Locklear (2003) who started at right tackle for the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL. He helped Locklear become the first Wolfpack offensive lineman since 1992 to earn first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors as a senior.

Barry also had coaching stints at Tennessee, Southern California, Colorado, Iowa State, Arizona and Southern Illinois. He has coached in 14 bowl games and won the National Championship with the Buffaloes in 1990 and the Volunteers in 1998. Twelve of the linemen Barry has coached have played in the NFL, including current linemen: Locklear, Chad Clifton (Green Bay), Cosey Coleman (Cleveland) and Fred Weary (Houston).

As a collegiate player, Barry was a center at Nebraska (1964-66) and at Southern Illinois (1966-69). After three seasons with the Salukis, he graduated with a degree in recreation and education

Kippy Brown enters his second season as the Lions receivers' coach. In his first season, Detroit's top two receivers combined for 180 receptions and 2,396 yards, more than doubling the output of the Lions' top two receivers in 2005. WR Roy Williams, who led the NFC with a career-high 1,310 receiving yards, was the second receiver coached by Brown in the past three seasons to be named a Pro Bowl. He also coached the conference's receptions leader in Mike Furrey (98 receptions for 1,082 yards). It was the first time since 1999 that two Lions receivers finished with over 1,000 yards.

Before coming to Detroit, Brown spent four seasons as the Houston Texans wide receivers coach. Among his pupils in Texas was WR Andre Johnson, who was taken by Houston with the third overall pick in the 2003 draft. He became the first Texans offensive player to earn a trip to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was selected to the Pro Bowl for his outstanding 2004 season that included club records of 79 receptions for 1,129 yards.

Brown was the head coach of the NFL's Memphis Maniax prior to being hired by the Texans. He also has served as the Green Bay Packers running backs coach (2000) where he helped guide Pro Bowl RB Ahmad Green to his first-career 1,000-yard season.

From 1996-99, Brown was on Jimmy Johnson's Miami Dolphins coaching staff, where he was the offensive coordinator from 1998-99 and the running backs coach from 1996-97. As the team's offensive coordinator (98-99), the Dolphins appeared in the playoffs both seasons and recorded first-round wins in each season. In 1996, Brown helped RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar become the first Dolphins running back to reach 1,000 yards in 18 years, and in 1997 Abdul-Jabbar tied a league-high 15 rushing touchdowns.

In 1995, Brown was the running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He served two seasons as the assistant head coach

In 1991, the Jets ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing and advanced to the playoffs for the first time in five seasons.

Brown's first stint at Tennessee was from 1983-89 as wide receivers coach. Among players he coached during that time were Anthony Miller, Tim McGee, Alvin Harper and Carl Pickens. Prior to his arrival, he was the wide receivers coach at Louisville in 1982 where he coached future Dolphins great Mark Clayton. Brown's coaching career began at the University of Memphis State, where he coached the wide receivers from 1979-80 and the running backs in 1978. Brown was a starter at Memphis State at quarterback, and graduated from MSU in 1977 with a degree in communications.

Pat Carter enters his second season with Head Coach Rod Marinelli's coaching staff. He returned to Detroit as the Lions' tight ends coach in 2006 after originally being drafted as a tight end out of Florida State by the Lions in the second round (32nd overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Before joining the Lions staff, Carter served as an offensive assistant for Lions Offensive Coordinator Mike Martz in St. Louis

DON CLEMONS

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Years in NFL: 23

Don Clemons enters his 23rd season with the Lions in 2007. Rod Marinelli is the eighth head coach he has worked for while in Detroit. He served on the staffs of Dick Jauron (final five games of 2005), Steve Mariucci (2003-05), Marty Mornhinweg (2001-02), Gary Moeller (final seven games of 2000), Bobby Ross (1997-00), Wayne Fontes (1989-96) and Darryl Rogers (1985-88). At one time or another Clemons has coached every position on defense. He has also served as the team's strength coach.

His first coaching experience was at Kutztown State (Pa.) where he spent two seasons (1977-78) as outside linebackers coach. He then coached one year at New Mexico State (1979) before joining Rogers at Arizona State for five seasons.

Clemons earned an English degree from Muhlenberg (Pa.).

Years in NFL: 7

Jim Colletto became the Lions new offensive line coach January 29, 2007. He has 40 years of combined experience coaching in college and the NFL, and he spent last season as the offensive line coach for UCLA. The Bruins' offensive line allowed only 21 sacks and cleared the way for a rushing attack that averaged 129.8 yards-per-game.

In 2005, Colletto was the offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders. Prior to joining the Raiders, he coached the offensive line for the Baltimore Ravens for six seasons (1999-2004). Colletto's offensive line helped Baltimore capture the NFL rushing title in 2003 with 2,669 yards (nearly 170 yards per game) and enabled RB Jamal Lewis to record the second-best rushing total in NFL history (2,066 yards) and become the fifth running back in league annals to eclipse 2,000 yards. His offensive line helped the Ravens break the team rushing record twice, first in 2000 when they won Super Bowl XXXV and again in 2003. Overall, Baltimore averaged over 4.0 yards per carry in five of Colletto's six seasons as their offensive line coach.

Among Colletto's 33 years of experience on the collegiate level are 11 as a head coach - six at Purdue (1991-96) and five at Cal State Fullerton (1975-79). In his six years at Purdue, the Boilermakers rushed for at least 1,900 yards on five occasions and accounted for over 4,000 yards total offense in each of his final four years.

One of the Boilermakers' standouts during Colletto's tenure was FB Mike Altstott, who is a six-time Pro Bowler. Altstott set school records in career rushing yards (3,635), single-season rushing yards (1,436 in 1995), career rushing touchdowns (39), career total touchdowns (42), career all-purpose yards (4,710) and he is the only player in school history to rush for over 2,500 yards and registered over 1,000 receiving yards.

Colletto spent 17 seasons as an offensive coordinator, including his six as head coach at Purdue. In two years (1997-98) at Notre Dame, the Fighting Irish offense generated over 8,500 yards of total offense and appeared in two bowl games. He also served as offensive coordinator for three years (1988-90) at Ohio State (two bowls), three years (1985-87) at Arizona State (three bowls, including one Rose Bowl) and three years (1982-84) at Purdue (one bowl). During the 1984 season, he was on a Boilers staff that led the program to victories over Notre Dame, Michigan and Ohio State and became the only team in school history to defeat each of those rivals in the same season.

While at Arizona State, Colletto worked with current Lions Offensive Coordinator Mike Martz, who was the Sun Devils' quarterbacks and receivers coach, for each of his three seasons (1985-87) as their offensive coordinator.

Colletto also served stints as offensive line coach at UCLA (1967-68 and 1980-81), Brown (1969), Xavier of Ohio (1970-71) and Pacific (1972-74).

Colletto played both football and baseball at UCLA, where he was an all-league defensive end and captain of the Bruin team that beat Michigan State in the 1966 Rose Bowl. He led the Bruins in rushing as a sophomore fullback in 1963. In baseball, he was a two-time all-league selection, posted a .306 career batting average and was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000.

Born in San Francisco, Calif., Colletto attended high school in Monterey and earned his bachelor's of science degree from UCLA in 1967. He and his wife, Suzanne, have three children: Dawn, Dan and Patrick.

Years in NFL: 2

Joe Cullen enters his second season as the Lions defensive line coach. Before joining Marinelli's defensive staff, he coached in the collegiate ranks for nearly two decades. In 2005, he worked with Illinois' defense after spending the previous three seasons (2002-04) as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Indiana.

Cullen was part of a Hoosiers staff in 2004 that led the program to two wins over Top 25 ranked teams (Oregon and Wisconsin), a first for the Indiana program since 1988.

Among Cullen's other coaching stops are Memphis (2001), Richmond (1992-98, 2000), Louisiana State (1999) and Massachusetts (1990-91).

One of Cullen's strongest defensive units was with Richmond during the 2000 season. That defense ranked fourth in the I-AA in run defense and 15th in scoring defense while playing the toughest schedule in I-AA. The Spiders defense helped them to a school-best 10-3 record and a quarterfinal berth in the 2000 NCAA I-AA playoffs.

Gash was an eighth round draft choice (205th overall) of the New England Patriots in the 1992 NFL Draft. He appeared in 177 regular season games and also played in 11 post-season games. Gash was versatile as both a rusher and receiver at the fullback position, and he was active on various special teams units throughout his career.

At Penn State, Gash was the top fullback as a junior and senior. He served as offensive captain as a senior and had a career-high 391 rushing yards and three touchdowns on 87 carries. As a junior, Gash started every game and posted 315 yards and five scores on 95 carries. He earned his undergraduate degree in liberal arts with an emphasis in speech communication, marketing and management.

He and his wife, Alicia, have a daughter, Samantha, and sons Kolby, Elijah and Isaiah.

SHAWN JEFFERSON ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS

Years in NFL: 3

Shawn Jefferson is in his third season coaching with the Lions. He was named assistant wide receivers coach following the 2006 campaign. He has worked with the team's wide receivers the past two seasons, as a coaching intern in 2005 and as an offensive assistant last season. Jefferson spent the 2003 season with the Lions as a player and brings 13 years of NFL playing experience to the club.

In 2006, Jefferson worked alongside Kippy Brown and helped WR Roy Williams to a NFC leading and career-high 1,310 receiving yards. He also worked with the NFC's receptions leader Mike Furrey (98 receptions for 1,082 yards). It was the first time since 1999 that two Lions receivers finished with over 1,000 yards.

In addition to his time with the Lions as a player, Jefferson spent Martz graduated from Western Illinois with a bachelor's degree with an individual studies degree focusing on sports law and sports management.

WILBERT MONTGOMERY

RUNNING BACKS

Years in NFL: 11

Wilbert Montgomery is in his second season with Detroit. In his first season with the Lions, he helped Kevin Jones emerge as one of the NFL's more versatile running backs. Jones was fourth amongst NFL running backs with 61 receptions before being put on the reserve/injured list. He was also sixth in the NFC with 1,209 total yards from scrimmage (689 rushing, 520 receiving).

Before coming to Detroit, Montgomery had spent nine years with the St. Louis Rams, where he began his NFL coaching career. He spent six seasons (1997-99, 2003-05) coaching the Rams' running backs and three seasons (2000-02) coaching tight ends. He has worked with Lions Offensive Coordinator Mike Martz since he joined the Rams in 1999.

In 2004, Montgomery helped rookie RB Steven Jackson finish third amongst NFL rookies with 673 rushing yards and four touchdowns on 134 attempts (5.0 avg). Jackson finished the 2005 season with 1,046 yards and eight touchdowns on 254 attempts (4.1 avg) while emerging as one of the bright young stars in the NFL under Montgomery's tutelage.

With the arrival of RB Marshall Faulk in 1999, Montgomery coached his first Pro Bowl running back. Faulk finished with an NFL-record 2,429 combined yards-from-scrimmage and was named the NFL Offensive Player of the Year while helping the Rams' win their first world championship in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Montgomery was a running back in the NFL for nine seasons after being drafted by Philadelphia in the sixth round (154 overall) of the 1977 draft. After playing eight seasons (1977-84) with the Eagles, he holds seven franchise records, including career attempts (1,465), rushing yards (6,538), attempts in a season (338 in 1979), rushing yards in a season (1,512 in 1979), career 100-yard rushing games (26), 100-yard rushing games in a season (8 in 1981) and most touchdowns in a game (4). Montgomery led the NFL in combined yards-from-scrimmage (2,012) in 1979 and was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl. He finished his playing career with the Lions in 1985. In 1987 Montgomery was inducted into the inaugural Philadelphia Eagles Honor Roll.

ADMINISTRATION AND COACHING

At Abilene Christian University, Montgomery was a four-year starter at running back and set the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics record for career touchdowns with 76. He also broke the record for touchdowns by a freshman with 37 and helped lead the Wildcats to the NAIA Division I National Championship in 1973.

A native of Greenville, Miss., Montgomery is one of four brothers (Fred, Cleotha and Tyrone) who played in the NFL. He and wife Patti have three children, twins Briana and Brendan, and a son, Tavian. Montgomery also has a daughter, Sherrita, and a son, Derron.

FRED REED

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Years in NFL: 2

Fred Reed was hired by Head Coach Rod Marinelli as defensive assistant prior to the 2006 season. He joined the Lions coaching staff after a season coaching cornerbacks for Ohio University (2005) and five seasons at Nebraska-Omaha (2000-04), the final two years as defensive coordinator and linebackers/safeties coach.

During his only season with the Bobcats, Reed helped senior cornerback Dion Byrum (Carolina Panthers) emerge as one of the best defensive backs in college football. Under Reed's tutelage, Byrum earned All-American honors from the American Football Coaches Association and first-team All-MAC after finishing tied for first in the conference and second nationally with six interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns.

In five seasons at University of Nebraska-Omaha, Reed helped the Mavericks capture the 2000 and 2004 North Central Conference championships. In 2004, his last season as the Mavericks' defensive coordinator, they finished second in the NCC in total defense and scoring defense and ranked first in takeaways while three linebackers were selected to the All-North Central Conference team. Reed's 2003 unit led the league and finished fifth in Division II in takeaways and had two players named All-NCC.

Reed originally joined Nebraska-Omaha's coaching staff as a graduate assistant where he coached wide receivers (1995). He rejoined the UNO staff in 2000 as its secondary coach and also Reed started his career as secondary coach at South Dakota in 1994. He also coached the secondary for a season at Minnesota Morris (1996). In 1993, Reed earned his bachelor's degree in recreation management from Mesa State College where he played free safety from 1991-92. He earned his master's in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 2002. Reed and his wife, LaShannon, have twins, Amare and Khamara.

CEDRIC SAUNDERS

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Years in NFL: 9

Cedric Saunders is in his second year with the team, and he was promoted to director of football operations following the 2006 season. He came to Detroit after spending the previous five seasons with Tampa Bay. Saunders works with Head Coach Rod Marinelli in organizing the team's football operations and calendar.

Among the key football areas he coordinates include: operations for training camp, mini-camps, off-season programs and budgets for player development and coaching.

Saunders oversees the Lions' player development department in addition to serving as a liaison between the head coach and players, strength and conditioning, athletic training and football support staffs. He also plays a role in the coordination of the team's free agency agenda and college and pro talent evaluation.

While directing the player development department in Tampa Bay, Saunders helped get players involved in continuing education programs, off-season internships and jobs to prepare for possible post-NFL careers. He was also the main contact between the players and the club's community relations department and encouraged player involvement in charities and community activities.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Saunders spent the previous two seasons as an area scout for the Kansas City Chiefs, evaluating college talent in the Midwest. A native of Sarasota, Fla., Saunders was in training camp for three seasons with Tampa Bay (1994-96), and saw action on both the practice squad and active roster in 1995 as a tight end and special teams player. He also played with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1997.

A four-year starter at Ohio State, Saunders posted 68 career receptions for 853 yards for the Buckeyes. He recorded 27 catches and earned second-team All-Big 10 honors as a senior in 1993 and was an honorable mention selection as a junior.

Saunders and his wife, Bashi, have two daughters, Reagan and Charlie Bleu, and two sons, Cayden and Kai.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

PHIL SNOW LINEBACKERS

Years in NFL: 3

Phil Snow will coach the Lions' linebacker corps again this season. He was promoted to linebackers coach prior to last season after working as a defensive assistant on the Detroit coaching staff in 2005. In 2006, Snow was vital in the development of rookie LB Ernie Sims who finished second among all NFL defensive rookies with 123 tackles.

Prior to joining the Lions in 2005, he spent the previous two seasons with the University of Washington Huskies, the last as their defensive coordinator. During his coaching career, he spent 17 seasons in the Pac-10 Conference.

Before joining the Huskies for the 2003 season, Snow was the defensive coordinator at UCLA for two seasons where his defense was the conference's best unit in total defense during the 2001 season. That defense featured LB Robert Thomas, who was drafted in the first round of the 2002 NFL Draft by St. Louis. Thomas started at middle linebacker for the Rams for three seasons (2002-04).

Snow spent nine seasons at Arizona State (1992-2000) as the defensive coordinator. During his tenure he coached current NFL starters, S Adam Archuleta and LB Terrell Suggs. The Sun Devils' defensive units ranked among the top three in scoring defense in the Pac-10 in three of his last five seasons. In 2000, Arizona State's defense ranked first in the nation in fumbles recovered and third in forced turnovers. Also among his star pupils at ASU was the late Pat Tillman.

For five seasons at California (1987-91), Snow coached the secondary and helped the Golden Bears win their first back-to-back Snow began his coaching career at Berkely (Calif.) High School in 1976, and he also coached two seasons (1977-78) at Winters (Calif.) High School. He entered the college ranks in 1979 when he joined the coaching staff at Laney (Calif.) College.

He attended Sacramento City College (1974-75) and Cal State Hayward (1977-78) where he earned his bachelor's degree in physical education. He and his wife, Debbie, have two sons, Phillip and Jacob.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

SHELDON WHITE DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Years with Lions: 11

Sheldon White begins his eighth season as Director of Pro Personnel. During his first three years in the Lions' personnel department, White fulfilled a myriad of roles: in 1997 as the team's BLESTO area scout, in 1998 as an area scout and in 1999 working in both the college and pro scouting areas.

While managing the pro personnel side of the team's scouting department, White is responsible for evaluating and scouting current Lions and NFL players, as well as NFL Europe. He plays a key role in free agency and assists in the draft. White is also involved in some salary cap issues, negotiating contracts for selected draft choices from Rounds 2-7 and selected free agents, and he handles the budgeting for the pro scouting department.

In 2004, White completed the NFL's career development program at Stanford's Graduate School of Business.

White, a Lions' defensive back from 1990-92, initially re-joined the organization in '97 as a BLESTO scout after coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio) from 1994-96. That post followed a six-year NFL playing career in which White also saw action for the New York Giants in 1988-89 and the Cincinnati Bengals in 1993.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, White was a four-year starter at Miami (Ohio) from 1984-87, and was named to their first team All-Century team. He earned first-team All-MAC honors in 1986-87 and served as a key contributor to the Redskins' MAC title in '86.

In 1988, he was selected by the Giants in the third round of the NFL Draft, and was named to the All-NFL Rookie team by College & Pro Football Weekly. White was also named the team's Rookie of the Year after leading the club with four interceptions. Following a two-year stint in New York, White signed with the Lions. He played three seasons in Detroit and was a member of the 1991 team that won the NFC Central title and advanced to the NFC Championship game. White then signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Bengals, where he spent the '93 campaign, before entering the coaching ranks at Miami (Ohio) in 1994.

In July 2004, White began serving as a member of the Business Advisory Council Executive Committee of the Richard T. Farmer School of Business at his alma mater, Miami University.

White is a graduate of Miami with a bachelor's degree in business administration, majoring in finance. He and his wife, Amy, have four children: sons, Sheldon II, Jordan and Cody, and a daughter, Lacy.

ADMINISTRATION AND COACHING

SCOTT McEWEN
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Years with Lions: 21

Scott McEwen is now in his 21st season working in the Lions' personnel department. He manages the college side of the team's scouting department, and he is a key cog in the team's evaluation of college players throughout the country. McEwen plays an integral role in the team's planning and preparation for the annual college selection meeting.

McEwen is the team's elder statesman among the members of the player personnel department, having been a member of the scouting staff for the longest period of time. He originally joined the organization in 1987.

A 1980 graduate of West Liberty State (W.V.), McEwen began his tenure with the Lions as an area scout after spending two seasons working for the BLESTO Scouting Service. Prior to his scouting career, the East McKeesport, Pa., native served as the defensive line coach at his alma mater from 1980-81, and later coached four seasons at Duquesne University (Pittsburgh, Pa.).

McEwen and his wife, Colleen, reside in Pittsburgh, Pa., and have four sons: Scott Jr., Matthew, Patrick and Michael.

DAVE BOLLER
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Years with Lions: 1

Dave Boller arrives in Detroit as one of the newest members of the team's player personnel department. He will be working with pro personnel scouting the entire league, and Boller will be heavily involved in the team's free agency preparations and player transactions.

Boller joins the Lions following three seasons with the St. Louis Rams as a scout in the Rams' organization. Previous to his stint in St. Louis, he spent six years with the Philadelphia Eagles. He began his NFL tenure in 1995 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

From 1985-95, Boller worked in various capacities at Arizona State University. During the final seven seasons with the Sun Devils football program, he serviced as the administrative assistant for football operations. His primary responsibility was in-state recruiting and organizing the remainders of the program's recruiting process. While in Tempe, Boller also assisted in team travel and with the coordination of ASU's football camps.

Boller attended Arizona State and was the head manager for the football team. Originally born in Davenport, Iowa, Boller was raised in Plymouth, Ind., and is married to wife, Jill.

DENNIS GENTRY
BLESTO SCOUT

Years with Lions: 7

Dennis Gentry joined the Lions player personnel department in 2001 and will work as a regional scout in his seventh season with the Lions.

Gentry previously worked for the NFL's Chicago Enforcers in various scouting and coaching capacities (both scout and running backs coach) in August 2000. In his role, he concentrated heavily on offensive quality control and was responsible for analyzing the computerized breakdown of all games for the team's offense.

Prior to his stint in the NFL, he worked the 1998-99 seasons as a high school coach in the state of Texas.

Gentry's first exposure to the NFL after his playing career came in 1997 when he was hired during training camp to serve as an intern wide receivers coach for the Arizona Cardinals as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship program.

From 1982-93, Gentry played 11 seasons as a running back, wide receiver and kick returner for the Chicago Bears, and was a member of the Bears' Super Bowl XX championship team.

Gentry was originally drafted by Chicago in the fourth round of the 1982 NFL Draft out of Baylor.

He graduated from Baylor University with a bachelor's degree in health and mathematics. Gentry and his wife, Jaye, reside in McGregor, Texas.

CHAD
REGIONAL

Years with Lions: 10

Chad Henry enters his 10th year working full-time in the Lions' scouting department and 11th year overall in the organization. He originally served as the team's BLESTO scout in the northeast region before being promoted to area scout in 2000. His scouting territory primarily includes the portion of the country along the Atlantic Coast and the Southeast.

Henry possesses a variety of experience, both in coaching and scouting at all levels of football. Before being hired full-time in 1998, he spent a year as an intern in the Lions' personnel department and assisted in numerous capacities in both college and pro scouting. He also served as a personnel and coaching staff assistant for the San Diego Chargers during training camp in 1996. Among Henry's coaching stops were at his alma mater, Indiana (Pa.) Area Senior High School in the Fall of '97, and as a scholastic level summer league baseball coach in 1996-97.

Although side effects from a bout with cancer during high school ended Henry's playing career, he continued in football as a student assistant at Penn State from 1991-93. He was also an undergraduate assistant coach/recruiting assistant at Indiana University of Pennsylvania upon transferring there in the spring of 1994.

In May 1996, Henry received his bachelor's degree from

2007 DETROIT LIONS

Indiana University of Pennsylvania in English. He completed his master's work in labor and industrial relations from the same school in May 1998.

ROB LOMAN SCOUTING COORDINATOR/ ADVANCE SCOUT

Years with Lions: 1

Rob Lohman joined the Lions player personnel staff in May 2007. Lohman will handle responsibilities in both college and pro scouting, including serving as the team's advance scout during the season.

Previously, Lohman spent six years with the Houston Texans, and was a member of the organization before it began play in the NFL in 2002. From 2004-06, he served as the team's northeast regional scout, and was the team's pro administrator from 2002-03. Additionally in 2003, he handled all of the team's advance scouting duties. Lohman joined the Texans in 2001 as a scouting intern.

Henry, and his wife, Holly, reside in Pittsburgh, Pa. Henry's father, Jack, coached the Lions' offensive line from 1997-99, and is currently the offensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers.

Before entering the NFL ranks in 2001, he was a graduate assistant at Syracuse University, where he earned his master's degree in higher education.

In 1998, Lohman was a special teams and recruiting assistant at Hofstra.

Lohman graduated from the University of South Carolina, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management and worked with the Gamecock's football program as an undergraduate recruiting assistant. He is a native of Oceanside, N.Y.

SILAS MCKINNIE REGIONAL SCOUT

Years with Lions: 5

Silas McKinnie enters his fifth season as personnel scout with the Lions. Prior to joining the club in 2003, McKinnie spent five NFL seasons (1997-2002) as a regional scout with the Minnesota Vikings.

Before joining the Vikings, McKinnie concluded a 20-year career as a college basketball coach, including a three-year stint as an assistant coach for the University of Miami (1994-96).

McKinnie played football at the University of Iowa from 1965-67, where he earned All-Big 10 honors as a running back. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in speech and dramatic arts. Following graduation, McKinnie played five seasons of professional football with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League (1968-71, '73). He signed with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1972, but played the season with the Atlanta Falcons and the Kansas City Chiefs.

Silas Anthony McKinnie was born in Detroit. He attended Robichaud High School in Dearborn, Mich., where he earned all-state honors in both football and basketball. He has a daughter, Ixchel, and a son, Lance.

LANCE NEWMARK NATIONAL SCOUT

Years with Lions: 9

Lance Newmark enters his ninth year in the Lions player personnel department, and third year as the club's National Scout. During his first six years, Newmark's primary responsibility was evaluation of college prospects west of the Mississippi River. In his current role, he covers the entire country, evaluating prospects from coast-to-coast.

Newmark's time with the Lions began in 1998, assisting the player personnel department with various pro and college scouting assignments during the season and in preparation for the 1999 draft. He was officially hired as an area scout on May 1, 1999.

Raised in La Mesa, Calif., Newmark played wide receiver for two years at San Diego Mesa College, before transferring to the University of San Diego for one year, where injuries ended his playing career. He holds a degree in social sciences.

Prior to his time in Detroit, Newmark worked two years (1993-94) for the San Diego Chargers as a staff assistant.

Newmark, and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Commerce Township, Michigan with their daughters, Laci and Kendall.

CHARLIE SANDERS ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Years with Lions: 18

Long-time Lions' player and coach, Charlie Sanders re-joined the club in a scouting role February 18, 1998. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Personnel March 1, 2000 after serving the previous two seasons as a pro scout. Sanders compiles reports and evaluations on upcoming Lions' opponents and players throughout the league and aids in preparation for the NFL Draft. He is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007 and is only the seventh tight end in NFL history to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Overall, Sanders has spent 34 years affiliated with the Detroit Lions organization, including 10 years as a player (1968-77), seven as a broadcaster (1983-88, 1997), eight as a coach (1989-96) and the last nine as a player personnel scout (1998-06).

After eight years on the Lions' coaching staff (tight ends in 1989-90 and wide receivers in 1991-96), Sanders spent the 1997 season as a radio broadcaster on the team's flagship station, WXYT. That assignment added to a radio broadcast resume that includes time as the club's color commentator from 1983-88.

One of the best tight ends of his era, Sanders caught 336 passes (fifth on the team's all-time list) during his 10-year career (1968-77) for 4,817 yards. He appeared in seven Pro Bowls, was twice named All-Pro and missed only 12 games during his career.

Drafted by the Lions in the third round from the University of Minnesota in 1968, Sanders was the only rookie that season selected to play in the Pro Bowl and he finished second to then-teammate Earl McCullough for NFL Rookie of the Year honors. He was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 1990, the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, his native state, in 1997 and the Guilford County Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

Sanders and his wife, Georgianna, have nine children – Mia, Charese, Mary Jo, Georgianna, Charlie Jr., Nathalie, Tallisa, Wayne and Jordan. Daughter Mary Jo is a professional boxer and the current holder of the IBA Continental Junior, IBA Continental and WBC World Welterweight titles.

DAVE UYRUS REGIONAL

Years with Lions: 8

Dave Uyrus joined the Lions' personnel department as an area scout in June 2000, and 2007 marks his eighth season with the club. He handles scouting duties predominantly in the eastern third of the United States.

Prior to joining the club's scouting staff, he spent six seasons (1994-99) with the New England Patriots. Uyrus was their director of pro scouting for three years (1997-99) and assistant director of pro scouting from 1994-96.

Uyrus has been coaching and scouting in the collegiate and professional ranks for the past 29 years, beginning with his first job

Sears arrives in Detroit after spending seven seasons with the Houston Texans organization. He joined the Texans' personnel department in May 2000 to scout the central region.

Prior to his stint in Houston, Sears spent four seasons (1996-99) working with the Washington Redskins scouting department, the first two as an intern before being promoted as the Redskins' BLESTO scout for the next two seasons. He also spent time interning for the Springfield Falcons in the American Hockey League.

Sears earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Springfield (Mass.) College and he was a four-year linebacker for Springfield's football team. He attended Hauppauge High School in his hometown of Hauppauge, N.Y., and lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse.

Sears is married to wife, Nancy.

in 1974 as freshman coach of his alma mater, Middlebury College. In 1975 he coached the varsity tight ends at Brown University and the following year he was an assistant coach at Lee High School in Lee, Massachusetts. He then joined Dick MacPherson's staff at Massachusetts as a graduate assistant in 1977-78 before moving on to American International in 1979 and Merchant Marine Academy in 1980.

Following those stints, Uyrus then re-joined MacPherson's staff at Syracuse in 1981. He spent 10 seasons (1981-90) with the Orangeman, six as the tight ends and special teams coach (1985-90). He moved into the professional ranks after MacPherson was named the head coach of the Patriots in 1991. He spent the 1991-92 campaigns as the Patriots' assistant defensive line and special teams coach before coaching the tight ends and special teams at Cornell in 1993.

As a player, Uyrus earned honorable mention Little All-American, All-ECAC and All-New England Small College honors as a junior at Middlebury.

He and his wife, Heidi, have two daughters: Haley and Gwendolyn.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

DEAN KLEINSCHMIDT COORDINATOR OF ATHLETIC MEDICINE/
ATHLETIC TRAINER
Years with Lions: 1

Dean Kleinschmidt, who was hired in April 2007, brings over three decades of work in the athletic medicine field, most of which occurred on the NFL level. Kleinschmidt oversees the team's athletic training and medical operations.

Kleinschmidt joins the Lions with a distinguished career as an athletic trainer that includes 33 years in the NFL and three seasons in Division I college athletics. Most recently, he completed three seasons (2004-06) as the head athletic trainer for Indiana University's football program.

Previous to his stint at Indiana, Kleinschmidt was the head athletic trainer for the Washington Redskins (2002-03). For a two-year period, he worked in the private sector as the administrative director at East Jefferson Hospital Wellness Center in Metairie, La. (2001-02).

For 31 years, Kleinschmidt served as an assistant (1969-70) and head athletic trainer (1971-99) for the New Orleans Saints. He was promoted to head athletic trainer in 1971, becoming the NFL's youngest ever head athletic trainer at the age of 24.

Kleinschmidt is a 1970 graduate from Indiana University where he earned a bachelor's degree in health and safety and a major in athletic training. His work has been well-recognized throughout his career, and he is an inductee in the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association (National Athletic Trainers Association District IX) Hall of Fame (2007), New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame (2002), National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1994) and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1990).

In 2003, Kleinschmidt was awarded the National College Football Foundation Athletic Trainer of the Year, and he has received distinguished awards from Indiana University and the U.S. Sports Academy.

In 1986, he directed an athletic training department for the Saints that was named the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

In addition to his duties over the years, Kleinschmidt has coordinated all sports medicine efforts at the Senior Bowl All-Star Game in Mobile, Ala., since 1971. He also has served on the board of directors and as president, including three terms, of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. During his career, Kleinschmidt has been a member of two NFL advisory committees to the Commissioner: Drugs of Abuse & Alcohol and Anabolic Steroids & Related Substances.

Dean and his wife, Marlene, have a son, Rhett, who played wide receiver Indiana University from 2001-05, and a daughter, Morgan.

AL
HEAD

Years with Lions: 7

Al Bellamy enters his seventh season as head athletic trainer. In his role, Bellamy manages the team's athletic training staff and works closely with the team's physicians.

Bellamy, 45, arrived in Detroit following 13 years as assistant trainer with the Washington Redskins. Bellamy began working with the Redskins in 1988 and was a member of the team's medical staff when Washington won Super Bowl XXVI.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

DAVE GLAZIER
SR. VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT & SALES

Years with Lions: 7

Dave Glazier enters his seventh season with the Lions after originally joining the club as a consultant in November 2001. Glazier was promoted to senior vice president of business development and sales in April 2005.

Glazier's responsibilities include managing corporate sales and sponsorships, in addition to suites, premium club seat and ticket sales. He is responsible for revenues generated by games and events at Ford Field and the revenue-generating mechanisms related to those events.

Beyond business operations directly involving the Lions, Glazier oversees the acquisition and development of major events at Ford Field, including the upcoming 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four and 2008 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Regional Finals and 2010 NCAA Frozen Four. He also oversees the annual scheduling of college (MAC football, MAC Championship and Motor City Bowl) and high school (MHSAA Finals, Detroit Public School League Championships and Catholic Football League Championships) football at Ford Field. Additionally, he works diligently to fill the stadium's calendar with concerts, motorsports and trade shows.

Among the numerous non-football related events held at Ford Field since the stadium open in 2002 include the following: WWE's Wrestlemania 23 (set a Ford Field attendance record of 80,103), 2003 Basketbowl between Michigan State and Kentucky (set world attendance record of 78,129 for basketball game) and sold-out mega-

Prior to joining the Redskins, he served a two-year stint as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Miami (Fla.) football team (1986-87). During this span, he worked with the Hurricanes' program that claimed the 1987 National Championship and included former Lions' safety Bennie Blades and wide receiver Brett Perriman. That assignment was his first full-time job and came after he had earned his master's degree in physical education (emphasis on sports medicine) from Syracuse.

Before obtaining his master's from Syracuse, Bellamy attended Michigan State as an undergraduate and received his bachelor's degree in health education in 1984. While at MSU, he began working in the NFL when he served training camp internships with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to attending Michigan State, Bellamy attended Archbishop Carroll High School in Washington, DC.

He and his wife, Sharon, reside in Northville, Mich., with their son, Chase, and daughter, Ashley.

concerts by The Rolling Stones, Eminem and Kenny Chesney.

During Glazier's professional career, he has been involved in the opening of three stadiums, including Ford Field, Comerica Park and Coors Field (Denver), which included developing new business opportunities and strategies.

Prior to joining the Lions in the fall of 2001, he was the vice president of business operations for the Detroit Tigers from 1995-2001. The Tigers opened Comerica Park, which is across Brush St. from Ford Field in downtown Detroit, in 2000.

From 1991-95, Glazier was the vice president of sales and marketing for the Colorado Rockies, and was one of the first full-time employees hired by the club when the new franchise was launched in 1991. He joined the Rockies 18 months before the first pitch was thrown in the team's history. The Rockies opened their new stadium, Coors Field, in 1995 after playing their first two seasons at Mile High Stadium. In 1993, Colorado broke the Major League Baseball all-time attendance record with 4.5 million fans.

Glazier was the director of Cincinnati Reds Television sales at WLWT in Cincinnati from 1989-91. Before arriving in the Queen City, he was the director of sports marketing for the Miller Sports Group (Miller Brewing Company) from 1986-89.

Glazier's first venture in the professional sports industry following college was from 1983-85 when he was an administrator for the MLB American League office.

Glazier earned a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, and he earned a bachelor's degree from Capital University in his hometown of Columbus, Ohio where he also played basketball during his college days.

He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Jennifer and Mallory.

ADMINISTRATION AND COACHING

BILL KEENIST
SR. VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

Years with Lions: 23

Bill Keenist embarks upon his 23rd year within the Lions' organization. In 2001, he was promoted to the post of senior vice president of communications. He works closely with the club's following departments: communications, community affairs, new media, broadcasting, marketing, sales and tickets. Keenist also serves as the team's chief spokesman on organizational matters.

For seven years prior, Keenist served as a team vice-president supervising the areas of communications, broadcasting and marketing. Since 1994, the team has launched its own television show, radio shows, a state-wide preseason TV and highlight show network, team newspaper, magazine and Internet site. In June 2002, Detroitlions.com achieved a No. 2 overall ranking in a study conducted by Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal that rated 121 MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL team Internet sites.

Keenist assisted in the negotiations of broadcast contracts for local radio and TV. In 2005, the Lions renewed their relationship with Infinity Broadcasting by inking a new five-year deal that includes greater presence on the team's flagship station, WKRC 97.1 FM, and other auxiliary programming. In 2004, the Lions entered into a new relationship with CBS-affiliate WWJ-TV Ch. 62 to broadcast the Lions' preseason games and the team's weekly television show.

In 1997, Keenist directed a restructuring of the Lions' ticket office, which included the establishment of both telemarketing and group sales departments. In the season prior to these changes, the season ticket base had fallen to near 30,000. In 2002, the first year at Ford Field, the Lions sold out their regular season ticket packages and, for the first time, have a waiting list for prospective season ticket buyers.

Keenist has been with the Lions since 1985 when he was hired as assistant public relations director. In 1987 he was named director of public relations, a position he held until his appointment as director of marketing, broadcasting and communications in 1991. He held that position until 1994 when he was promoted to vice president for administration and communications.

In 1981, Keenist's NFL career began when he worked for the Washington Redskins as a public relations assistant. He was a member of the Redskins staff when the team won Super Bowl XVII in 1983 over Miami. He also served as the Redskins' director of promotions in 1983.

After leaving the Redskins, Keenist returned home to the Pittsburgh area where he was the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League in 1984. After the Maulers' one season in the USFL, Keenist served as the sports public relations director for the Pittsburgh Civic Arena, where he worked primarily with the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Keenist's talents have been recognized around the NFL. For Super Bowls XXIV through XXVIII he had the honor of being selected a public relations co-captain, which involves the coordination of all media-related activities at the Super Bowl. In all, he has worked a total of 15 Super Bowls for the NFL. In the past, he has served on the following NFL PR/Marketing Committees: Broadcasting; Governmental Affairs and Insider Magazine. Keenist has been the PR Chairman of the NFC Central division and Chairman of the Public Relations Special Projects Committee.

In 2002, Keenist was honored by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association with the "Best of the Best" award, which annually honors the top sports public relations person in the Detroit media market. In 2003, the Lions' 2002 club seat ticket commercial, produced by Keenist, was nominated for an EMMY, a first for any Lions' production.

Also among Keenist's accomplishments, he served as a member of Detroit's Super Bowl XL Communications Task Force Committee, and played a key role in the organization's public relations efforts during several Super Bowl XL related events.

Keenist holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. He also received his bachelor's degree in journalism from Ohio and was a recipient of a Sports Administration Scholarship from the NFL in 1981. As sports editor of The Ohio University Post in 1980, his sports section was named the Best College Sports Section in America by a national panel of sportswriters and columnists, an honor for which he received a post-graduate scholarship.

He then served a graduate internship at Duke University where he worked in the athletic department.

In 2004, Keenist was inducted into the Elizabeth Forward High School Hall of Fame in his hometown of Elizabeth, Pa., and was a member of the school's Class of 1976. In 2006, Keenist was awarded a medal of merit by Ohio's Alumni Association, which annually honors alumni who have distinguished themselves in their respective professions.

Keenist, 49, lives in Oxford with his wife Cindy and their three children: sons, Billy and Christopher, and daughter, Lindsay. He is an active member of Oxford High School's Athletic Boosters, and his oldest son Billy is a sophomore quarterback at Adrian College (Adrian, Mich.).

TOM LESNAU
SR. VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER
Years with Lions: 30

Tom Lesnau is entering his 30th season with the Lions organization. Prior to the 2003 season he was promoted to senior vice president in conjunction with the restructuring of the Lions front office, and he is one of the senior members of the Lions management staff. His role consists of overseeing the club and stadium's financial, insurance, banking, information technology, business systems, retail store and purchasing operations. Lesnau reports directly to Executive Vice President & COO Tom Lewand.

During the last several years, Lesnau has been involved in assisting Lewand with the initial start-up of Ford Field and the adjoining commercial and parking development that has been recognized as one of the premiere venues in the NFL. Lesnau's involvement with the stadium development has spanned all the way from 1996, when a new state of the art stadium was proposed for downtown Detroit. He has also coordinated a long-term financing arrangement for the stadium and warehouse projects, and the implementation, upgrade and standardization of accounting and reporting systems for the new ventures in order to facilitate an integrated financial system for team and stadium operations.

Over the past four years, Lesnau was instrumental in the development and implementation of a new combined budget strategy and process for the Lions and Ford Field, thus allowing the organization to strategically plan the direction of the two entities.

In his prior role, Lesnau established reporting controls to more effectively monitor the overall performance of the organization. He also revamped all computer operations of the team and implemented a new system for both financial operations and administrative areas of the club.

Lesnau gained five years of business and accounting experience with the international accounting firm of Ernst & Young from 1973 to 1978. He joined the Lions in 1978 as an accountant, took on the additional duties as travel coordinator in 1980, and was promoted to controller in 1991. He was promoted to the position of vice president of finance and chief financial officer in 1996. Prior to the team's relocation to Detroit, Lesnau was the primary contact with the City of Pontiac and the Pontiac Silverdome.

Lesnau graduated with honors from Michigan State University in 1973 with a degree in business administration/accounting and is a Certified Public Accountant. Lesnau is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the Michigan Association of CPAs, and the Financial Executives Institute of America.

Lesnau's involvement with local charities includes positions as treasurer of Detroit Lions Charities, and also as treasurer and member of the Board of Directors of numerous other charitable organizations including the Detroit Lions Courage House, Kolo Charities and the Russ Thomas Scholarship Fund. He also serves as a trustee on several local community organizations and governmental boards.

Lesnau is married to wife, Liz, and currently resides in Waterford. The native of the Detroit area has lived substantially all of his life in the Detroit metropolitan area.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

JEFF BACKUS

Tackle
Michigan
Ht: 6-5
Born: 9/21/77
Draft: '01, R1 (18)-Det

7th Year
Wt: 305
Hometown: Norcross, Ga.

76

PRO: Backus has been the Lions' mainstay at left tackle since being drafted in the first round (18th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft, and has never missed a game or start (96 consecutive starts) in his career. He is one of three offensive linemen in the NFL with streak of 96 consecutive starts heading into the 2007 season, and he is the only player drafted in 2001 who has started every game as a pro. Backus also joins teammate C Dominic Raiola as one of two pairs of offensive line teammates in the NFL who each have started at least the last 80 consecutive games together. A well-rounded competitor who battles with aggression and shows good initial quickness off the snap to gain advantage on the defender, Backus was the first Lions' first-round selection to start all 16 games as a rookie since Luther Elliss in 1995. He was also the first Lions' offensive player selected in the first round to start all 16 games as a rookie since Lomas Brown in 1985.

MAJOR FACTS

- Backus is only the second player out of the University of Michigan to be taken in the first round by the Lions, and the first since Bob Westfall in 1942.
- With 96 consecutive starts, he has the third longest active streak among offensive linemen in the NFL.
- Although he spent most of his childhood in suburban Atlanta, Backus was born in Midland, Mich.
- Photographed with his pets for the fourth-straight year in the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar which raises money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Donated Lions' tickets for each home game to C.S. Mott Children's Hospital through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Works with University of Michigan's Mott Children's Hospital on numerous fundraisers throughout the season.
- Participated in 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Attended the 13th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.

2006: Concluded his sixth consecutive season starting all 16 games for the team at LT as he extended consecutive games played to 96 games at Dallas (12/31).

- One of two offensive linemen, along with C Dominic Raiola, to start every game. The pair of offensive linemen has started every game together since the beginning of the 2002 season (80 games).
- Helped the offense accumulate 400 net yards, including 340 passing yards, against Green Bay (9/24).
- Led offensive line, forging a balanced attack in the team's 20-17 win vs. Buffalo (10/15), as the offense gained 262 yards in the air and 132 yards on the ground.
- Helped RB Kevin Jones gain 127 rushing yards, which was his first 100-yard game of the year, against the Bills (10/15).
- Helped offense amass 386 total yards at the New York Jets (10/22), including a 5.7 yards per rush average (15 attempts for 86 yards by RB Kevin Jones). Unit also allowed just one sack in 37 pass plays.
- Part of offensive line that allowed offense to gain season-high 435 yards vs. Atlanta (11/5), including a 110-yard outing by RB Kevin Jones.
- Assisted the offense in attaining 327 yards vs. Chicago (12/24), one of the NFL's top defenses.
- Helped the offense score a season-high 39 points behind 362 yards of total offense at Dallas (12/31).

2005: Finished season starting all 16 games, moving career tally to 80 consecutive games. Has started every game since being drafted.

- Sustained a high ankle sprain against Carolina (10/16) and continued to start the remainder of the season.

2004: Started 50th consecutive game in home opener vs. Houston (9/19). Member of an offensive line that blocked for a rushing attack that forged the second-most yards on the ground in the NFL in the final seven games of the season.

- Helped clear the way for Kevin Jones to rush for 1,133 yards, who joins Barry Sanders and Billy Sims as the first Lions to rush for 1,000 yards in their rookie campaigns.
- Led way for rookie running back Kevin Jones, who, vs. Arizona (12/5) and at Green Bay (12/12), became the first Lion in franchise history to record back-to-back 150-yard rushing games as a rookie.
- On December 5, Backus and the offensive line paved the way for Kevin Jones' 196-yard effort vs. Arizona. Jones followed Backus and the offensive line to the second-highest single-game rushing total ever by a Lions rookie.

2003: Started every game, and received of the Eric Andolsek Top Offensive Lineman Award.

- Second straight season Lions' offensive line led NFL in sacks allowed with just 11, nine better than previous franchise best of 20 (2002).
- Protected QB Joey Harrington as he led the NFL in sacks per pass play ratio among quarterbacks at 1.60% (nine sacks/563 pass plays), the second straight year he has led in that category.
- The Lions allowed no sacks in seven games—vs. Arizona (9/7), at San Francisco (10/5), at Chicago (10/26), vs. Oakland (11/2), at Minnesota (11/23), vs. San Diego (12/7) and at Kansas City (12/14).

2002: Key contributor on offensive line unit that set team record (since 1963) with only 20 sacks allowed (fewest in the NFL).

- Played large part in Joey Harrington finishing the season with the league's lowest sack per pass play ratio among passers (eight sacks/437 pass plays for 1.83%).
- Offensive line unit allowed no sacks in seven games: vs. New Orleans (9/29), at Buffalo (10/27), at Green Bay (11/10), vs. New York Jets (11/17), vs. New England (11/28), at Arizona (12/8) and vs. Minnesota (12/29). Only one sack in four other contests: vs. Green Bay (9/22), at Minnesota (10/13), vs. Dallas (11/3), vs. Tampa Bay (12/15).
- Helped pave way for James Stewart's second 1,000-yard season in three years, including a career-high 172-yard rushing effort in Lions' 23-20 overtime win vs. Chicago (10/20).
- Sustained a bone bruise to left knee early in training camp (7/30) which hindered his play during the early part of the season but still managed to start in all 16 games.

2001: Solidified left tackle position as a rookie, starting all 16 games.

- Became the first Lions' first-round selection to start in all 16 games since Luther Elliss in 1995 and first offensive first rounder to do since Lomas Brown in 1985.
- Selected to Pro Football Weekly and Pro Football News All-Rookie teams.
- Helped hold up the Vikings' defensive line for Lions' 129-yard rushing and 345-yard passing outing at Minnesota (10/14).
- Protected the blindside of Charlie Batch, who posted 436 passing yards at Arizona (11/18).
- Suffered a lower leg laceration that sidelined him in the fourth quarter at Tampa Bay (12/9).
- Ranked as one of 10-best rookies of 2001 by the Sporting News.

COLLEGE: Starter for the Wolverines at left tackle from 1997-2000. Finished his career with 49 consecutive starts, one shy of the school record of 50 by current Washington Redskins' starting right tackle, Jon Jansen (1995-98).

- Teamed with Seattle Seahawks 2001 first-round pick, guard Steve Hutchinson, to man the left side of Michigan's offensive line in every campaign since their freshman year.
- Earned All-Big Ten honors four-straight years and was an All-American second-team selection by College Football News and ABC Sports, earning honorable mention from CNN/Sports Illustrated and consensus All-Big Ten first-team pick as a senior, as well as being a candidate for both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Awards.
- Co-recipient of the Hugh H. Rader Award for his junior and senior years, given to the team's top offensive lineman.
- In 1999, he was an All-Big Ten first-team selection by the media, and earned University of Michigan Athletic Academic Achievement honors after starting every game at left tackle.
- Collected 67 key blocks as a junior for an offense that averaged 264.8 yards per game passing.
- Started at left tackle during Michigan's march to the 1997 Rose Bowl and had a hand in Wolverines winning a piece of the National Championship (Associated Press).
- General studies major. Earned degree in December 2000.

PERSONAL: Born Jeffrey Carl Backus on September 21, 1977 in Midland, Mich.

- Selected to first-team All-USA squad by USA Today at Norcross (Ga.) High. Was picked to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super 11 and the Super Seven of the Macon Touchdown Club and was chosen as the Gwinnett Touchdown Club Lineman of the Year.
- Played in Florida-Georgia All-Star Game following senior season.
- Named All-American by Scholastic Coach, Schutt Sports, Reebok, Prep Football Report, Super Prep and was a member of Blue Chip Illustrated's Dream Team.
- Started four years of baseball, playing first base and pitcher.
- His mother, uncle and grandfather all graduated from Michigan.

BOSS BAILEY

Linebacker

Georgia

Ht: 6-3

Born: 10/14/79

Draft: '03, R2 (34)-Det

5th Year

Wt: 235

Hometown: Folkston, Ga.

97

PRO: Bailey provides versatility in the linebacker corps with the use of his speed and talent, which are a staple of what is needed on this defense. He contributes at both outside and middle linebacker. As a rookie in 2003, Bailey immediately became the Lions' starter at strongside linebacker and started all 16 games, emerging as one of the top young linebackers in the NFL and showing the potential to be an all-pro. The Lions took Bailey in the second round with the 34th overall pick in the 2003 NFL Draft.

MAJOR FACTS:

- Given name is Rodney, but goes by Boss after his grandmother gave him the name.
- Football runs in Bailey's blood as his older brother, Champ, currently with the Denver Broncos, was an All-American cornerback and wide receiver at Georgia (1996-98). He was selected in the first round of the 1999 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins, and has played in seven Pro Bowls. His older brother, Ronald, started at Georgia and served a stint in NFL Europe (Frankfurt Galaxy, 1999).
- Received the Lions 2005 Ed Block Courage Award that recognizes men of courage for each of the NFL's 32 teams.
- He and his brother Champ, recently started their own foundation.
- Attended the 13th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Photographed with his pets for the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar which helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.

- Participated in a free PGA golf lesson with local kids from Think Detroit PAL.
- Participated in youth football clinics at Renaissance High School in Detroit and at the NFL Experience during the week of Super Bowl XL.
- Interacted with 2,000 Detroit-area underprivileged children at the NFL Experience Kids' Day the week of SBXL.

2006: Bailey finished the season with 85 tackles (51 solo), one sack, three passes defended and four special teams tackles. He played both outside and middle linebacker position (8 starts at SLB, 4 at MLB).

- He recorded at least five tackles in 10-of-16 games this season.
- Saw first action at middle linebacker in his pro career as a backup, posting six tackles (one solo) and one sack against the Seattle Seahawks (9/10).
- Bailey notched five tackles (two solo) and one pass breakup at Chicago (9/17) as he saw action in the linebacker rotation, and he notched two special teams tackles.
- In his first start at middle linebacker, Bailey recorded a then season-high eight tackles (two solo) at St. Louis (10/1).
- Had a team and season-high 11 tackles (10 solo) at Minnesota (10/8), marking his fourth career game registering double-digit tackles.
- Led the team and tied his season-best 11 tackles (six solo) against Buffalo (10/15) for his second straight double-digit tackles performance.
- Moved to strong-side LB. Made five tackles (four solo) vs. Atlanta

- (11/5).
- Registered three tackles (two solo) and a pass breakup at New England (12/3).
- Made seven tackles (five solo) and one special teams tackle at Green Bay (12/17).
- 2005: Finished the season third on the team in total tackles with 75 (48 solo) despite being placed on Injured/Reserve on December 16, 2005 due to an ankle injury.
- Made his first starting appearance after missing the 2004 season recording 10 total tackles (6 solo) vs. Green Bay (9/11).
- Recorded nine tackles (6 solo) and 1.0 sack for a loss of six yards at Chicago (9/18).
- Led team in total tackles at Tampa Bay (10/2) with 10 (seven solo).
- Had his second-career interception which he returned 34 yards for a touchdown vs. Carolina (10/16).
- Was second on the team in tackles (8) against Arizona (11/13) despite leaving the game in the third quarter with an ankle injury.

2004: Missed the entire season after sustaining a knee injury during training camp.

- Placed on Reserve/Injured list on December 16.

2003: Voted the team's Mel Farr Rookie of the Year.

- Named to the ESPN.com and Football Digest all-rookie teams.
- Tied a then-career-high with nine tackles (eight solo) and had the first sack of his career on Chris Chandler at Chicago (10/26).
- Shared the team lead with nine tackles (five solo) vs. Oakland (11/2) as well as a pass defense and his first career forced fumble when he knocked the ball out of the hands of Marques Tuiasosopo.
- One of five finalists for the Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week Award for his efforts vs. Chicago (11/9) after he collected seven solo tackles, a half-sack, a tackle-for-loss and two big pass defenses.
- Put together his best game of the season at Carolina (12/21) with a career and team-high 13 tackles (11 solo) and a 62-yard fumble return for a touchdown, his first career score. He earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors for his efforts against the Panthers and the 13 tackles put him over 100 for the season.
- Nominated for the Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week after the game vs. St. Louis (12/28) when he had his first career interception as well as six tackles (five solo). His pick of Rams QB Marc Bulger led to a Jason Hanson field goal which put the Lions up 27-20.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter and was "heart and soul" of the Bulldogs' defense, carrying on the family tradition passed down by his brother, Champ, an All-American cornerback now with the Denver Broncos.

- Emerged as one of the premier defenders in the SEC after recording 266 tackles (151 solo) with 7.5 sacks, 22 stops behind the line of scrimmage, 29 quarterback pressures, three forced fumbles, two interceptions, 11 pass deflections and three blocked kicks while starting 35 of 48 games in his career.
- All-SEC first-team selection and semifinalist for Butkus and Lombardi Awards as a senior. Bailey was a defensive catalyst for Georgia as they claimed the SEC Championship and a Sugar Bowl win over Florida State. Started every game at strongside outside linebacker, leading the team with a career-high 114 tackles (63 solo), including six sacks for minus-55 yards and 10 stops for losses of 66 yards.
- Named All-SEC second-team by the league's coaches in 2001.
- Did not play in 2000 after injuring his knee on the opening kickoff of season opener and received a redshirt year.

PERSONAL: Attended Charlton County (Ga.) High where he was USA Today All-USA honorable mention, chosen as one of the Super 11. Super Southern 100 and Top 50 in Georgia by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. Named to the Macon Telegraph Sweet 16, 1998 FSN South Countdown to Signing Day all-South third-team.

- Played quarterback, punter and on defense. He averaged 36.3 yards on 10 punts and had 143 tackles, three sacks and four interceptions and totaled 1,079 yards and 23 touchdowns rushing and 1,243 yards and 16 touchdowns passing.
- Finished as school's all-time leading passer with 1,243 yards and 16 touchdowns in addition to 1,079 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns.
- Received team's Linebacker Award and Freshman Award.
- Track and field standout as he reached the 1996 Class A State Championships in the 110-meter hurdles and received the track squad's Sprint Award.
- He and wife, Amber, are the parents of three children, including Khalil and twins, Kendall and Kayden.

PRO: Bashir, who was resigned by Detroit January 2, 2007, returns to compete in the secondary for the Lions in 2007 after missing the 2006 season with an injury. He was drafted by Indianapolis in the second round (37th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft. Bashir emerged as a starter during his first preseason with the Colts and became only the seventh rookie in their franchise history to start at defensive back in a season opener (at NYJ, 9/9/01). He signed with Carolina prior to the 2005 season and played in 11 games for the Panthers before being placed on the Reserve/Injured list December 14 with a leg injury. As a three-year starter at Memphis, Bashir had 187 career tackles, three interceptions, 21 pass defenses and four fumble recoveries.

MAJOR FACTS

- While growing up in Atlanta, he rooted for the Falcons and also admired Jerry Rice and Ronnie Lott.
- Big fan of the Sopranos – just purchased seasons one through five. Also regularly watches America's Next Top Model.
- Participated in the 16th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Interested in real estate business and is considering opening up a mortgage firm after his football career.

2006: Signed with the Lions March 29, 2006. He was placed on the Reserve/Injured list September 2, 2006 due to a hand injury and was released from the Reserve/Injured list September 6, 2006.

2005: Signed with the Panthers during the offseason (4/1).

- Was a regular on Carolina's special teams coverage units. He played in the first 10 games on special teams.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured (12/14) due to a leg injury.

2004: Started 13 games at free safety.

- Inactive at Jacksonville (10/3) with an injured groin and vs. San Diego (12/26) and at Denver (1/2) with an injured hamstring.
- Forced a fumble against Jaguars (10/24) running back Fred Taylor.
- Recovered a fumble by Kansas City (10/31) running back Priest Holmes deep in Indianapolis territory, leading to a Colts' touchdown.
- Made starts in both playoff contests at free safety and accounted for 11 tackles and one pass defended.

2003: Made nine starts at free safety, while helping the Colts rank fifth in the NFL in pass defense.

- Recovered a fumble by Jacksonville (9/21) running back Fred Taylor to set up an Indianapolis field goal.
- Suffered a right shoulder injury at Miami (11/2) that forced him to be inactive for the next seven games.
- Returned from shoulder injury at Houston and had a career-best 13 tackles.
- Started AFC Wild Card game vs. Denver (1/4) and AFC Divisional Playoff at Kansas City (1/11) but was inactive for AFC Championship at New England (1/18) with a shoulder injury.

2002: Started 14 games at free safety and registered 73 tackles as a key contributor to defensive unit that ranked second in the NFL against the pass.

- Had his first interception of the season at Houston (9/22).
- Injured left hamstring caused him to be inactive at Tennessee (12/8) and at Cleveland (12/15).

- Recovered a fumble by Jacksonville (12/29) quarterback David Garrard, which resulted in a Colts touchdown.
- Started AFC Wild Card at the New York Jets (1/4) and had 10 tackles.

2001: Started 15 contests at free safety as a rookie and set a career high with 90 tackles and six passes defended.

- Was named to Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team.
- Made first NFL start in regular season opener at New York Jets (9/9) and became seventh rookie in Colts history to start at defensive back in season opener and the second to start at free safety. He finished with three tackles.
- Made first-career pick in the end zone at Kansas City (10/25).
- Finished with a season-high 10 tackles at New Orleans (11/18).

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at Memphis. Began career at strong safety before switching to free safety as a junior.

- Totaled 187 tackles, three interceptions, 21 passes defended and four fumble recoveries.
- Earned All-Conference USA first-team honors as a junior in 2000 after starting 11 games at free safety and recording 65 tackles, two interceptions, 13 passes defended and a fumble recovery.
- Set a Tigers record with a 100-yard INT return for a TD at Army.
- Returned a fumble 66 yards for a touchdown versus Tulane, the second-longest fumble return in school history.
- Made 11 starts at strong safety as a sophomore, posting 71 tackles, one interception, five passes defended and two fumble recoveries.
- Garnered All-Conference USA All-Freshman team recognition in 1998 after playing in nine contests with six starts and registering 51 tackles, three passes defended and a fumble recovery.
- Redshirted as a true freshman in 1997.

PERSONAL: Attended Dunwoody HS in Decatur, Ga.

- Tallied 91 tackles, seven interceptions, three forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries as a senior and added 11 receptions at wide receiver.
- Also lettered in track.

PRO: Beckham participated in the Lions three-day voluntary OTAsession (April 10-12) as a tryout player and then signed a one-year deal with the team April 12. He comes to Detroit after spending the bulk of his career with the Tennessee Titans (2002-05), who drafted him with their second selection in the fourth round (115th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft. In four seasons with the Titans, Beckham registered 33 tackles (31 solo) while playing in 50 games (five starts). He did not play in 2006.

MAINE FACTS

- List of Favorites: (music artist) Eminem, (actor/actress) Denzel Washington/Halle Berry, (sports heroes) Deion Sanders/Dale Carter, (movies) "Undisputed"/"Scarface," and (pre-game meal) protein shake and fruit.
- Admired the Chicago Bears and the Florida Gators growing up.
- Looked up to Deion Sanders, Barry Sanders, and Walter Peyton, his "The Three Amigos" as he refers to them.
- Runs Tony Beckham Football Camp for youth in Florida.
- For post-football career, he wants to get masters degree in counseling and work with at-risk youth.
- Loves watching "One Tree Hill," "All of Us" and "Nip Tuck".
- Collects Michael Jordan shoes—owns pairs of every style released.
- Has a pug dog named Phoebe.

2006: Did not play.

2005: Played in 15 games with two starts, while being inactive for one game (12/24 at Miami). Beckham played primarily on special teams and recorded six tackles. He saw limited action at cornerback and totaled 10 tackles and four passes defended.

- Started at right cornerback in season-opener at Pittsburgh (9/11) and recorded four tackles.
- Made second start at right cornerback and recorded one tackle and one pass defended at St. Louis (9/25).
- Had a team-high two special teams tackles and posted a pass defense vs. Oakland (10/30).
- Saw action at cornerback and tied career-high with five tackles at Jacksonville (1/1) in addition to a pass defended.

2004: Spent 11 games on physically unable to perform list following surgery to repair an off-season tear of his right anterior cruciate ligament. Played in final five games of season, including one start (1/2 vs. Detroit), and totaled five tackles and one pass defended.

- Underwent surgery April 16, 2004 to repair right ACL tear suffered three days earlier in organized workouts.
- Placed on physically unable to perform list August 31, became eligible for practice November 8 and was activated November 29.
- Return to action at Indianapolis (12/5) and played special teams.
- Saw action at cornerback and on special teams against Kansas City (12/13), at Oakland (12/20) and against Denver (12/25).
- Started at right cornerback against Detroit (1/2), and tied career highs with five tackles and one pass defense before leaving the game in third quarter with bruised right knee.

2003: Served as the third cornerback behind Samari Rolle and Andre Dyson in all 16 games. Saw action at cornerback in 10 regular season games and one postseason game, contributing on special teams in remaining contests. Started in games against Houston (10/12) and at Jacksonville (10/26) and finished the season with 17 tackles, one interception, four passes defended and eight special teams tackles.

- Totaled two tackles in relief of Samari Rolle who left game at New England (10/5) in first quarter with dislocated left elbow.

- Against Houston (10/12), recorded first career start in place of Rolle and recorded one tackle and one pass defense.
- Recorded first career interception at Jacksonville (10/26), picking off a Byron Leftwich pass in end zone to end Jaguars fourth quarter drive and setting season and career highs with five tackles.
- In Wild Card Playoff win at Baltimore (1/3), filled in at cornerback for Rolle (concussion) in fourth quarter.

2002: Saw action in 14 games as a rookie, spending majority of time on special teams, where he posted 10 tackles.

- Saw action on defense and special teams and collected first NFL special teams tackle against Cleveland (9/22).

PRO: Bell came to Detroit through a trade with Denver (March 2, 2007) and is expected to be a vital part of the Lions offensive backfield this season. He is coming off his best pro season having established a single season career-high with 1,025 rushing yards, including five 100-yard rushing performances, while averaging 4.4 yards-per-carry. Bell was the Bronco's first selection in the second round (41st overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft. As a rookie, Bell played in 14 games and led all 2004 AFC rookies (fourth among NFL rookies) in rushing with 396 yards on 75 attempts (5.3 avg.) and three touchdowns. He was a three-year starter at Oklahoma State University and finished with 3,409 career rushing yards (5.4 avg.) with 34 touchdowns in 41 career games (29 starts).

MAINT-FACTS

- Participated in the 2007 Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Looked up to the Dallas Cowboys growing up. Favorite players included: Emmitt Smith, Michael Irvin, Barry Sanders and Deion Sanders.
- Loves watching "Fresh Prince of Bell-Air" and "Martin", and has all the episodes of Martin recorded on tape.
- Favorite movies include: "Harlem Nights", "I'm Gonna Get You Sucka", and "Paid In Full".
- Favorite artists: "Young Jeezy", "Little Wayne" and "T.I."
- Hobbies include playing Madden or NBA 2K7 on Playstation, and bowling (even though his average score is about a 90).
- For post-football endeavors, he wants to focus on starting a chain of barber shops. Another goal is to open an upscale sports-themed steakhouse called Tatum's in Dallas.

2006: In his first season as the starting running back, Bell amassed 1,025 yards and two touchdowns on 233 carries (4.4 avg.), including five 100-yard outings, while catching 24 passes for 115 yards in 12 games (12 starts). He ranked ninth in the conference and 22nd in the league in rushing.

- As the starter, alternating series with Mike Bell, Tatum Bell led the team with 103 yards on 15 carries, including a 39-yard run at St. Louis (9/10). Bell's opening day 100-yard outing was the eighth season-opening 100-yard performance in team history. His total of 103 yards is the fifth-most yards of those eight outings.
- Led the team with 69 yards on 16 carries, including a 20-yard run in the home opener vs. Kansas City (9/17). Bell also hauled in two passes for 7 yards, including a 10-yarder against the Chiefs.
- Recorded 123 yards on a career-high 27 carries, including a 21-yard run to go with a pair of receptions for 19 yards at New England (9/24). In the second quarter, Bell carried the ball four times for 30 yards to help set up a touchdown. He also established his personal best of 142 total yards (123 rush/19 rec.), in the game against the Patriots.
- Had 19 carries for 92 yards while making a pair of catches for 7 yards vs. Baltimore (10/9) on Monday Night Football.
- Ran 23 times for 83 yards and a touchdown on Sunday Night Football vs. Oakland (10/15). Bell also tied for the team lead with four catches for 11 yards.
- Posted his third 100-yard game of the season as he posted 115 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries at Cleveland (10/22). He also caught three passes for 11 yards against the Browns. Bell accounted for 20 yards on five carries on an 85-yard drive culminating in a field goal early in the second quarter against the Browns. Two possessions later, he recorded his second touchdown of the season, a 9-yard carry.

to open a 10-0 lead over the Browns in the second quarter.

- Gained 27 yards on 13 attempts vs. Indianapolis (10/29) while he was hampered by a toe injury.
- Declared inactive due to the toe injury at Pittsburgh (11/5), vs. San Diego (11/19) and Thanksgiving at Kansas City (11/23).
- Had a career-high 133 yards on 23 carries (5.8 avg.), including a 31-yard run, on Sunday Night Football vs. Seattle (12/3). In the first half against the Seahawks, he gained 112 yards on 15 carries (7.5 avg.) for the first 100-yard half of his career. His first carry against the Seahawks was the 400th of his career and he eclipsed 2,000 rushing yards for his career on his fourth carry of the night.
- Recorded 116 yards on 17 carries (6.8 avg.), including a 51-yard run at San Diego (12/10). He raced down the sideline for a season-long 51-yard gain to set up a field goal in the second quarter. He carried the ball nine times for 75 yards (8.3 avg.) in the first half against the Chargers. Prior to his eclipsing 100 yards in San Diego, the Chargers hadn't allowed a visitor to reach the 100-yard plateau in 20 games. The Chargers' streak was the second-longest active streak in the league.
- He eclipsed the 1,000-yard plateau with 48 yards on 12 carries in the regular-season finale vs. S.F. (12/31). He also hauled in three passes for 27 yards against the 49ers.

2005: In his second professional season, Bell rushed 173 times for a career-best 921 yards (5.3 avg.) with eight touchdowns while adding 18 receptions for 104 yards (5.8 avg.) in 15 regular-season games (1 start) for the Broncos. His 921-yard rushing performance ranked 11th in the AFC (19th in NFL) and helped Denver boast the league's second-best rushing attack (158.7 ypg.).

- Bell, who played in both postseason games, ranked second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL with 10 runs of 20 or more yards, including three such touchdowns, and led all league running backs with a 5.3-yard average.
- Along with teammate Mike Anderson (1,014 yds.), nearly became the fourth pair of teammates in NFL history to each rush for 1,000 yards in the same year. Bell helped the Broncos become just the third team in league annals to have two 900-yard rushers (Anderson and Bell), a 1,000-yard receiver (Smith) and a 3,000-yard passer (Plummer) in the same season.
- During the Broncos' regular-season opener at Miami (9/11), Bell saw extended time with Anderson forced out early with a rib injury and totaled 47 rushing yards on 13 carries.
- Notched his first 100-yard performance of the season when he led the team with a career-high 127 yards and two touchdowns on 12 carries (10.6 avg.) on a rain-slicked field vs. Washington (10/9). Bell burst through the Redskins' defense for touchdown runs of 34 and 55 yards en route to picking up the FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week honors.
- Against New England (10/16), Bell recorded his first back-to-back 100-yard performance when he gashed the Patriots' defense for a team-leading 114 yards with one touchdown on 13 carries (8.8 avg.) while adding three receptions for 20 yards. In the second quarter against the Patriots, Bell burst through the line of scrimmage and sprinted down the middle of the field for a career-long 68-yard run to set up a Denver touchdown.
- 60 yards on eight carries, including a 37-yard run, at NYG (10/23).
- Put together a 14-carry, 107-yard, two-touchdown performance vs. Philadelphia (10/30). He capped the scoring with touchdown runs of 67 and six yards in the fourth quarter against the Eagles.
- Against New York Jets (11/20), he rushed for 34 yards on 10 attempts before leaving the game with a chest injury. The chest injury forced him inactive at Dallas (11/24) on Thanksgiving Day.
- Returned to the lineup the following week at Kansas City (12/4), gaining a team-high 46 yards on five carries (9.2 avg.).
- Paced the team for the second consecutive week with 63 yards on 16 carries vs. Baltimore (12/11). He added 16 yards on two receptions in the game against the Ravens.
- With Mike Anderson forced out vs. Oakland (12/24) early in third quarter, Bell led Denver with 17 carries for 71 yards.
- Entering the regular-season finale at San Diego (12/31), Bell needed 131 yards to join Anderson in the 1,000-yard rushing club. He managed 52 yards and a career-high three touchdowns (6, 1 and 19) on 17 rushes against the Chargers' top-ranked rushing defense.
- In an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. New England (1/14), Bell recorded six rushes for 19 yards and contributed a special-teams stop in the win over the Patriots.

- In the AFC Championship Game vs. Pittsburgh (1/22), he led the team with five catches for 28 yards while adding five carries for 31 yards.

2004: Selected by the Broncos in the second round (41st overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft, Bell displayed plenty of potential during his rookie year as he led all AFC rookies (4th among NFL rookies) with 396 rushing yards on 75 carries (5.3 avg.) with three touchdowns in 14 regular-season games (0 starts).

- Professional career got off to a difficult start after he fractured his right middle finger during his first day of training camp July 31, but Bell recovered in time to see action on special teams in his NFL debut vs. Kansas City (9/12).
- At Tampa Bay (10/3), Bell returned from the rib injury that kept him out of Denver's previous game to play on special teams against the Buccaneers.
- Saw extensive action at Oakland (10/17) by rushing six times for 25 yards (4.2 avg.). Was a factor on special teams against the Raiders, making first career tackle. All of his yards against the Raiders came in relief of starter Droughins in the fourth quarter, including a 13-yard scamper around the left side on third-and-5.
- While he did not record a rush at Cincinnati (10/25) on Monday Night Football, the rookie contributed on special teams against the Bengals and tweaked his hamstring in the game (an injury that would keep him out vs. Atlanta, 10/31).
- Team-high three special-teams tackles at New Orleans (11/21).
- Bell scored his first career touchdown on a 16-yard run at San Diego (12/5) and had 31 yards on seven carries (4.4 avg.).
- Recorded the first 100-yard game of his career vs. Miami (12/12) with 123 yards on 17 carries (7.2 avg.) with two touchdowns. Bell exploded for 81 yards in the first half alone against the Dolphins, including slashing touchdown runs of 7 and 11 yards, before he was removed from the game late in the third quarter with a third-degree left shoulder separation.
- Despite being hampered by a shoulder injury at Kansas City (12/19), Bell rushed nine times for 50 yards (5.6 avg.) and made a 58-yard reception out of a short screen pass.
- Bell recorded 44 yards on 12 carries (3.7 avg.) on Christmas night at Tennessee (12/25) while also catching a 12-yard pass.
- In finale vs. Indianapolis (1/2), he gained 91 yards on 16 carries (5.7 avg.) and caught two passes for 16 yards (8.0 avg.).
- Ran for a 1-yard touchdown and gained 49 yards on 12 carries (4.1 avg.) in Denver's AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/9). He also caught four passes for 32 yards (8.0 avg.) against the Colts.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Oklahoma State University, Bell rushed 634 times for 3,409 yards (5.4 avg.) with 34 touchdowns in 41 career games (29 starts). He added 258 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 36 receptions (7.2 avg.). Bell's 3,409 rushing yards ranked sixth in school history, and the 216 points he scored during his career ranked seventh on the school's career list.

- Left OSU ranked sixth on the Big 12 Conference's all-time career rushing list, fifth in touchdowns and sixth in carries.
- Joined Terry Miller, Thurman Thomas and David Thompson as the only players in school history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season twice in a career.
- Was a consensus first-team All-Big 12 selection as a senior in 2003, leading Oklahoma State with a career-high 1,286 yards (6.0 avg.) on 213 carries with 16 touchdowns.
- Rushing total in 2003 ranked 10th on the school's single-season record list and his 16 touchdowns at OSU that year are topped only by Thurman Thomas (17 in 1987), Terry Miller (19 in 1976) and Barry Sanders (39 in 1988) among Cowboy running backs. Additionally, he scored 96 points, which ranked fourth all-time in OSU history.
- As a junior in 2002, Bell was an All-Big 12 second-team selection by the league's coaches after playing in 11 games, leading the team with 1,096 yards and 11 touchdowns on 175 carries (6.3 avg.).
- Eclipsed 100-yard mark vs. Texas Tech (165 yards on 22 carries, two touchdowns), becoming the first Cowboy since David Thompson (1996) to rush 100 yards in three consecutive games.
- Played 10 games (9 starts) as a sophomore in 2001 and led the team with 197 carries for 776 yards (3.9 avg.) with six touchdowns and caught a career-high 18 passes for 97 yards (5.4 avg.).
- During his freshman year in 2000, Bell was a reserve tailback who turned heads with a 60-yard touchdown run against Oklahoma in

2007 DETROIT LIONS

Oklahoma State's nationally televised season finale.

PERSONAL: One of the fastest high school players in the nation (clocked at 10.26 in the 100-meter dash and 4.34 in the 40-yard dash), Bell rushed for 1,225 yards and 19 touchdowns at DeSoto High School in DeSoto, Texas. In addition to his 19 rushing touchdowns, he had three touchdown passes and returned one kickoff for a score.

- Was a two-time all-district selection at running back while First Down Recruiting, PrepStar and the Dallas Morning News listed him as a Top-100 player in Texas.
- Heavily recruited by several elite college football programs and opted for Oklahoma State over Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska.
- Majoring in general studies at Oklahoma State.
- Brother, T.J., is in third year playing CB for Oklahoma State.
- Has a daughter, Ta'Lor Rayn Bell, who was born Nov. 21, 2005. The son of Terry and Tony Bell, Tatum Antoine Bell was born March 2, 1981, in Dallas and resides in DeSoto.

ERIC BEVERLY

Tight End

Miami (Ohio)

Ht: 6-3

Born: 3/28/74

Draft: '97, FA-Det

10th Year

Wt: 300

Hometown: Bedford Heights, Ohio

Acq: '07, FA

47

PRO: Beverly returned to the Lions this past offseason after spending the past three seasons with the Falcons. He originally signed with Detroit as an undrafted free agent April 24, 1997 and played six seasons (1998-03) as a guard and center. Upon signing with Atlanta in 2004, he converted to the tight end position at which he played 45 games (seven starts), primarily as a blocking tight end, for one of the NFL's most productive running offenses.

MAINE FACTS

- Participated in the 2007 Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing and annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.

- During his previous stint with the Lions, he donated tickets for each home game to non-profit groups through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- "Making a difference one day, one life at a time" is the founding principle of the The Eric R. Beverly Family Foundation (beverlyfamilyfoundation.org) that was started in May 2006. It was inspired by his wife Danielle's courageous battle as a two-time breast cancer survivor. The foundation helps other survivors and family members who love and support them.

- The 10-year veteran has been very active to prepare for life after football. In 2003, he interned in various departments throughout the NFL offices in New York as part of the NFL's Player Development programs. In Atlanta, he interned at Georgia Pacific in the corporation's marketing and sales department.
- Participant 2006 Harvard Executive Business Management program.
- In 2000, he interned in the purchasing department at the Kmart headquarters in Troy.
- He also worked with the University of Georgia's athletic department to develop life skills for the schools student-athletes.
- Breast cancer awareness advocate and serves as a board member of Gilda's Club.
- Involved in the Falcons' Player Performance Pledge program and contributed financially to City Mission (Michigan), Gilda's Club of Metro Detroit and Garth Brooks Teammates for Kids.
- Has a goal to pursue a position college athletics following career, working in administration and academics.

2006: Contributed to the NFL's best running game (183.7 ypg) as a blocking tight end while playing in all 16 games with two starts.

- Saw action at Carolina (9/10), blocking for a rushing attack that accumulated 252 yards and an offense that allowed only one sack.
- Blocked for a running game that rushed for franchise record 306 yards vs. Tampa Bay (9/17).
- Paved the way for a running game that accumulated 262 yards on the ground against Arizona (10/11).
- Helped block for an offense that accumulated a season-high 420 yards at Cincinnati (10/29).
- Opened running lanes for a ground attack that totaled 281 yards vs. New Orleans (11/26).
- Started at tight end at Washington (12/3) and assisted a running game that racked up 256 yards (6.2 avg.) on 41 attempts.
- Hauled in his first, and only, career reception (no gain) at Philadelphia (12/31).

2005: Played in 16 games with two starts, serving as a key blocker in a Falcons offense that led the NFL in rushing for a second-consecutive season (159.1 rushing yards per game).

- Made starts at New Orleans (10/16) and vs. Carolina (1/1) when the team opened with two tight ends.

2004: Saw action primarily as a blocking tight end in 13 games with three starts during his first season in Atlanta.

- Started in two-tight end formations vs. Oakland (12/12) and at New Orleans (12/26).
- Suffered a shoulder injury vs. Detroit (10/10) and remained inactive the following three weeks.
- Started in place of TE Alge Crumpler (knee) vs. Seattle (1/2/05) and helped the offense rush for 204 yards.

2003: Started the first 13 games of the season at left guard before suffering a sprained ankle in the second quarter vs. San Diego (12/7) which forced him to miss the final three games.

- Placed on injured reserve on December 13.

2002: Played in 15 games, starting the final three contests at left guard vs. Tampa Bay (12/15), at Atlanta (12/22) and vs. Minnesota (12/29).

- Inactive (calf) for the season opener vs. Miami (9/8).

2001: Started 16 games at center after Lions matched a three-year offer sheet by the Miami Dolphins in March 2001 to retain his services.

- Anchored the offensive line vs. Tennessee (10/21) as QB Charlie Batch threw for 338 yards.
- Helped RB James Stewart rush for 108 yards and Batch throw for 345 passing yards at Minnesota (10/14).
- Snapped to Batch during his 400-yard passing game at Arizona (11/18).

2000: Played in all 16 games for the third consecutive year, serving as a backup on the offensive line, as a third tight end in short-yardage situations and as a special teams performer.

- Thrust into the starting lineup Weeks 4-10 as Mike Compton shifted to the left guard position. The move helped James Stewart post three 100-yard rushing performances during that span.

1999: Served as a backup center for the second consecutive season, appearing in all 16 regular season games while earning the first two starts of his career.

- One of the team's unsung heroes in an opening day win at Seattle

(9/12), holding up well in his first career start (Mike Compton out with knee injury) against one of the league's most physical interior defensive lines.

- Returned to a backup role Weeks 2-15 and saw brief action at center vs. Minnesota (10/17).
- Recorded his second career start in the season finale at Minnesota (1/2) with Compton moving to left tackle for the injured Ray Roberts.
- Inactive (foot) for the NFC Wild Card Playoff Game at Washington (1/8/00).

1998: Appeared in all 16 games on special teams units and short-yardage formations.

1997: Spent the majority of his rookie campaign on the practice squad before being signed to the active roster on December 20.

- Dressed but did not play in the season finale vs. New York Jets (12/21).
- Inactive for the NFC Wild Card Playoff Game at Tampa Bay (12/28).

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at Miami (Ohio), playing the first three years at tight end before shifting to tackle during his senior season.

- Started all 11 games in 1996 along the offensive line (nine at right tackle and two at left tackle) and was voted one of three captains.
- Caught six balls for 51 yards during his first three years playing tight end, starting all 11 games as a junior in 1995 and six games in 1993 as a freshman.

PERSONAL: Earned all-area tight end honors at Bedford Heights (Ohio) High School, where he was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

- Served as the NFL player representative for Lions from 2002-04, in addition to being voted as the Detroit Lions community All-Star recipient and earning the Detroit Sports Fans Choice Humanitarian Award (2003).

➤ Born Eric Raymonde Beverly on March 28, 1974 in Cleveland, Ohio.

PRO: Bryant returns for his fourth season with the Lions to compete for a starting cornerback position in 2007 after starting 10 games in 2006. He showed a high level of physical play in 2006 as he returned to form following a 2005 campaign where he spent most of the season on the Reserve/Injured list. The Lions signed him to a six-year contract on March 5, 2004. In eight NFL seasons, he has started 93 of 94 games he has played. Jacksonville selected Bryant in the first round (26th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft and he became only the second Jaguar to start every game as a rookie.

MAJOR FACTS

- Bryant, a Camilla, Georgia native, was honored on April 10, 2007 at the Georgia State Capitol in front of the General Assembly. The resolution, initiated by Senator Ron Ramsey, Sr. was bestowed upon Bryant in honor of his extensive community work and humanitarian efforts.
- Named the Lions 2004 Robert Porcher Man of the Year for his countless charitable contributions off the field.
- Recipient of 2004 Detroit Sports Fans Choice "Humanitarian" Award for his commitment to the Detroit community.
- Bryant's 25-Sports Foundation was established in 2001 to provide guidance and encouragement to inner-city children through a variety of initiatives.
- Supports organ donation programs (brother, Larry, received a life-saving kidney transplant in 2001).
- Initiated the T.A.L.K. (Talking About Life with Kids) program with which he spent many Tuesdays during the 2004 season going to different high schools in Detroit to visit with student athletes and talk to them about academics, peer pressure and stress management.
- Started an essay writing contest in Detroit inner city middle schools. Winners were selected each week of a Lions' home game and were rewarded with an opportunity to attend the game and meet Bryant.
- Helped to purchase and shop for emergency relief supplies for Hurricane Katrina victims at Costco Wholesale.
- Hosted 25-disadvantaged youth at each Lions' home game through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Helped provide and deliver over 400 families from the Children's Aid Society with Thanksgiving baskets in 2006.
- A diehard San Francisco 49ers fan when he was growing up.
- A self-proclaimed "Superman buff," he loves Smallville and collects all kinds of memorabilia from Superman, Star Wars, Spiderman and other science fiction titles.

2006: Made 46 tackles (42 solo), six passes defended and one fumble recovery.

- In his first game since injuring his clavicle against Chicago in Week 2 of the 2005 season, forcing him to miss the entire season, Bryant posted solid numbers with eight tackles (seven solo) and two pass breakups against Seattle (9/10).
- Registered one solo tackle at Chicago (9/17).
- Inactive against Green Bay (9/24) due to personal reasons (death of his grandmother).
- Inactive at St. Louis (10/1) because of an ankle injury.
- Had six solo tackles and one pass breakup at Minnesota (10/8) as he returned from an ankle injury.
- Posted a season-best nine solo tackles and one pass breakup against Buffalo (10/15).

- Made four tackles (three solo) and one pass breakup vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- At Arizona (11/19), Bryant registered five solo tackles.
- Recorded four tackles (three solo), one pass breakup and recovered his first fumble of the year vs. Miami (11/23).
- Made two tackles (one solo) before leaving the game after suffering a concussion at New England (12/3).
- Inactive vs. Minnesota (12/10), Green Bay (12/17) and vs. Chicago (12/24) due to the lingering effects of a concussion suffered against the Patriots.
- Was placed on the Reserve/Injured list on December 27 due to a lingering concussion.

2005: Placed on the Reserve/Injured list September 27, 2005 due to a clavicle injury sustained at Chicago (9/18).

2004: Ranked second on the team in pass defenses (13) and led all cornerbacks in tackles (48) despite missing six games due to injury.

- Recorded a season-high eight tackles twice: vs. Indianapolis (11/25) and in home opener vs. Houston (9/19).
- Was inactive for the final four games of the season due to an ankle injury.

2003: Started all 16 games and played every snap on defense in eight of the games.

- Made six tackles at Indianapolis (9/21) and held all-pro WR Marvin Harrison to just 31 yards on four catches.
- Put together a solid effort at Houston (9/28) with three passes defended and his first interception of the season off David Carr.

2002: Played left cornerback and started all 16 games for second time in career and first time since rookie season.

- Led team's corners with 67 tackles (61 solo).
- Received a defense game ball for performance vs. Philadelphia (10/6) when he made seven tackles while playing with a sprained ankle.

2001: Finished with 56 tackles (50 solo), tops among team's cornerbacks.

- Missed six games with a foot injury, tied for his most missed games in a season since he started playing football.
- Suffered a foot injury vs. Cleveland (9/30) after making nine tackles, tying his career high, and was inactive next game.
- Played nickel back when he returned vs. Buffalo (10/18).
- Re-injured his foot in Monday night game vs. Green Bay (12/3) after making a career-high 10 tackles.
- Inactive next four games. Placed on Reserve/Injured January 1.

2000: Started all 14 games played, leading team's cornerbacks with 57 tackles (42 solo).

- Received game ball along with 13 other players for team's first shutout ever vs. Cincinnati (9/17).
- Tied for team lead with seven tackles (six solo) in Monday night game at Indianapolis (9/25).
- Suffered hamstring injury in Monday night game at Tennessee (10/16) and, although he finished the game, it forced him to be inactive for next game vs. Washington (missing first game as a Jaguar and first football game since 1995, when he was a freshman at Alabama).
- Returned to starting lineup at Dallas (10/29), making four tackles and recovering a fumble to thwart a Dallas drive in the fourth quarter.
- Suffered sprained left ankle in first quarter and left game vs. Cleveland (12/3) which caused him to be inactive the next week vs. Arizona.

1999: Named to every All-Rookie team (Pro Football Writers of America/Pro Football Weekly, Football News, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest).

- Started every game and led Jaguars cornerbacks second among defensive backs (fourth on the team) with 78 tackles (64 solo).
- Became sixth Jaguars rookie to start on opening day.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- Made his first NFL interception in his second pro game at Carolina (9/19) off Steve Beuerlein.
- Got his first fumble recovery the next week vs. Tennessee (9/26), which set up a Jaguars touchdown.
- Earned a defense game ball at Cincinnati (10/31) when he set up a touchdown with a recovery of a Corey Dillon fumble at Bengals' eight-yard line as well as making a season-high nine tackles (seven solo) and team-leading four passes broken up.
- Earned his second defensive game ball after he made his second interception of the season vs. New Orleans (11/21) off Billy Joe Hobert in the fourth quarter to set up a touchdown, as well as seven solo tackles and two passes defended.
- Suffered a strained right hamstring in third quarter of season finale vs. Cincinnati (1/2) and did not return.
- Made the first postseason interception of his career vs. Tennessee (1/23) off Steve McNair in the AFC Championship game.

COLLEGE: Made 40 starts in 45 games, registering 179 tackles (149 solo), had three fumbles recovered and eight interceptions and also returned 17 kickoffs for 466 yards (27.4 avg).

- Played in two bowl games: 1996 Outback and 1997 Music City.
- Consensus All-SEC first-team selection as a senior in 1998 after starting every game and recording a career-high 51 tackles (44 solo) with two interceptions and four pass deflections.
- Closed out his career with an interception and a pass deflection in the Music City Bowl against Virginia Tech.
- A broken jaw sustained in spring practice prior to his senior season kept him from getting offensive repetitions (coaches had planned to use him on offense in 1998, but scrapped the idea after his injury).
- All-SEC second-team choice in 1997 when he made 47 tackles (39 solo) with two tackles for loss, recovered two fumbles and forced one, deflected 10 passes, had three interceptions for 106 yards in returns and one touchdown and returned 15 kickoffs for 416 yards (27.7 avg).
- Second-team All-SEC selection in 1996 when he started every game, making 42 tackles (36 solo) with one fumble recovery, deflected 14 passes, blocked a kick, had three interceptions for 13 yards and blocked an extra point attempt.
- Knoxville News-Sentinel SEC All-Freshman team in 1995. Started final six games, and had 39 tackles and deflected three passes.

SHAWN BRYSON

Running Back

Tennessee

Ht: 6-1

Born: 11/30/76

Draft: '99, R3 (86)-Buf

9th Year

Wt: 230

Hometown: Franklin, N.C.

Acq: '03, UFA-Buf

PRO: Bryson once again looks to be a valuable contributor on offense filling a myriad of roles, including both running back and fullback positions. He returns after suffering a season-ending knee injury after six games in 2006 (placed on Reserve/Injured October 16, 2006). In 2005, he saw action as a tailback and fullback, and finished the season as the team's fourth-leading receiver (37 receptions). Bryson re-signed with the Lions March 15, 2006. He originally signed with Detroit March 26, 2003 as an unrestricted free agent previously with Buffalo which drafted him in the third round of the 1999 NFL Draft. Bryson is a strong running back with good speed and an ability to catch the ball out of the backfield.

MAJOR FACTS

- Appeared in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd" as a nine-year-old after scoring seven touchdowns in a Little League Game.
- Plays golf in his spare time.
- Likes to watch crime shows such as CSI and Law and Order.
- Participated in the 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Named 2005 Offensive MVP by The Detroit Lions Quarterback Club, the official booster club of the Lions.

2006: Played in six games with one start to record two rushes for 1 yard and eight receptions for 98 yards (12.3 avg) with one receiving touchdown. A knee injury forced him on the Reserve/Injured list October 16, 2006.

- Bryson made one catch for 4 yards against Seattle (9/10) in the Lions '06 season opener.
- Bryson had one rush for 1 yard and one catch for 4 yards at Chicago (9/17).
- Scored the first touchdown for Detroit against Green Bay (9/24) on a 37-yard reception from QB Jon Kitna. Finished the game with two receptions for 46 yards (23.0 avg) and one touchdown. The 37-yard touchdown reception was the longest touchdown reception of his career.

- Had two catches for 30 yards with a long of 21 yards at St. Louis (10/1).
- Recorded two receptions for the second-straight game at Minnesota (10/8) and collected 14 yards.
- Started his first game of the season at FB, but left early against Buffalo (10/15) with a knee injury.

2005: Season was highlighted with a career long 77-yard touchdown run vs. Baltimore (10/9), which was the fourth rushing TD of the game by the Lions and the most ever yielded by the Ravens defense.

- Second on the team in receiving yards vs. Chicago (10/30). Had five receptions for 40 yards, as well as four carries for 6 yards.
- Played a more prominent role at Minnesota (11/6) after RB Kevin Jones left the game. Second on the team in receptions against the Vikings with 6 for 30 yards. Had a key third down conversion in the second quarter to continue a Detroit drive that resulted in a TE Marcus Pollard touchdown. Also recorded a special teams tackle.
- Of his 7 carries and 2 receptions, four were for first downs against Arizona (11/13). Key 16-yard reception helped to keep a Detroit scoring drive alive and give Detroit a 19-3 halftime lead.
- Had a 10-yard run at the end of the first quarter to give Jason Hanson a 26-yard field goal opportunity vs. Minnesota (12/4). Also recorded a special teams tackle in the game. Handled one kickoff return (12 yards) after Eddie Drummond was shaken up on the first kickoff return of the game.
- Returned one kickoff 18 yards at Green Bay (12/11).
- One kickoff return for no gain vs. Cincinnati (12/18). Started at FB.
- Recorded 2 special teams tackles at New Orleans (12/24).
- Had a career-long 63-yard reception at Pittsburgh (1/1) on third-and-13 to keep a Lions scoring drive alive in the first quarter.

2004: Finished the season as the Lions' second-leading rusher (50 carries, 264 yards) and receiver (44 receptions, 322 yards).

- Filled in at FB for injured Cory Schlesinger vs. Philadelphia (9/26).

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- Had a season-high 28-yard run and reeled in a 14-yard reception on the Lions' first scoring drive at Atlanta (10/10). Later in the game, he recorded his 100th career reception.
- 51 receiving yards, including a 25-yard lateral toss from Az Hakim that helped set up a Lions TD to tie game at 21 with 6:11 to play vs. Minnesota (12/19).
- Career-high nine catches for season-high 63 yards at Tennessee (1/2).

2003: Finished the season as the Lions' leader in rushing yards (606) and receptions (54).

- 606 yards and 54 receptions for 340 yards were all career-highs.
- Started at running back vs. Minnesota (9/21) and had 49 rushing yards and his first touchdown, a five-yard run, in a Lions' uniform.
- Caught a Lions' season-high and a then career-high eight passes for 42 yards vs. San Diego (12/7).
- Racked up a season-best 105 yards on 18 carries (5.8 avg), the Lions' first 100-yard rushing game of the season, at Kansas City (12/14), and also had a Lions' season-long 39-yard rush in the game and a one-yard touchdown run, his third of the season.

2002: Played in six games, mostly on special teams, before suffering a season-ending left knee injury at Houston (10/13).

- Placed on IR October 18 with torn knee ligaments.

2001: Finished second on Buffalo Bills in rushing with 80 carries for 341 yards and two touchdowns.

- Gained 130 yards (1st 100+ game) on 16 carries at Atlanta (12/23), highlighted by a 15-yard TD run in the first quarter which was his first career rushing touchdown and a 68-yard touchdown run in third quarter which was a career-high, marking his first multi-TD game.
- Recorded his second consecutive 100+ yard game with a 107-yard effort at New York Jets (12/30).
- Led the team in rushing yards for the third straight week in season finale at Miami (1/6).

2000: Led the team with 591 yards rushing for the season and was also the team's leading rusher in nine games.

- Appeared in first NFL game vs. Tennessee (9/3) after returning from a knee injury that forced him to miss entire 1999 season.
- Made his first NFL start in a 27-18 win vs. Green Bay (9/10).
- Set up game-winning FG in OT at New England (11/5) by picking up 20 yards on just two carries.
- Made a spectacular dive for the game's first TD on an 11-yard reception at Seattle (12/23), but did not return after injuring hip.

1999:

- Drew raves for his performance in his first NFL training camp.
- Tore ACL in drills on 8/10/99 and missed the entire season.

COLLEGE: Started every game at fullback as a junior and senior at Tennessee.

- A team captain and leader for the National Champion Vols in 1998.
- Gained 200 yards on 21 carries (9.5 avg) with four touchdowns as a senior and also had 19 catches for 167 yards and a touchdown receiving; the score came on a 63-yard catch and run vs. Houston.

PERSONAL: A four-sport star at Franklin (N.C.) High.

- All-America, all-state, and all-conference selection following his senior football season and was also selected as Western North Carolina Player of the Year by the Asheville Citizen.

- As a senior, rushed for 1,204 yards and 19 touchdowns and also returned 17 kickoffs for 528 yards.

- Gained 986 yards and recorded 12 touchdowns as a junior.
- Also an all-conference selection in basketball, baseball and track.
- Full name: Adrian Shawn Bryson.

DANIEL BULLOCKS

Safety

Nebraska

Ht: 6-0

Born: 2/28/83

Draft: '06, R2 (40)-Det

2nd Year

Wt: 212

Hometown: Chattanooga, Tenn.

27

PRO: Bullocks is slated to take over team's free safety position following a successful rookie season where he started seven of the 15 games he played. In the second round of the 2006 NFL Draft, the Lions selected a versatile and physical safety in Daniel Bullocks who in his rookie season finished with 70 tackles (52 solo), seven special teams tackles and seven passes defended. He brings athleticism and intensity to the defensive backfield and is capable of playing either safety position.

MAJOR FACTS

- Former teammate of his twin brother, Josh, who started alongside Daniel as a free safety for Nebraska (2001-04). Josh, who is the younger of the twins by one minute, was selected in the second round (40th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints.
- Josh and Daniel are cousins of former U.S. Olympic gold medalist Evelyn Ashford.
- Donated Lions home game tickets to MI-COPS through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Took part in 2006 Rookie Night at Detroit Lions QB Club.
- Looked up to the Detroit Lions as a youth and cites Barry Sanders as his favorite player and role model.
- Drinks pickle juice before each game, and pre-game routine including always tying right shoe before left, puts on pants and then shoulder pads.
- Loves antique cars and owns two '72 Chevelle SSs.

2006: Bullocks led all NFC rookie defensive backs (ranked fourth amongst all rookie defensive backs in the NFL) with 70 tackles (52 solo), according to press box statistics.

- Appeared in first NFL game vs. Seattle (9/10) on special teams.
- Registered his first tackles of his NFL career, notching six solo tackles on defense and two special teams tackles at Chicago (9/17).
- Bullocks' first start came at strong safety against Green Bay (9/24) while helping Hixon to four Class 4A playoff appearances.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- Took over starting QB duties as sophomore, without previously playing the position and totaled more than 50 career touchdowns.
- As a senior, Bullocks was the Player of the Year in Chattanooga by the Times Free Press and was Mr. Tennessee for football in Class 4A.
- Earned Class 4A first-team All-State honors, and both he and Josh were named to the Associated Press Tennessee All-Star Team.
- The twins both played in the Tennessee vs. Kentucky All-Star Game, and Daniel earned MVP honors after returning an interception 104 yards for a touchdown in Tennessee's 30-20 victory.
- Graduated December 2005 with a degree in sociology.

DAN CAMPBELL

Tight End

Texas A&M

Ht: 6-5

Born: 4/13/76

Draft: '99, R3 (79)-NYG

9th Year

Wt: 265

Hometown: Glen Rose, Texas

PRO: Campbell, known as one of the NFL's premier blocking tight ends, proved his ability to stretch the field in the Lions' offense in 2006. He is considered to be one of the most technically sound blocking tight ends in the entire league, and is continuing to grow as a pass catcher. He signed a five-year deal with Detroit March 14, 2006 after spending the last three seasons with Dallas (2003-05) as a key run and pass blocker. In his first season with Dallas, he helped their offense climb to 15th in the league in yards-per-game (322.6 yards) from 30th in 2002 (273.4) and was named to USA Today's All-Joe team. Prior to signing with Dallas in 2003, Campbell spent the first four years of his NFL career with the New York Giants. He was originally drafted by the Giants in the third round (79th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft out of Texas A&M.

MAVE FACTS

- Participated in the 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Served as guest speaker at a Detroit Lions Quarterback Club meeting.
- Was a Cowboys fan & looked up to Daryl 'Moose' Johnston.
- Admired tight ends such as Mark Bavaro, Doug Cosby and Mark Chmura when he was growing up. Everybody told him that he would be a tight end because he was tall and lanky.
- Favorite movie is Braveheart.
- Would like to get into coaching after his football career. Likes the idea of helping to mold high school players.

2006: Posted a career-year in yardage (308), average per catch (14.7 avg), long reception (30 yards) and touchdowns (4). Of his 21 receptions on the season, nine were over 20 yards and four were caught for touchdowns. His nine grabs of 20 or more yards tied for the fourth-most by a tight end in the NFC (tied for 10th in the NFL). Coming into 2006, he had a career total of eight 20+ yard receptions. Campbell's four touchdown receptions this season are the most by a Lions tight end in a single season since TE David Sloan recorded seven in 2001.

- Hauled in one catch for a career-long reception of 30 yards against Seattle (9/10).
- Had one catch for 23 yards at Chicago (9/17).
- Recorded three catches for a single-game career-high 53 yards (17.7 avg.) with a long of 25 yards against Green Bay (9/24).
- Caught his first touchdown pass of the season and first as a Lion on a 12-yard rumble into the endzone at Minnesota (10/8) off a tight end middle screen play.
- Registered one catch for 22 yards at the New York Jets (10/22) that was one of three straight 20-plus yard plays on the Lions first TD drive of the game.
- Had two grabs for 27 yards with a long catch of 16 yards vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Caught his second TD of the season, an 8-yarder from QB Jon Kitna, while accumulating two catches for 32 yards (long 24 yards) vs. San Francisco (11/12).
- At Arizona (11/19), Campbell made two catches for 19 yards (9.5 avg).
- Recorded his third touchdown of the year, which tied a career-high, on a 2-yard grab in the redzone from QB Jon Kitna vs. Miami (11/23).
- Made a 21-yard grab in the fourth quarter at New England (12/3).
- Registered two catches for 30 yards with a long catch of 19 yards vs. Minnesota (12/10).
- Recorded his fourth receiving touchdown of the season, a new career-high, along with two catches for 31 yards and a long catch of 23 yards for a touchdown vs. Chicago (12/24).

2005: Elected offensive team captain by his teammates.

- Selected to receive the Cowboy's 2005 Ed Block Courage Award after recovering from an appendectomy (July 27) the day the team reported to training camp. He missed the first 10 days of practice but returned to start all four preseason games.
- Started at San Diego (9/11) when Dallas opened in a two-tight end set, his first action since injuring his foot Week 3 of the 2004 season.
- At Washington (9/19), he started and saw considerable action while lined up at fullback, and helped the Dallas front to not allow a sack in 36 pass plays, the first time Dallas shut out an opposing defense in the sack category since 2002.

- Started and saw action in two-tight end offense as well as at fullback at San Francisco (9/25) while helping Cowboys allow just two sacks in 40 pass plays as offense rolled up 443 yards of total offense.
- For second time of season his blocking was instrumental in the offense not allowing a sack of Drew Bledsoe while the racking up 456 yards of offense vs. Philadelphia (10/9), the most since gaining 541 yards at Washington on Sept. 12, 1999. Included in that total were a season-high 167 rushing yards.
- Started at Seattle (10/23) and helped the running game rack up 164 yards at a 4.2 yard-per-carry clip.
- Blocking helped lead the way as Marion Barber rushed for 127 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries, the club's first 100-yard rushing game of the season vs. Arizona (10/30).
- Recorded a kickoff return vs. Denver (11/24), a 14-yard return on a squib kick.
- Hauled in his biggest catch of the season with a 1-yard touchdown grab with 0:22 remaining in the game to give Dallas a 31-28 win vs. Kansas City (12/11).
- Run blocking at Carolina (12/24) allowed Julius Jones to rush for 194 yards, the fourth best performance in club history.

2004: Was off to solid start when his season was cut short with a severely sprained right foot in Week 3.

- In the season opener at Minnesota (9/12), his blocking helped limit the Vikings to one sack in 52 pass plays while helping Dallas rack up 423 yards of offense – their highest output since posting 437 yards against the N.Y. Giants on Jan. 2, 2000.
- Caught a 9-yard pass in home opener vs. Cleveland (9/19) while his blocking helped Dallas roll up season-high 441 offensive yards.
- At Washington (9/27), he caught a 9-yard pass to convert a critical third down late in the game as Dallas fought to control the clock in the 21-18 victory. Unfortunately, he sprained his right foot on the catch.
- Placed on injured reserve (9/30) and underwent surgery to repair the foot (10/5).

2003: Blocking and clutch receptions helped the Cowboys offense climb to 15th in the league in yards-per-game (322.6 yards) after falling to 30th in 2002 (273.4).

- USA Today named him to its All-Joe team following the season.
- In opener against Atlanta (9/7), was part of an offensive front that guided Dallas to 149 yards rushing and 403 total yards.
- The following week against his former Giants (9/15), he recorded his first catch as a Cowboy with a 23-yard grab on third-and-one in overtime to set up the game-winning field goal at the Giants' six-yard line. His blocking was also instrumental in helping limit the Giants' Michael Strahan to one tackle.
- Campbell's work as a blocker was again on display at the N.Y. Jets (9/28) as the game rushed for 202 yards on 41 carries (4.9 avg.).
- Against Arizona (10/5), he helped Dallas pick up 365 yards, allowing the Cowboys to open the season with four straight games of over 360 yards of offense – the longest such streak by the club since Weeks 2-6 of the 1993 season.
- Had a season-high three receptions, including his first touchdown as a Cowboy, against Buffalo (11/9). His two-yard scoring catch on third down in the first quarter was the only touchdown of the game and proved to be the winning points.

2002: Blocking was instrumental in the career-years of both Kerry Collins (4,073 passing yards, a club-record) and Tiki Barber (1,387 rushing yards, a career-high and the second best total in club history).

- Started all 16 games and caught 20 passes for 155 yards (7.8 yard avg.) and a TD despite addition of Pro Bowl TE Jeremy Shockey.
- Finished with three receptions for 30 yards at Dallas (10/6), including a 20-yard reception on third-and-three, extending drive that resulted in Marcellus Rivers' game-winning 17-yard touchdown reception.
- Had an outstanding day at Minnesota (11/10) when he finished with a career-high four receptions for a career-high 35 yards.
- Against Tennessee (12/1), he finished with one reception for a 1-yard touchdown. His only touchdown of the season gave the Giants a 10-7 lead in the second quarter.
- Blocking helped Barber gain 203 yards on 32 carries in the regular season finale against Philadelphia (12/28) which clinched a playoff berth for the Giants.
- In the NFC Wild Card Game at San Francisco (1/5), he finished with two receptions for 13 yards, and his run blocking helped Barber gain 115 yards on 26 carries.

2001: Campbell played in all 16 games for the second straight year, earning 13 starts. Led all Giants tight ends with 13 receptions for 148 yards and a TD. Nine of his 13 catches resulted in a first down.

- Scored only TD of the season on a 1-yard pass from Collins to give the Giants a 16-9 lead in the fourth quarter against Washington (10/7).
- Contributed a reception for 11 yards and outstanding blocking that helped the Giants rush for 186 yards at Arizona (11/11).
- Had two receptions for 29 yards, including a season-long 25-yard catch, at Minnesota (11/19).
- At Philadelphia (12/3), he finished with two catches for a season-high 31 yards. Both receptions came on a drive in the fourth quarter that ended with Ron Dayne's 16-yard touchdown run to give the Giants a 21-14 lead with 2:43 remaining in the game.

2000: Campbell played in all 16 games with four starts and finished third on the team with three TD catches, despite catching just eight passes.

- Started opening day against Arizona (9/3) in a two tight end formation and recorded his first career reception, a 10-yard pass.
- At Tennessee (10/1), the Giants again opened the game in double tight end formation, and Campbell recorded his first career touchdown (1-yard) in the fourth quarter.
- He left the game at Cleveland (11/5) in the fourth quarter after suffering a blow to the head.
- Started at Arizona (11/26) as the Giants opened the game in a double tight end formation and caught his third TD of the season.
- Saw action in double tight end formations and special teams in all three postseason games.

1999: Played in 12 games with one start. Though the majority of his action was on special teams, he served as an extra blocker on offense.

- Earned his first NFL start when the Giants opened in a two tight end package against the N.Y. Jets (12/5), and his blocking helped the Giants gain a season-high 152 yards on the ground.
- He suffered a season-ending hamstring injury in the Friday practice prior to the Buffalo (12/12) game.

COLLEGE: As a senior in 1998, Campbell shared tight end duties, starting games at the "B" slot, at split end and at flanker.

- Finished with 12 receptions for 143 yards (11.9 avg.) and two TDs.
- Also added three tackles on special teams.
- In 1996, he played in every game, finishing the year with eight receptions for 103 yards (12.9 avg.).

PERSONAL: Was a consensus Texas Top 100 selection while playing a variety of positions at Class 3A Glen Rose (Texas) High School.

- Combined for over 1,000 rushing and receiving yards as FB and TD. Caught 27 passes for 423 yards and five TDs in his final year.
- Daniel Allen Campbell and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody.

- 2006 Rookie Night participant at Lions Quarterback Club.
- Made a special visit to University of Michigan's Mott Children's Hospital to visit patients during the 2006 season.
- Grew up in Atlanta, and was Falcons fan. Favorite players were LB Jessie Tuggle and RB Jamal Anderson.
- Loves Law & Order and CSI.
- Dreamed of being in law enforcement when younger. His uncle was on Georgia S.W.A.T. team and he looked up to him a lot.
- Favorite actor is Denzel Washington

2006: Earned his way onto the Lions roster in 2006 by way of special teams, making eight special teams tackles in 12 games played.

- Was inactive in Lions' 2006 opener vs. Seattle (9/10) and at Chicago (9/17).
- Saw his first NFL action against Green Bay (9/24) with appearances on the special teams units.
- In extensive time on special teams and some time on defense, Cannon made his first special teams tackle of his career at St. Louis (10/1).
- Saw spot duty on defense including some goal-line situations at Minnesota (10/8).
- Registered three special teams tackles at Green Bay (12/17).

COLLEGE: He finished his college career as a four-year starter with 437 career tackles to rank fourth all-time at Tulane and third in Conference USA history and his 29 career tackles for loss tie him for fifth-place in school history.

- As a senior, Cannon posted eight double-figure tackle games and totaled 24 games in double figures for his career and led Tulane in tackles (114) for the third time in his career. He was also a First team All-Conference USA selection after ranking second in the league in tackles with 11.4 per game and sixth in C-USA in tackles for loss with 1.25 per contest, was the team's top tackler in 9-of-10 games he played on the year and finished with 47 more tackles than the second-highest total on the team.
- He also had team-highs of 12.5 tackles for loss and five pass break-ups as well as 2.5 sacks during his senior season.
- A third team All-Conference USA selection his junior year, Cannon led Tulane in tackles (107) and sacks (4.0), ranked fourth in C-USA and 29th in the nation in tackles per game while his four fumbles forced were second in the league and tied for 10th in the nation.
- Played in 11 games with 10 starts at weakside linebacker as a sophomore, tallying five-or-more tackles in every game he played and earned All-Louisiana honors as he finished the season with 102 tackles, 60 solo, to rank third on the Tulane team.
- A second team Freshman All-American by The Sporting News, which also named him Conference USA Defensive Freshman of the Year.
- Tulane's top tackler with 114 stops, 67 solo, from his weakside linebacker spot as freshman and also ranked second in the nation among all Division I-A true freshmen in tackles. Named to the C-USA All-Freshman Team and was second team All-Louisiana choice.

- He was also the first true freshman to lead Tulane in tackles since 1977 and made seven or more tackles in 10 of 13 games.

PERSONAL: As a senior at Stephenson High School, Cannon compiled 120 tackles, including 12 for losses and was chosen to represent Georgia in the Florida-Georgia All-Star Game.

- Was honorable mention 5A all-state choice as a senior.
- Helped lead Stephenson to the Region 7-5A Championship and the state quarterfinals his senior year.
- Named one of Georgia's Top 50 prospects.
- As junior, tallied 92 tackles and caught eight passes for 154 yards.
- Also played baseball and ran track.
- Majored in organizational information technology.
- Earned Conference USA Academic Honor Roll recognition for 2003-04 and 2004-05.
- Born Anthony Devon Cannon December 31, 1984 in Pensacola, Fla.

- Helped deliver thousands of pounds of food and supplies to more than 30 Metro Detroit relief agencies at the United Way Hometown Huddle/Lift Up America event, Dec. 5, at Ford Field.
- Looked up to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and a youth and admired Doug Williams. He was also a fan of Walter Payton.
- Loves Martin Lawrence, and owns most of his DVDs like "You So Crazy", "Runteldat" and "Martin".

2006: Provided 120 yards of total offense (94 rushing yards; 26 receiving yards) and returned four kickoffs for 110 yards (27.5 avg) while playing in only six games and starting the final two games of the season. Signed by the Lions November 9, 2006.

- Saw his first action with the Lions of the 2006 season vs. San Francisco (11/12) on special teams.
- Had his first carries of the season at Arizona (11/19), totaling four carries for 20 yards with a long rush of 14 yards.
- Saw time at both running back (two carries for 6 yards; three receptions for 8 yards) and kickoff returner (four kickoff returns for 110 yards with a long of 40, a new career-high long return), where he replaced an injured Eddie Drummond vs. Miami (11/23).
- Made his first start of the season vs. Chicago (12/24) to record five carries for 31 yards (6.2 avg) with a long rush of 16 yards.
- In second start of the season at Dallas (12/31), Cason tied his career-high 10 carries for 31 yards and caught two passes for 18 yards.

2005: Played in two games for the Rams to record 10 attempts for 65 rushing yards, one rushing touchdown, one reception for 11 yards and returned two kickoffs for 48 yards.

- Led the team at Dallas (11/106) with 10 attempts for 65 yards (6.5 avg) with a long run of 14 yards and one touchdown. He also caught one pass for 11 yards and returned two kickoffs for 48 yards (24.0 avg).

2004: Played in three regular season games and both postseason contests as a kick returner. Returned 14 kicks for a 22.1-yard average and a Rams' season-long 31 yards.

- Returned five kicks for an 18.6-yard average at Carolina 12/12.
- Returned two kicks for a 26.5-yard average vs. Philadelphia 12/27.
- Returned seven kickoffs for a team-high 164 return yards, for a 23.4-yard average in regular season finale vs. New York Jets 12/05.
- Returned five kickoffs for a 20.2-yard average in NFC Wildcard Game at Seattle 1/8/05.
- Returned six kickoffs for 20.3-yard average, including a career-playoff long 25-yarder in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Atlanta (1/15/05).

2003: Played in 10 games for Cowboys before being placed in reserve/injured list with right knee injury 12/9.

- Established career-highs with 40 carries for 220 yards and two touchdowns, adding 17 receptions for 142 yards, and five kickoff returns for an average of 16.2 yards. Made Cowboys' debut vs. Atlanta 9/7, taking first carry 63 yards for a touchdown, longest rush by a Cowboy in 2003, as he finished game with career-high 77 yards on two carries and two receptions for 29 yards.
- Season-high seven carries for 31 yards vs. Philadelphia 10/12.
- Gained 40 yards on three receptions at Tampa Bay 10/26.

PRO: Charlton participated in the Lions three-day voluntary OTA session (April 10-12) as a tryout player and then signed a one-year deal with the team April 12, 2007. Returns to NFL ranks after spending most of two seasons in CFL with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Charlton was originally a second-round draft choice (52nd overall) of the Seattle Seahawks in 2002 NFL Draft. He spent his first two seasons with Seattle before being traded to Jacksonville. Charlton last played for the New York Giants in 2003. Through four NFL seasons he had 74 tackles (67 solo), 2.0 sacks (8 yards lost) and two interceptions (one returned 38 yards for TD).

MAJOR FACTS

- Participated in the annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Looked up to superstars CB Deion Sanders and S Ronnie Lott as a youth, and was a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan.
- Loves watching 24, CSI, and Martin, and is a fan of Jamie Foxx and Martin Lawrence.
- Favorite movie is Scarface and favorite music artist is Tupac.
- Involved in real estate business. He has a degree in real estate and wants to stay involved following football career.

2006: Did not play in NFL. Played for CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Second on Bombers' defense with 60 tackles while starting 15 regular season games. Missed three games due to injury.

Started in playoff game against Toronto Argonauts and registered two tackles and a pass defense.

2005: Signed with the New England Patriots February 16 but was released June 9. Joined Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL late in their season and only played in their final two games.

2004: Spent preseason with Oakland. Released September 5.

2003: Played in seven games for the New York Giants, including two starts, after signing with the team November 11.

- Started at Dallas (12/21) and had season-high three tackles.
- Made two tackles while starting consecutive games for the first time in his career in season-ending game vs. Carolina (12/28).

2002: Traded to Jacksonville from Seattle June 20 where he played in 15 games for the Jaguars as a defensive back and kick returner.

- Returned first two kickoffs of his career at New York Giants (11/17) for 42 yards (21, 21).

Career-high three KO returns for 78 yards (career-long of 32 yds).

2001: Played in 15 games with one start and registered 27 tackles, one sack, two interceptions, four pass defenses and was second on the team with three forced fumbles.

- Had arguably best game of career vs. Dallas (12/16) after registering his first career sack which resulted in a fumble and then later intercepting his first pass which he returned 38 yards for a touchdown.

First career start at New York Giants (12/23) and made career-high five tackles. Grabbed second INT at San Diego (12/30).

- Tied career-high with five tackles in season finale vs. Kansas City (1/6) after seeing significant action due to injuries.

2000: Played in all 16 games as a rookie, mostly on special teams.

Saw action in 10 games as DB and finished with 13 tackles (11 solo) with one forced fumble. Finished with seven special teams tackles.

COLLEGE: Two-year starting cornerback at Virginia Tech. Named first-team All-America after finishing junior season with 51 tackles, one interception and three fumble recoveries.

- Started at CB as sophomore and totaled 48 tackles and five picks.
- Played in every game as redshirt freshman.

Ran track in winter of 1996-97. Finished fifth in the 55-meter dash and seventh in the 200 meters at the A-10 Conference Championship.

PERSONAL: Graduated from Virginia Tech in 1999 with a degree in real estate property management and a minor in interior design.

- Was a four-year letterman as a defensive back, wide receiver and quarterback at Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Florida.

Earned All-County honors at DB as sophomore and junior. Moved to QB for senior season. All-District and All-Central Florida honors.

- Finished prep career with more than 1,500 yards rushing, 1,000 yards passing and 30 TDs as well as 80 tackles and six interceptions.

CHARLTON'S FILE

2007 DETROIT LIONS

SHAUN CODY

Defensive Tackle
Southern California
Ht: 6-4
Born: 1/22/83
Draft: '05, R2 (37)-Det

3rd Year
Wt: 310
Hometown: Hacienda Hts., Calif.

75

PRO: Cody will contribute at the nose guard and under tackle positions in 2007 as part of the team's regular defensive line rotation. He began the 2006 season as the starter at the nose tackle position on the defensive line in his second season with the club, but his season was cut short due to a toe injury. He quickly became a regular in the defensive line rotation as a rookie in 2005, playing in all 16 games with two starts. Overall, he possesses impressive speed and has impeccable hand usage, which he utilizes to outmaneuver blockers. The Lions traded up in the second-round with the Tennessee Titans in order to pick up Cody in the 2005 NFL Draft, who saw time at defensive end and tackle at USC.

MAJOR FACTS

- Helped the Lions promote the NFL's "What Moves U" initiative with the American Heart Association aimed to help battle child obesity.
- Donated Lions home game tickets to local Detroit area youth groups through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Made a special visit to University of Michigan's Mott Children's Hospital to visit patients during the 2006 season.
- Took part in the dedication ceremony of the new NFL Youth Education Town, Dick & Sandy Dauch Campus Boys & Girls Club in Detroit.
- Rooted for the LA Rams before they left for St. Louis. Studied defensive lineman but didn't have one in particular that he watched.

2006: Registered 15 tackles (seven solo) in six games with five starts. Placed on the Reserve/Injured list with a dislocated left toe on November 24, 2006.

- Made his third career start, and first opening day start, at defensive tackle against Seattle (9/10) to record five tackles (one solo).
- Had one assisted tackle at Minnesota (10/8) before leaving the game early with a dislocated left toe.
- Inactive vs. Buffalo (10/15), at New York Jets (10/22), vs. Atlanta (11/5) and vs. San Francisco (11/12) with a dislocated left toe.
- Returned to the lineup at Arizona (11/19) after missing four games with a dislocated left toe, but left the game after re-aggravating the injury.

2005: Quickly became a regular in the defensive line rotation as a rookie, playing in all 16 games with two starts after being drafted in the second round (37th overall) of the 2005 Draft.

- Made his first professional appearance vs. Green Bay (9/11) where he recorded two total tackles (one solo).
- Recorded the first sack of his career vs. Carolina (10/16). He totaled 1.5 sacks for a loss of 15.0 yards on the game.
- Filled in after Shaun Rogers left the game early at Cleveland (10/23). Recorded two total tackles.
- Made his first career start against Chicago (10/30). Had first career forced fumble, which was recovered by DE Kalimba Edwards to prevent a Bears field goal attempt.
- Had first career fumble recovery at Minnesota (11/6) to prevent a Vikings FG attempt. Also recorded five tackles, a single-game best.

COLLEGE: Prior to his senior season in 2004, he moved to end from tackle and finished with a career-high 45 tackles (29 solo), 10 sacks, 13 stops for losses, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and three pass deflections.

- Team captain and voted PAC-10 co-Defensive Player of the Year; Sports Illustrated.com 2004 All-American first team; Associated Press All-American first team; FWAA first team.

- Finalist for the Lombardi Award and Hendricks Award and semifinalist for the Bednarik Award and Lott Trophy.
- As a junior in 2003, he started all 13 games and had 26 tackles, including 10.5 for losses (55 yards) and 6.0 sacks (43 yards), one forced fumble, a pass deflection, and three blocked field goals.
- 2003 Associated Press All-American third team, All-Pac-10 first team and Collegefootballnews.com All-Pac-10 first team.
- Started USC's first six games in 2002 and amassed 20 tackles, a pass deflection, and a fumble recovery.
- 2002 All-Pac-10 honorable mention despite having his season end prematurely after tearing ligaments in his right knee vs. California, which required season-ending surgery.
- Played four games at defensive end and started eight games at tackle as a freshman.
- 2001 Football Writers Freshman All-American first team; The Sporting News Freshman All-American first team; Football News Freshman All-American first team; The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team, and All-Pac-10 honorable mention.
- Appeared in all 12 games with 39 tackles (32 solo), including seven for losses (33 yards), one fumble recovery, and five sacks (26 yards).

PERSONAL: Attended Los Altos High in Hacienda Heights (Calif.) for his final three years.

- Attended Damien High in La Verne (Calif.) his freshman year.
- 105 tackles with 22 sacks in 2000.
- USA Today All-USA first team Defensive MVP.
- Parade All-American; Super Prep All-American; PrepStar All-American and Dream Team.
- Student Sports Senior All-American and Top 100.
- Also played basketball.
- Born January 22, 1983.

PRO: Curry continues to be a valuable special teams player and a solid backup linebacker for the Lions. He was voted as a special teams captain by his teammates for the 2006 season and was voted special teams captain (three-way tie with Vernon Fox and Wali Rainer) at the end of the 2005 season. He continuously proves his tough and tenacious play in addition to his leadership on and off the field. Curry signed a three-year contract extension at the end of the 2004 season. He was originally claimed off waivers from the Washington Redskins by the Lions on August 28, 2002 and became the primary strongside linebacker in the fifth game of the 2002 season due to injuries. Curry entered the NFL as an undrafted rookie free agent with Green Bay in 2001 and was signed by the Redskins off the Packers' practice squad October 3, 2001.

JARED DeVRIES

Defensive End

Iowa

Ht: 6-4

Born: 6/11/76

Draft: '99, R3 (70)-Det

9th Year

Wt: 275

Hometown: Aplington, Iowa

95

PRO: Nine-year defensive lineman made the most of his playing time in 2006, starting in a career-best nine games. DeVries has also been a key member of Detroit's 'wedge' on kick returns, which has helped the Lions' return game rank amongst the league's best in recent years. He signed a five-year deal with the Lions on March 22, 2006 and will continue to be a vital part of the team's rotation on the defensive line. Detroit selected DeVries in the third round (70th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft after a standout career at Iowa.

MANE FACTS

- DeVries is one of four players out of Aplington-Parkersburg (Iowa) High School to be currently playing in the NFL despite the fact that the school's enrollment is only 200 students. The other three in the league are Casey Wiegmann (KC), Aaron Kampman (GB) and Brad Meester (Jax).
- Nominated high school coach Edward Thomas (Aplington-Parkersburg H.S.; Parkersburg, Iowa), who was named the 2005 NFL High School Football Coach of the Year by the NFL.
- Helped to purchase and shop for emergency relief supplies for Hurricane Katrina victims in 2006.
- Donated Lions' home game tickets to the Children's Hospital of Michigan and Our Children's Homestead through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.

- Took part for fourth-straight year in the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar that helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Honored as the Lions 2004 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, which recognizes men of courage in the NFL.
- Attended 13th annual Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Participated in annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.

2006: Started in a career-best nine games at DE, producing a career-best 37 tackles (18 solo) on the season.

- Two tackles (one solo) and one TFL vs. Seahawks (9/10).
- Blocked third career kick (first PAT) at Minnesota (10/8).
- Saw time on the offensive side of the ball in short yardage situations vs. Buffalo (10/15), marking the first time he played offense since high school. Also had two tackles (one solo) on the defensive line.
- Season-best four tackles (two solo) at the New York Jets (10/22).
- In first start of season vs. Atlanta (11/5), DeVries made four tackles (three solo) and had one tackle for loss.
- Had a season-best five tackles (three solo) and two tackles for loss in his second start of the season vs. San Francisco (11/12).
- Started his career-best third game in a season at Arizona (11/19) and made three tackles (two solo).

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- Credited with first career safety after downing Patriots FB Heath Evans (recovered Tom Brady fumble forced by Kenoy Kennedy).
- Career-high two pass breakups vs. Minnesota (12/10).

2005: Tied his season career-high in sacks with 3.0 in 2005.

- Had a fumble recovery to set up a field goal at Tampa Bay (10/2), and a sack for a loss of 12 yards to help prevent a Bucs' touchdown.
- Recorded 2.0 sacks at Cleveland (10/23) for a loss of 7 yards. The game marked his first-career multiple-sack game.
- Had his second fumble recovery of the 2005 season vs. Atlanta (11/24). Recovery marked his first season with multiple recoveries.
- Recorded second-career blocked FG in second quarter at Green Bay (12/11) on a 38-yard attempt by Packers kicker Ryan Longwell.

2004: Was a key-member of Detroit's "wedge" on kick returns, which helped clear the way for All-Pro kick returner Eddie Drummond, who finished the season ranked second in the NFL in kickoff returns.

- Recorded a career-high 3.0 sacks for a combined loss of 14 yards.
- Recorded a sack for a 6-yard loss and forced a Michael Vick fumble in the final minute to preserve the victory at Atlanta (10/10).
- Season-high four tackles at Minnesota (11/21) and at New York Giants (10/24).

- Talled one tackle vs. Washington (11/7) before leaving the game with a groin injury that caused him to miss next contest (at Jax 11/14).

2003: Career-best two starts and set career-high with two forced fumbles.

- Recorded second career sack vs. Arizona (9/7) when he brought down Cardinals QB Jeff Blake and also forced a fumble.
- Made huge play on special teams vs. Chicago (11/9) when he blocked a go-ahead FG attempt (first career block) by Paul Edinger.
- Collected a season-high five solo tackles, which led the defensive line, and forced a fumble at Seattle (11/16).

- Talled a tackle at Minnesota (11/23) before leaving the game with a shoulder injury which forced him to miss the next three contests.
- Got start at DE in place of the injured Robert Porcher vs. St. Louis (12/28), and tallied two tackles (one solo), his first career pass defense, two quarterback knockdowns and a pressure.

2002: Registered his first career sack at Minnesota (10/13), bringing down QB Daunte Culpepper for a four-yard loss.

- Inactive for three games due to the foot injury and was put on the reserve/injured list on December 10 for the final three contests.

2001: Placed on Physically Unable to Perform (PUP) list August 28, 2001 while recovering from surgery on July 24 to relieve a blood clot suffered in an offseason workout.

- Returned to lineup vs. Cincinnati (10/28) and posted three tackles.
- Had season-high four tackles (three solo) at San Francisco (11/4).

2000: Recorded a career-best 35 tackles.

- Made presence known in season opener at New Orleans (9/3) when he forced and recovered a fourth-quarter Ricky Williams' fumble.
- Collected a career-best six stops vs. Minnesota (10/1).

- Received first career start at New York Giants (11/19), seeing significant time in running situations.

- Inactive in season finale vs. Chicago (12/24) due to hand injury.

1999: Slowed significantly for majority of season while recovering from a training camp foot injury.

- Saw first game action in reserve role vs. Washington (12/5).
- Played his most significant game-action (12 snaps) of rookie campaign in regular season finale at Minnesota (11/2).

COLLEGE: Holds Iowa's career record with 43 sacks and 79 tackles for loss. All-Big Ten first-team honors as a senior for first-straight season.

- Associated Press and Football News All-American second-team selection as a junior in 1997 as well as the team's Co-Most Valuable Player, starting every game at left defensive tackle.

- Earned Big Ten and ESPN Player of the Week honors for effort vs. Michigan (11 tackles, three sacks and an interception).

PRO: Drummond, a six-year NFL veteran, continues to prove himself as one of the league's premier kick and punt returners. He surpassed 5,000 kickoff return yards and 1,000 punt return yards in 2006, and he became the 18th player in NFL history to accomplish that feat and only the seventh to do so in the first five seasons in the NFL. With 5,026 kickoff return yards, he is 22nd on the NFL's all-time list. Drummond is one of three players in NFL history (Chiefs KR Dante Hall, 2003 and Bears KR Devin Hester, 2006) to have two punt return and two kickoff return touchdowns in a single season (2004). He was selected to his first Pro Bowl for his performance in the 2004 season, after he finished the season ranked first in the NFL in punt returns (13.2 avg) and second in kickoff returns (26.6 avg). He was signed as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2002 and emerged that season as the Lions' primary punt and kickoff return specialist due to injuries to Desmond Howard and Az-Zahir Hakim.

MAJOR FACTS

- Pro Bowl: 2005.
- After going to Penn State as a running back, he played wide receiver for the first three-and-a-half years in college, before switching back to running back midway through his senior year.
- Took part for the third-straight year in the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar that raises money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Has made frequent visits to Detroit area schools, including the Detroit Lions Academy, to speak to students.
- Donated Lions' home game tickets to Orchard Children's Services through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Participated in the annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.

- Named Lions' spokesperson for the American Red Cross' Home Team Campaign.
- Made a visit to Cass Tech High School in Detroit to help honor 2007 U.S. Army All-American Joseph Barksdale.
- Made special visit to the Children's Hospital of Michigan for a youth football party and to speak to youngsters about his life experiences and making the right decisions in life.
- Served as spokesman for the Detroit Super Bowl XL Host Committee's "Super Reading" initiative encouraging Detroit students to read.
- Interacted with 2,000 Detroit-area underprivileged children at the NFL Experience Kids' Day the week of Super Bowl XL.

2006: Finished the season ranked seventh in the NFL (fourth in the NFC) in kickoff return yardage with 1,349 yards, which was also a new career-high.

- Returned five kickoffs for 117 yards (23.4 avg) with a long of 44 yards, and also returned four punts for 26 yards (6.5 avg) with a long of 13 yards against Green Bay (9/24).
- At St. Louis (10/1), he recorded a season-high six kickoff returns for a single-game career-high 210 yards (35.0 avg) that included a season-long 65-yard return yards. His 210 kickoff return yards were the fifth-highest in the NFL in 2006 (most through the season's first four weeks), and are the fifth highest single-game tally in club history.
- Had five kickoff returns for 102 yards (20.4 avg) with a long return of 24 yards along with two punt returns for 41 yards (20.5 avg) with a season-high 29-yard return at Minnesota (10/8). Also returned a kickoff 98-yard that was negated due to a penalty.
- Returned five kickoffs for 103 yards (20.6 avg) with a long return of 26 yards at the New York Jets (10/22), but was limited on punt returns and was replaced by WR Az-Zahir Hakim after suffering an eye injury.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- Recorded a season-best punt return of 30 yards vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Tied a season-best six kickoff returns for 146 yards (24.3 avg) with a long return of 36 yards vs. San Francisco (11/12).
- Inactive vs. Miami (11/23) while still suffering from the effects of a concussion sustained against the 49ers.
- Returned four punts for 51 yards (12.8 avg), while also adding six kickoff returns for 136 yards (22.5 avg) vs. Minnesota (12/10).
- Inactive vs. Chicago (12/24) with a hip injury.
- Returned two punts for a season-best 72 yards (36.0 avg) with a season-long punt return of 40 yards and returned six kickoffs for 121 yards (20.2 avg) at Dallas (12/31).
- With his kickoff return performance against the Cowboys, Drummond (5,026) became only the second player in team history to register 5,000 kickoff return yards in their career. He ranks second to only Mel Gray (5,478) in Lions history.
- By reaching 5,000 kickoff return yards, Drummond also became only the 22nd player in NFL history to accomplish the feat. He currently ranks 22nd all-time on the NFL's kickoff return list with 5,026 yards.
- Drummond's (1,058) 72 punt return yards against the Cowboys also allowed him to become only the sixth player in Lions history to record 1,000 punt return yards in their career.

2005: Had a strong showing at Chicago (9/18), with 6 kickoff returns for 159 yards (26.5 avg), including a game-long return of 41 yards.

- Sustained a knee injury in the opening kickoff vs. Baltimore (10/9) and missed the following games vs. Carolina (10/16) and at Cleveland (10/23).
- Returned from a knee injury to return 5 kickoffs for 96 yards (19.2 avg) vs. Chicago (10/30).
- Helped to put the Lions in scoring position after returning the opening kickoff against Arizona (11/13) 37 yards.
- Had a season long 38-yard punt return to set up a K Jason Hanson field goal at the end of the first half against Minnesota (12/4).
- Had a season-long 48-yard kickoff return against New Orleans (12/24) after missing several weeks to injury. Also had a season-high 30.0 yard average on kickoff returns.

2004: Named to the 2005 Pro Bowl squad on December 22 after becoming the second player in NFL history to return two punts and two kickoffs for touchdowns in a single season.

- Named to the 2005 Associated Press All-Pro team.
- Named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November after he recorded three touchdowns (two punt returns, one kickoff return) and averaged 15.5 yards on punt returns and 27.3 yards on kickoff returns during the month.
- Four his outstanding season in the return game, he was voted by his teammates the Yale Lary Special Teams MVP.
- Opened the season returning three kickoffs for 74 yards (24.7 avg), including a 41-yard return to set up the Lions' final scoring drive at Chicago (9/12).
- Returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, the longest return of his career and his first career KR touchdown vs. Houston (9/19).
- Recorded a 73-yard kick return vs. Philadelphia (9/26), his fifth-career 70+-yard return to set up the Lions' second score of the game.
- Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in September for his performance during the month.
- Recovered a muffed punt catch at the Falcons' 16-yard line to set up a Lions field goal at Atlanta (10/10).
- Returned six punts for 199 yards and two touchdowns (55 and 83 yards), one with 46 seconds remaining to send the game into overtime at Jacksonville (11/14).
- Named Associated Press Player of the Week and NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance against the Jaguars after he set new career-highs in punt return yards in a game (199), punt return long (83), and punt returns in a game (six).
- Became the first player in NFL history to score three consecutive touchdowns for his team via punt and kickoff returns after he returned the opening kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown vs. Minnesota (11/21).
- Recorded his first carry of the season at Minnesota (11/21) in his first career start, a 9-yard attempt that helped set up a Lions' field goal.
- Returned three kickoffs for 57 yards vs. Indianapolis (11/25) before ending his record-setting campaign early with a season-ending shoulder injury on the second-half opening kickoff. Drummond was inactive for three games before being placed on the Reserve/Injured list December 22.

2003: Helped swing the momentum in the Lions' season-opening win over Arizona (9/7) after his 57-yard punt return for a touchdown and then his pressure on Cardinals PR Anquan Boldin caused a muff which was recovered by the Lions in prime scoring position. His punt return for a touchdown was his second in as many games against Arizona.

- Put together an impressive kick return game, returning five kicks for 115 yards at Green Bay (9/14), including a season-long 38-yarder.
- Helped give the Lions good field position vs. Minnesota (9/21) with four kick returns for 89 yards and one punt return for 26 yards, but left the game in the third quarter with an injured lower leg.
- Missed eight games with a sprained knee and ankle.
- Had a Lions' season-high five punt returns vs. San Diego (12/7).
- Re-aggravated his lower leg injuries and missed the games at Kansas City (12/14) and Carolina (12/21).

2002: Voted the team's Mel Farr Rookie of the Year after a season in which his 26.0 yards per kickoff return average ranked third in the NFC, was tied for fifth in the NFL and was the fifth-best single-season kickoff return average in franchise history.

- Had a solid outing vs. Green Bay (9/22), his first NFL regular season game, finishing with 149 yards on six kickoff returns with a long of 31 before being forced out of the game with an ankle injury.
- Returned six kickoffs for 160 yards (26.7 avg) vs. New York Jets (11/17) including a career-long 40-yard return.
- Had a 23-yard run on a reverse, as well as three kickoff returns for 42 yards (14.0 avg) and caught his first NFL pass vs. New England (11/28).
- Scored first NFL touchdown on a 73-yard punt return in the first quarter at Arizona (12/8), capping off a day in which he had a career-best 100 punt return yards.
- Returned a kickoff for a then career-long 91 yards vs. Tampa Bay (12/15) and finished with a career-high 197 kickoff return yards.
- Had an 88-yard kickoff return that helped the Lions' offense to its first score at Atlanta (12/22).

COLLEGE: Played the first three years at Penn State as a receiver and switched to the tailback position midway through his senior season.

- Started five games at wide receiver, but spent much of the second half of the season at tailback.

KALIMBA EDWARDS

Defensive End
South Carolina
Ht: 6-6
Born: 12/26/79
Draft: '02, R2 (35)-Det

6th Year
Wt: 265
Hometown: Atlanta, Ga.

PRO: Edwards saw an increase in playing time in 2006 to start 10 games, finishing strong at the conclusion of the year as he recorded two of his three sacks of the season in two of the final three games. Edwards signed a five-year contract extension heading into the 2006 season after a strong performance in 2005 in which he led Detroit in sacks (7.0) for the second time in his first four NFL seasons. In 2002, he was the first Lion to lead the team sacks (6.5) as a rookie since Tracy Scroggins (7.5, 1992). Prior to the 2003 season, Edwards was diagnosed with a sports hernia injury. He chose to play through the season and registered 19 tackles (13 solo) and two sacks (18 yards) while playing in 15 games before being placed on the Reserve/Injured list due to a torn groin muscle. In 2004, Edwards worked to regain his form while playing in 16 games and registering 22 tackles (15 solo) and 4.5 sacks (23.5 yards). His perseverance showed dividends when he opened the 2005 season with 4.0 sacks (17 yards) through the first four games, including his third-career multi-sack game at Tampa Bay (10/2). Edwards was drafted by Detroit in the second round (35th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft.

WANE FACTS

- Edwards' first name is an African name that means "Prince" and was given to him by his father, Lloyd, who is a professor of bio-statistics at the University of North Carolina and was a football All-American himself at Morehouse College in Atlanta.
- Once his football career is over, he would like to teach history at the college level.
- Often watches the cartoon Samurai Jack.
- Grew up idolizing boxing great Muhammad Ali and would very much like to meet him someday.

2006: Took over as the starter at RE vs. Buffalo (10/15) after Cory Redding moved to DT and James Hall moved to LE. Posted a career-best 54 tackles (31 solo) with three sacks, one forced fumble and a career-best three fumble recoveries in 16 games with a career-best 10 starts.

- Against the Seattle Seahawks (9/10), Edwards registered six tackles (three solo), tying a career-high, and one tackle for loss.
- Had two tackles (one solo) three games vs. Chicago (9/17), vs. Green Bay (9/24) and at St. Louis (10/1).
- Registered four tackles (one solo) and recovered a fumble at Minnesota (10/8).

- In his first start of the season, Edwards posted three tackles (two solo), one tackle for loss, and had one fumble recovery vs. Buffalo (10/15).
- Claimed his first sack of the season along with three tackles (two solo) and forced one fumble at the New York Jets (10/22).
- Made five tackles (three solo) vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Had four tackles (one solo) vs. San Francisco (11/12) and at Arizona (three solo).
- Produced five tackles (three solo) vs. Miami (11/23).
- Registered three tackles (two solo) vs. Minnesota (12/10).
- Recorded his second sack of the season against Packers QB Brett Favre while also posting three tackles (one solo) and one pass defended.
- Tied his season and career-best performance with six tackles (five solo), one sack and one fumble recovery at Dallas (12/31).

2005: Appeared in all 16 games in 2005, recording a personal best 7.0 sacks on the season as well as two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

- Played key role in preventing Green Bay (9/11) from scoring during their final drive by sacking QB Brett Favre on third down for a loss of 9 yards, which set up a fourth-and-30 situation. He also recovered a fumble in the Lions 17-3 win.
- Had a strong game at Tampa Bay (10/2), recording two tackles (one solo), one forced fumble and 2.0 sacks for a loss of 6 yards.
- Recorded his first start of the season vs. Baltimore (10/9) and tallied his fourth sack of the season.
- Started in place of an injured DE James Hall vs. Baltimore (10/9) and Carolina (10/16).
- Recovered a fumble vs. Chicago (10/30) that was forced by DT Shaun Cody to prevent the Bears from scoring in the fourth quarter.
- His sack at the beginning of the third quarter at Minnesota (11/6) caused a fumble and prevented a Vikings' field goal.
- Recovered a fumble caused by DE Cory Redding to give Detroit possession against Arizona (11/13). Recovery gave Lions possession at the end of the second quarter to set up a K Jason Hanson field goal.
- Surpassed his career-high sacks in a single season after sacking QB Drew Bledsoe at Dallas (11/20).

2004: Recorded 4.5 sacks (25.5 yds) while appearing in all 16 games.

- Tallied two sacks at New York Giants (10/24), the second multi-sack game of his career. Also recovered a QB Kurt Warner fumble in the closing minutes of the game to help preserve a Lions victory.
- Recorded a season-high five tackles at Jacksonville (11/14).
- 2003: Missed the preseason while recovering from hernia surgery.
- Made a big impact at San Francisco (10/5) with three solo tackles, two passes defended and a quarterback pressure.
- Recorded his first sack of the season vs. Oakland (11/2) when he brought down Rick Mirer on third down and had a season-high five tackles (three solo), two QB knockdowns and two pressures.
- Racked up his second sack in as many games vs. Chicago (11/9) when he tackled Chris Chandler for an 11-yard loss.
- Left the game at Carolina (12/21) with a groin injury.
- Placed on the I.R. list with a torn groin muscle on December 23.

- 2002: Led the team with 6.5 sacks after playing in all 16 games.
- Registered his first career sack and forced fumble when he sacked Saints QB Aaron Brooks in the first quarter vs. New Orleans (9/29), the fumble was picked up by DE James Hall and returned for a touchdown.
- Started first NFL game at Minnesota (10/13).
- Finished with a career-high two sacks at Arizona (12/8).
- Forced a fumble on a sack of Vikings QB Daunte Culpepper vs. Minnesota (12/29).

COLLEGE: As a senior, was an All-SEC first-team selection and semifinalist for both the Lombardi Trophy (top lineman) and Butkus Award (top linebacker) after finishing with 79 tackles (55 solo), 3.5 sacks (10 yds) and six stops for losses (17 yds) in 10 games.

- All-American third-team selection by the Associated Press and a consensus All-SEC first-team choice as a junior after starting at weakside linebacker (rush end), finishing third on the team with 74 tackles (49 solo) and tying for the squad lead with seven sacks (45 yds) and ranking second with 11 stops (52 yds).
- During his junior season, Edwards picked off a Casey Clausen pass, returning the ball 81 yards for a touchdown. The pick was the eighth-longest interception return in school history and the longest since Patrick Hinton's 83-yarder vs. North Carolina State in 1988.
- Sophomore All-American selection by The NFL Draft Report after starting every game at right defensive end, recording 64 tackles (40 solo) with five sacks for minus-38 yards and four stops for losses of 14 yards.

PERSONAL: Regarded as one of the premier defensive players in the country, starring as a middle linebacker at Tru-Cities (Atlanta) High.

- Rated ninth-best defensive line prospect in Georgia by PrepStar.
- Averaged 10 tackles per game in 1997, earning team Defensive Most Valuable Player honors.
- Coca-Cola Student-Athlete Honoree.

DEVALE ELLIS

Wide Receiver

Hofstra

Ht: 5-10

Born: 4/2/84

Draft: '06, FA-Det

2nd Year

Wt: 174

Hometown: Brooklyn, N.Y.

80

PRO: Ellis was one of two 2006 undrafted rookie free agents (G Frank Davis) to finish the season on the active roster. After being released at the end of the Lions 2006 training camp, Ellis was quickly signed to the practice squad where he was immediately elevated to the active roster for Week 1. He was signed to the Lions eight-man practice squad on September 3, 2006 after originally signing with the Lions as an undrafted free agent May 8 following his participation in the team's rookie mini-camp as a tryout player.

MAJOR FACTS

- Took part in 2006 Rookie Night at Lions Quarterback Club.
- As youth, was fan of WR Jerry Rice and San Francisco 49ers.
- Favorite TV shows are "Martin" and the "Fresh Prince of Bel-Air".
- After football, he has aspirations to be CEO of his own company, and he wants to go back to Brooklyn and help under-privileged youth. He wants to start own football camp next year.
- Is black belt in Tae Kwon Do. Took classes from ages 9-13 and competed in tournaments across the nation with brother and class at Modern Combat Systems.

2006: Worked his way onto the active roster to record four catches for 61 yards (15.3 avg) and return six kickoffs for 139 yards (23.2 avg). Signed to the practice squad on September 3. Was waived from the active roster on September 11, but re-signed with the practice squad on September 12, 2006. Activated from the practice squad to make his first start as a pro vs. Buffalo (10/15).

- Played in his first professional game in the home opener vs. Seattle (9/10) after being activated from the practice squad.
- Made significant strides at wide receiver, taking a handoff end around from QB Jon Kitna and turning it into a 12-yard gain and also added his first catch as a pro that went for 19 yards at the New York Jets (10/22/06).
- Made his second start of the season vs. Atlanta (11/5) when the team started the game with three receivers.
- Recorded two catches for 19 yards (9.5 avg) with a long catch of 10 yards at Arizona (11/19).
- Inactive vs. Miami (11/23), at New England (12/3) and vs. Minnesota (12/10) with a shoulder injury.
- Returned to the active lineup at Green Bay (12/17) after a three-game hiatus due to a shoulder injury.
- Was featured as the team's return man for both punt return and kickoff return duties for the first time in his career vs. Chicago (12/24) in place of an injured Eddie Drummond. Returned four punts for 61 yards (15.3 avg) with a long punt return of 48 yards, and returned six kickoffs for 139 yards (23.2 avg) with a long of 28 yards against the Bears. Ellis' 48-yard punt return in the first quarter was the Lions' longest punt return of the season and the longest since R.W. McQuarters returned a punt 49 yards vs. Baltimore 10/9/05. Two plays later, the Lions scored on a 23-yard TD pass.

COLLEGE: Played in all 11 games as a senior and led Hofstra with 74 receptions for 943 yards and five touchdowns.

- Named to Don Hansen's Football Gazette I-AA All-Northeast Regional second team.
- Atlantic-10 second team selection and conference All-Academic Team pick.
- Ranked second in the league in receptions, third in receiving yards and ninth in all-purpose yards (103.8 ypg).
- Finished his career in third place on the Hofstra career reception list with 176 catches and seventh with 2,207 career yards.

- Started all 11 games as junior in 2004. His 74 receptions led team, ranked second in Atlantic 10 and 11th in I-AA.

PERSONAL: Played football and basketball and ran on the track team at James Madison High School in Brooklyn, New York.

- Named to All-Brooklyn, All-New York City, the Big 44 team and the New York Elite team as a senior.
- Led Golden Knights and PSAL in receiving yards average in 2001.
- Tallied 26 catches for 831 yards and 10 touchdowns and returned 12 kickoffs for 278 yards as a senior.
- Member of the Math Academy and the AP Math Honor Roll.

TRAVIS FISHER

Cornerback
Central Florida
Ht: 5-10
Born: 9/12/79
Draft: '02, R2 (64)-StL

6th Year
Wt: 189
Hometown: Tallahassee, Fla.
Acq: '07, UFA-StL

21

PRO: Fisher signed a one-year deal with Detroit March 13, 2007 after starting 53 of 56 games in five years for St. Louis. In his first two seasons (2002-03) for the Rams, he thrived in a defensive system under new Bears' Head Coach Lovie Smith that was similar to the defense the Lions employ under Head Coach Rod Marinelli. Fisher established career-highs in 2003 with 75 tackles (54 solo) and 12 pass defenses while tying for the team-lead with four interceptions. He returned two of his picks for TDs (57, 74) and also tied for the NFL lead with 205 total interception return yards. Fisher was drafted by the Rams in the second round (64th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft out of Central Florida.

MAINE FACTS

- Participated in the annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Was a fan of Dallas Cowboys and San Francisco 49ers as a youth, and favorite player is Brett Favre for his toughness and competitiveness. He also admires Jerry Rice
- Enjoys watching BET, and likes music channels and videos. Favorite song to listen to right before the start of a game is 50 Cent "I'll Whip Ya Head Boy."
- Enjoys boxing, is a big fan of the sport. Cousin, Travis Walker, is a professional heavyweight boxer, and he goes to all of his fights and trains with him during off-season. Boxing helps his own endurance and movement for football.
- After football he wants to coach track (running) and possibly football. He helps out his high school (Godby High in Tallahassee, Fla.) track team as much as possible.

2006: Played and started in nine games for the Rams and registered 31 tackles (25 solo) and two pass defenses.

- Had a season-high seven solo tackles against Detroit (10/1).
- Left game at Seattle (11/12) with fractured right arm.
- Placed on reserve/injured list November 14.

2005: Was the starting right cornerback for eight of the first nine games. Missed five of six games before being placed on reserve/injured list December 14 with groin injury.

- Played every defensive down and had a fumble recovery in season-opener at San Francisco (9/11).
- Had a season-high seven tackles at Arizona (9/18).
- Inactive vs. Jacksonville (10/30) due to a groin injury.
- Returned at Seattle (11/13) and registered six tackles (five solo).
- Placed on reserve/injured (groin) list December 14.

2004: Sustained a broken right arm in preseason game at Kansas City (8/23), forcing him to miss the first six games of the season. Returned to play and start in 10 games and finished season with 42 tackles (35 solo), an interception, a forced fumble and six pass defenses.

- Made season debut at Miami (10/24) and finished with five tackles (four solo).
- Intercepted QB Drew Bledsoe at Buffalo (11/21) and returned it 30 yards to set up a Rams score, adding one pass defense before leaving the game in the first quarter with mouth injury.
- At Arizona (12/19), he made a season-high eight tackles (six solo), one forced fumble, and one pass defense.
- Tied season-high with eight tackles (seven solo) vs. New York Jets (1/2/05).
- Made five solo tackles, one forced fumble, and first career-playoff interception, picking off Seahawks' QB Matt Hasselbeck on first series of game in NFC Wildcard Game at Seattle (1/8/05).

2003: Entered the season as the Rams starting right cornerback following the offseason departure of CB Dre Bly. Tied for team-lead (CB Jerametrius Butler, LB Tommy Polley, S Aeneas Williams) with four interceptions, tying for NFL-lead with 205 interception return yards. He returned two of his interceptions for touchdowns.

- Opened season with six tackles (three solo) and pass defense at New York (9/7).
- At San Francisco (9/14), he intercepted a pass batted at the line of scrimmage and returned it for a then career-high 65 yards.
- Intercepted Atlanta (10/13) QB Doug Johnson in the further quarter and returned the interception 74 yards for a touchdown. He also registered three pass defenses and two tackles.
- Left contest vs. Green Bay (10/19) in the first quarter with a groin strain and then missed the next game at Pittsburgh (10/26).
- Set a career-high against Baltimore with 10 tackles (five solo) and also had a pass defense.
- Had his second interception return for a touchdown when he picked off Arizona (11/23) QB Jeff Blake in the third quarter and returned the ball 57 yards for the score.
- Picked off Seattle (12/14) QB Matt Hasselbeck in first quarter and returned it 9 yards to help set up a touchdown and a 14-2 lead.
- Registered nine tackles (six solo) in his first career playoff game vs. Carolina (1/10/04).

2002: As a rookie, he played in 14 games with 11 starts, and registered 67 tackles (53 solo), two interceptions, 14 pass defenses, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

- Set career-highs with nine tackles (eight solo) vs. Dallas (9/29) in first defensive appearance of NFL career.
- Six tackles (four solo) to go with career-high four passes defended and first career interception, off 2002 NFL MVP QB Rich Gannon to seal victory late in fourth quarter, against Oakland (10/13).

COLLEGE: At Central Florida, he started 23 of 33 games and registered 130 tackles (91 solo) with four interceptions and 35 pass defenses.

- Chosen to play in the Rotary Gridiron Classic all-star game after a standout senior season in which he had 61 tackles (39 solo), three tackles for loss, two interceptions and 13 pass defenses.
- Spent two years at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College where he helped lead the Red Ravens' defense to a No. 4 ranking in pass defense.
- Earned degree in criminal justice.

PERSONAL: Born Travis Lamon Fisher in Tallahassee, Fla.

- Graduated from Godby High in Tallahassee.
- Excelled in track and named school's athlete of the year as senior.
- Won state championship in the 100 and 200-meter dash as well as running a leg in the 4x100 meter relay.

CASEY FITZSIMMONS

Tight End
Carroll College (Mont.)
Ht: 6-4
Born: 10/10/80
Draft: '03, FA-Det

5th Year
Wt: 258
Hometown: Helena, Mont.

82

PRO: FitzSimmons fought back from injuries in 2006 to still play a key role in the offense's tight end rotation. Additionally, FitzSimmons is a contributor on special teams, having recorded 50 special teams tackles in his first four NFL seasons. In 2003, he started 11 games for the Lions as an undrafted rookie out of Carroll College (Mont.). FitzSimmons impressed the coaches with his blocking abilities and work ethic, which led him to become one of two undrafted free agents to make the 2003 53-man roster.

MAJOR FACTS:

- Became a fan favorite with his rise from NAIA football to the NFL. FitzSimmons' high school in Montana was so small that the football team played eight-man football. He played four positions—wide receiver, tight end, defensive end and linebacker.
- Prior to his junior year in high school, he was injured in a motorbike accident and missed the season. He was close to not playing his senior year, but was talked into it by some friends.

- Photographed for third-straight year in 2007 Lions Pet Calendar, which helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Donated Lions home game tickets to Big Family of Michigan through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Helped deliver thousands of pounds of food and supplies to more than 30 Metro Detroit relief agencies at the United Way Home-town Huddle/Lift Up America event, Dec. 5, at Ford Field.

2006: Played in 11 games with two starts to tally seven catches for 71 yards (10.1 avg) on offense and 10 special teams tackles and one blocked punt on special teams.

- Inactive the first two games (vs. Seattle 9/10 and at Chicago 9/17) of the regular season due to a broken left wrist suffered in the first preseason game against Denver.

PLAYER PROFILES

- Returned from a wrist injury vs. Green Bay (9/24), seeing his first action of the 2006 season.
- Inactive at Minnesota (10/8) and vs. Buffalo (10/15).
- Posted two special teams tackles at the New York Jets (10/22).
- Made his first catches of the season with two catches for 35 yards vs. Atlanta (11/5) and also had one special teams tackle.
- Blocked a punt by Cardinals' punter Scott Player at Arizona and made two special teams tackles (11/19).
- Registered three special teams tackles vs. Miami (11/23).
- Started his first game of the season to record a season-best four catches for 29 yards at Green Bay (12/17).
- Started in his second consecutive game of the season vs. Chicago (12/24), but left the game and did not return after suffering a shoulder injury after making a 7-yard catch.
- Inactive at Dallas (12/31) due to a shoulder injury.

2005: Finished season fourth on team in special teams tackles (19).
 ➤ Recorded his first TD of the season vs. Baltimore (10/9), a 2-yard pass from Joey Harrington. Also recorded four special teams tackles.
 ➤ First start of season at Cleveland (10/23), as the Lions started with two tight ends. Finished the game with 2 receptions for 10 yards.
 ➤ Special teams tackle vs. Chicago (10/30) helped pin Bears at 1-yard line in the second quarter and forced a fumble on special teams.
 ➤ Season-high five special teams tackles against Minnesota (12/4).
 ➤ Was inactive for two games (at Green Bay 12/11 and against Cincinnati 12/18) due to a concussion suffered against Minnesota (12/4).

2004: Grabbed a career-long 27-yard reception vs. Chicago (12/26).
 ➤ Reeled in 5-yard catch on a Lions' TD drive at Tennessee (1/2).

2003: His two touchdowns tied for the NFL lead among rookie tight ends while his 23 receptions ranked fourth.
 ➤ Registered first two catches of his career at Green Bay (9/14).
 ➤ Had then-career highs in catches (five) and yards (33), including a then-career-long 17-yard reception while starting vs. Chicago (11/9). Two of his catches came on the Lions game-winning drive.
 ➤ Made the first TD catch of his career vs. San Diego (12/7) when he hauled in a four-yard pass in the third quarter.
 ➤ Had career day vs. St. Louis (12/28) with a season-best 36 yards on four catches, including 2-yard TD grab and career-long 22-yarder.

COLLEGE: Finished with 244 receptions for 2,698 yards and 21 TDs. Led the Fighting Saints to 2002 NAIA National Championship with a 28-7 win over two-time defending Champion Georgetown (Ky.).
 ➤ During senior championship run, earned first-team All-American honors and was named the Frontier Conference MVP and finalist for NAIA Player of the Year Award while catching 79 passes for 971 yards and six touchdowns.
 ➤ In 2000 and 2001, earned second-team NAIA All-American honors and was a first-team All-Conference selection all four seasons at Carroll College (Mont.). His 2001 totals included 78 receptions for 812 yards and five touchdowns and his 2000 totals included 70 catches for 686 yards and eight touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Born October 10, 1980 in Wolf Point, Mont.
 ➤ All-state and all-conference at Chester (Mont.) High.

GEORGE FOSTER

Tackle
Georgia
Ht: 6-5
Born: 6/9/80
Draft: '03, R1 (20)-Den

5th Year
Wt: 338
Hometown: Macon, Ga.
Acq: '07, T-Den

72

PRO: Foster was acquired by the Lions through a trade with the Broncos, who drafted him in the first round (20th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft. He was Denver's starting right tackle for most of the past three seasons (2004-06), playing in 49 games with 45 starts. Foster established himself as the Broncos' starting right tackle entering his second season in 2004 and then played in 48 consecutive games with 45 starts. In his first season as a starter, he contributed to Denver allowing a franchise-low 15 sacks which was the third fewest in the NFL. In 2005, he helped the Broncos post the second-most rushing yards (2,539) in franchise history and rank second in the NFL (158.7 ypg.) while setting a team record for most rushing first downs. Foster was a two-year starter at the University of Georgia and provided valuable leadership and depth to the offensive line with his ability to play either tackle position.

MIAMI FACTS

- Participated in a free PGA golf lesson with local kids from Think Detroit PAL.
- Participated in the 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Favorite players include Barry Sanders and Bruce Smith.
- Loves to watch Family Guy and The Sopranos.
- Collects music and has thousands of songs. Favorite group is Outkast.
- For a post-football career, he would like to do something in television. In a civic capacity, he enjoys kids and would help and work with youth programs.

2006: Foster opened the season in the starting lineup and started 13 games. He helped block for Tatum Bell's 1,025 rushing yards and helped limit the opposition to only 31 sacks. In Foster's three seasons as a starter, the Broncos allowed only 69 sacks, the third fewest from 2004-06.

- Started on an offensive line that paved the way for Tatum Bell's 103-yard rushing performance at St. Louis (9/10).
- The Broncos offensive line did not allow a sack, blocked for 145 rushing yards and did not commit a penalty in the home opener vs. Kansas City (9/17).
- Helped clear the way for Tatum Bell's 100-yard outing without yielding a sack at New England (9/24).
- Contributed to an offensive line that opened holes for 116 rushing yards while allowing only one sack on Monday Night Football vs. Baltimore (10/9).
- Started on an offensive line that cleared the way for 144 rushing yards on Sunday Night Football vs. Oakland (10/15).
- Played on an offensive line that allowed just one sack and paved the way for the team's 227 rushing yards, including Mike Bell's 136-yard output vs. Indianapolis (10/29).
- At Pittsburgh (11/5), the offensive line allowed only one sack.
- Saw action on special teams the next two weeks after being replaced in the starting lineup at Oakland (11/12).
- Returned to the offensive lineup on Thanksgiving at Kansas City (11/23).
- Returned to the starting lineup for the game on Sunday Night Football vs. Seattle (12/3) and helped Tatum Bell amass a career-high 133 rushing yards against the Seahawks, including 112 in the first half.
- Helped block for Tatum Bell's 116-yard outing at San Diego (12/10). Bell's 100-yard outing was the first surrendered by the Chargers to a visitor in 20 home games.
- Helped limit the Cardinals to one sack at Arizona (12/17) before helping clear the way for 101 rushing yards in the second half and 127 in the game vs. Cincinnati (12/24).

2005: Foster started all 16 regular-season games and both playoff games for the Broncos at right tackle, paving the way for one of the NFL's most productive offenses. Denver posted its second-best single-season rushing total (2,539) on the fourth-most attempts in team history, paced by Mike Anderson's 1,014 yards, and ranked second in the NFL in rushing (158.7 ypg.). The line allowed the third-fewest sacks (23) in the league and team annals and helped Denver set a franchise record with 145 rushing first downs. Foster also was a key component in the Broncos being just the third team in league history to have two 900-yard rushers (Anderson and Tatum Bell), a 1,000-yard receiver (Rod Smith) and a 3,000-yard passer (Jake Plummer) in the same season.

- On Monday Night Football vs. Kansas City (9/26), the line allowed only one sack and cleared the way for 221 rushing yards.
- Foster and his linemates helped RB Mike Anderson top the 100-yard rushing plateau for the first time in 2005 at Jacksonville (10/2).
- Helped Bell reach the 100-yard rushing mark vs. Washington (10/9), a game in which Denver did not allow a sack.
- The line blocked for the team's third consecutive individual 100-yard game when Tatum Bell gained 114 yards vs. New England (10/16). The team also allowed only one sack to the Patriots.
- Helped Anderson post 120 yards at New York Giants (10/23) for the team's fourth consecutive individual 100-yard rushing performance with the line not allowing a sack to the Giants.
- Against Philadelphia (10/30), the Broncos became the first team in NFL history to have two 100-yard rushers (Anderson and Bell) and a 300-yard passer (Plummer) in the same game. Against the Eagles, the team gained a staggering 564 total yards, the second-most in franchise history (567, 10/31/04 vs. Atl.) and 49 points, the second-most in franchise history (50, 10/6/63 vs. San Diego).
- Denver did not allow a sack at Oakland (11/13) and cleared the path for 196 rushing yards (113 by Anderson) vs. New York Jets (11/20).
- Foster contributed to an offensive line that paved the way for 144 rushing yards in a Thanksgiving Day win at Dallas (11/24).
- The line blocked for a rushing attack that recorded 178 yards and allowed just one sack at Buffalo (12/17).
- In the regular-season finale at San Diego (12/31), the offensive line handled the league's top-ranked rushing defense (79.5 yds. per game) as the Broncos amassed 157 rushing yards.

2004: Foster adjusted well to his first season at right tackle with the Broncos after spending his rookie year working on the left side. He started all 16 regular-season games at right tackle and did not miss an offensive snap on a line that set a franchise record by allowing only 15 sacks which ranked third in the NFL. The offensive line did not surrender a sack in eight contests and blocked for a 100-yard rusher in eight different games, including a stretch that yielded a 100-yard rushing game by a Bronco in six of seven games midway through the year.

- Made his first NFL start at right tackle in Denver's season opener vs. Kansas City (9/12) and was part of a blocking effort that paved the way for Quentin Griffin to set a franchise record for most rushing yards in a season opener with a game-high 156 yards along with two rushing touchdowns.
- Held defensive end Julius Peppers without a sack vs. Carolina (10/10) and helped Reuben Droughns post the ninth-highest single-game rushing total (193 yards) by a Bronco in franchise history during the regular season.
- Foster and the offensive line did not allow a sack for the third time in 2004 at Oakland (10/17) in addition to clearing paths for Denver's dominating run game, which accounted for a season-high 254 yards on 51 carries (4.9 avg.).
- Part of franchise history vs. Atlanta (10/31) in protecting Jake Plummer.

mer as he recorded the most passing yards in a single game in team history (ninth in NFL history) with 499 yards.

- In the first playoff action of his career, Foster started at right tackle in Denver's AFC Wild Card Game at Ind. (1/9).

2003: Selected by the Broncos in the first round (20th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft, Foster's development was slowed with a sprained right foot suffered during the first day of training camp.

- Declared inactive for the first 15 games before seeing his first NFL action at left tackle in a reserve role in the final week of the season at G.B. (12/28).
- Inactive for the Broncos' AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/4).

COLLEGE: In 43 career games at the University of Georgia (10 starts), Foster was regarded as the Bulldogs' best combination blocker with his pass and running blocking skills. The two-year starter provided valuable leadership and depth to the offensive line with his ability to play either tackle position.

- Saw his senior season hindered after suffering a right wrist injury in a car accident in August 2002 but returned to the lineup for the final nine games of the season and was effective blocking with a large cast.
- As a junior, Foster started the final eight games of the season at left tackle, including the Music City Bowl vs. Boston College. He helped the offense generate 4,761 yards, making 55 key blocks/knockdowns as the team ranked second in the Southeastern Conference by allowing only 15 sacks.
- A reserve tackle as a sophomore, Foster played in every game of the regular season (12) and in Georgia's win over Virginia in the 2000 Oahu Bowl.
- Played every game in 1999, earning his first career start against Louisiana State at right tackle.
- Redshirted as a freshman.

PERSONAL: Foster attended Southeast High School in Macon, Ga., Named Class 4-A first-team all-state by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and the Georgia Sports Writers Association.

- Was named to the Super Southern 100 and Top 50 in Georgia by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and the Macon Telegraph's "Sweet 16."
- All-city pick in his junior and senior seasons, Foster also earned all-Middle Georgia honors as a senior by the Macon Telegraph.
- Was the Most Valuable Team Lineman during his junior and senior seasons and was named a team captain as a senior.
- Had 25 tackles and seven quarterback sacks his senior season and was the recipient of the Coaches' Most Improved Player Award in both his sophomore and junior seasons.
- Engaged to Chanita and the couple has two daughters: 1-year-old Kai and Jordan (newborn).
- George Foster was born June 9, 1980, in Macon, Ga.

MIKE FURREY

Wide Receiver
Northern Iowa
Ht: 6-0
Born: 5/12/77
Draft: '00, FA-Ind

5th Year
Wt: 205
Hometown: Grove City, Ohio
Acq: '06, UFA-STL

87

PRO: Furrey joined Detroit in 2006 to make the switch back to receiver, his original position, after converting to safety prior to his final season in St. Louis. He moved into the starting wide receiver position opposite of Roy Williams in the second game of the 2006 season and would go on to lead the team in receptions for the season with 98. Furrey is the only active offensive player in the league to have scored an interception return for a touchdown during their career when he did so as a safety while playing with the St. Louis Rams. In 2005, he became the Rams' starting free safety after their fifth game and finished the season with a team-leading four interceptions, including a 67-yard interception return for a touchdown. Prior to joining St. Louis, Furrey was leading the AFL in receptions (108), receiving yards (1,574), receiving TDs (46, tying an AFL single-season record), and points (288) as a wide receiver for the New York Dragons (2002-03). He entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent for Indianapolis in 2000 but was waived at the end of training camp. After playing for Las Vegas Outlaws of the now-defunct XFL in 2001, he spent part of the 2002 preseason with the New York Jets.

MIKE FACTS:

- Makes regular visits with wife, Koren, to the Children's Hospital of Michigan to visit patients since his arrival in Detroit.
- Donated game tickets to Children's Hospital of Michigan through CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Participated in free PGA golf lesson with Think Detroit PAL.
- Participated in 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.

- Took part in the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar that helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Participated in the annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Served as guest speaker at a Lions QB Club meeting.
- He and wife hosted a Fellowship of Christian Athletes group at a reading event in March as part of "March is Reading Month".
- Established the "Mike Furrey Foundation" designed to improve the lives of the hungry, homeless, Hrtling, and/or hopeful.
- Looked up to Jerry Rice as a youth and followed the Cleveland Browns and Cincinnati Bengals while growing up in Ohio.
- Likes to go to Bob Evans before every game for breakfast and intentionally gets to the stadium at the last minute to initiate a hurried and focused state of mind. He doesn't like to feel laid back and relaxed before a game.
- He and his wife (Koren) both earned their real estate licenses during the 2004 offseason.

2006: Furrey finished the season ranked second in the NFL (first in the NFC) with a team-leading 98 receptions. His 98 receptions are fifth on the Lions' all-time single-season receptions list, and his reception totals are the most catches by a Lion since WR Herman Moore caught 104 passes in 1997. He also ranked eighth in the NFC (14th in the NFL) in receiving yards with 1,086. After obtaining his first 1,000-yard season, he and fellow WR Roy Williams became the first Lions receiving tandem to each record 1,000 yards since Germane Crowell (1,338) and Johnnie Morton (1,129) did so in 1999.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- His 98 receptions are the most ever by a non-rookie following a season when he recorded zero receptions. He broke previous mark set by WR Lionel Taylor when he caught 92 passes for Denver in the AFL in 1960 after recording zero receptions for Chicago in 1959.
- Teamed with Roy Williams to become one of only three WR duos in the NFL to each register 80 receptions and 1,000 yards, and were the first Lions duo to do so since Germane Crowell and Johnnie Morton in 1999. Combined 180 receptions were the second-most by a WR tandem in the NFL in 2006 and the most by Lions duo since Herman Moore (104) and Morton (80) in 1997.
- Marked only the fifth time in team history that two Lions' WR each caught 80 passes in the same season.
- Led offense with five catches for 55 yards (11.0 avg), vs. Seattle (9/10) in his first game as a Lion.
- In his first career start at wide receiver, Furrey had a then career-high six catches for a career-high 67 yards (11.2 avg) at Chicago (9/17).
- At St. Louis (10/01/06), Furrey registered eight catches for 82 yards (10.3 avg) and two TDs, all single-game career-highs. Furrey's two TDs were the first offensive touchdowns of his career. While playing safety with the Rams, Furrey returned an interception 67 yards for a touchdown against New Orleans (10/23/05).
- Registered another outstanding performance at the New York Jets (10/22/06), setting new career and season-highs in catches (9) and receiving yards (109) while recording his first 100-yard receiving game of his career and third TD catch of the season.
- Made four grabs for 72 yards (18.0 avg), including a season and career-long catch of 26 yards vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Led team in receptions at Arizona (11/19) with six grabs for 67 yards (11.2 avg.) and vs. Miami (11/23) with seven for 67 yards (9.6 avg).
- Recorded his second 100-yard receiving game of the year with a career-best 123 yards on nine receptions with a career-long 31-yard reception and one touchdown to lead the team in receiving for the third week in a row at New England (12/3).
- Continued streak of leading team in receiving to four straight-games vs. Minnesota (12/10) with nine grabs for 84 yards (9.3 avg).
- Led team in receiving vs. Chicago (12/24) with 10 catches for 107 yards (10.7 avg), his third 100-yard game of year, and scored his fifth receiving touchdown of the season against the Bears.
- Notched his fourth 100-yard receiving game of season to lead team with 102 yards on a career-high 11 receptions and one receiving touchdown at Dallas (12/31). 11 receptions were the most by a Lions wide receiver since Herman Moore had 11 during the 1997 season.
- He surpassed 1,000 yards on the season against the Cowboys, the first 1,000-yard season of his career.

2005: Led the team in interceptions after making the switch to defense prior to the season, going from wide receiver to safety. He emerged as the Rams' starting free safety after the fifth game.

- Saw first action in the secondary at Arizona (9/18) and then again the following week vs. Tennessee (9/25).
- In his first significant action at free safety, he set a career high with nine tackles (seven solo) vs. Seattle (10/9).
- Became the starting free safety and started his first game at Indianapolis (10/17), playing every defensive down. He also contributed on special teams, recovering a fumble.
- In his second start vs. New Orleans (10/23), he made his first career interception which he returned 67 yards (career-high) for his first NFL touchdown to help St. Louis seal the win late in the fourth quarter.
- Started and had interception (37 yds) vs. Jacksonville (10/30).
- Tied team high with nine tackles (eight solo) vs. Arizona (11/20).
- Grabbed team-leading fourth pick (6 yds) vs. Philadelphia.

2004: Played in eight regular season games and both playoff contests, mostly as a contributor on special teams coverage and return units.

- Second on team with 13 special teams tackles.
- Had a career-high three special teams tackles at San Francisco (10/3) in addition to two kickoff returns for 44 yards (22.0 avg).
- Was named Special Teams Player of the Game for his two special teams tackles in NFC Wildcard Game at Seattle 1/8/05

2003: Prior to signing with the Rams (4/29), he was leading the AFL in receptions (108), receiving yards (1,574), receiving touchdowns (46), tying an AFL record for touchdowns in a single season, and points (288).

- Played in 13 contests as receiver, kick returner and cover units.
- Inactive (appendectomy) vs. G.B. (10/19) and at Pitt. (10/26)

- Had key 2-yard rush on fourth-and-two in third quarter at Chicago (11/16) for a first down helping offense finish drive with a TD.

- Set career-highs with four catches for 45 yards vs. Seattle (12/18)

2002: Led the AFL New York Dragons with 74 catches for 1,055 yards and 27 touchdowns.

2001: Played nine games Las Vegas Outlaws in XFL and finished third on the team with 18 receptions for 243 yards with one touchdown.

2000: Spent 2000 training camp with Indianapolis after signing with Colts as undrafted free agent.

COLLEGE: Finished three-year career at Northern Iowa with 242 receptions for 3,544 yards and 27 touchdowns. 242 career catches shattered the previous school and Gateway Conference mark of 176.

- Crossed 1,000-yard mark in receiving all three seasons (1,291 as sophomore, 1,074 as junior and 1,179 as senior).

- All-Gateway Conference selection as senior. Second-team All-America by AP, ESPN/Sports Ticker and The Sports Network as junior.

- Transferred to UNI after playing nine games at Ohio State as walk-on freshman in 1995

PERSONAL:

- Born Michael Thomas Furrey in Grove City, Ohio.
- Earned 10 letters, three in football, three in basketball, and four in baseball at Hilliard (OH) High.
- Earned first-team all-Ohio honors as senior.
- He and his wife, Koren have two daughters, Makayla and Stone.

PRO: The 16-year veteran, and one of the NFL's most productive kickers, is the Lions' all-time scoring leader with 1,537 points as well as the all-time leader in field goals (356) and extra points (469). Hanson became only the 13th player in NFL history to surpass the 1,500-point mark in 2006, and with 1,537 career points he ranks fifth in all-time scoring amongst active players. With 30 field goals of 50 yards or more, Hanson ranks fourth among kickers in NFL history. Hanson ranks first in every statistical category for a place kicker in Lions history with longest field goal (56), field goals made (356), field goals attempted (437), points scored (1,537), extra points made (469) and extra points attempted (475). He is also the franchise leader in games played with 239, and will become the franchises all-time leader in seasons played by appearing in one game during the 2007 season. Hanson, who made consecutive Pro Bowl appearances following the 1998 and 1999 seasons, has led the Lions in scoring in each of his 15 pro seasons and is a four-time winner of the Lions' Yale Lary Special Teams Player of the Year Award (1993, '99, '03 and '06). He has connected on 326-of-374 (.872) career field goal attempts inside the 50-yard line and is a remarkable 237-of-246 (.963) from inside the 40-yard line for his career. Hanson has proved to be a valuable asset to the Lions as the team is 62-46 (.574) in his career when he kicks two-or-more field goals in a game, 34-13 (.723) when he makes three-or-more and 17-3 (.850) when he converts four field goals in a contest. In addition, Hanson has made 16 game-winning, fourth quarter or overtime kicks during his career (10 in regulation; six in overtime). The Spokane, Wash., native has only missed six extra points in his career (469-of-475) and has been perfect in PAT tries in 10 different seasons (1992-93, 1995-96 and 2000-02, 2004-06).

Hanson has been almost flawless at Ford Field since the Lions began play there in 2002, going 74-for-82 (.902) on field goal attempts, which include four fourth-quarter or overtime game-winners and a long of 54 yards. He has made the second-most field goals at home since 2002, and he is one of only two kickers in the league (Ravens K Matt Stover, 90.4) to record a field goal percentage (min. of 50 attempts) of 90.0 percent. The Lions originally selected Hanson in the second round of the 1992 NFL Draft (56th overall). Hanson signed a long-term contract extension prior to the 2004 season (through 2008).

MAJOR FACTS

2006: Hanson finished the season tied for third in the NFL with 29 field goals made (including the last 14 he attempted), tied for second with three 50-yarders and tied for sixth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in points among kickers with 117 points this season. He was 29-of-33 (87.9) this year on field goal attempts, and ranked 10th with an 87.9 field goal percentage. For the fifth time, he was selected the team's Yale Lary Special Teams MVP. He started the season through Week 2 only 2-of-4 on field goal attempts, but after then he connected on 23-of-25 attempts (.920). Hanson was quite effective on kickoffs in addition to his success on field goals. He ranked fifth in the league in kickoff distance average (66.9) and tied for fifth with 13 touchbacks. The 15-year veteran was the only kicker in the league ranked in the Top 5 in field goals made and average kickoff distance.

- Hanson ranked first among all active kickers after the 2006 season with a minimum of at least 100 attempts in both field goals from 0-39 yards with a 96.3 percentage (236-of-245) and 0-49 yards with an 87.2 percentage (326-of-374).
- Among kickers all-time, Hanson ranks third amongst those with over 400 attempts with an 81.5 percentage (356-of-437).
- Hanson's 29 field goals this season tie him for second in Lions single-season history, and his 117 total points tie him for fifth all-time in Lions scoring in a single season.
- Went 2-of-3 in FGs against Seattle (9/10), successfully booting a 44-yarder and a 37-yard field goal to provide the only offensive points for the Lions in the team's season opener. The game against the Seahawks also marked his 15th NFL season as a Lion, tying LB Wayne Walker (1958-72) for the most career seasons played in franchise history.
- On Hanson's first field goal of the game (44) against Seattle (9/10), he surpassed Matt Bahr (1,422) for 16th place on the NFL's all-time points scored list.
- 3-of-3 on PATs and 1-of-1 on a 40-yard field goal against Green Bay (9/24).
- Was a perfect 2-for-2 on the day in field goal tries with 29 and 20 yard field goals, respectively, while also adding four PATs at St. Louis (10/1). He also surpassed Jim Turner (1,439) for 15th place in the NFL's all-time scoring list.
- Hit a season-long 53-yard field goal at Minnesota (10/8), marking his 28th 50-yard field goal in his career.
- Was 2-of-3 against Buffalo (10/15) with two extra points.
- Produced season-best 12 points, 3-of-3 in field goals (long of 36 yards) and added three extra points vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Provided seven points on two field goals of 28 and 33, respectively, while adding one extra point vs. San Francisco (11/12).
- Connected on his 29th career 50-yard field goal, a 52-yarder, vs. Miami (11/23) and added one extra point against the Dolphins.
- Was successful on a season-best 4-of-4 field goal attempts at New England (12/3), with a 29, 38, 49 and 26 yard field goals to contribute a season-high 13 points against the Patriots. His 13 points pushed him over the 1,500 career points total and became the 13th player in NFL history to accomplish that feat.
- Hanson became only the fourth player in NFL history to make 30 field goals from 50-yards or further vs. Minnesota (12/10) after his 53-yarder against the Vikings in the second quarter. For the day, Hanson went 2-for-2 with a 45-yard field goal and two PATs.
- By recording his 10th touchback of the season vs. Minnesota (12/10),

K Jason Hanson became the second kicker since 1994 (the first year kickoffs were moved back to the 30-yard line and the kicking tee lowered) to record 10 touchbacks on kickoffs in a single season as a NFL veteran of 15 or more seasons. The other kicker was Morten Andersen who accomplished this feat in his 15th (1996), 16th (1997), 17th (1998) and 19th (2000) career seasons. Hanson has the most seasons (11) of 10-or-more touchbacks since 1994.

- Was a perfect 3-for-3 in field goal tries at Green Bay (12/17), hitting two 42-yarders and one 23-yard field goal to accumulate nine points.
- Hanson registered three extra points vs. Chicago (12/24) to ensure his eighth 100-point season of his career, and he garnered his 11th touchback of the season on the opening kickoff. After four kickoffs, the Bears started at their own 20, 25, 26 and 22 yard lines.
- Connected on all four field goal attempts at Dallas (12/31), hitting from 33, 25, 26 and 23 yards out and also added two touchbacks on kickoffs against the Cowboys.
- By making four field goals against the Cowboys for the 20th time in his career, Hanson became only the sixth kicker in NFL history with 20 games with four-or-more field goals.
- Performance against Cowboys earned him NFC Player of the Week honors, marking the ninth time that he has received the honor.

2005: Continued to be a steady presence on the team throughout 2005 despite suffering a hamstring injury early in season. Finished the season 17th on the NFL's all-time scorers list with 1,420 points.

- Connected on a 21-yard field goal vs. Green Bay (9/11) to bring his consecutive field goal streak to 16.
- Was inactive vs. Chicago (9/18) due to a hamstring injury, breaking a streak of 209 consecutive games played.
- Connected on two field goal attempts (23, 44) at Tampa Bay (10/2) after recovering from a hamstring injury.
- Despite connecting on two field goal attempts (52, 25), saw his consecutive field goal streak end at 18 vs. Carolina (10/16) when the Panthers blocked a 47-yard attempt.
- Had his first game-winning field goal of the season at Cleveland (10/23), a 50-yard kick in the fourth quarter.
- Hit two field goals and PAT at Green Bay (12/11) to surpass 1,400-point mark—only 17th player in NFL history to achieve this feat.
- Recorded his 16th career game-winning field goal at New Orleans (12/24). The Lions moved within field goal range with less than 20 seconds left. As the clock was running, Hanson picked his spot without stepping off his position and called for the snap. He connected on his second field goal of the day, a 39-yard boot as time expired against the Saints to give Detroit the 13-12 edge.

2004: Set the franchise all-time games played mark when he played in his 201st career game at Jacksonville. Tied Wayne Walker's all-time record when he appeared in his 200th game vs. Washington (11/7).

- Converted 400th career PAT in the second quarter at Dallas (10/31), becoming 29th player in NFL history to accomplish that feat.
- Scored all of the Lions points vs. Indianapolis (11/25), splitting the uprisings from 20, 34 and 32 yards out.
- Became the 20th player in NFL history to eclipse the 1,300-point mark for his career after connection on four field goals (45, 22, 31, 36) vs. Arizona (12/5).
- Connected on his 30th career field goal when he hit his second of two at Green Bay (12/12).
- Booted four field goals (31, 39, 34, 40) and nailed one extra point vs. Chicago (12/19), helping improve the team's record to 16-2 when he hits four or more three-pointers.
- After connecting on two field goals (both 26 yards) and one PAT at Tennessee (1/2), he recorded his eighth career 100-point season, finishing the year with exactly 100 points.

2003: His field goal percentage of .957 was the highest of his career and in franchise history as well as the second best in the NFL in 2003.

- Tied for the NFL lead with four field goals of over 50 yards.
- Recipient of the Yale Lary Special Teams Player of the Year Award for the fourth time in his career.
- Named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November after making 12-of-13 attempts, including two game-winners (vs. Chicago 11/9; vs. Green Bay 11/27).
- Started season converting 13 straight FG attempts, the most consecutive FGs he has made to begin a season in his career.
- Had a then-season-long 53-yard field goal at Denver (9/28), which put him in third place all-time in the NFL with 23 kicks of over 50 yards.

- Stepped in to handle punting duties in place of injured John Jett at San Francisco (10/5), punting seven times for 264 yards (37.7 avg).
 - Tallied 11 points vs. Oakland (11/2), converting on all three field goal and two extra point attempts, including a season-long 54-yard field goal in the first quarter, making him only the third player in NFL history with 24 field goals of over 50 yards.
 - Kicked four field goals vs. Chicago (11/9), including a 48-yard game-winner with 39 seconds remaining in the game, and earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. His game-winner was the 13th of his career and it was the 275th field goal of his career. The game against the Bears was the 185th of his career, moving him into a tie for second place on the Lions all-time list with Dick LeBeau.
 - Became just the 25th player in NFL history with 1,200 career points after converting both extra point attempts at Minnesota (11/23).
 - Had one of his most productive games as a pro vs. Green Bay (11/27), converting on all five of his field goal attempts and an extra point for 16 points on the day, the most he has recorded since he scored 19 vs. Minnesota (10/19/99). It was the third time he recorded five or more field goals in a game and the 16th time he had more than four. His third field goal vs. the Packers was the eventual game-winner, his 14th career game-winner in either the fourth quarter or overtime.
 - With two extra points at Carolina (12/21), tied Eddie Murray for first on the Lions' all-time list with 381 for his career.
 - Went 3-for-3 in field goal attempts vs. St. Louis (12/28), converting from 39, 38 and 50 yards out. His 50-yard field goal was the 25th of his career of 50 yards and over and his fourth of the season, tying a career high. With his three extra points against the Rams, he took sole possession of first place on the Lions' all-time list.
- 2002: Tied former Lions' kicker Eddie Murray for the most career field goals in franchise history after kicking four field goals vs. New Orleans (9/29). With a 49-yard field goal in the third quarter at Minnesota (10/13) he became the all-time single leader in field goals in franchise history.
- Named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for efforts vs. Chicago (10/20) after he kicked a 48-yard game-winning FG to finish with 11 points (three FG, two PATs) and a special teams tackle.
 - Kicked a 43-yard game-winning field goal with 48 seconds left against Dallas (11/3) and accounted for all of the Lions' points against the Cowboys (3/3 field goals).
 - Became the Lions' all-time leading scorer with a 45-yard field goal in the second quarter vs. New England (11/28) and scored the Lions' only offensive points while going 4-of-4.
- 2001: Tied a career-high with four field goals of over 50 yards.
- Collected his 1,000th career point with first PAT at Arizona (11/18).
 - Kicked season-long field goal (54 yards) along with a 33-yarder and a PAT vs. Green Bay (11/22). The 54-yarder made Hanson the 20th player in NFL history to kick 20 or more 50-yard field goals.
- 2000: Finished the season by nailing 11-of-12 final field goals in Games 10-16, including his final nine attempts.
- Productive on kickoffs, recording 10 touchbacks, forcing 17 drives to begin inside 20-yard line and teaming with a superb cover unit to lead NFL in opponent's average drive start (25.1 yard-line).
 - Enjoyed a huge game vs. Washington (9/10), connecting on all five of his field goal tries and accounting for all 15 of the Lions' points in the win which earned him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Among the kicks he made in that game was a 54-yarder in the third quarter (tied for third-longest in team history) and a 37-yarder in the fourth quarter, which was the 200th field goal of his career.
 - Made game-winning (seventh of career) 44-yard field goal, with 1:43 left to play fourth quarter, in Lions' 13-10 win vs. Atlanta (11/12), and added another 18-yarder in fourth quarter.
 - Made second (17th of career) 50-yarder (52 yards) of season at Minnesota (11/30), and reached the 300 career extra points.
 - Booted critical 35-yard FG in third quarter at New York Jets (12/17) in sloppy conditions during a tightly-fought 10-7 Lions' win.
- 1999: Named to his second career NFC Pro Bowl squad.
- Voted by teammates as the Yale Lary Special Teams MVP as well as the 1999 Detroit Lions Man of the Year.
 - Named first-team All-NFC by both Pro Football Weekly and Football News after he made an NFC-high 26-of-32 field goal attempts, including career-high four of 50+ yards.
 - All six misses were from 46 yards or longer, including a 57-yard attempt at Arizona (11/14) and 58-yard try at Minnesota (1/2).
 - Garnered NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October after converting on 10-of-11 attempts.

- Both of his late-game field goals in the first two wins of the season gave the Lions a key eight-point lead in final minutes – a 49-yarder at Seattle (9/12) with 2:46 remaining and a 48-yard effort vs. Green Bay (9/19) with 2:10 left in the game.
 - Enjoyed a landmark day vs. Minnesota (10/17) with team-record-tying and career-high six FGs, including game-winning 48-yard kick with seven seconds remaining (sixth game-winner of career), and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his effort. With six field goals that day, he became one of 17 players in NFL history to accomplish that feat and his seven FG attempts on the day were a career-high as well, in addition to recording career-best 19 points.
 - Became 11th player in NFL history to kick two 50+ yarders in the same game twice in his career (also vs. Indianapolis on 11/23/97) after converting from 50 and 52 yards vs. Washington (12/5).
- 1998: Named an alternate to the 1999 NFC Pro Bowl squad.
- Sporting News named him the NFL's top kicker at midway point.
 - Made two-or-more field goals in 11 contests, including eight consecutive games (Weeks 3-10).
 - Prior to missing two field goals (47, 43) in Games 12-13, only misses on season were a 58-yard attempt in the last minute at Philadelphia (11/8) and a 53-yarder in swirling wind at Chicago (10/4).
 - Game vs. Pittsburgh (11/26) saw him drill a season-long 51-yarder and resulted in the fifth overtime game-winning kick of his career (first since 1994). A 43-yard miss in the game was his first miss from the 40-49-yard range since the regular season finale in 1996 (16 in a row) and also broke a string of 23 consecutive field goals made from inside 50 yards.
- 1997: Made his first career Pro Bowl appearance. Converted a franchise record 24-straight FGs en route to making 26-of-29 tries on the season (then-career-high .897).
- Hit upright on first FG try of the year vs. Tampa Bay (9/7) from 52 yards and didn't miss again until 50-yard attempt at Minnesota (12/14).
 - Became first Lion to kick two field goals of 50 yards-or-longer in a game with efforts of 52 and 55 yards vs. Indianapolis (11/23).
 - Converted a career-high seven PATs in Lions' Thanksgiving Day win vs. Chicago (11/27).
 - Had his streak of 126 consecutive PATs broken at Miami (12/7).
- 1996: Attempted only four field goals in eight-game stretch in middle of the year, making three of them.
- Hit 43-yard game-winner vs. Seattle (11/17) with 4:43 remaining.
 - Most prolific game of season came vs. Minnesota (12/8) when he drilled a season-high three field goals (30, 31 and 48-yards) in a season-high four attempts (missing from 48 yards wide right).
- 1995: NFC's top scorer among kickers with team-record 132 points (tied for second in the NFL) and was named as the alternate on the 1996 NFC Pro Bowl squad.
- 48 PATs, broke Eddie Murray's club record of 46 PATs (1981).
 - Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his 4-of-4 field goal effort (plus four touchbacks on kickoffs) in Detroit's win over San Francisco (9/25).
 - Only effort vs. Cleveland (10/8) was record-breaking 56-yarder, in addition to making all five PATs.
- 1994: Set an NFL record with three game-winning overtime kicks.
- Booted a 37-yarder in OT to win the season-opener vs. Atlanta (9/4), despite a severely bruised shin on his kicking leg (injured making game-saving tackle on kickoff after Lions' tying touchdown).
 - Kicked his second game-winning field goal of the season, a 44-yarder in overtime, at Dallas (9/19).
 - Kicked his third game-winning field goal of the season, a 24-yarder in overtime, at New York Giants (10/30).
 - Played instrumental role in victory at New York Jets (12/10) — was successful on 4-of-4 field goal attempts (37, 49, 46 and 23 yards) in rainy and windy conditions at the Meadowlands.
- 1993: Led the NFC in scoring with then-team-record 130 points (second in the NFL) and his 34 field goals also set a Lions' record and fell one short of the then-NFL record for most field goals in a season.
- Connected on three-or-more field goals eight times, with the Lions winning all eight contests.
 - Named All-Pro by the Sporting News, earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for October and December and was the Lions' Special Teams MVP for the first time in his career.
 - Named the first ever NFC Special Teams Player-of-the-Week (Week 1) after he converted all three field goal attempts, all three PATs and booted all seven kickoffs for touchbacks, including one that went through the uprights, in season opener vs. Atlanta (9/5).

- Booted the game-winning field goal (38 yards), in OT at New England (9/12). Made 4-of-5 FGs, with his only miss coming from 52 yards.
- Converted all three field goals and all three PATs vs. Seattle (10/17), with all seven kickoffs resulting in touchbacks, including one that went through the uprights and one that hit the cross bar.
- Kicked the game-winning field goal (18 yards) with four seconds remaining in game at Los Angeles Rams (10/24) — game-winner was one of three field goals on the day.
- Made a then-career-long 53-yard field goal in division-clinching win vs. Green Bay (1/2), making 3-of-4 field goal attempts in the game, with his only miss coming from 56 yards.

1992: Named Offensive Rookie of the Year by Pro Football Weekly as well as being selected to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly, P.F.W.A., Football News and College and Pro Football Newsweekly.

- The average attempt of his five missed field goals (21-of-26) on the year was 51.4 yards and he was the only kicker in the NFL not to miss a kick under 45 yards.
- Made 18 of his last 19 field goal attempts and put together a string of 12 straight makes over a 10-game stretch (9/27-12/13).
- In his pro debut, made his only field goal attempt, from 38 yards, and all three PATs at Chicago (9/6).
- First four-field-goal-outing of career at Cincinnati (11/22).
- Had his streak of 12 consecutive field goals broken when a 57-yard attempt was blocked vs. Cleveland (12/13).

COLLEGE: Considered one of the finest kicking specialists in the history of college football.

- Made 57.1 percent of his field goal tries (20-of-35) from 50 yards-or-longer, setting Washington State and Pac 10 records.
- His 20 field goals from 50 yards-or-longer set an NCAA mark, topping the previous career mark of 16 by Tony Franklin (Texas A&M, 38 attempts, 1975-78), and his 39 field goals of 40 yards-or-more surpassed Russell Erben of Texas' NCAA career record of 32.
- Holds the school record with 328 points, topping the old mark of 248 points by Steve Broussard (1986-89).
- Kicked at least two field goals in a game 20 times, surpassing Kevin Butler of Georgia's NCAA record (17, 1981-84).
- Holds WSU's all-time records with 63 FGs and 139 PATs.
- All-Pac-10 first-team punter and second-team kicker as senior.
- Led the team with 58 points his senior year and led the conference with 55 punts for 2,245 yards (40.8 avg).
- Kicked a 62-yard field goal that year, setting the record for the longest field goal without a tee in NCAA history.
- Set conference record by making 7-of-9 50+-yard field goals in 1991 as well, one shy of the NCAA season mark.
- All-American choice as a punter by ESPN his junior year in 1990.
- Unanimous All-American first-team pick as a sophomore in 1989.
- GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American pick who received a Bachelor of Science degree in premed from Washington State, possessing a 3.8 grade point average.

PERSONAL: Born Jason Douglas Hanson in Spokane, Wash.

- Lettered twice in football, three times in soccer and once in basketball at Mead (Spokane, Wash.) High.
- All-Greater Spokane League pick as a kicker and punter and named All-State first-team by the Washington Sports Writers Association.
- Brother, Travis, was kicker for Washington Huskies from 1990-93.
- He and his wife, Kathleen, were married in 1992 and have two sons, Ryan and Luke, and a daughter, Jessica.

PRO: Harris continues his progress as one of the league's most productive and accurate punters. He is a valuable asset in terms of the battle for field position. In his three full seasons with the Lions (signed for last 11 games in 2003), Harris has increased his gross punting average—40.9 in 2004, 43.5 in 2005 and 44.9 in 2006, and net punting average—34.2 in 2004, 36.9 in 2005 and 38.7 in 2006—in each season. In 2006, he finished strong with two top-10 rankings amongst NFL punters as he was fifth in gross punting (45.0 avg) and tied for eighth in net punting (38.2 avg). He had his best pro season and one of the best in the NFL in 2005 while proving to be one of the league's most accurate punters as he led the NFL with a net differential (punts downed inside the 20-yard line minus the number of touchbacks) of 32. Harris' 34 punts downed inside-the-20 was the highest in the league. The Lions signed Harris October 14, 2003 as a replacement for the injured John Jett and he established himself as the Lions punter for the remainder of the season. He played the 2001-02 seasons and the first five games of 2003 with the Cincinnati Bengals before being released October 7, 2003. Harris was originally drafted by the Denver Broncos in the fourth round of the 2001 NFL Draft (120th overall) and then was waived on August 28, 2001, but was claimed by the Bengals just one day later.

MAJOR FACTS

- Such a valuable member of his team at Cal, students made signs and t-shirts that said "Nick Harris for Heisman".
- Was close to going to a smaller college to play linebacker before Cal offered him a scholarship to be a punter.
- Has an identical twin brother, Chris, whose football career was curtailed by a serious knee injury.
- Served as a chairman for the 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Donated Lions' tickets to each home game to HAVEN, a shelter for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse, through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Participated in the annual Lions Celebrity Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $110,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Took part for the third straight year in the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar that helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Helped deliver thousands of pounds of food and supplies to more than 30 Metro Detroit relief agencies at the United Way Hometown Huddle/Lift Up America event, Dec. 5, at Ford Field.
- Made a special visit to the Children's Hospital of Michigan during the 2006 season.
- Named 2005 Special Teams MVP by The Detroit Lions Quarterback Club, the official booster club of the Lions.

2006: Once again proved himself as one of the most effective punters in the NFL. After a slow start to the 2006 season when he uncharacteristically recorded eight touchbacks and only six punts downed inside the 20-yard line in the first seven games, he returned to form and was one of the best in the league from Week 9 through the end of the season. With 18 punts downed inside the 20-yard line, Harris has now tallied the second-most punts downed inside-the-20 (84) in the NFL since the beginning of the 2004 season.

- Harris finished the season fifth in the NFL (third in the NFC) with a 45.0 punting average and was tied for eighth (fourth in the NFC) in net punting a 38.2 average.

- Since net punting became an official statistic in 1976, Harris' 38.2 is the second-highest single-season average by Lions' punter behind Jim Arnold's 1987 mark of 39.6, and his gross punting average of 45.0 is the fifth-best in team single-season history.
- Harris' 40.5 net punting average was the best in the NFL over the last two months of the season.
- Also during that time, Harris downed 10 punts inside the 20-yard line and had only one touchback.
- In the month of December, Harris recorded a net average of 42.0 yards per punt on 17 punts, which was the second-highest in the league.
- Netted a 43.0 average (six punts for 258 yards) with a long of 55 yards while also dropping one punt inside the 20 against Seattle (9/10).
- Had six punts for 258 yards (43.0 avg) with a long of 47 yards at Chicago (9/17).
- Registered five punts for 214 yards (42.8 avg) with a long of 53 yards against Green Bay (9/24).
- Punted for 296 yards (second-most on the season) on six punts (49.3 avg) with a long punt of 53 yards at Minnesota (10/8).
- Charted career-best 53.5 average (two punts for 103 yards) at the New York Jets (10/22).
- Booted a season-best two punts inside the 20-yard line on three punts for 121 yards (40.3 avg) with a long punt of 47 yards vs. San Francisco (11/12).
- Punted five times for 220 yards (44.0 avg) with a season and career-tying best of four punts inside the 20-yard line, and tied his season-best long punt of 55 yards at Arizona (11/19).
- Tied a season-high with six punts for 263 yards (43.8 avg) with a long punt of 53 yards vs. Miami (11/23).
- Had five punts for 240 yards (48.0 avg) with one punt inside the 20, which was dropped at the 2-yard line, and a season-long punt of 56 yards at Green Bay (12/17).
- At the New York Jets 10/22, Harris recorded a career single-game high 53.5 gross yards per punt (2 punts for 107 yards, including a long 55 yards).
- Harris had a career day vs. Chicago (12/24), totaling a season-best seven punts for a season-high 335 yards (47.9 avg) with a career-long punt of 67 yards and also had three punts downed inside the 20-yard line against the Bears.
- Facing the NFL's most dangerous returner in 2006, the Lions Special Teams contained the Bears and their Pro Bowl PR Devin Hester. Leading the way was Harris and the punt unit. Harris punted 7 times for a season-high 335 yards (47.9 gross punting average). It was Harris' fourth-highest single-game gross punting average of his career in games he punted at least five times. He also tackled on three punts inside-the-20 and the punt cover team forced three fair catches as Harris netted a remarkable 45.3 average. It was his third-highest single-game net average of his career, with his second-highest occurring two weeks ago at Green Bay 12/17 (54.5 net).
- His 45.6 net punting average vs. Chicago was the second-highest single-game net punting average in the NFL among punters with at least 7 punts in a game. Harris and the punt unit also forced three punts that were downed inside the 20-yard line and three fair catches against the Bears.
- In the second quarter vs. Chicago, Harris boomed a 67-yard punt, which was a career high. It was also the longest punt by the Lions since Jim Arnold had a 68-yarder at the Los Angeles Rams 10/24/93.
- Punted three times for 139 yards (46.3 avg) with one punt inside the 20 and a long of 53 yards at Dallas (12/31).

2005: Finished the 2005 season first in the NFL with punts downed inside-the-20 with 34 on the season.

- Had a punt downed inside-the-20 in all 16 games of the 2005 season and has a streak of 18 games with punts downed inside the 20-yard line dating back to the 2004 season.
- Had two games with four punts downed inside-the-20 in 2005 (Green Bay 9/11 and at New Orleans 12/24).
- Handled kickoffs as well as punts vs. Green Bay (9/11).
- Put the Bucs inside the 20-yard line three times at Tampa Bay (10/2).
- Had a then-season-long 59-yard punt vs. Chicago (10/30), pinning the Bears down at their own 1-yard line. His punt was one yard short of his career long.
- Tied his career long punt of 60 yards at Minnesota (11/6) in the first quarter. Also had a career high game average of 52.6.
- Reached 100 career punts downed inside-the-20 against Arizona (11/13). Pinned the Cardinals at the 2-yard line, allowing for a DT Dan Wilkinson safety.
- Downed two punts inside-the-20 at Green Bay (12/11).

2004: Finished the season tied for second in the NFL with 32 punts downed inside the 20-yard line. Recorded the second-most punts downed inside the 20-yard line in a single season in Lions' annals with 32. He finished one behind John Jett, who recorded 33 in 2000.

- Tied for third in the NFL by forcing 24 fair catches on the season. Saints P. Mitch Berger and Titans P. Craig Heinrich led the category with 25 punts that were signaled fair catches.
- Averaged 48.7 yards per punt (seven punts for 341 yards), dropping three inside the 20-yard line in his 50th career game vs. Philadelphia (9/26).
- Punted the ball seven times for 308 yards (44.0 avg), including a then career-long 58-yarder at Atlanta (10/10).
- Dropped a season-high four punts inside-the-20 at Green Bay (12/12).
- Averaged 45 yards per punt on three punts vs. Minnesota (12/19).
- Booted a career-long 60-yard punt at Tennessee (1/2), and averaged 43.0 yards/punt on five punts against the Titans.

2003: Bengals' primary punter for the first five games of season. Signed by the Lions on October 14.

- Dropped a season-high three punts inside-the-20 vs. Green Bay (11/27) and finished with six punts for 217 yards and no touchbacks.
- Had Lions' season-highs in punts (nine) and punt yards (387) vs. San Diego (12/7) with his nine punts in the game also tied a career-high.

2002: Second season as the Bengals' No. 1 punter and finished with a plus-seven differential on inside-20 kicks (11) compared to touchbacks (four).

- Total touchbacks were the fewest among regular AFC punters.
- With only four touchbacks in 64 kicks, his touchback percentage (6.2) was the NFL's third-best behind only Chicago's Brad Maynard (2.3) and Houston's Chad Stanley (5.3).
- Handled 50 holds on place kicks (18 FG, 32 PAT) without a muff, helping K. Neil Rackers post an 83.3% accuracy rate on field goals (15-of-18), tied for seventh among all NFL kickers with 15-or-more attempts.
- Averaged 44.2 yards on five punts in season opener vs. San Diego (9/8), including a season-long 57-yarder that tied his career-high.
- Averaged 43.7 yards on a season-high nine punts vs. Tampa Bay (9/29), with two inside-20s and one touchback.
- Inactive at Carolina (12/8) as coaches elected to give rookie Travis Dorsch his first game action, but returned for the final three games of the season.

2001: Acquired by the Cincinnati Bengals on waiver claim on August 29. Had 21 inside-the-20 kicks against just six touchbacks, and his plus-15 differential in those categories was Bengals' best since plus-19 by Lee Johnson (27-8) in 1997.

- Helped Bengals punting unit yield only 8.0 yards per return, ranked eighth in the NFL.
- At least one inside-the-20 punt in each of season's first 12 games.
- Had season-high punting average (46.7), three inside-20 kicks and tied for season-long punt (57) at Jacksonville (11/11).

COLLEGE: Regarded by many as the premier punter in college football during his Cal career where he averaged 42.3 yards per punt, and his 13,621 total yards broke previous NCAA mark of 12,947 by TCU's Cameron Young.

- Placed 92 of his punts (28.6 percent) inside-the-20 and also held for place kicks.
- Earned consensus All-American honors in 2000.
- Had his best season average, 44.7 yards, as a junior in 1999.
- Well-conditioned athlete who had Cal's fastest 10-yard dash (1.77) and second-best 20-yard shuttle time (4.17).

PERSONAL: Attended Westview (Ariz.) High School where he earned National Coaches' Association All-America honors as a senior with 42.3-yard punting average.

- Also earned prep all-state honors as a linebacker and saw action on offense as a receiver and a rusher.
- All-state prep soccer player as well.
- Holds a bachelor's degree in American studies and a master's degree in education from the University of California.
- Married to wife Heather with whom he has a son, Drew.
- Full name is Nicholas John Harris.

KEVIN JONES

Running Back

Virginia Tech

Ht: 6-0

Born: 8/21/82

Draft: '04, R1b (30)-Det

4th Year

Wt: 228

Hometown: Chester, Pa.

PRO: Jones proved in 2006 to be the complete back the Lions' envisioned when he was drafted in 2004. Last year, he was en route to having his best all-around season of his three-year career before a foot injury sidelined him the last three games of the season. He was a valuable threat as a rusher and receiver, and improved greatly as a pass blocker. Jones has led the team in rushing in his first three seasons, becoming the first Lions rusher to lead the team in rushing during their first three NFL seasons since RB Barry Sanders (1989-91). The Lions traded up into the first round with Kansas City in order to select Jones, making him the first running back taken in the first round by Detroit since Barry Sanders in 1989. Jones burst onto the scene as a rookie, and was named as an alternate on the 2005 NFC Pro Bowl squad as he ran his way to 1,133 yards on 241 carries (4.7 avg) with five touchdowns. Named the Bobby Layne Offensive MVP and Mel Farr Rookie of the Year by his teammates, Jones was also recognized on the national stage, as he was named the NFC Offensive Rookie of the Month for December, a month in which he led the league in rushing yards.

MAINE FACTS

- Followed the Philadelphia Eagles and idolized Bo Jackson and Deion Sanders as a youth.
- Likes listening to Jay-Z and also enjoys rapping himself.
- Has an old car collection.
- Established The Kevin Jones Foundation to benefit underprivileged youth in the Detroit and Philadelphia (his hometown) areas. The foundation features an annual Charity Golf Classic to help raise funds to carry out his mission.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- Helped Lions promote NFL's "What Moves U" initiative with the American Heart Association to help battle child obesity.
- Took part for the second-straight year in the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar which helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Served as spokesperson for a Super Bowl XL sports equipment drive in the Detroit area.
- Donated Lions' tickets to each home game to the Kevin Jones Foundation through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Attended the 13th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Made a special visit with other NFL players to the Capuchin Soup Kitchen in Detroit during Super Bowl XL week.
- Attended Samsung's "Tech for Kids" Program visiting with students from the Detroit Lions Academy.

2006: Finished the season with a career best 61 receptions and tied for fourth in the NFL among running backs despite playing just 12 games. His 61 receptions are the second-most by a Lions running back in team history. Jones' 520 receiving yards in 12 games were the fourth-most by a RB in the NFL, fifth-best by a Lions RB in team history. On the ground, he recorded 689 yards on 181 attempts.

- Amassed 1,209 yards from scrimmage (689 rushing, 520 passing). Among players (24 total) in the NFL with 1,200 scrimmage yards, he played in least amount of games.
- Had a career-high six rushing touchdowns and eight total touchdowns.
- Had 82 total yards (44 rushing, 38 receiving) along with a then-career-high six catches at Chicago (9/17).
- Produced his first touchdown of the 2006 season on a 5-yard goal line run while adding 81 yards on 17 carries (4.8 avg) with a long of 15 yards on the ground, while also adding five receptions for 44 yards (8.8 avg) against Green Bay (9/24).
- Had a breakout game at St. Louis (10/1), registering 19 carries for 93 yards (4.9 avg) with a long of 35 yards and two rushing touchdowns. Also had five receptions for 4 yards, marking four straight games with five catches to become the first Lions RB to accomplish the feat since FB James Jones during the 1984 season.
- Jones' two rushing touchdowns marked his second multi-touchdown game of his career.
- Rushed for a season-high 127 yards (5.5 avg) on 23 attempts with a long of 52 yards and one touchdown against Buffalo (10/15). Also added six catches for 36 yards. It was Jones' fifth career 100-yard rushing game and it was the first since he registered 123 yards vs. Chicago 12/26/04. Jones had 83 rushing yards in the first quarter on 9 carries as well as a 7-yard rushing touchdown. It was the most rushing yards by a Lions running back in the first quarter since Barry Sanders had 88 yards on 4 attempts (2 TDs) vs. Cleveland 10/8/95. Jones' 83 first quarter yards was sparked by a 52-yard run on his first carry of the game.
- His 52-yarder was the longest of the season and the second longest of his career.
- Jones had six receptions vs. Buffalo (10/15), which tied a single-game career high and set a new single-season career high with 31 receptions for Jones.
- Among his six receptions in the game, the most important catch was a 9-yard catch on 3rd and 5 with 2:35 left to play in the game. He took a swing pass from Kitna out left and had a swift move to avoid a defender as he collected a first down that allowed the team to chew up all but 0:09 seconds on the clock.
- Recorded his first receiving TD of the season, and second of his career, on a 9-yard pass from QB Jon Kitna while also hauling in a season and career-high 57 yards on six receptions along with a season-high long reception of 26 yards at the New York Jets (10/22).
- Registered his second 100-yard rushing game of the season with 110 yards on 26 carries (4.2 avg) and also added four catches for 30 yards vs. Atlanta (11/5) to total 140 yards from scrimmage.

- Made a career-high nine catches for a career-high 71 yards with a long catch of 23 yards to lead the team vs. San Francisco (11/12). Combined for 115 total yards (44 rushing, 71 receiving), which was his fourth-straight game of 100 total yards and fifth time on the season.
- Left the game early at Arizona (11/19) with an ankle injury.
- Inactive vs. Miami (11/23) with an ankle injury.
- Recorded a career-high 86 receiving yards (17.2 avg) on five catches while also carrying the ball 19 times for 56 yards at New England (12/3). He also totaled 142 yards, which are the third-highest tally of the season.
- Caught six balls for 73 yards (11.2 avg) including a 23-yard touchdown pass vs. Minnesota (12/10), but left the game in the fourth quarter after suffering a foot injury. His six catches against the Vikings pushed his total to 61 catches, and with that, Jones registered the second-most receptions by a Lions running back in club history. He surpassed FB Cory Schlesinger's 2001 tally of 60 and is shy of RB James Jones' team record of 77 set in 1984.
- Missed games at Green Bay (12/17), vs. Chicago (12/24) and at Dallas (12/31) after being paced on IR December 12, 2006 due to a foot injury.

2005: Matched total from 2005 with five rushing TDs despite missing three games with elbow and shoulder injuries.

- Led the team in rushing for the second straight season.
- Opened season with 87 yards (25 carries) vs. Green Bay (9/11).
- Had his first career multi-touchdown game vs. Baltimore (10/9).
- Collected 74 yards on 21 rushing attempts along with two receptions for 10 yards at Cleveland (10/23).
- Recorded his first touchdown of year at Tampa Bay (10/2), an 8-yard run.
- Broke through the defense vs. Chicago (10/30) to score the first rushing touchdown that the Bears allowed at that point of the season. Also collected a career-high five receptions against the Bears for 13 yards (2.6 avg).
- Left the game early at Minnesota (11/6) due to shoulder injury.
- Had 14 carries for 81 yards and two receptions for 12 yards against Arizona (11/13). Had a then season-long 36-yard run on the opening drive to help set up a WR Roy Williams touchdown reception.
- Sparked a Lions scoring drive with a 28-yard reception at Dallas (11/20). Finished the drive with a 2-yard touchdown run.
- Had his longest rush of the season, a 40-yard run at Green Bay (12/11) to help put the Lions in scoring position. The drive resulted in a K Jason Hanson field goal. Played a limited role during the rest of the game due to injury.
- Returned from an elbow injury for the season finale at Pittsburgh (1/1) and led the team in rushing yards (78) and attempts (18).

2004: Selected by his teammates as the Bobby Layne Offensive MVP and Mel Farr Rookie of the Year.

- Named an alternate to the 2005 Pro Bowl.
- Finished the season as the Lions' leading rusher, ranked fifth in the NFC in rushing and tied second in the NFL with 11 rushes of 20-or-more yards.
- With 1,133 yards on 241 carries (4.7 avg), he became the fifth player (17th time overall) in team history to gain 1,000 yards in a single season and third running back to rush for over 1,100 yards.
- Carried the ball 12 times for 57 yards vs. Houston (9/19), including six carries for 49 yards on Detroit's scoring drives.
- Sustained an ankle injury in the first quarter vs. Philadelphia (9/26) and was inactive at Atlanta (10/10) due to that injury.
- Had his first 100-yard outing, carrying the ball a then-career high-tying 19 times for 100 yards, including 10 times for 69 yards on Lions scoring drives at Minnesota (11/21).
- Had a then-career long 40-yard carry that helped set up a Lions field goal vs. Indiana (11/25).
- Had the longest run by a Lions' rookie in franchise history, a 74-yarder, vs. Arizona (12/5). Set new highs in yards (196), carries (26) and long rush (74) against the Cardinals.
- His 196 yards against the Cardinals is the second-highest total by a Lions' rookie in franchise history (Mel Farr, 197 vs. Min 11/12/67).
- Became the first Lions rookie to rush for over 150 yards in back-to-back games when he rushed for 156 yards on 33 carries at Green Bay (12/12), including a 24-yard touchdown run, which marks the longest touchdown run from scrimmage by a Lions' back since Greg Hill scored on a 29-yard run at Chicago (11/25/99).

- Named NFC Offensive Rookie of the Month for December after racking up 626 yards, the highest total in the NFL, on 122 carries (5.1 avg) in the final five games of the season.

- Became the third rookie in Lions' history to record at least 1,000 yards in their first season when he recorded his fourth 100-yard game of the season, carrying the ball 25 times for 123 yards vs. Chicago (12/26).

- Talled 72 yards on 19 carries at Tennessee (1/2), including 10 carries for 39 yards and three receptions for 32 yards on Lions' scoring drives.

COLLEGE: Career numbers include 3,475 yards on 616 carries (5.6 avg) and 35 touchdowns in 37 games (16 starts).

PRO: Hard-hitting safety Kenoy Kennedy enters his third year as the team's strong safety. He is looking to rebound from a 2006 campaign where he missed six games due to foot and ankle injuries. Kennedy made an immediate impact on defense in his first season with the Lions, leading the team with 127 tackles. Detroit signed Kennedy as an unrestricted free agent March 8, 2005 after he spent the first five years of his career with the Denver Broncos. He has posted at least 90 tackles in four-of-seven seasons and has registered 12 career double-digit tackle games, including four with Detroit.

MAINE FACTS

- Donated Lions' home game tickets to numerous non-profit organizations through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Visited the Detroit Lions Academy, an alternative middle school in Detroit, to deliver gifts to each student before their annual Holiday Break in December.
- Grew up watching Steve Atwater, and rooting for the 49ers in the Jerry Rice era.
- Enjoys the work of Jamie Foxx, who is from his hometown of Terrell, Texas.
- Collects DVDs, and every Tuesday he goes out and buys all the new releases, whether he has seen them or not.
- Spends time with his family during the offseason.
- Wants to own a business, possibly a car audio center or a restaurant, after his football career ends.

2006: Kennedy tallied 57 tackles (39 solo), one sack, tied a career-best two interceptions, two passes defended, one fumble recovery, one forced fumble and a career-best 12 special teams tackles this season.

- Recorded six tackles (five solo) vs. Seattle (9/10) in the season opener.
- Had six solo tackles at Chicago (9/17).
- Inactive against Green Bay (9/24), at St. Louis (10/1), at Minnesota (10/8), Buffalo (10/15) and at the New York Jets (10/22) due to a foot injury.
- After a five-game layoff due to a foot injury, Kennedy returned to the lineup vs. Atlanta (11/5) to make four tackles (three solo), one interception and three special teams tackles.
- Tied a career-best with 12 tackles (four solo) to lead the defense and also added a special teams tackle against San Francisco (11/12) in his first start since at Chicago (9/17).
- Inactive vs. Miami (11/23) with an ankle injury.
- Recorded six tackles (five solo), one sack, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery at New England (12/3) on Patriots QB Tom Brady which resulted in a safety by the Lions defense.
- Recovered a fumble and had six tackles (four solo) and two special teams tackles vs. Minnesota (12/10).
- Registered six tackles (five solo), one pass breakup and one special teams tackle at Green Bay (12/17).
- Made his second interception of the season, tying his career-best in a season, and also had four tackles (three solo) and three special teams tackles at Dallas (12/31).

2005: Finished the 2005 season leading the team in tackles with 127 total tackles (84 solo). Also recorded his first career 100-tackle season and career-high two interceptions.

- Signed by the Lions as an unrestricted free agent on March 8, 2005 after he spent the first five years of his career with the Denver Broncos. Started at strong safety position.
- Made a strong showing in Lions debut with four total tackles (three solo), an interception and two passes defended.

- Led the team in tackles at Tampa Bay (10/2) with 10 (nine solo).
- Recorded his second interception of the season as a Lion and returned it 64 yards for his first career touchdown vs. Carolina (10/16). Led the defense in total tackles with 12 (nine solo).
- Led defensive backs with eight (six solo) tackles vs. Bears (10/30).
- Led the defense in tackles against Arizona (11/13) with 11 (nine solo), which is just one short of his career-high.
- His eight tackles at Green Bay (12/11) allowed him to reach his first 100-tackle season of his career.
- Tied for the team lead in tackles at Pittsburgh (1/1) with nine (five solo).

2004: Started all 16 regular season games and teamed with John Lynch to form one of the NFL's hardest-hitting safety combinations.

- Finished third on the Broncos with 90 tackles (73 solo), and had two sacks (15 yds), one interception (21 yds), six passes defended, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and six special teams tackles on the year.
- Had eight solo tackles, a special teams stop and a Drew Brees sack for nine yards which forced a fumble vs. San Diego (9/26).
- Recovered a fumble, made four solo tackles and broke up two passes at Oakland (10/17).
- Registered a team and season-high 10 tackles (eight solo) vs. Atlanta (10/31).
- Had seven tackles (six solo) and his first interception of the season off Drew Brees, which he returned for 21 yards at San Diego (12/5). The interception snapped Brees' franchise record streak of 195 consecutive passes without an interception, and Kennedy also helped limit the quarterback to a season-low 106 passing yards.
- Had a special teams tackle and seven-tackles (six solo) with a 6-yard sack of A.J. Feeley vs. Miami (12/12).
- Led all Broncos with 10 tackles (nine solo) and tied his season high at Kansas City (12/19).

2003: Played in 13 regular-season games with 12 starts and posted 65 tackles (51 solo), a sack, an interception, a forced fumble, two fumble recoveries, 11 pass breakups, and one special teams stop.

- Had four tackles (three solo), a deflected pass and a special teams tackle in opener at Cincinnati (9/7).
- Sprained his left ankle vs. Oakland (9/22) and was inactive for the next three weeks.
- In his first start following his injury, he recorded a season-high 11 tackles (10 solo) and a pass deflection at Baltimore (10/26).
- Registered four tackles (two solo), an interception, fumble recovery and a pass deflection vs. New England (11/3).
- Had four solo tackles and a forced fumble and fumble recovery at Oakland (11/30).
- Recorded his second-highest tackle total of the season with 10 tackles (eight solo) and a pass breakup vs. Kansas City (12/7).
- Had seven tackles (six solo) and his only sack of the year on quarterback Tim Couch vs. Cleveland (12/14).

2002: Started 15 games at strong safety and ranked fourth on the team with a career-high 98 tackles (72 solo), eight passes defended and a special teams tackle.

- Recorded 10 stops (eight solo) vs. Buffalo (9/22) and a week later had nine tackles (four solo) at Baltimore (9/30).
- Did not see action at Kansas City (10/20) due to a league suspension levied for hits deemed to be helmet-to-helmet.
- Had a season-high 12 stops (nine solo) vs. Indianapolis (11/24).

2001: Started all 16 games at strong safety and ranked fifth on the team with 92 tackles (70 solo), including two sacks (18 yds), while also posting six passes defended and one interception (6 yds).

- Made first career start against the New York Giants (9/10) when he posted a then career high five tackles (four solo), a pass deflection, and four special teams stops.
- Had a season high-nine tackles (six solo) vs. Kansas City (10/7).
- Registered six tackles and two special teams tackles vs. Washington (11/18).
- Had seven tackles (five solo) and a pass breakup vs. Seattle (12/9).
- Had first sack of career and tied his season high nine tackles (five solo) at Kansas City (12/16).
- Had four tackles and his first interception of the season off a Rich Gannon pass to secure Denver's win vs. Oakland (12/30).

- Scored on an 8-yard quarterback sneak at Minnesota (10/8).
- Was 24-of-36 for 278 yards with one touchdown and one interception against Buffalo (10/15) to win his first game as the quarterback of the Lions.
- Cashied in on a season-best three passing touchdowns to three different receivers (M. Furrey, K. Jones, R. Williams) while completing 22-of-36 passes (61.1 percent) for 269 yards against two interceptions at the New York Jets (10/22).
- Kilna surpassed 20,000 passing yards (20,112) for his career after notching 269 passing yards against the Jets.
- Registered his second 300-yard passing game of the season with 321 yards on 20-of-32 passes including his season-long pass on a 60-yard touchdown strike to WR Roy Williams vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Matched a career-best of 27 rushing yards vs. San Francisco (11/12) while throwing for 202 yards on 19-of-30 passes for one touchdown and one interception.
- Was 22-of-40 for 252 yards with one touchdown and one interception along with a long throw of 41 yards vs. Miami (11/23).
- Registered his third 300-yard passing game of the season with 314 yards at New England (12/3).
- With 294 passing yards vs. Minnesota (12/10), Kilna moved his season total to 3,484 yards, which tied Scott Mitchell's 1997 total for the second-highest single-season tally in Lions history. Also, by surpassing the 200-yard mark against the Vikings, Kilna had passed for at least 200 yards in 13 games, and was the only quarterback in the NFL throw for at least 200 yards in all 13 games at the time.
- Ran for a career-high 34 yards on a career-tying seven attempts at Green Bay (12/17). Also, with 135 passing yards against the Packers, Kilna set a new career-high in passing yards at 3,619 yards for the year, surpassing his previous high of 3,591 yards in 2003 with the Cincinnati Bengals.
- Completed 27-of-45 passes for 283 yards and tied his season-high total of three touchdown passes to receive his then highest QB rating of the season (100.5) vs. Chicago (12/24). His 100.5 rating was the highest allowed by the Bears defense, which was ranked at the top of the NFC, and it was the only rating of 100.0 allowed by Chicago in '06.
- Connected on 28-of-42 passes for 306 yards, marking his fourth 300-yard passing outing of the season, with a season-high and career-tying four touchdown passes and one interception to record a passer rating of 109.8, his highest of the season, at Dallas (12/31).

2005: Served his final season with the Bengals as the backup to Carson Palmer.

- Played in all four preseason games, completing 19 of 30 passes for 217 yards and a touchdown with no interceptions and a passer rating of 96.1.
- Saw his first action of season with the game in hand in the fourth quarter at Detroit (12/18). He led the offense on a field goal drive with 2-of-3 completions for 6 yards and an 11-yard rush.
- Played final offensive series vs. Buffalo (12/24) and went 2-for-2 passing for 17 yards.
- Subbed for Palmer in second quarter at Kansas City (1/1) and went the rest of the way, completing 13-of-24 passes for 76 yards with no touchdown and two interceptions.
- Played 54 of the 56 offensive snaps in Wild Card playoff vs. Pittsburgh (1/8), entering game after Palmer suffered a knee injury on the 25th of Bengals offensive play. Passed 24-for-40 for 197 yards and a touchdown and two interceptions.

2004: Spent the majority of the season as the backup until entering Game 13 at New England (12/12) due a season-ending injury to Carson Palmer.

- Posted a 93.8 passer rating in relief role vs. Patriots (12/12), going 9-for-13 for 126 yards, including a 27-yard touchdown pass to Kelley Washington in fourth quarter.
- In first start vs. Buffalo (12/19), completed 16-of-32 for 151 yards and a touchdown – a 4-yard pass in the fourth quarter.
- Led the Bengals to a last-minute victory at Giants' Stadium, throwing a 4-yard touchdown pass with 0:44 remaining. He completed 20-of-32 for 186 yards, two touchdowns and an interception at New York (12/26).
- Directed his second straight win in season finale at Philadelphia (1/2), passing 16-of-27 for 160 yards and a touchdown against the eventual NFC champions.

2003: Received Comeback Player of the Year honors from Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly after leading Cincinnati to an NFL-best improvement from 2002 to 2003 (from 2-14 record to 8-8).

- Only NFL quarterback in 2003 to play every offensive snap for his team, and became first player in Bengals history to throw every one of the team's passes in a season.
 - Had a career-high 26 touchdown passes which ranked second in the AFC, including 20 touchdown and only one interception in the eight Bengals victories.
 - Threw 137 straight passes with no interceptions over span of more than 17 quarters (from 11/9 to 12/7).
 - In victory vs. Baltimore (10/19), had a career-long 82-yard TD pass to Chad Johnson.
 - Had 53-yard touchdown pass to Chad Johnson with 8:03 left for a 27-24 win vs. Seattle (10/26).
 - Posted his third plus-100 passer rating (102.7) of the season in victory vs. previously unbeaten Kansas City (11/16), including 77-yard touchdown pass to Peter Warrick in fourth quarter.
 - Tied his career high with four touchdown passes in win at San Diego (11/23).
 - Led dramatic 24-20 comeback win at Pittsburgh (11/30), with game-winning 18-yard touchdown pass with 0:13 remaining.
- 2002: After serving as a reserve for the first four games Kilna revived a struggling Bengals offense when he came off the bench to start final 12 games.
- Directed 11 outputs (combined rushing and passing) of 300-or-more yards as well as six straight 350-yard outputs (Games 7-12), Cincinnati's longest such streak since 1986.
 - Four touchdown passes at Houston (11/3) were a career high (since tied).
 - Rushed for a career-high four touchdowns.
 - Completion percentage (81.5% on 22-of-27) in win at Houston (11/3) was a career high (minimum 10 passes).
 - Led offense on a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown drives to rally Bengals from 13-7 deficit to 20-13 win vs. New Orleans (12/22).

2001: Signed with Bengals on March 8 as unrestricted free agent, won starting quarterback job after preseason competition with Scott Mitchell and went on to start 15 games.

- Set team record with NFL-high 581 pass attempts
- Opened season by becoming first Bengals QB since Greg Cook in 1969 to win his first two starts, piloting home wins over eventual Super Bowl winner New England and Baltimore, the defending Super Bowl champions.
- Conquest of Baltimore halted a 12-game win streak (including postseason) for Ravens.
- Threw franchise-record 68 passes in overtime win vs. Pittsburgh (12/30), tying for third-most in NFL history. He finished with 35 completions for 411 yards and two touchdowns vs. the Steelers and won AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors.
- With 340 passing yards the following week at Tennessee, he set a team record of 751 for yards passing in consecutive games.

2000: Began the season as the Seahawks' starter (Games 1-5) before being replaced as starter by Damon Huard for three games (Games 6-8). He replaced an injured Huard at Oakland (10/22) and went on to start seven of final eight games.

- Seahawks were 6-6 in his 12 starts and 0-4 in other games.
- Posted completion percentage of 62.0 for the season, hitting on 259-of-418 attempts for 2,658 yards, 18 touchdowns and 19 interceptions.
- Got a 2-7 club back on winning track when he led Seattle to a 17-15 victory vs. San Diego (11/5), throwing for two touchdowns.
- Led another win at Jacksonville (11/12), passing for three touchdowns and no interceptions.
- Engineered 27-24 victory over visiting Oakland (12/16), eventual AFC West winner, leading 50-yard drive in final minutes for winning touchdown.

1999: Started 15 games and led Seahawks to AFC West title with 9-7 record for the franchise's first playoff berth since 1988.

- With 23 touchdown passes in the regular season, he ranked third in the AFC.
- Did not play Sept. 19 at Chicago, due to sprained toe suffered in season opener Sept. 12 vs. Detroit.
- Named AFC Offensive Player of Month for October, after guiding team to a 3-1 record with seven touchdown passes and only two interceptions.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

➤ In Seattle's playoff game vs. Miami (1/9), he completed 14-of-30 for 162 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions in a 20-17 loss.

TEDDY LEHMAN

Linebacker

Oklahoma

Ht: 6-1

Born: 11/18/81

Draft: '04, R2 (37)-Det

4th Year

Wt: 242

Hometown: Fort Gibson, Okla.

54

PRO: Lehman enters his fourth season with the Lions and is looking to make an impact on the Lions defense after two injury-plagued seasons. His versatility to play the middle and outside linebacker position will be a valuable asset for the linebacking corps in 2006. Though he was originally projected as a middle linebacker, Lehman opened his rookie season in 2004 as the starting strong-side linebacker. Known for his knowledge and understanding of the game, Lehman also has the ability to contribute on special teams. He was the recipient of the Bednarik Award and Butkus Award and translated his college success to the professional level by helping to anchor the Lions' defense in every game of his rookie season by posting 120 tackles, the second-highest number on the team.

MAJOR FACTS

- Participated in 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Liked to watch Bo Jackson when he was younger.
- Enjoys The Simpsons.
- Goes back to Oklahoma in the offseason and spends time at Tenkiller Ferry Lake.
- In 2004, a four-lane expressway in his hometown of Ft. Gibson, Okla. was renamed the Teddy Lehman Expressway.
- After he is finished playing professionally, he is thinking about coaching and going into real estate.

2006: Did not play in the first seven games of the season after being placed on the Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform list August 30 with a foot injury. Returned for four games to post eight tackles (four solo) and five special teams tackles.

- Activated from the Reserve/PUP list on November 4 and to see time at the middle linebacker position.
- In his return to the team vs. Atlanta (11/5) off the PUP list, Lehman made four tackles (one solo) and one special teams tackle in his first game played since 2005 (10/30 vs. Chi).
- Inactive at New England (12/3), vs. Minnesota (12/10), at Green Bay (12/17), vs. Chicago (12/24) and at Dallas (12/31) due to a hamstring injury.

2005: Placed on IR November 21, 2005 due to an ankle injury.

- Recorded his second career interception at Tampa Bay (10/2) in his return from a knee injury. Returned the interception 17 yards to set up a Detroit touchdown.

2004: Only rookie linebacker in NFL to start all 16 games in 2004.

- Logged a total of 1,225 plays (1,054 on defense, 171 on special teams), more than any other member of the team.
- Finished season with 120 tackles (second-highest tally on team).
- Talled a career-high 12 tackles at Jacksonville (11/14). Recorded a team-high nine tackles to surpass the 100-tackle mark and registered his first career sack vs. Minnesota (12/19).
- Finished season strong with one pass defended and 11 tackles at Tennessee (1/2), his fourth double-digit tackle outing of season.

COLLEGE: Consensus All-American first-team selection, winner of the Dick Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) and Bednarik Award (nation's top defensive player), and unanimous All-Big 12 Conference first-team choice as a senior.

- Rated top outside linebacker prospect by The NFL Draft Report.
- Chevrolet National Defensive Player of the Year and was one of three finalists for the Butkus Award, First-team All-American selection by The NFL Draft Report, Associated Press, Football Writers Association, Walter Camp, The Sports Network and CNN/ISI as a junior.
- Named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by The Sports Network and added All-Big 12 Conference first-team honors from the media and league coaches, chosen as team co-defensive MVP, and shared Sooner Iron Man strength and conditioning award for upperclassmen with Quentin Griffin and Kory Klein in 2002.

PERSONAL: Prep Star and Super Prep All-American choice at Fort Gibson (Okla.) High.

- First-team All-State pick by the Daily Oklahoman, Tulsa World and high school coaches association.
- Ranked as the sixth best player in the state by FirstDown Publications and also ranked as the 40th best linebacker in the nation and fifth best in the Midlands by Super Prep.
- Played linebacker and fullback, helping his squad post its best record ever (13-1) and advance to the Class 4A title game.
- Ended his senior season with 151 tackles (fourth in Class 4A), three interceptions, two sacks and three caused fumbles.
- Ranked third in the state in rushing with 1,252 yards and 16 touchdowns on 206 carries (6.1 avg) as a running back.
- Also handled the punting duties for the Tigers with an average of 39.6 which was the tops in Class 4A.
- Son of Cindy and Ken Lehman. Born November 18, 1981.

PRO: Lenon proved his worth as a valuable addition to the Detroit linebacker corps in 2006 finishing as the team's second-leading tackler. Last year, he started at both the SLB and MLB positions, and he totaled a career high 97 tackles in his first season in Detroit. He has not missed a game (80 consecutive) since the 2002 season. Lenon signed with Detroit March 22, 2006 after showing great versatility starting at both strong-side and weak-side linebacker for Green Bay's seventh-ranked defense in 2005. He finished the 2005 season with a 79 tackles (47 solo) while starting a career-high 12 games (seven at SLB; five at WLB). Prior to the 2002 season Lenon was allocated by the Packers to NFL Europe where he played and started all 10 games for the Amsterdam Admirals. He led the team with 50 tackles and had two interceptions and deflected seven passes. Before initially signing with Green Bay in 2001, Lenon played for the NFL's Memphis Maniax who were led by current Lions wide receivers coach Kippy Brown (head coach). He was a three-year starter and four-year letterman at the University of Richmond where he registered 320 tackles, 12 sacks, 21 tackles for loss, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, 10 pass defenses and an interception. He played under current Detroit defensive line coach Joe Cullen (defensive coordinator) for two of his seasons with the Spiders and was second on the team in tackles both seasons (1997-98). Lenon originally signed as an undrafted free agent with the Carolina Panthers April 26, 2000 but was waived June 9.

MAINE FACTS

- Was a big Eagles fan a kid and, as a youth quarterback, especially liked Randall Cunningham.
- Has volunteered, along with his family, to serve Christmas dinners to the needy in Lynchburg, Va.
- Speaks to different Lynchburg-area elementary and high schools, emphasizing the importance of education and goal-setting.
- Fanatically watches Law & Order - new and syndicated.
- Would like to own a training facility and work with athletes after his football career.
- Worked in the United States Postal Service automation department after Carolina waived him in 2000.
- Called 'Mike,' by his family, not necessarily as a nickname, but only to distinguish him from his father and grandfather, both of whom also are named Paris; the three men have different middle names.
- Enjoys listening to music, including hip-hop and selections from the Motown-era.
- Has studied martial arts, having learned Muay Thai and American karate.
- Also enjoys drawing and playing video games.

2006: Started at the strong-side and middle linebacker spots, finishing season as the team's starter at MLB. His 97 total tackles (60 solo) were a new career-high and were the second-highest on the team.

- Made Lions debut as the starting MLB vs. Seattle (9/10) in season opener, notching four assisted tackles and one special teams stop.
- Registered eight tackles (six solo) at Chicago (9/17).
- In his first start at SLB, Lenon recovered one fumble against Green Bay (9/24) while also posting four solo tackles.
- Posted a season-high nine tackles (five solo) at Minnesota (10/8).
- Was very active vs. Buffalo (10/15) as he collected four solo tackles, one special teams tackle, two pass breakups and one TFL.
- At MLB, Lenon made six tackles (four solo) vs. Atlanta (11/5) and vs. San Francisco (11/12).
- Made his first career interception against Packers QB Brett Favre while also tallying eight tackles (six solo) at Green Bay (12/17).
- Tied his season-best nine tackles (five solo) and had one fumble recovery at Dallas (12/31).

2005: Played in 16 games with a career-high 12 starts, seven at strong-side linebacker and the other five at weak-side linebacker. Valuable component on NFL's seventh-ranked defense.

- Slowed late in the year by an injury to each hand, still played in every contest to extend his games-played streak to 64 and has not missed a game while on an active NFL roster.
- In the season opener at Detroit (9/11), started in place of Na'il Diggs (knee) at strong-side linebacker and made five tackles (two solo).
- In the final period, on Carolina's two-point conversion try, intercepted the pass after it was tipped, setting the stage for an improbable Packers comeback attempt.
- At Minnesota (10/23), started at strong-side linebacker and came clean off the left edge to combine with DT Grady Jackson to drop Daunte Culpepper in the first quarter for his first career sack.
- At Atlanta (Nov. 13), started at strong-side linebacker and also saw time at weakside linebacker.
- At Philadelphia (11/27), made seven tackles (three solo) and broke up a career-best three passes.
- Started at WLB vs. Chicago (12/25) and posted a season-best eight tackles (seven solo) and had one pass defended.

- First career start as the fourth LB when Green Bay opened in a 3-4 alignment, in the opener at Carolina (9/13), but broke his right thumb. Played the next five games with his thumb in a cast.
- Started against Detroit (12/12) at WLB and made a career-high 12 tackles (eight solo).

2003: Backup linebacker who made his primary contributions on special teams, finishing with 16 special teams tackles which was tied for the second most on the team. Played in all 16 games for the second straight year in spite of several injuries over the course of the season.

- Sprained the medial collateral ligament in right knee against Seattle (10/5), but still played the next week vs. Kansas City (10/12).
- Then sprained his left ankle in ensuing contest at St. Louis (10/19), though he returned healthy after the team's bye week.
- Later suffered a left knee strain in Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/27), but came back to play in rematch with Chicago (12/7).
- Recorded a season-high three special teams stops in win at San Diego (Dec. 14).

2002: Backed up at all three linebacker positions over the course of the year, finishing as the primary reserve at the middle linebacker spot.

- Saw special teams action in all 16 regular-season games, plus playoff contest with Atlanta (1/4), after turning in a strong preseason performance, earning a spot in the Packers' linebacking corps.
- Was a top-level special teams performer throughout his initial season in Green Bay, leading the Packers in coverage tackles with 22 which tied for the fourth-best total in club history (since 1976).
- Enjoyed a monster effort in win at Detroit (9/22), with a career-best four special teams tackles.
- Followed that up with a pair of stops covering kicks in Carolina game (9/29); also made one tackle from scrimmage against the Panthers during six plays at linebacker.
- Allocated to NFL Europe by Green Bay after re-signing as a reserve/future free agent. Started all 10 games for the Amsterdam Admirals and led the team with 50 tackles, while also recording two interceptions and deflecting seven passes.

2001: Played the 2001 NFL season with the Memphis Maniax and saw action in four games, making 14 tackles (two solo).

- His head coach while with the Maniax was current Lions wide receivers coach Kippy Brown.
- Signed with Packers as free agent April 26, then waived July 24.
- Signed with Seattle August 16 but was waived August 27. Signed to the Packers practice squad December 27, where he spent the balance of the season and playoffs.

2000: Originally signed with the Carolina Panthers on April 26 as an undrafted free agent but was waived June 9 and out of football for the remainder of that season.

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter and four-time letterman (1996-99) for the University of Richmond, following a redshirt season in 1995.

- Recorded 320 tackles, including 12 sacks and 21 stops for loss, plus four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, 10 passes defended and one interception over his career.
- Named All-Atlantic 10 Conference in both 1998 (first team) and 1999 (second team).
- Made a career-high 104 tackles in 1997.

ALEX LEWIS

Linebacker
Wisconsin

Ht: 6-0

Born: 6/11/81

Draft: '04, R5 (140)-Det

4th Year

Wt: 227

Hometown: Delran, N.J.

59

PRO: Lewis' speed and playmaking abilities were showcased in 2006 on both the defense and special teams units. His athleticism adds depth to the corps of linebackers. He started the 2005 opener vs. Green Bay but an ankle injury early in the game ended his season. He made an immediate impact as a rookie, both on special teams and at linebacker, playing in 15 games (one start). He exhibited playmaking ability with a sack, two interceptions and four pass defenses. The speedy linebacker started 23-of-27 games at Wisconsin after joining the Badgers as a junior, playing his first two seasons at SUNY-Morrisville.

MAJOR FACTS

- Has made several visits to the Lions Academy, an alternative middle school in Detroit, talking to students about the importance of doing well in school.
- Made a special visit to the Children's Hospital of Michigan during the 2006 season.
- Visited the Capuchin Soup Kitchen in Detroit to help serve lunch to those in need.
- Donated Lions' home game tickets to the International Gospel Center through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- When he was growing up he idolized Jerry Rice because of his great work ethic and also Joe Montana and Ricky Walters.
- Is a fan of Jamie Foxx, Richard Pryor, and the musician Fred Hammond.
- When his football career is over he would like to work with children, be active in community service, and may get into the ministry.

PRO: McDonald comes to Detroit for his fifth NFL season after signing a two-year contract March 15. He reunites with Lions Offensive Coordinator Mike Martz who was St. Louis' head coach when the Rams drafted him in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft. In three seasons as a reserve receiver in Martz's offensive system, McDonald had 93 receptions for 1,079 yards and three touchdowns. His career totals are 106 receptions for 1,215 yards and four touchdowns.

MAINE FACTS

- Took part in the dedication ceremony of the new NFL Youth Education Town, Dick & Sandy Dauch Campus Boys & Girls Club in Detroit.
- Attended same high school as first cousin Mike Bibby, guard for the NBA's Sacramento Kings and former Arizona Wildcat.

2006: Played in 16 games on both offense and special teams. He registered 13 receptions for 106 yards and a TD and was effective as a punt returner, finishing with 23 returns for 172 yards (7.5 avg.).

- After Week 5, tied for second on the NFC's punt return list.
- Made first touchdown reception of season Week 8 at San Diego, a 7-yard pass from QB Marc Bulger in the fourth quarter.
- In the Rams' contest against the Redskins on Christmas Eve (12/24), he had a season-long 33-yard punt return in overtime that set-up a game-winning touchdown run by RB Steven Jackson.

2005: Had his most productive season in 2005 with 46 receptions for 523 yards in 16 games (two starts).

- Opened the season with seven receptions for 73 yards, including a long of 19, at San Francisco (9/11).
- Put in a career performance at New York Giants (10/2), pulling in nine catches for 121 yards. Both were career highs.

2004: Emerged as a steady contributor in his second pro season, finished with 37 receptions for 494 yards.

- Scored his first NFL touchdown (6 yards) at San Francisco (10/3).
- Career-long 52-yard TD in OT to claim a win at Seattle (10/10).
- Four receptions for 77 yards and a touchdown at Miami (10/24).
- Finished with a season-high six receptions in consecutive weeks: at Buffalo (72 yards) and at Green Bay (79 yards).
- Four receptions for 37 yards in playoff game at Atlanta (1/15).

2003: Finished first season with 10 receptions for 62 yards while playing in eight games (one start).

- McDonald debuted in the Rams' season opener at New York Giants (9/7) and had six receptions for 46 yards before suffering a thumb injury which sidelined him for the next four games.
- Saw limited action in seven games while trying to recover from opening day injury.

COLLEGE: Finished Sun Devils career with 2,867 yards receiving, 126 shy of the school career-record of 2,993 yards by John Jefferson (1974-77), and sixth on the Pac-10's all-time record list.

- Selected to all-America third-team by The NFL Draft Report, Associated Press, and The Sporting News as senior in addition to an all-Pac 10 first-team choice.
- Set school season-records with 87 catches for 1,405 yards and 13 touchdowns.
- All-Pac 10 first-team choice as junior.
- Caught 22 passes for 358 yards and one touchdown as sophomore and redshirted as true freshman.

PERSONAL: Born Shaun Terrance McDonald in Phoenix, Ariz. Where he attended Shadow Mountain High.

- First-team "Best In The West" by Long Beach Press-Telegram as well as Super Prep all-America.
- Listed as No. 14 "Skill Athlete" in nation and No. 5 wide receiver in

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- Western Region by PrepStar Magazine.
- Rated as No. 26 prospect in the Far West by Super Prep.
- Member of the "Western 100" by the Tacoma News-Tribune.
- In 1999, was honorable mention all-American by USA Today.
- Had five kickoff returns for touchdowns as senior in addition to 800 yards receiving and 1,700 all-purpose yards.
- Set state record for career kickoff returns for touchdowns (14).
- Lettered three times in football and four times each in soccer and track and field.
- Earned interdisciplinary studies from Arizona in 2006.

NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the league to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two Lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games. The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines

PRO: McHugh is looking to contribute his versatility as a fullback and tight end to the team's offensive sets in 2006. He saw his most extensive time yet as a pro in 2006 as he switched from tight end to fullback in six games with the Lions after being activated from the practice squad October 21, 2006. In 2005, he was signed to the active roster December 7, 2005 after stint on practice squad (released October 18, 2005 from the practice squad and re-signed October 25, 2005). McHugh first joined the Lions when he was signed to the Lions' practice squad September 7, 2005. PRO: Muhlbach emerged as the Lions longsnapper prior to 2005 as he joined the team midway through the 2004 campaign due to injuries and finished the season as the team's snapper. His velocity and accuracy places him among the best in the league in his specialty, and he is a critical part of the snap-hold-kick trio that includes P Nick Harris and K Jason Hanson. A deep-snapping specialist who has a crisp and consistent delivery, Muhlbach spent 2004 training camp with Baltimore. He served as Texas A&M's snapper in 2003, and filled in as the punter during his sophomore season with the Aggies in 2002.

MADE FACTS

- Served as Co-Chairman for 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Donated home game tickets to Christ Child House through CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Participated in a free PGA golf lesson with local kids from Think Detroit PAL.
- Has visited to the Lions Academy, an alternative middle school in Detroit, talking to students about the importance of doing well in school.
- Grew up fan of Bruce Matthews and the Dallas Cowboys.
- Brother, Beau, was a member of the Texas A&M Basketball team which made the Sweet 16 in the 2006 NCAA Men's Basketball tournament.
- Uncle, John Muhlbach, is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Trustees, and is on the board's executive committee. From 1997-06, he served as chairman.

COLLEGE: Served as Texas A&M's snapper in 2003.

> Filled in as punter during his sophomore season with the Aggies.

PRO: Mulitalo signed a three-year deal with the Lions March 27, bolstering the depth along the offensive line. He is reunited with Detroit Offensive Line Coach Jim Colletto who coached him in the same capacity for Baltimore the first six (1999-2004) of his eight seasons with the Ravens. Mulitalo was originally drafted by Baltimore in the fourth round (129th) of the 1999 NFL Draft. Midway through his rookie season, he stepped into the starting left guard position due to injuries and remained there for the duration of his career with the Ravens, playing in 106 regular season games (102 starts) as well as seven postseason games (seven starts), including Super Bowl XXXV. He was released March 7.

MAJOR FACTS

- Participated in the annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Participated in 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Participated in a free PGA golf lesson with local kids from Think Detroit PAL.
- Co-owner, the South Georgia Wildcats—an AF2 team out of Albany, Ga.
- One of Mulitalo's greatest off-the-field accomplishments was the establishment of Big Ed's Band Foundation and his work to provide instruments to city children and schools. The foundation is dedicated to supporting the growth and development of instrumental music by providing instruments, repair and other musical support to school. During his time in Baltimore, Mulitalo hosted several instrument drives throughout the year, collecting new and used instruments and financial donations. Just one example of his work was his hosting of a Luau in September 2003 to benefit Big Ed's Band Foundation and VH1 matched dollar for dollar all funds raised as part of its "Save the Music" campaign.
- In December 2004, performed on ukulele at the Dunbar (Baltimore) High School Christmas Concert for students and faculty, and added school as another adopted band program.
- For his efforts in the Baltimore city music programs, Ed received an award from the Baltimore City Public Schools in December 2004.
- While with the Ravens, Mulitalo was a frequent contributor to charitable causes. Edwin played Santa Claus (in the largest Santa suit made) at the children's holiday party at St. Vincent's Center in Timonium, Md. Participated in a PSA for an Ed Block Courage Award Foundation event. Helped raise money for the Harrisburg (Pa.) Boys & Girls Club. Co-hosted, with Ravens TE Todd Heap, for the annual "Gridiron Halloween Party" for Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake. Was a United Way spokesperson in 2004 and filmed a national PSA encouraging others to get involved in the community.
- With fellow Ravens linemen Bennie Anderson, Ed participated in Operation Blessing (June 2004) and Autumn Harvest 2004 (November 2004), distributing food and supplies to over 2,000 families in Baltimore's Park Heights neighborhood, and helped rebuild homes with Sandtown Habitat for Humanity and presented the keys to new homeowner Robin Edwards at the NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle in November 2004.
- Also participated Ravens All-Community Team (RACT) Auction Party, raising over $200,000 in silent and live auctions.
- Mulitalo, who is of Polynesian descent, looked up to other Polynesian players in the NFL, such as Jesse Sapolu, Junior Seau, Vai Sikahema. He also enjoyed watching former 49ers Joe Montana and Matt Millen.

- Is a fan of Arnold Schwarzenegger, Clint Eastwood and Sylvester Stallone. Cites his all-time favorite movie is Braveheart, but also enjoys Predator, Heartbreak Ridge, First Blood and Die Hard. On TV, he likes watching 24.
- Collects classic cars and loves being in the Motor City. He owns 1965 and 1971 Impalas and 1973 and 1975 Caprice Classic convertibles.
- His father is a retired blacksmith.
- Enjoys breeding and selling racehorses.
- After football, he would like to put degree to use and teach high school social studies, and possibly get involved in coaching.

2006: Started the first four games and helped Baltimore to their first 4-0 start in franchise history before his season was cut short due to a triceps injury suffered against San Diego (10/1). He was placed on the Reserve/Injured list October 3.

- Helped open holes for Ravens' tally of 103 rushing yards and a TD. Allowed quarterback Steve McNair time to complete 63% of his passes (17-of-27) in the season opener at Tampa Bay (9/10).
- The offensive line did not allow a sack and helped the Ravens to scoring drives of 80, 7, 13 and 61 yards against the Bucs.
- Started at LG (100th career start) and helped pave way for team average 4.5 yards per rush (31 for 138 yds) and a TD vs. Oak. (9/17).

➢ Suffered season-ending triceps injury in 4th quarter vs. SD (10/1).
2005: Played in all 16 games, starting 15 at left guard as offensive line contributed to quarterbacks completing 59.6% of their passes, which is a Ravens' franchise record. Also helped pave the way for the Ravens to rush for 1,605 yards, averaging 3.6 yards per carry.

- Started at left guard as the offensive line's protection allowed the offense to pass for 355 yards and a touchdown with a 62.9 completion-percentage vs. Indianapolis (9/11).
- Helped the offense to 351 total yards (213 passing yards) with 16 first downs vs. Cleveland (10/16).

- Helped hold the Steelers without a sack before leaving the game in the second quarter with a triceps injury at Pittsburgh (12/26).
- Missed finale vs. Miami (1/2). Inactive due to a triceps injury.

2003: Was a key contributor along the Ravens' offensive line which captured the NFL rushing title in 2003 with 2,669 yards (nearly 170 yards per game) and enabled RB Jamal Lewis to record the second-best rushing total in NFL history (2,066 yards) and become the fifth running back in league annals to eclipse 2,000 yards.

- Opened holes for Jamal Lewis as he rushed for an NFL record 295 yards and two touchdowns vs. Cleveland (9/14) before leaving the game in the second half with a knee injury.

- Missed game at San Diego (9/21) due to knee injury.
- Assisted in protecting Anthony Wright, allowing him to throw for a career-high 319 yards and four touchdowns in a spectacular 44-41 OT come-from-behind victory vs. Seattle (11/23).
- Run blocked for a Baltimore rushing attack that garnered 276 yards, including 205 by Jamal Lewis at Cleveland (12/21).

2002: Played in 16 games, starting 15 games at left guard (12) and right tackle (three). Missed only start of the season vs. Tennessee (11/24) as he protected for an extra point before the offense stepped on the field, but missed the rest of the game due to a back injury suffered on that play.

- Was the starting left guard vs. New Orleans (12/8) and helped pave the way for the Ravens' offense to rack up 201 rushing yards, including a then-career-high-tying 187 yards for RB Jamal Lewis.
- Also delivered a punishing block against the Saints to spring Lewis on his then-franchise-record 75-yard run.
- Helped provide great pass protection at Pittsburgh (12/29) allowing Jeff Blake to complete 19 of 26 passes (73%) for 336 yards and two touchdowns for a season-high 108.7 passer rating, and opened holes to allow the Ravens to rush for 114 yards against the Steelers.

2001: Started all 14 games in which he appeared for Ravens in addition to both post-season contests.

- Started in season opener at left guard vs. Chicago (9/9), as the OL did not allow a sack against the Bears.
- Started at LG at Denver (9/30), as the OL allow no sacks.
- Helped Baltimore rush for 207 yards vs. Tennessee (10/7).
- Worked with the offensive line as they paved the way for 226 rushing yards in Wild Card victory at Miami (1/13).

2000: Started every regular season game and each of four postseason games at LG and contributed to Baltimore's fifth-ranked rushing attack.

- In season opener vs. Jacksonville, started at LG and helped Ravens to a come-from-behind 39-36 win as the offense piled up 331 yards, 237 in the second half, and scored a then-team-record 32 second-half points to complete the second-biggest comeback in team history.
- Started at left guard vs. Cleveland, (11/26), as the Ravens rushed for 247 yards and did not allow a sack.
- Helped offense gain a season-high 479 yards vs. Dallas (11/19).

1999: Valuable rookie stepped into the starting LG role in Week 9.

- Saw first NFL action at left guard vs. Kansas City (10/21), entering the game after starting RT James Atkins was forced to leave with a groin injury, and Lindsay switched over to the right tackle spot.
- Usual starter Everett Lindsay switched to right tackle for the rest of the season after the loss of Harry Swayne (foot) for the season.

COLLEGE: Started all 12 games at left tackle in 1998, including the Holiday Bowl in San Diego.

- Transferred to Arizona in 1997 and started all 11 games at left tackle. A mid-year junior college transfer who enrolled in January 1997 and by the end of April was the starter on the left side.

- Earned Samoan All-Offense honors by Pacific Islander.
- Played offensive tackle in 1995-96 at Ricks College (Rexburg, Idaho) and one year as a weight specialist on the Ricks' track team.
- Earned first-team all-region and second-team All-America honors.

PRO: Orlovsky enters his third NFL season as he continues to grow and progress under Offensive Coordinator Mike Martz's offensive system. He continues to compete and work his way up the team's depth chart at quarterback. He found his way into two games in 2005, seeing his most significant action vs. Atlanta (11/24). After an impressive career at Connecticut where he had great command of the team's offense and demonstrated the ability to perform well under pressure, Orlovsky was drafted by Detroit in the fifth round (145th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft.

MAINE FACTS

- Established the Dan Orlovsky Foundation to enrich the lives of youth in Detroit and his home state of Connecticut. The foundation features the "Dan Orlovsky Charity Challenge", a three-day event in Connecticut made up of a gala, golf tournament and clinic for kids.

- Participated in annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.

- Participated in 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.

- Attended 13th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.

- Helped deliver food and supplies to more than 30 Metro Detroit relief agencies at the United Way Hometown Huddle/Lift Up America event, December 5, 2006 at Ford Field.

- Makes several visits to the Children's Hospital of Michigan to visit patients since his arrival in Detroit.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- Participated in a free PGA golf lesson with local kids from Think Detroit PAL.
- Took part in the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar which helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Took part in 2005 Lions Rookie Club events including appearances at Lions Courage House Dinner, the NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle and the Detroit Lions QB Club.

2006: Was inactive (third quarterback) in all 16 games of the season.

2005: Made professional debut against Chicago (9/18) in the final minutes of the game.

- Entered the game vs. Atlanta (11/24) on the final drive and was able to lead the team to the 3-yard line in the final moments of regulation.

COLLEGE: Set career school records for most pass completions (916), pass attempts (1,567), yards passing (10,706), touchdown passes (84), total plays (1,710) and total yards (10,421).

- Named the Most Valuable Player of the 2004 Motor City Bowl (played on the Lions' home turf at Ford Field).
- Threw for 3,354 yards with 23 touchdowns and 15 interceptions

(134.7 passer efficiency rating) as a senior.

- As a junior in 2003, he received the Connecticut Player of the Year award from the Walter Camp Foundation after starting all 12 games and completing 279-of-475 passes for 3,485 yards with 33 touchdowns and 14 interceptions.
- Independent Offensive MVP by ESPN.com; All-ECAC, All-Independent and team MVP.
- Was ranked seventh in the nation in passing, 13th in total offense, and 12th in points responsible.
- Started every game in 2002, and 60.4 percent of passes for 2,488 yards. Ranked fourth-best single season total in school history.
- In 2001, he played in 10 games and made six starts, becoming the first true freshman at UConn to start at quarterback since 1992.
- Had 128 completions for 1,379 yards and nine touchdowns.
- PERSONAL: All-State, Class LL MVP QB at Shelton High (Conn.).
- Connecticut player of the year by the New Haven Register.
- All-American honors from Prep Star, Super Prep, and Prep Football Report.
- Born Daniel John Orlovsky on August 18, 1983.

STEPHEN PETERMAN

66

Guard
Louisiana State
Ht: 6-4
Born: 1/11/82
Draft: '04, R3 (83)-Dal

4th Year
Wt: 323
Hometown: Gulfport, Miss.
Acquired: '06, FA

PRO: Physical guard who will be competing for one of the team's starting guard positions. Made the most of his opportunity in 2006 on an injury-plagued Detroit offensive line to start the final two games of the season for the Lions after previously being a member of the practice squad for most of the season. Promoted from the practice squad to the active roster December 13, 2006. Signed to the Lions practice squad October 17, 2006. Originally a 2004 third round draft choice (83rd overall) by the Dallas Cowboys. Saw time on the Cowboys special teams unit in three of the team's final games of the 2005 season. Placed on Reserve/Injured after suffering torn knee ligaments in the final preseason game of the 2004 season. Played in 48 games with 35 starts while at LSU, playing both left and right guard after switching from defensive end, which he played as a freshman. Came to LSU projected as a tight end. Was an All-American his senior season and was twice named first-team All-Southeastern Conference in his junior and senior seasons, respectively.

MAINE FACTS

- Helped deliver food and supplies to more than 30 Metro Detroit relief agencies at the United Way Hometown Huddle/Lift Up America event December 5 at Ford Field.
- Grew up a huge LSU and New Orleans Saints fan. His family had Saints season tickets and he attended every single home Saints game from birth to age 13, and he watched every away game with parents on TV. Proud to say he never missed a game!
- Favorite Saints players include: Ricky Jackson, Pat Swilling, Craig "Ironhead" Heyward, Sam Mills, Bobby Hebert and Dalton Hilliard.
- While with Dallas, despite an intense rehabilitation schedule for his knee Peterman got involved in the Dallas-Ft. Worth community. He attended a local Arlington (Texas) high school football game to present the Bank of America/Dallas Cowboys Coach of the Week award and $2000 grant.
- Set-up the Stephen Peterman Foundation to provide aid to disadvantaged children and to enhance the lives of terminally ill children in Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas.
- In the spring of 2005 and 2006, Peterman joined forces with fellow Louisiana State University (LSU) alumnus David Toms, a PGA Tour pro, to host the Stephen Peterman Foundation and David Toms Foundation Fort Worth Dinner in Fort Worth, Texas. Proceeds from the fundraising dinner benefited Happy Hill Farm Academy/Home (a residential school/farm where socially and academically disadvantaged youth are given a second chance to prepare for a productive future) and the David Toms Foundation.
- Shaves head before every game with a Mach 3 Bic razor, something he started as a sophomore at LSU.
- Part owner of restaurant, located in Baton Rouge, La.
- Following football career, he would like to open up restaurants and pursue construction projects.

2005: Peterman was on the practice field to start training camp after spending his rookie season rehabbing a torn ACL and MCL he suffered in his first training camp. He was inactive for the first 11 games of the season but cracked the game-day roster at the N.Y. Giants (12/4), making his NFL debut on special teams.

➤ He was inactive the next two weeks before playing on special teams at Carolina (12/24) and the season finale against St. Louis (1/1/06).

2004: Peterman tore the ACL and MCL in his right knee in the final preseason game against Kansas City (9/2) and was placed on injured reserve the next day. He underwent surgery on Sept. 7 to repair the injury and spent the entire season rehabilitating the injured knee.

COLLEGE: An All-America and All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection as a senior, Peterman was a team leader and anchor of an offensive line that helped lead the LSU Tigers to the SEC title and a win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl to capture the 2003 national title.

➤ For his career, he appeared in 48 games at LSU, starting 35. He moved to right guard in his senior season, after starting 25 games over the previous two years at left guard, and allowed just one sack while playing a major role in leading an offense that averaged 418.4 yards-per-game.

➤ A first-team All-Southeastern Conference pick as a junior, Peterman started the entire season at left guard and allowed only one sack.

➤ Peterman started his collegiate career as a tight end and spent his freshman season at defensive end.

➤ He made the switch to offense as a sophomore and started all but one game at left guard during a very successful second season, allowing only one quarterback sack.

➤ He played a key role in the Tigers 10-3 season that featured a win over second ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game and a 47-34 win over No. 7 Illinois in the Sugar Bowl.

PERSONAL: Peterman attended St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, Miss.

➤ He was rated the 18th best player in Mississippi by Super Prep Magazine and was a first-team all-state selection and a two-time all-district choice.

➤ As a senior, Peterman caught 14 passes for 150 yards and one touchdown and was rated the best tight end in the state.

➤ He was selected for the Mississippi All-Star Game.

➤ He also played basketball in high school.

➤ He is married to the former Colleen Scheyd, and the couple has a son, Stephen Frederick Jr.

Ht: 6-1

Born: 12/30/78

Draft: '01, R2a (50)-Det

7th Year

Wt: 295

Hometown: Honolulu, Hawaii

PRO: Raiola enters his seventh pro season and his sixth as Detroit's starting center. Has played in every game for the Lions since being drafted in the second round (50th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft and has made 80 consecutive starts at center since the beginning of the 2002 season. Among NFL centers, he has the second most consecutive starts (80) behind Kansas City C Casey Wiegman (95). In 2006, Raiola emerged as one of the most effective all-around centers in the league, especially with his ability to get outside and block on the perimeter and to get to the second level. Prior to 2005 season, he signed a five-year contract extension (March 13, 2005). In 2004, he centered an offensive line that developed into one of the top run-blocking lines in the NFL by the end of the season as the offensive line led the way for a rushing attack that ranked second in the NFL over the final seven games of the season.

MAJOR FACTS

- Made a special visit to University of Michigan's Mott Children's Hospital to visit patients during the 2006 season.
- Donated home game tickets to the Children's Center through CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Attended the 13th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- A big fan of Al Pacino, he owns most of the movies the actor is in including his favorite, Scarface, which he has watched repeatedly.

2006: Started his 80th consecutive game as a Lion since 2002 at Dallas (12/31) and has played in all 96 games since being drafted in 2001. He and LT Jeff Backus have started every game together since the beginning of the 2002 season. Raiola had his best season in the NFL and displayed his agility, athleticism, and demonstrated on several occasions his ability to block outside and downfield. By utilizing tremendous quickness, tenacity and intelligence in the team's new offense, Raiola performed amongst the best centers in the league in 2006.

- Helped the offense accumulate 424 net yards, including 319 passing yards, against Green Bay (9/24).
- Commanded an offensive line that was critical in the Lions balanced attack in the team's 20-17 win vs. Buffalo, helping RB Kevin Jones to his first 100-yard rushing game (127 yards) of the season.
- Assisted in limiting the New York Jets defense (10/22) to a season-low one sack while the offense produced 386 total net yards. The offensive line allowed just three negative plays (two rushes for -2 yards and one sack for eight yards) of the offense's 59 total plays.
- Cleared way for RB Kevin Jones' second 100-yard rushing performance of year (26 carries for 110 yards), while also helping the offense accumulate a season-best 435 net yards vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Helped the offense attain 362 total yards and score a season-high 39 points at Dallas (12/31).

2005: Played and started in all 16 games for fourth-straight season.

- Helped the offensive line allow only 10 sacks the second half of the season, including one or-less in seven of the last eight games, despite going back and forth between starting quarterbacks Joey Harrington (five starts) and Jeff Garcia (three starts).
- His blocking helped Lions' ground game rush for four TDs against Baltimore (10/9), which is the most rushing touchdowns the Ravens have allowed in a career in franchise history. They also helped spring Shawn Bryson's career-long 77-yard touchdown run which was the longest run from scrimmage ever yielded by the Ravens.

2004: Started all 16 games for the third-straight season.

- Key shield for Joey Harrington who threw for a career-high 19 TDs.

- Centered an offensive line that developed into one of the top run-blocking lines in the NFL by the end of the season as the offensive line led the way for a rushing attack that ranked second in the NFL over the final seven games of the season.
- Took over long-snapping duties after Jody Littleton sustained a hamstring injury vs. Washington (11/17).

2003: For the second straight season the Lions' offensive line led NFL in sacks allowed with just 11, nine better than their previous franchise record of 20 set in 2002.

- Took over the long-snapping duties for much of the game vs. San Diego (12/7) after Bradford Banta left the game with a broken clavicle and recorded the first two special teams tackles of his career.
- Key protector of Joey Harrington as he led the league in sacks-per-pass play ratio among quarterbacks at 1.60% (nine sacks/563 pass plays), the second straight year he has led in that category.
- The Lions allowed no sacks in seven games—vs. Arizona (9/7), at San Francisco (10/5), at Chicago (10/26), vs. Oakland (11/2), at Minnesota (11/23), vs. San Diego (12/7) and at Kansas City (12/14).

2002: Selected by his teammates as the recipient of the Chuck Hughes Most Improved Player Award.

- Had a strong outing in only his third NFL start vs. Green Bay (9/22) and made a key block on a screen pass, helping RB James Stewart score a 52-yard touchdown.
- Key contributor to the Lions' offensive line which allowed only 20 quarterback sacks, the fewest in the NFL in 2002 and a then-franchise record, and helped RB James Stewart rush for over 1,000 yards for the second time in three seasons.
- Played significant role in helping Joey Harrington finish season with the league's lowest sack-per-pass-play ratio among passers (eight sacks/437 attempts for 1.83%).
- Offensive line allowed no sacks in seven games: vs. New Orleans (9/29), at Buffalo (10/27), at Green Bay (11/10), vs. New York Jets (11/17), vs. New England (11/28), at Arizona (12/8) and vs. Minnesota (12/29); and only one sack vs. Green Bay (9/22), at Minnesota (10/13), vs. Dallas (11/3), vs. Tampa Bay (12/15).
- Helped pave way for James Stewart's career-high 172-yard rushing effort in Lions' 23-20 overtime win vs. Chicago (10/20).

2001: Spent majority of rookie season blocking on several special teams units, however was inserted at center at various times during six games near the latter half of the season.

- Selected to the Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie squad.
- In goal-line situations vs. Cincinnati (10/28), checked into game as eligible receiver at tight end; also returned a kickoff 11 yards in that game along with usual duties on special teams units.
- Saw first action at center at San Francisco (11/4), snapping to rookie QB Mike McMahon in the third series of the half.

COLLEGE: Turned pro after playing three seasons at Nebraska, but was a four-year collegian (redshirted in 1997). Cornhuskers' first freshman lineman to start a game since Rob Zatechka in 1991.

- The two-time Nebraska Lifter of the Year finalist set a school record with 140 knockdown blocks (11.67/gm) as a sophomore in 1999, only to better that mark as a junior in 2000 with 145 (13.2/gm).
- Garnered Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors the last two years while making the conference's honor roll three times.
- In 2000, he was an All-American first-team selection by the Football Writers Association, Walter Camp, AP and AFCA. Consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection.
- Junior year was first full year as starter and was named a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection, the first sophomore Nebraska offensive lineman to earn such honors since Dave Rrimington in 1980 and was a member of Sports Illustrated's All-Bowl Team.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

PERSONAL: Three-year starter for St. Louis High in Honolulu.

- Team went undefeated in each of his last three years and ranked 15th nationally in 1996, winning its 11th straight state championship.
- Earned first-team all-state honors as a junior and senior (1995-96).
- Also a National Honor Society member, a three-year scholar-athlete and ranked sixth in his class of 180.

CORY REDDING

Defensive End

Texas

Ht: 6-4

Born: 11/15/80

Draft: '03, R3 (66)-Det

5th Year

Wt: 290

Hometown: Houston, Texas

78

PRO: Redding had a breakout season, including career highs in sacks (8.0) and tackles (70), in his third as a starter on the Lions defensive line in 2006 after switching from end to the defense's under-tackle position after six games of the season. He was designated as the team's franchise player February 22, 2007. Redding was the Lions' starting left defensive end the past two seasons after emerging as the starter prior to the 2004 season before switching to defensive tackle. Powered by a non-stop motor and determination, Redding also gives the Lions versatility on the defensive line as he can play end and tackle as he has done throughout his career. He was selected by the Lions in the third round with the 66th overall choice in the 2003 NFL Draft.

MAJOR FACTS

- Active in attending local charity events and helping those in need.
- Donated Lions' tickets to each home game to Methodist Children's Home through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Took part for the second-straight year in the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar that benefits the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Attended the 13th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Made a special visit to University of Michigan's Mott Children's Hospital to visit patients during the 2006 season.
- Volunteered time to Give the Gift of Sight, a family of charitable vision care programs, by visiting Detroit's Vision Van clinic as students selected new eyeglasses and received free eye exams.
- Served as guest speaker at a Detroit Lions QB Club meeting.
- Served as an Honorary Captain for 2006 Lions Celebrity Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $110,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Has visited the Capuchin Soup Kitchen Service Center in Detroit during the Thanksgiving season to load turkeys for those who are less fortunate. Played and alongside Lions DT Shaun Rogers and WR Roy Williams while at Texas.

2006: Since being inserted into the starting UT (three-technique) position, Redding flourished with all eight of his sacks coming in the last 11 games. He finished the season with the second-most sacks (8.0) among all defensive tackles in the NFL behind Raiders DT Warren Sapp (10.0). Redding recorded a sack statistic (at least 0.5 sack) in eight of his last 11 games at defensive tackle. His 8.0 sacks and 67 tackles (41 solo) are a career single-season high. His eight sacks in the last 12 weeks of the season were the most in the NFL, and his final of 8.0 sacks are the most by a Lions DT since Luther Elliss (8.5) in 1997.

- Added three tackles (two solo), one tackle for loss and one fumble recovery vs. Seattle (9/10) in the season opener.
- Set new career-high in tackles with six (three solo) at Chicago (9/17).
- Against Green Bay (9/24), Redding registered five tackles (four solo) and one tackle for loss.
- Tied his career-high six tackles (three solo) at St. Louis (10/1) while also adding a tackle for loss.
- Had four tackles (two solo) and one pass breakup at Minnesota (10/8), playing both end and tackle as the defensive line was forced to re-shuffle with the loss of NT Shaun Cody.
- Started at UT for the first time against Buffalo (10/15) to register five tackles (three solo) and a one sack.
- Had a 0.5 sack along with five tackles (three solo) at the New York Jets (10/22).
- Against Atlanta (11/5), Redding made four tackles (three solo) and one tackle for loss.
- Exploded vs. San Francisco (11/12), registering a career-high 2.0 sacks (-10 yards) along with five tackles (three solo), one tackle for loss and forced a fumble.
- Recorded three tackles at Arizona (11/19) and vs. Miami (one solo) along with one sack against the Cardinals and a 0.5 sack against the Dolphins (11/23).
- Talled his fourth sack in four consecutive games at New England (12/3) while also making two solo tackles.
- Made his team-leading seventh sack of the season vs. Minnesota (12/10) and recorded a sack for the fifth straight game, in addition to five tackles (two solo) against the Vikings.
- Five tackles (three solo) at Green Bay (12/17) and two TFLs.
- Registered one sack, forced one fumble and had six tackles (two solo) at Dallas (12/31).

2005: Started all 16 games for second-straight year. Collected 42 tackles (29 solo) as well as 1.0 sack, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble.

- Led linemen at Tampa Bay (10/2) with four tackles (three solo).
- Recorded the third-career fumble recovery vs. Baltimore (10/9).
- Pushed Chicago (10/30) QB Kyle Orton back four yards on his first sack of the season.
- Caused a fumble in the second quarter, which was recovered by DE Kalimba Edwards to set up a Lions' scoring drive against Arizona (11/13). Also had a pass defense at the line of scrimmage to prevent the Cardinals from scoring in the final seconds of the game.

2004: Emerged as the team's starting left defensive end during training camp and started all 16 games in that position.

- Talled three sacks on season, a career high.
- Notched his first-career sack for a loss of five yards at the New York Giants (10/24).
- Tackled Vikings RB Onterio Smith in the endzone for Detroit's first safety of the season at Minnesota (11/21) to extend the Lions' lead over the Vikings to 19-7.
- Sacked Chad Hutchinson for a loss of four, forcing a three-and-out that gave the ball to the Lions at Chicago's 42-yard line, which led to a Lions' field goal vs. Chicago (12/26).

2003: Missed the first two games of the season due to a leg injury suffered during the preseason and went in and out of the lineup following his return, seeing time at both defensive end and tackle along with special teams.

- Made his NFL debut vs. Minnesota (9/21).

COLLEGE: Two-time first-team All-Big 12 Conference selection, played in every game since arrival at Texas, including a string of 35 consecutive starts.

- Finished his career with 201 tackles (123 solo), 21 sacks (for 174 yards lost), 53 stops (third on the school's career-record list) for losses of 249 yards, an interception, six pass deflections, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.
- As a senior, was finalists for the Lombardi Award (top interior lineman) and inaugural Hendricks Award (top defensive end), and was on Nagurski Award (top defensive player) watch list.
- A key member of a defense that led conference and ranked 10th in NCAA in pass defense (162.8 ypg), second in the league and eighth in the country in scoring defense (16.0 ppg), second in the Big 12 and 12th nationally in total defense (296.6 ypg) and third in the conference and 10th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (98.3 rtg) in 2002.
- In 2002, started every game at left end and recorded 66 tackles (45 solo) with 7.5 sacks for minus 56 yards and 20 stops-for-losses of 82 yards. His 20 tackles behind the line of scrimmage ranks sixth on the school's season-record list and he earned player of the game honors vs. North Texas, North Carolina, Kansas State and Texas A&M.
- All-Big 12 Conference honorable mention as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Named USA Today's National Defensive Player of the Year and a consensus All-American choice as a senior in 1998 at North Shore High after he recorded 215 tackles (103 solo), 15 sacks, 22 TFLs, six forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries and four interceptions.

- Also named the nation's top linebacker by Parade, Associated Press All-State first-team and Texas Sports Writers Association Texas Class 5A Defensive Player of the Year.
- Excelled in track, winning the state Class 5A title in the discus as a junior and senior (career best toss of 193'9").

PRO: Robinson joins the Lions, his third NFC North team, after spending the past three seasons with the Vikings. He will add another veteran presence to the receiving corps. Robinson was originally drafted by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round (108th overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft. After six seasons in Chicago, he signed with the Ravens for the 2003 season. He has 325 career receptions for 4,699 yards (14.3 avg.) and 43 touchdowns.

MAJOR FACTS

- Established the Marcus Robinson Foundation to raise money for underprivileged children and their families (www.marcusrobinson.net).
- While with Chicago, he was named 2000 March of Dimes Bear of the Year. Represented the Bears at charitable events benefiting organizations such as the Chicago Coalition for the Homeless, the American Brain Tumor Association, Children's Memorial Hospital, Olch's Children's Home and the Chicago Bears Annual Coat Drive.
- Hosted Celebrity Serve to raise money for Children's Memorial Hospital and Olch's Children's Home (money raised was matched by Marcus and his wife, totaling $41,000).
- Played Santa Claus at an American Brain Tumor Association luncheon in Chicago during 2002 holiday season.
- Served as the spokesperson for the Chicago Bears annual holiday coat drive for the Salvation Army and children in the Chicago Public School System.

2006: Played in 10 games (three starts) for Minnesota in 2006 and finished with 29 receptions for 381 yards and four touchdowns before being released December 26.

- Opened the season with a 20-yard touchdown reception at Washington (9/11).
- Finished with five receptions for 78 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown, at Buffalo (10/1).
- Hauled in four passes for 77 yards, one of which was a season-long 40-yard touchdown pass at Seattle (10/22).
- Had his most productive game of the season against Arizona (11/26), registering seven catches for 82 yards (both season-highs).

2005: Led the Vikings in receiving average at 16.6 yards per catch and with five touchdown receptions while playing 15 games with nine starts.

- Caught season-long pass, a 68-yarder, from Daunte Culpepper vs. New Orleans (9/25).
- Pulled in a 27-yard touchdown vs. Green Bay (10/23) in the Vikings dramatic second-half comeback against the Packers, rallying from a 17-0 deficit at halftime to pull out a 23-20 win.
- Came down with first touchdown pass of 2005 from Brad Johnson at Carolina (10/30) in the fourth quarter as Johnson came into the game to relieve Culpepper after his season-ending knee injury.
- Became only the third Vikings player to catch three touchdown passes on three receptions in a game vs. Cleveland (11/27), who ended the season ranked No. 4 in the NFL in pass defense.
- Joined Randy Moss and Charley Ferguson in the 3-for-3 feat and tied for the NFL-high for the season with three touchdowns.
- Had three receptions of 45+ yards on the season, three of the seven longest passes by the Vikings for the season.

2004: Caught eight touchdown passes, the second-highest total of his career and added a touchdown in the playoffs. Started seven and played in all 16 regular season games and started both playoff games.

- Notched his 10th career 100-yard game with 150 yards on nine catches at Houston (10/10), including the game-winning 50-yarder from Daunte Culpepper in overtime, giving him two touchdowns in the game.

- Had six touchdown catches in the opening six games of the season.
- Led all players with his 119 yards receiving at Philadelphia (1/16) in Divisional Playoffs, including the Vikings final touchdown of the season, the 9th-best playoff performance in team history. Teamed with Randy Moss (13) and Nate Burleson (9) to catch 30 of Daunte Culpepper's team-record 39 touchdown passes.

SHAUN ROGERS

Defensive Tackle

Texas

Ht: 6-4

Born: 3/12/79

Draft: '01, R2 (61)-Det

7th Year

Wt: 345

Hometown: LaPorte, Texas

92

PRO: Rogers looks to have a big year in 2007 after a season that was cut short due to an injury. Rogers is one of the most disruptive forces as a defensive tackle in the NFL, combining his massive size and tremendous ability that is matched by speed. He signed a six-year contract extension following the 2004 season and is the anchor of the Lions' defense. Rogers also has made an impact on special teams throughout his career and has blocked more kicks (9; 8 FG, 1 PAT) than any other NFL player since 2001. He has overpowering strength coming off his blocks and was considered a "steal" for the Lions in the second round (61st overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

MAJOR FACTS

- Pro Bowls: 2005, 2006
- Donated game tickets to Don Bosco Hall through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Interacted with 2,000 Detroit-area underprivileged children at the NFL Experience Kids Day the week of Super Bowl XL.
- Collects throwback jerseys.
- Eats a pulled chicken sandwich before every home game.
- Enjoys the Lord of the Rings trilogy and the movie The Five Heartbeats.
- With former teammates James Hall, Robert Porcher, Dan Wilkinson and Joey Harrington, Rogers appeared in a Disney commercial in 2003 promoting the release of Disney's "The Lion King" on DVD.
- Assistant Cub Scout leader in his youth.

2006: Recorded 36 tackles (23 solo), three sacks and one fumble recovery in six starts.

- Had a monster game against Seattle (9/10), tallying seven tackles (five solo), one tackle for loss, 2.0 sacks for a loss of 13 yards and blocking his eighth career field goal attempt.

- Led defensive line vs. Green Bay (9/24) with six tackles (four solo).
- Five tackles (two solo) and one tackle for loss at St. Louis (10/1).
- Tied his season-best tackles performance with seven tackles (five solo) and one tackle for loss at Minnesota (10/8).
- Switched over to play the NT position against Buffalo (10/15) after starting the first five at UT to produce six tackles (four solo), one sack, one tackle for loss and had a fumble recovery. Rogers' sack in second quarter against the Bills was Rogers' third of the season, and the 15 yards lost on the play were the most on a sack in Rogers' career.
- Added to the Reserve/Suspended list October 18, 2006 and missed four games (10/22 at New York Jets, 11/5 vs. Atlanta, 11/12 vs. San Francisco and 11/19 at Arizona) to serve the suspension.
- Was activated off the Reserve/Suspension list November 24.
- Inactive at New England (12/3) due to a knee injury.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured list December 6, 2006 (knee injury).

2005: Named to the 2006 Pro Bowl marking his second appearance after recording a career high of 5.5 sacks.

- Recorded a key sack on Green Bay's final drive for a loss of 12 yards, preventing GB from entering the endzone (9/11).
- Had his eighth career blocked kick vs. Carolina (10/16) to prevent.
- Had second-straight game with a forced fumble vs. Atlanta (11/24).
- Set career-best single-season mark with 4.5 sacks after sacking Brett Favre at Green Bay (12/11).
- Recorded a sack on Bengals QB Carson Palmer against Cincinnati (12/18) to help stall a potential scoring drive in the second quarter.
- Scored first-career TD, a 21-yard fumble return (forced by DE James Hall) at New Orleans (12/24). It was the game's only TD as he carried several Saints players into the endzone with him.
- Led the line in tackles at Pittsburgh (1/1) with six (four solo).

- 2004: Selected to his first Pro Bowl for his performance in 2004.
- ✓ Voted by his teammates as the Lem Barney Defensive MVP.
 - ✓ Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his Week Seven efforts at the New York Giants (10/24), which included four tackles, one pass deflection and one sack, his fourth of the season.
 - ✓ Blocked three kicks during the 2004 season (1 PAT, 2 FG).
 - ✓ Blocked his fifth-career field goal, which was returned an NFL record 92-yards for a touchdown by Bracy Walker in the season opener at Chicago (9/12). Also recovered his third-career fumble to set up a field goal, recorded one sack and five tackles at the Bears.
 - ✓ Recorded two sacks for a combined loss of 14 yards at Atlanta (10/10), the second multi-sack game of his career.
 - ✓ Talled a then-season-high seven tackles vs. Jacksonville (11/14).
 - ✓ Blocked a Mike Vanderjagt PAT vs. Indianapolis (11/25), the first extra-point block of his career.
 - ✓ Finished the year with season-high eight tackles at Tennessee (1/2) and blocked a 27-yard FG attempt, third blocked kick of season.

2003: Named an alternate to the 2004 Pro Bowl for the first time in his career, voted by his teammates as the Chuck Hughes Most Improved Player and named to Football Digest's All-Pro second-team.

- ✓ Racked up a career-best four sacks, third best on the team.
- ✓ Season-high eight tackles (two TFLs) vs. Dallas (10/19).
- ✓ Played perhaps his best game of the season vs. Oakland (11/2) with six tackles (three solo), a sack of Marques Tuiasosopo on third down just shy of Raiders' goal line.
- ✓ Put together a great game to end the season vs. St. Louis (12/28) with a sack, forced fumble, three tackles (one solo), three quarterback knockdowns and four hurries and helped limit the Rams' rushing attack to just 41 yards in the game. His sack and forced fumble of Marc Bulger in St. Louis territory led to a Lions' touchdown.

2002: Recorded six tackles (two solo) vs. Carolina (9/15) and blocked a 46-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter.

- ✓ Inactive vs. Green Bay (9/22) and vs. New Orleans (9/29) after sustaining a hand injury against the Panthers in Week 2.
- ✓ Finished with five tackles (three solo), a sack and a pass defense and blocked a 43-yard field goal attempt vs. Minnesota (12/29).

2001: Ranked third on the team and led all NFL defensive linemen with 97 tackles (62 solo).

- ✓ Voted Mel Farr Rookie of Year by teammates and was ranked one of the 10-best rookies of the 2001 season by the Sporting News.
- ✓ Started in place of injured Luther Elliss in the season opener at Green Bay (9/9) and posted six tackles (three solo) in his first NFL action.
- ✓ Had breakout day after posting his first professional sack as well as his first career multi-sack game with two sacks at Minnesota (10/14) in addition to eight tackles (three solo).
- ✓ Posted his first double-digit tackle game (11) vs. Tennessee (10/21).
- ✓ Blocked two field goal attempts at San Francisco (11/4), the second being a 19-yard attempt with 1:56 left in the fourth quarter that gave the Lions a chance to tie the game. His first block of the day was a 49-yard attempt in the second quarter, the first for a Lion since James Jones batted an attempt away at New Orleans (9/3/00).
- ✓ Led team in tackles vs. Dallas (1/6/02) with 10 stops (seven solo).

COLLEGE: Started 20 of 41 games he played in for the Texas Longhorns, ranking third on the school's career-record list with 53 stops behind the line of scrimmage as well as collecting 199 tackles (108 solo) with 14 sacks and 54 pressures during his career.

- ✓ All-Big 12 second-team choice in 2000 despite being hindered for much of the year with a high-ankle sprain that would require surgery after the season. Despite lack of usual mobility, he was one of the major reasons Texas limited opponents to only 94.0 yards per game rushing, the lowest figure by a Longhorn squad since 1983, and the Longhorns led the nation in pass efficiency defense (88.3) and ranked seventh in total defense (278.3 ypg) as well.

In 1999, he earned All-Big 12 first-team honors, joining Pittsburgh Steelers' 2000 first-round choice, Casey Hampton in becoming the Longhorns' first defensive tackle tandem to garner such accolades in the same season since Ray Dowdy and Greg Ploetz in 1971.

- ✓ Started 12 games as a junior, recording career-high 80 tackles (43 solo) with 5.5 sacks (33 yds) and 24 QB pressures. His 27 stops for loss of (84 yards) rank second on the school's season-record list.

PERSONAL: Two-way tackle at LaPorte (Texas) High.

- ✓ Also lettered in basketball.
- ✓ Father, Ernie, played at Rice (1975-78), was drafted by Dallas in 1979, played in the CFL and also for the Houston Gamblers in the USFL.

BLOCK PARTY

No team has blocked more kicks in the NFL since 2001 than the Detroit Lions, and no player is feared more by kickers than DT Shaun Rogers. Since 2001, Detroit has blocked a league-leading 17 kicks. Of those 17 blocked kicks 12 have been blocked field goals, the most in the NFL.

- In 2006, the Lions once again proved to be among the elite teams blocking kicks on special teams. Detroit led the NFL with four blocked kicks (2 FG, 1 PAT, 1 Punt). Detroit was the only team to block a field goal, an extra point and a punt.
- In the past six seasons (2001-06) Rogers has blocked an NFL-high nine kicks, including eight field goals and one PAT.
- Rogers nine blocked kicks (8 FG, 1 PAT) are the most by any player in the league over the last 11 seasons (1996-2006).
- With a PAT block at Minnesota (10/8), DeVries joined fellow defensive lineman Shaun Rogers as Lions who have recorded a blocked field goal and PAT during their careers.

➤ Joining the block party in 2007 is DE Dewayne White, who is tied for eighth in the league since 2001 with three blocked kicks (3 FG).

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

The Lions' current roster features many standout players from the Lonestar State.

Texas: DE Cory Redding, DT Shaun Rogers, T Jonathan Scott and WR Roy Williams.

Texas A&M: TE Dan Campbell, LS Don Muhlbach and T Rex Tucker

Texas Tech: G Manny Ramirez

Others Texas prepsters: Tatum Bell (DeSota), S Kennoy Kennedy (Terrell), WR Troy Walters (College Station)

However, the Texas roots stretch back deep into Lions' history. Lions' greats Bobby Layne and Doak Walker grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were friends as children. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

PRO: Russell comes to Detroit entering his fifth NFL season. He has played the last two seasons with the Miami Dolphins. Russell was a third round draft pick (87th overall) of the Washington Redskins in 2002. He left the Redskins after the 2003 season and spent the 2004 campaign with the Cincinnati Bengals.

MAINE FACTS

- As a youngster, he grew up a fan of the San Francisco 49ers, and he lists Jerry Rice, Walter Payton, Barry Sanders and Dave Meggett as his favorite players.
- Favorite comedian is Bernie Mac and he is a big fan of the Bernie Mac Show. He also enjoys watching Prison Break.
- Loves playing the drums and started playing at the age of 11. He would like to join a jazz band someday.
- Owner of Russell Fitness in Virginia, a personal training and sports enhancement business.
- Away from football, he works as a personal trainer, and when his playing days are over he wants to continue developing his fitness business.

2006: Played in three games for Miami and had two receptions for 14 yards before being released October 17.

- Saw action as a reserve wide receiver and on special teams in season opener at Pittsburgh (9/7).
- Had a 9-yard reception against Buffalo (9/17).
- Was inactive for three games (Tennessee, 9/24; at Houston, 10/1; at New England, 10/8).
- Pulled in a 5-yard reception at New York Jets (10/15).

2005: Spent two stints and a total of nine games on the Dolphins' 53-man roster, including the final eight.

- Was a reserve wide receiver and saw action on special teams vs. Buffalo (12/4) and at San Diego (12/11).
- Inactive for other seven games.

2004: Appeared in 13 games, including one start, with Cincinnati and finished the season with one reception for 21 yards, three rush attempts for 15 yards and 39 kickoff returns for a 22.4-yard average.

- Had first career start at Pittsburgh (10/3).
- Pulled in his lone reception (21 yards) for the season at Cleveland (10/17).
- Registered a career-high seven kickoff returns, totaling 148 yards, at Baltimore (12/5).
- Fielded four kickoffs for 113 yards, including a career-long 40-yarder, for a career-best 28.3-yard average vs. New York Giants (12/26).

2003: After spending the entire 2002 season on injured reserve, Russell returned in 2003 and continued to develop his skills at the NFL level. He was on the 53-man roster the entire season but was inactive or listed as the third quarterback for 13 games.

- Against Dallas (12/14), Russell saw his first NFL action in a reserve role.
- He recorded one special teams tackle in a reserve role at Chicago (12/21).
- Saw some playing time on offense and responded with two receptions for nine yards (first catches of his NFL career) and added a tackle on special teams against Philadelphia (12/27).

2002: Russell showed promise during offseason workouts and training camp before sustaining a season-ending knee injury in practice.

- He was placed on injured reserve on Aug. 15 and spent the season in rehabilitation.

COLLEGE: At Utah, Russell started his last three seasons at flanker, catching 124 passes for 1,862 yards (15.0 avg) and 10 TDs. His 124 receptions and 1,862 yards rank sixth on the school's career-record lists.

- As a senior, Russell's speed and catching ability earned him an All-Mountain West Conference second-team selection by the league's coaches and media.
- Started every game at the flanker position, leading the team with a career-high 53 receptions for 744 yards (14.0 avg) and four touchdowns, while rushing five times for 26 yards (5.2 avg).
- Active in the Utes offense, Russell averaged 70.0 all-purpose yards per game.
- Appeared in eight contests in 2000, starting six at the flanker slot, and despite missing three games, he still managed to lead the team with 37 receptions for 517 yards (14.0 avg) and three touchdowns. His play earned him All-Mountain West Conference honorable mention. Russell averaged 65.2 all-purpose yards per game his junior year.
- In 1999, Russell started eight of the nine games he played, finishing second on the team with 34 receptions for 601 yards (17.7 avg) and three touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Russell was All-State as well as the 1996 OIA Offensive Player of the Year at Campbell High (Ewa Beach, Hawaii) High School.

- He was offensive captain and earned the league's Most Outstanding Player.
- He also set school records for most yards in a game and longest touchdown run (91 yards).
- As an Athlete of the Month, Russell led Campbell to the 1996 OIA championship game. He also lettered in track.

BLAINE SAIPAA

Tackle
Colorado State
Ht: 6-3
Born: 8/25/78
Draft: '00, FA-NO

4th Year
Wt: 315
Hometown: Oxnard, Calif.
Acq: '06, FA

67

PRO: Picked up mid-season in 2006, Saipaa started four games for the Lions. He will battle for a starting position at guard this year and will be looking to solidify a position along the offensive line. Originally signed with the Lions on September 26, 2006. Saipaa is a versatile athlete on the offensive line and is capable of playing guard, tackle, center or tight end. He knows the offense after formerly playing under Lions Offensive Coordinator Mike Martz in St. Louis for two seasons. Was signed by Rams September 8, 2004 after playing the preseason with Oakland. Originally entered the NFL on New Orleans' practice squad after going undrafted in 2000.

JONATHAN SCOTT

Tackle
Texas
Ht: 6-6
Born: 1/10/83
Draft: '06, R5 (141)-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 315
Hometown: Dallas, Texas

73

PRO: Selected in the fifth round (141st overall) by the Lions in 2006 draft, Scott brought underrated talent and additional quickness to the offensive line in his first season as a pro. He will battle for the starting right tackle position this year and will be looking to earn a spot on team's offensive line unit. He showed tremendous improvement when he started at the end of the season compared to the start of 2006. Scott has size and strength and will improve with experience.

MAJOR FACTS

- Took part in 2006 Rookie Night at the Lions QB Club.
- To build on his degree in Radio, Television and Film, Scott is pursuing opportunities in music and record production.
- Scott has an in-home production studio.
- Interned as a DJ on 92.3 The Mix, and during the season did segments with the radio station on Mondays and Tuesdays.
- Looked up to Emmitt Smith, Michael Irvin and the Dallas Cowboys as a youth 2006: Saw time in 13 games, starting four. Played on special teams, mostly on the PAT unit and kickoff return unit.

- Saw his first NFL action at Chicago (9/17).
- Started in his first career game at RT against Green Bay (9/24), and matched-up well against DE Aaron Kampman who was among the league leaders in sacks.

- Started in his second consecutive game at RT at St. Louis (10/1).
- Saw time at RT as a backup at Minnesota (10/8).
- Active, but did not play vs. Buffalo (10/15).
- Was active at the New York Jets (10/22), seeing action on the FG unit.
- Inactive vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Saw brief time at LT as he filled in for Jeff Backs who left the game vs. Minnesota (12/10).
- Received game action at Green Bay (12/17) at RT after Barry Stokes left the game with an injury.
- Started at RT vs. Chicago (12/24).
- Started at RT at Dallas (12/31), but left the game in the fourth quarter due to a hip injury.

COLLEGE: Scott emerged as the starting right tackle in 2002 at Texas as a redshirt freshman and began the 2003 season as the starting left tackle. He started 45-of-51 of the games he played in, including his final 43.

- In his senior season, Scott was first-team All-American selection by the American Football Coaches Association, the Associated Press, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and the Walter Camp Football Foundation and was an All-Big 12 Conference first-team pick.
- In 2005, he was a key part of a line that helped Texas rank first in the nation in scoring offense (50.2 ppg), second in rushing offense

PLAYER PROFILES

(274.9 ypg) and third in total offense (512.1 ypg) and cleared the way for Texas to set school single-season records in both points scored (652) and total yards (6,657). Texas' 652 points broke the 22-year old NCAA record of 624 points set by Nebraska in 1983 as Texas scored at least 40 points in 12 of 13 games, including a national-leading and school-record 11 straight games.

- Texas' 3,574 rushing yards in 2005 were the fourth-most in school history and he helped Texas produce 600 yards of total offense in a school-record three games.
- In his junior season, Scott started every game at left offensive tackle and was a first-team All-American choice by The NFL Draft Report, earning second-team accolades from the Associated Press and Sports Illustrated, and honorable mention from Pro Football Weekly and was a consensus first-team All-Big 12 conference selection and member of the school's Athletic Director's Academic Honor Roll.
- Earned third-team All-Big 12 Conference honors from the league's coaches as a sophomore, adding second-team accolades from the San Antonio Express-News and honorable mention by the Associated Press and shared UT's Most Improved Offensive Player honor.
- All-Big 12 Conference Freshman Team choice by The Sporting News; All-Big 12 honorable mention (overall) by the Associated Press. Played in 11 regular season games and the Cotton Bowl at right offensive tackle as a freshman.
- Redshirted as a true freshman and performed on the scout team at left offensive tackle.

PERSONAL: Graduated in May 2005 from the University of Texas liberal arts program with a bachelor's degree in communications (radio/television/film).

- Six-time member of Texas' Athletics Director's Academic Honor Roll. Named to Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll in the fall of 2003.
- Very active in the Longhorns' community service program, where Scott was a regular visitor with teammates at the Austin Children's Hospital. Also has volunteered time at The Texas School for the Deaf Sports Day.

- Attended Carter (Dallas, Texas) H.S. Earned second-team All-USA honors from USA Today and named first-team Class 5A All-State as a senior; All-District accolades three times during his career.
- Added two letters each in basketball and track. He was a regional qualifier in the shot put, with a career-best toss of 48'7".
- In high school, he was a member of the National Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, Math Club and the Senior Advisory Board.
- Enjoys producing his own music in his spare time.
- His father, Ray, was a defensive end/tight end at Prairie View A&M and was selected in the ninth round of the 1967 NFL Draft by the New York Jets as a defensive lineman.
- Born Jonathan Ray Scott on January 10, 1983 in Dallas, Texas.

PRO: Shepherd signed with Detroit January 6 and will compete at wide receiver in training camp. He entered the league as an undrafted free agent with the Chicago following the 2002 NFL Draft and spent all but two weeks on the Bears' practice squad as a rookie. Shepherd was allocated by Chicago to the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe prior to the 2003 season and then was waived following the Bears' training camp. He then was signed to Tampa Bay's practice squad (9/2) and added to their active roster later in the season (12/6). Shepherd spent three seasons with the Buccaneers before being waived at the end of the 2006 preseason. Houston acquired him off waivers (9/3) and he played in seven games for the Texans before being released November 10.

PAPER LION

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premier was held Thursday, October 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. Last year was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.

The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in September. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s. The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

PRO: Sims brings speed, talent and intensity to the Lions linebacker corps and was inserted as the team's starter at the weak-side linebacker spot to begin his first season. Starting all 16 games last year, he was one of the top defensive rookies in the league and was named to the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association all-rookie team. The Lions selected Sims with their first-round pick (9th overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft.

WANT FACTS

- Took part in 2006 Rookie Night at Lions Quarterback Club.
- Participated in the 2007 Lions Pet Calendar that helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Animal enthusiast who has a special affinity to exotic critters, and has set up quite an elaborate animal kingdom of his own in his home that includes lighted, temperature-controlled cages.
- His collection of animals includes boas, pythons, lizards and spiders, and he has a huge aquarium that features a lionfish.
- His father, Ernie Jr. gave him a tarantula at the age of 10 and he started collecting reptiles ever since.
- He told the Detroit News in April 2007 that he dreams of owning a Lion one day after a visit to Disney's Animal Kingdom earlier in the year and was fascinated by the pride of Lions he saw there.
- Because of his great interest in animals, his favorite TV station is the Animal Planet.
- After his football career, he wants to become a veterinarian and has a goal to open an animal hospital in Florida.

2006: Sims finished the season second among NFL rookies in tackles (first in the NFC), and tied for 12th in the NFL (tied for fifth in the NFC), amongst all defenders with 123 tackles (86 solo), according to press box stats.

- Finished the season with a team-high 144 tackles (86 solo), according to coaches film review. He recorded 10 tackles or more in eight of his first 16 games in his career. He recorded the most tackles by a Lions rookie since LB Chris Spielman registered 153 in 1988.
- In his first career start as a pro, tied for a game-high 10 tackles (eight solo) along with one tackle for loss against the Seahawks (9/10). It was the most by a Lions rookie in an opening day start since S Bennie Blades (1988-1996) recorded 12 tackles in his professional debut against the Atlanta Falcons (9/4/88) and were the most by a Lions' rookie linebacker to start opening day since LB Dennis Gibson's (1987-1993) 11 tackles made in his opening start as a Lions pro against Minnesota (9/13/87).
- Led the team in tackles at Chicago (9/17) with 10 tackles (six solo).
- For the third straight game, Sims led the team with a season-high 13 tackles (four solo) along with two special teams tackles against Green Bay (9/24).
- At St. Louis (10/1), Sims had 11 tackles (10 solo) to lead the team for the fourth consecutive week.
- Posted his fifth-straight double-digit tackle game with 10 (four solo) and forced a fumble at Minnesota (10/8).
- Had seven tackles (three solo) against Buffalo (10/15).
- Tied his season-best 13 tackles (nine solo) to once again lead the team in tackles at the New York Jets (10/22).
- Collected his first fumble recovery of his career off of Atlanta QB Michael Vick (11/5) and also led the defense with nine tackles (eight solo).
- Recorded 11 tackles (five solo) vs. San Francisco (11/12).
- Captured his first sack of his career, a 0.5 sack of Dolphins QB Joey

Harrington for a loss of 2 yards vs. Miami (11/23), while also making nine tackles (seven solo) against the Dolphins.

- Had seven tackles (four solo) at New England (12/3).
- Registered eight tackles (six solo) vs. Minnesota (12/10).
- Made 12 tackles (four solo) vs. Chicago (12/24).
- Finished with six tackles (one solo) at Dallas (12/31).

COLLEGE: He was regarded as Florida State's finest linebacker since Buccaneers' linebacker Derrick Brooks (1991-94). In 38 games for the Seminoles, Sims started his final 24 and finished his career with 200 tackles (95 solo), 7.0 sacks (61 yards) and 21 tackles-for-loss.

- Started all year at strong-side outside linebacker in 2005 and finished fourth on the team with 72 tackles (22 solos). He also registered 2.5 sacks (23 yards), 10 tackles for losses of 36 yards, recovered a fumble, deflected four passes and had two interceptions.
- Helped lead a unit that ranked 14th in the nation in total defense (309.23 ypg) and 18th in rush defense (108.38 ypg) and was an All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorable mention.
- In 2004, Sims played in 12 games, starting the final 11 at strong-side linebacker and finished second on the team with a career-high 86 tackles (41 solos). Also had 4.5 sacks (38 yards), nine tackles for loss (43 yards), five pass defenses and a blocked kick.
- Helped the team rank third in the nation in rush defense (63.03 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (14.08 ppg) and seventh in total defense (283.83 ypg).
- Named ACC Defensive Back of the Week in back-to-back games (vs. Virginia and Wake Forest).
- ESPN All-American first-team choice and All-Atlantic Coast Conference second-team pick.
- Played in every game as a reserve linebacker in 2003 to total 42 tackles (32 solos) with two tackles for loss (5 yards) and three pressures; also deflected two passes and caused a fumble.

PERSONAL: At North Florida Christian (Tallahassee, Fla.) High School, Sims was rated the nation's best prep prospect in 2003.

- Earned All-American honors by Parade as the top prep linebacker in the nation and USA Today All-USA second-team accolades.
- Named to the top 100 in the state of Florida by the Orlando Sentinel, was a member of the Super 75 team as selected by the Florida Times Union, chosen as the best player in the south and to the All-South Top 20 by the Tampa Tribune.
- Led the Eagles to four state championships (1998-2001) during his five-year career and as a senior rushed for three touchdowns in the Class A state championship game.
- An incredible two-way player, he totaled 133 tackles (73 solos), 15 stops for lost yardage, six forced fumbles, seven fumble recoveries and one blocked field goal attempt from his linebacker position, and ran for 1,081 yards on 115 carries for 23 touchdowns as a running back during his senior season.
- Recorded 180 tackles, 41 stops for losses, 12 sacks and forced seven fumbles as a linebacker and rushed for over 600 yards and 17 touchdowns as a running back during his junior season.

PRO: Had a strong showing for the team at the end of the season after signing with the Lions midway through the 2006 campaign (November 9, 2006). Smith will battle for a spot on the team's defensive line and will push for one of the starting defensive end positions. For San Francisco, he was a valuable reserve and special team standout who made the switch from the defensive line to linebacker in 2005. Young, strong defenseman who was recruited late during the 2004 season to add depth to the 49ers defensive line after the loss of Andre Carter (back) and Anthony Adams (knee). Spent 2002 and 2003 seasons on both Tampa Bay's practice squad and active roster. First overall selection in the 2004 NFL Europe Allocated Draft by the Berlin Thunder in 2004. Led Thunder to World Bowl XII title in 2004. Finished the 2004 NFL Europe season with 7.5 sacks. Was originally signed by Tampa Bay as an undrafted free agent following the 2002 NFL Draft.

MAINE FACTS

- Served as a coaching intern during NFL Europa training camp this past Spring, working with the Rhein Fire coaching staff.
- Participated in the 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Looked up to the San Francisco 49ers as a youth and admired work ethic of Jerry Rice and intensity of Lawrence Taylor. He tries to emulate Taylor by playing with recklessness and intensity.
- Loves the show Martin, owns the shows DVDs and watches them often.
- Favorite movie is The Godfather, and also likes Coming to America and Braveheart.
- Hobbies include playing golf and basketball.
- Likes to travel to the Bahamas.
- After playing career, he stay involved with football—possibly coaching, scouting or football operations.

2006: Made 10 tackles (three solo), two sacks, forced two fumbles and had three special teams tackles in eight games with one start.

- Signed by the Lions on November 9, 2006.
- Saw action on special teams and in some defensive sets in his first game as a Lion vs. San Francisco (11/12).
- Made one special teams tackle at Arizona (11/19).
- Forced a crucial fumble at New England (12/3) that was recovered by CB Dre Bly and led to a Lions field goal at the Patriots 19-yard line while also making two tackles (one solo) against the Patriots.
- Registered a career-best four tackles (one solo) and one special teams tackle vs. Minnesota (12/10).
- Recorded his first sack of the season vs. Chicago (12/24).
- In first career start, Smith registered sack in second-straight game, forced a fumble and had two tackles (one solo) at Dallas (12/31).

2005: Saw action in a career-high 14 games registering two defensive tackles (one solo) and ranked fifth on team with 13 special teams stops (9 solo).

KEITH SMITH

Cornerback
McNeese State
Ht: 5-11
Born: 3/20/80
Draft: '04, R3 (73)-Det

4th Year
Wt: 192
Hometown: Leesville, La.

23

PRO: Smith is a valuable contributor at cornerback, especially in nickel and dime situation, and is a solid performer on special teams. Smith played in all 16 games last year serving as a backup cornerback. In 2005, he played in 15 games with two starts. Smith was selected by the Lions in the third round (73rd overall) to add talent and depth to the team's secondary. At McNeese State, Smith demonstrated great ability as a deep-coverage cornerback, and did not allow a reception in 13 of his last 22 games for the Cowboys.

MAINE FACTS

- Smith is not the only sports figure in Detroit with connections to McNeese State. Joe Dumars, president of basketball operations for the Detroit Pistons, also is an alumni of McNeese State and his brother, David, is an assistant basketball coach for the Cowboys.
- Visited Detroit Lions Academy, an alternative middle school in Detroit, talking to students about the importance of doing well in school.
- Took part in the United Way's 2005 Hometown Huddle working side-by-side with local high school students to sort and package donated items for area non-profit agencies to distribute during the holiday season.
- Attended the 11th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner which raised more than $118,000 for the Lions Courage House, HAVEN, a shelter for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- When he was younger, he liked the Raiders, especially CB Charles Woodson; the Dolphins, for the style of defense that they played; and the Rams, for their wide-open offense.
- Watched WR Jerry Rice to try and figure out why he was always so open and what a defender could do to stop him.
- A big fan of Martin Lawrence. He still laughs at the reruns of his show like they are brand new.
- Wakes up early and eats light before games because it makes him feel lighter and faster.
- Wants to coach at a younger level after playing in the NFL - most likely Pop Warner and then high school.

2006: Saw action at cornerback as the backup to Fernando Bryant to record five solo tackles.

- Registered at least one special teams tackles in 13-of-16 games to record career-high 19 special teams tackles (second on team).
- Had two solo tackles, one special teams tackle and a pass breakup against Buffalo (10/15).
- Recorded two tackles (one solo) at the New York Jets (10/22).
- One solo tackle and three special teams stops vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Made two solo tackles and one special teams tackle at New England (12/3).
- Registered two special teams tackles vs. Chicago (12/24).

2005: Recorded his first career sack at Minnesota (11/6) for a loss of 3 yards, forcing the Vikings to attempt a field goal. Started for the first time this season because the Lions started in a nickel package.

➤ Tied his career high in tackles with six vs. Arizona (11/13). Earned starting role in place of injured CB André Goodman.

2004: Fourth on the team with 16 special teams tackles.

- Inactive for season-opener at Chicago (9/12).
- Intercepted a pass in his first-career game vs. Houston (9/19).
- Recorded career-high six defensive tackles at Jacksonville (11/14).
- Made his first-career start and recorded four tackles and one pass defense vs. Arizona (12/5).

➤ Finished the season on a strong note, tallying a season-high four special teams tackles at Tennessee (1/2).

COLLEGE: All-American first-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, a second-team all-American pick by the Associated Press and The Sports Network and earned All-Southland Football League first-team accolades, participated in the Senior Bowl, and rated the best defensive prospect in the NCAA Division I-AA ranks by The Sports Xchange as a senior.

➤ All-Southland Football League first-team choice after he helped lead the team to the Division I-AA Championship game as a junior.

➤ Set a school game-record as he deflected six passes against Maine in the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: All-State defensive back who also played wide receiver and running back at Leesville (La.) High.

➤ Won the state title in the 400-meter dash and was a member of the state champion 4x400-meter relay team.

➤ Son of Ramona and Keith Smith.

➤ Born on March 20, 1980.

➤ Resides in Leesville, La.

PRO: Stokes is a versatile offensive lineman who can play both guard and tackle, and he will battle for the starting spot at guard or right tackle in 2007. He returned to Detroit, where his pro career began, in 2006 and started on the right side at both guard and tackle. Stokes arrived in Detroit after spending the '05 season in Atlanta where he was signed by the Falcons April 9, 2005. After signing with the New York Giants March 13, 2004, Stokes suffered a back injury, was placed on the Reserve/Injured list September 5, 2004 and missed the entire season. He spent two seasons with Cleveland after signing with the Browns April 1, 2002. He signed with Green Bay July 22, 2000, was released September 27, 2000, and re-signed with the club October 23, 2000 for the remainder of the season and in 2001. He was signed by Oakland January 2, 2000 and then was released July 21, 2000. Green Bay signed him September 8, 1999, and was released by the club September 21, 1999 and then re-signed with the Packers October 20, 1999. Prior to his '00 stint with Green Bay, He signed to the Miami Dolphins practice squad November 26, 1997, was allocated to NFL Europe February 18, 1999 and played for the Scottish Claymores during the '98 NFL Europe season. He was released by the Dolphins September 4, 1999. In 1997, he signed with Atlanta January 30, 1997, was released by the Falcons in August, signed to St. Louis' practice squad August 26, 1997, released from the Rams October 6, 1997 and signed to Miami's practice squad November 26, 1997. Stokes was originally signed by the Lions as an undrafted rookie free agent April 26, 1996 and was released August 14, 1996. He was signed onto Jacksonville's practice squad October 23, 1996 and was granted free agency after the season. During his career, Stokes has been signed and spent a portion of the regular season or offseason with eight different franchises. A native of Michigan, Stokes was born in Flint and lettered in football, basketball and track at Davison High School. He earned first-team all-state honors at tight end and defensive end before enrolling at Eastern Michigan University. Stokes was a four-year starter for the Eagles (1992-95) and earned All-MAC honors as a senior.

MANE FACTS

- Established the Barry Stokes Foundation to offer hope for a better tomorrow for the youth of the community as they grow spiritually, athletically and academically. This mission will be achieved through hard work, dedication and financial support.
- Named after Barry Stokes in 2005, Barry Stokes Youth Football League provides 900 Michigan youth the opportunity to learn life lessons about teamwork, perseverance and dedication.
- Named Detroit Lions 2006 Man of the Year for his countless off-the-field charitable contributions.
- Grew hair to over 12 inches in 2005 for Locks of Love, an organization that provides hairpieces to financially disadvantaged children under the age of 18 with medical hair loss.

- Created a scholarship fund at his alma mater, Davison High School. Awards scholarships to student athletes who show a spirit of dedication, determination and academic excellence. First awarded in 2003, these scholarships assist student athletes in their dreams of a college education. The goal is to create an endowment to fund these scholarships in future years.
- Participated in 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Donated Lions' tickets to each home game to The Barry Stokes Foundation and the Make-A-Wish Foundation through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Helped deliver food and supplies to more than 30 Metro Detroit relief agencies at the United Way Hometown Huddle/Lift Up America event, December 5, 2006 at Ford Field.
- Made a special visit to University of Michigan's Mott Children's Hospital to visit patients during the 2006 season.
- Took part in dedication of the new NFL Youth Education Town, Dick & Sandy Daugh Campus Boys & Girls Club in Detroit.

- Inactive (hamstring) at Chicago (9/17) and Green Bay (9/24).
- Started in his second game at RT at Minnesota (10/8) after returning to the lineup from a hamstring injury.
- Started at RT in Lions 20-17 win vs. Buffalo (10/15) as the offense garnered 397 yards, including RB Kevin Jones' first 100-yard rushing game (127 yards) of the season.
- Held the Jets defense to a season-low one sack while also helping the offense attain 386 net yards at New York (10/22) as he started his third-straight game at RT.
- Made start at RG. Offense boasted season-best 435 net yards, including 110 rushing yards by B Kevin Jones, vs. Atlanta (11/5).
- Shifted over to start at RT at New England (12/3), vs. Minnesota (12/10) and at Green Bay (12/17).
- Placed on IR December 19 due to leg injury at Green Bay (12/17).
- 2005: Played in all 16 games with one start and helped the Falcons lead the NFL in rushing (159.1 yards per game).
- Saw extensive action at right tackle vs. New York Jets (10/24) because of an injured Todd Weiner (arm) and was a key contributor to an offensive effort that posted 205 yards rushing on 38 carries.
- Started his first game as a member of the Falcons at Detroit (11/24) due to injuries and helped the team rush for 256 yards.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

2004: Signed by the New York Giants as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2004 but missed entire 2004 campaign with back injury.

2003: Started 13 of 14 games at left tackle. Missed games (ankle injury) at New England (10/26) and at Kansas City (11/9).

- Returned to action vs. Arizona (11/16) and did not allow a sack.
- Did not start at Cincinnati (12/28) due to an ankle injury, but lined up in goal-line formation in the fourth quarter.

2002: Started all 16 games at left guard and was the only offensive starter to play every snap during the regular season and postseason.

➤ Played LG in AFC Wild Card Game at Pittsburgh (1/5). Line provided QB Kelly Holcomb time to throw for 429 yards and three TDs.

2001: Played in all 16 games with three starts for Green Bay. Also saw action in both postseason games.

- Made his first NFL start at Chicago (11/11), replacing the inactive Chad Clifton (ankle) in the lineup, a role he repeated vs. Atlanta (11/18) and at Detroit (11/22).

REX TUCKER

Tackle
Texas A&M
Ht: 6-5
Born: 12/20/76
Draft: '99, R3 (66)-Chi

9th Year
Wt: 315
Hometown: Midland, Texas
Acq: '06, UFA-StL

74

PRO: Tucker enters his ninth year in the NFL and the second with the Lions. The veteran tackle spent the 2005 season with the St. Louis Rams, where he played for Lions Offensive Coordinator Mike Martz who was the Rams head coach at the time. Prior to playing in St. Louis in 2005, he spent the first six seasons of his career with the Chicago Bears. His best season was in 2001 when he started all 16 games at left guard for the Bears, appeared in the team's playoff game and was an alternate Pro Bowl selection that season. Tucker was originally selected by the Chicago Bears in the third round (66th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft out of Texas A&M.

MAINE FACTS

- Fan of the Dallas Cowboys growing up and his favorite player was Randy White.
- Brother, Ryan Tucker, played for Rams from 1997-2001, starting at right tackle in 2000 and 2001.
- Outside of football, main focus is spending time with family.

2006: Played in six games, starting five at right tackle.

- Saw spot duty in backup role as third tackle in unbalanced formations in regular season opener vs. Seattle (9/10).
- Started first game as a Lion at Chicago (9/17), one of his former teams.
- Inactive against Green Bay (9/24), at St. Louis (10/1), at Minnesota (10/8), Buffalo (10/15) and at the New York Jets (10/22) due to a knee injury.

- Made his first appearance back on the offensive line, and second start of the season, returning from a hamstring injury for the first time in five games vs. Atlanta (11/5), helping the offense to a season-best 435 net yards including a 110-yard rushing performance by RB Kevin Jones.
- Placed on the Reserve/Injured list November 30, 2006 due to a knee injury.

2005: Tucker played in eight games for the Rams, including three starts at right tackle.

- Opened the season as the starting right tackle at San Francisco (9/11) and blocked for an offense that had a league-high 26 first downs before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with a calf injury.
- Was inactive for next six games due to injury.
- Returned to action vs. Jacksonville (10/30) on special teams.
- Stepped in at right tackle at Houston (11/27).
- At Minnesota (12/11), he started at right tackle and blocked for an offense that gained 229 passing yards.

2004: Played in six games for Chicago, starting five at right guard.

- Was inactive for first six games of season with elbow injury.
- Saw first action of season in start vs. San Francisco (10/31)
- Went on to start next four games.
- Saw action at right guard vs. Minnesota (12/5).
- Placed on Reserve/Injured list (12/13) due to hamstring injury.
- 2003: Spent season on IR list due to torn tendon in right ankle. Injury suffered in final series of preseason play at New England (8/27).

2007 DETROIT LIONS

2002: Started first five games at left guard.

- Started at left guard vs. Green Bay (10/7) for 21st straight time, and first on Monday Night Football, but left the game in third quarter due to dislocated left ankle and fibular fracture.

- Placed on reserve/injured list (10/9), missing final 11 games.

2001: Started all 16 games, and one playoff game, at left guard, earning Pro Bowl alternate recognition.

- Part of Bears' offensive line that allowed fewest sacks in NFL (17).
- Forced out of game vs. Jacksonville (1/6) with right calf strain
- Returned to starting lineup for NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Philadelphia (1/19).

2000: Saw action in six games.

- Left game in second half vs. Minnesota (10/15) after suffering concussion on special teams. Inactive for five of next six games, and did not play vs. Indianapolis (11/5).

- Returned to field for season finale at Detroit (12/24).

1999: Played in two games, starting one, as Bears' rookie.

- Made NFL debut at Oakland (9/26) at right tackle.

- Made first career start (right tackle) at St. Louis (12/26)

COLLEGE: Third-team all-Big 12 selection as senior at Texas A&M after starting every game at left tackle for first time in career. Helped offense gain 4,056 total yards.

- Played in every game as junior (three starts at LT), and registered 19 knockdown blocks while helping offense gain 4,497 total yards.

- Saw limited action at left tackle as sophomore. Played in all 11 games as true freshman, primarily as backup center.

PERSONAL: Born Rex Truman Tucker in Midland, Texas.

- Was Blue Chip all-American at Lee High in Midland, Texas.

- He and his wife, Honey, have a daughter, Hope, and two sons, Titan and Talan.

PRO: Walters signed with Detroit June 1 and will bring his receiving skills to what should be a very competitive training camp for receivers. He was originally a fifth-round (165th overall) draft choice by the Minnesota Vikings in 2000 and spent two seasons in Minnesota before being claimed off waivers by Indianapolis during the 2002 offseason. Walters was signed by Arizona last offseason as an unrestricted free agent and spent the 2006 season with the Cardinals.

MINUTE FACTS

- Father, Trent, is in his fourth season as the secondary coach for the Philadelphia Eagles.
- Was a ball boy for the Minnesota Vikings as a youth.
- Looked up to Cris Carter, David Palmer, and Barry Sanders.
- Loves watching SportsCenter, Law and Order, CSI and No Deal.
- Favorite movie is Troy and is a fan of Jamie Foxx.
- Spends much of his free time golfing.
- Enjoys speaking at different churches during the off-season.
- Post-football would like to become a head coach at either the college or professional level.

2006: Played in 15 games with three starts and had 23 receptions for 209 yards and two touchdowns before being placed on the reserve/injured list (12/29) with a wrist injury.

- Scored the first Cardinals touchdown of 2006 when he pulled in a 2-yard pass in the first quarter of the season opener vs. SF (9/10).

- Caught two passes for 32 yards, including a key reception with only 0:06 remaining in the fourth quarter to set up the potential game tying field goal vs. Kansas City (10/8); also returned two punts for 21 yards.

- Started his first game as a Cardinal and caught four passes for 25 yards vs. Chicago (10/16) and returned two punts for 16 yards.

- Had two receptions for a season high 38 yards at Oakland (10/22) in his second consecutive start at wide receiver.

- Led the team with five receptions for 54 yards, including a 17-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter at Green Bay (10/29); also returned two punts for 23 yards.

- Recorded one catch for 5 yards and returned three punts for 58 yards, including a season best 37-yard return in the first quarter that set up a touchdown pass to open the scoring vs. Seattle (12/10).

- Returned four punts for 48 yards at San Francisco (12/24).

- Placed on injured reserve (wrist) on 12/29/06.

2005: Saw action in all 16 games for the Colts, making one start at wide receiver and finished the season with 14 receptions for 152 yards and three touchdowns.

- Set single-game career-bests with eight receptions for 91 yards and a touchdown at Seattle (12/24) in his first start of the season for the injured Marvin Harrison.

2004: Saw action in final five games as returner and reserve receiver after being inactive for first eleven games with upper arm fracture suffered in preseason.

- Saw action on special teams in the final five games of the regular season and two postseason contests.

2003: Started four of 15 games for Colts and posted career highs with 36 receptions for 456 yards and three touchdowns.

- Started at wide receiver at Tennessee (9/7), vs. Houston (10/26), at Miami (11/2) and vs. New York Jets (11/16).

- Was inactive at Buffalo (11/23) with hamstring injury.

- Had receptions in 12 outings, including 10 multiple-reception games.

2002: Saw action in 16 games, one as starter and was the team's primary kick returner. He finished with 53 kickoff returns for 1,150 yards (21.7 avg).

- Started vs. Miami (9/15) as club opened with four-receiver set.

2001: Was reserve in six games for Minnesota and mostly saw action

PRO: Williams emerged as one of the NFL's elite receivers in 2006 as the Lions No. 1 receiving threat. Williams played for the NFC squad in the 2007 Pro Bowl squad on February 10, 2007, marking his first career Pro Bowl selection, and he became the first wide receiver to represent Detroit in the annual all-star game since Herman Moore played in the 1999 Pro Bowl. His size, speed and strength have been an asset to the Lions during his first three seasons after the team selected him with one of their first round selections, seventh overall, in the 2004 draft. He is a gifted pass catcher with one of the best pair of hands in the league. Williams' 181 receptions and 2,814 receiving yards are the most by a Lions' receiver in franchise history through their first three NFL seasons. His 23 touchdowns are second only to Cloyce Box (30, 1949-52) among Lions' receivers in their first three seasons. A highly regarded prospect coming out of college at Texas, Williams set several Lions rookie records in 2004, including receptions (54), yards (817) and touchdowns (8). He won numerous accolades during his inaugural season, including NFC Rookie of the Month for September.

MAINE FACTS

- Pro Bowls: 2007
- Involved in Lions promotion of NFL's "What Moves U" initiative with American Heart Association to help battle child obesity.
- Took part in a special event hosted by PGA of America where the Lions teamed up with Think Detroit PAL golf program to provide free golf lesson to the Lions' players and youngsters.
- Participated in the annual Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that raised over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Participated in 17th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Williams played a role in the movie Friday Night Lights, which is based on a book that portrays a football season at his high school (Odessa Permian). His older brother, Lloyd Hill, was on the team that the book was written about. The movie, which stars Billy Bob Thornton, is set for release later this year. Williams' role in the movie is as an assistant coach of Permian's rival high school (Midland Lee) and he has one line: "He ain't going to play, Coach."
- Grew up as a fan of the Dallas Cowboys, RB Herschel Walker and WR Jerry Rice.
- Enjoys watching Cheaters.
- Is a huge proponent of having a visor on his helmet at all times, stating that a "uniform is not complete without one."
- In his spare time Williams watches movies, plays video games and poker.
- An avid bowler, his best game is listed at 257. He competed in ESPN's Bowling Night competition during 2006 offseason.
- Plans to return to his high school alma mater of Odessa Permian in the hopes of becoming the first African American head coach of the team.

2006: Williams finished the season tied for third in the NFL (first in the NFC) in receiving yards (1,310) and tied for 16th in the NFL (ninth in the NFC) in receptions with 82, both career-highs. His 1,310 receiving yards rank fourth in Lions history for most receiving yards in a single season and are the most since Germaine Crowell (1,338) in 1999. By reaching 1,300 yards, Williams became only the fourth player in team history to accomplish the feat.

➤ Williams was added to the 2007 NFC Pro Bowl squad, making him the first Lions' wide receiver to play in the league's all-star game since WR Herman Moore played in the 1999 Pro Bowl.

- With 16.0 yards per catch, he was first amongst NFL receivers with at least 65 receptions. Also led NFL with 24 receptions of 20+ yards.
- Recorded at least 135 yards receiving in an NFL-best four games, also becoming the first Lions receiver in team history to record four games in a single season to record at least 135 yards.
- Tied with Colts WR Marvin Harrison for NFL-best six 100-yard receiving games.
- Teamed with Mike Furrey to become one of only three WR duos in the NFL to each register 80 receptions and 1,000 yards, and were the first Lions duo to do so since Germaine Crowell and Johnnie Morton in 1999. Combined 180 receptions were the second-most by a WR tandem in the NFL, and were the most since Herman Moore (104) and Morton (80) in 1997.
- His 82 receptions tie him for sixth all-time in team history.
- Marked only fifth time in team history that two Lions' WR each caught 80 passes in the same season.
- His 719 yards in the season's first eight games were the most by a Lions receiver since WR Herman Moore has 804 through the first eight games of the 1997 season. Williams' 44 receptions at the midpoint of the season were the most since Moore had 45 through eight games during the 1998 season.
- Led the team against Green Bay (9/24) with seven grabs for a single-game career-high 138 yards (19.7 avg.) with a long of 42 yards and one touchdown. Williams' 19.7 yards per catch average against Green Bay (9/24) was the highest of his career in games where he has recorded at least five receptions.
- Led the team for the third consecutive week in receiving at St. Louis (10/1) and set a new single-game best in receiving yards for the second consecutive week with 139 yards (15.4 avg) on a career-high matching nine catches.
- With his accomplishment against the Rams, Williams recorded his first back-to-back 100-yard receiving games in his career, became the first Lions WR to record the feat since Johnnie Morton in 2001 (111 yards on 9/9/01 at GB and 100 yards on 9/23/01 at Cle) and produced the most yards by a WR (277 yards) in two-straight games since Germaine Crowell's total (305 yards) against St. Louis (163 yards on 11/7/99) and at Arizona (142 yards on 11/14/99).
- Left the game with a neck stinger after catching one pass for 7 yards at Minnesota (10/8) on the team's opening possession.
- Returned from a neck injury and caught 10 passes for 161 yards, both single-game career highs, and scored on a 28-yard touchdown pass from QB Jon Kitna in the Lions 20-17 win over the Buffalo Bills (10/15). His accomplishments marked the first time in his career he has registered 10 receptions in a game and the first by a Lion since FB Cory Schlesinger caught 11 passes vs. Chicago 12/30/01. They were the most by a Lions wide receiver since Johnnie Morton had 10 at Minnesota 1/20/00.
- Williams' 161 yards were the most by a Lions receiver since Germaine Crowell collected 163 yards vs. St. Louis 11/7/99. It was Williams' seventh career 100-yard receiving game and the third of the 2006 season.
- Caught third TD of season at the New York Jets (10/22), splitting two defenders en route to a 22-yard strike from QB Jon Kitna.
- Made a career-long catch of 60 yards for a touchdown as a part of his team-leading six catches for 138 yards vs. Atlanta (11/5). With his touchdown reception against the Falcons, Williams set a new career-high with three touchdown receptions in the past three games.
- Attempted first rush of year on reverse that gained 2 yards and also caught five balls for 67 yards (13.4 avg) at Arizona (11/19).
- Exploded in the first quarter vs. Miami (11/23) with five immediate catches for 110 yards and would finish the game with six catches for

126 yards (21.0 avg) with a long catch of 41 yards.

- Caught his fifth receiving touchdown of the season, along with six catches for 79 yards (13.2 avg) with a long catch of 26 yards vs. Chicago (12/24). Williams surpassed the 1,200-yard mark in the game and became the since Lions receiver since WR Germaine Crowell in 1999 (1,338) to record 1,200 yards in a season.

- Hauled in six passes for 104 yards (17.3 avg) and two touchdowns at Dallas (12/31), marking his fifth-career multi-touchdown game.

2005: Finished the 2005 season second in receptions (45), first in receiving yards (687) and first in average per catch (15.3).

- Scored the Lions' lone touchdown of the game vs. Chicago (9/18), a 51-yard catch from QB Joey Harrington.

- Led team in receptions (3) against Tampa Bay (10/2).

- Had 2 receptions for 24 yards before leaving the game early vs. Baltimore (10/9) due to quadriceps injury.

- Caught 3 touchdowns (7, 21 and 29 yards) and grabbed 7 receptions for 117 yards (16.7 avg), all season-highs, Arizona (11/13). His 3 touchdown receptions marked his first career game with 3 touchdowns. It was his third career 100-yard receiving outing and his fourth career multi-touchdown game.

- Recorded his sixth touchdown of the season at Green Bay (12/11), a 4-yard pass from QB Jeff Garcia. Also had a 40-yard reception in the fourth quarter to help put the Lions in the red zone.

- Had his seventh touchdown of the season against Cincinnati (12/18), a 5-yard grab from QB Jeff Garcia.

- All four of his receptions came in the fourth quarter and were for first downs at New Orleans (12/24). His 49-yard catch on the Lions first series in the fourth quarter helped set up a Detroit field goal and give the Lions a 10-9 lead. With 0:37 remaining on the clock on fourth-and-17, he leapt for a QB Joey Harrington 40-yard pass and worked his way out of bounds to stop the clock. He followed up with a 15-yard reception a few plays later which allowed K Jason Hanson to boot the game-winning 39-yard field goal.

- Tied his touchdown mark from his rookie season (8) with a 15-yard touchdown reception at Pittsburgh (1/1).

2004: Set Lions' rookie receiving records in receptions (54), yards (817) and touchdowns (8).

- Leading the Lions in rushing yards and receptions, Williams and Kevin Jones became the first Lions' rookies to lead the team since Mel Farr accomplished the feat individually in 1967.

- Named NFC Rookie of the Month for September after recording 17 receptions for 277 yards and four TDs through first three games.

- Led all receivers with four catches for 69 yards, including an amazing 27-yard, one-handed juggling reception in the season-opener at Chicago (9/12). The play was selected by fans as the Play-of-the-Week on ESPN.com.

- Named the Pepsi Rookie of the Week after he scored his first two career touchdowns on four catches for 73 yards vs. Houston (9/19). His second touchdown on the day, a 14-yarder, garnered him the Levitt Play of the Week award for Week 2.

- Against Philadelphia he scored two touchdowns on nine receptions for 135 yards, including four passes for 63 yards on the Lions' first scoring drive, becoming the first rookie Lion to have a 100-yard receiving game since Larry Foster in 2000 and the first Lion since David Hill (1976) to score multiple touchdowns in two games during his rookie year.

- Caught three passes at Atlanta (10/10) before sustaining an ankle injury in the third quarter.

- Broke the Lions' rookie receiving record in yards and touchdowns with 104 yards and two touchdowns vs. Minnesota (12/19).

COLLEGE: Started 40 contests, and shattered school career-records with 241 receptions for 3,866 yards (16.0 avg) and 36 touchdowns.

- Demonstrated productivity carrying the ball with 243 yards and three touchdowns on 16 carries (15.2 avg).

- All-American Dream Team second-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, a semi-finalist for the Biletnikoff Award (nation's top receiver) and an All-Big 12 Conference second-team choice as a senior.

- The only player in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season twice in a career.

- All-Big 12 Conference first-team selection, a semi-finalist for the Biletnikoff Award and was named the team's Co-Offensive Most Valuable Player as a junior.

- Named MVP of the Cotton Bowl against Louisiana State as he had his fifth-straight 100-yard game, tallying 142 yards on four receptions with a 51-yard score. He also set up another touchdown on a 75-yard catch and scored on a 39-yard reverse.

PRO: Woody will be looking to rebound and get back to his Pro Bowl-caliber form in 2007 after a foot injury forced him to miss the last 11 games of the 2006 season. He signed with Detroit as an unrestricted free agent March 5, 2004, and started in 37 consecutive games for the Lions prior to his injury. In his final year in New England, Woody was named an alternate for the 2005 Pro Bowl squad. The 2002 Pro Bowler spent his first five NFL seasons with New England after being selected in the first round (17th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft. Woody started 76 games mostly at center in New England and was a member of two Patriots' Super Bowl championship teams (2001 and 2003).

MAWTS TEAVCTS

- Pro Bowl: 2003.
- Foundation, Woody's Kids, helps families of ill children.
- Donated tickets to Rosemary Hockney Foundation through Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program
- A big fan of CSI and any movie with Denzel Washington in it.
- Interested in television commentary following football career
- Boston College coaches nicknamed Woody "The Dominator" during spring drills before his sophomore year.
- Idolized Bruce Smith growing up and wore #78 in high school.
- Played a part on two championship teams nicknamed the Patriots. He helped lead his high school team, the Patrick Henry High Patriots (Beaverdam, Va.) to a 14-0 record and a Division 5 State Group AAA championship in 1994, and in 2001 and 2003 he helped the New England Patriots to their Super Bowl XXXVI title.
- Presented more than 4,500 cans of Campbell's Chunky Soup to the Greater Boston Food Bank as part of Chunky's 2001 NFL Tackling Hunger Program.

2006: Started the first five games of the season at right guard, but a foot injury forced him to miss the last 11 games of the season.

- Helped the offense produce 424 total net yards against Green Bay (9/24), including 105 rushing yards on 23 attempts (4.6 avg.).
- Aided the offense while it wielded 370 net offensive yards at St. Louis (10/1).
- Left the game at Minnesota (10/8) early with a foot injury.
- Placed on the Reserved/Injured list on October 11 with a foot sprain.

2005: Played and started in all 16 games for the second straight season.

- Helped the offensive line allow only 10 sacks the second half of the season, including one-or-less in seven of the last eight games, despite going back and forth between starting quarterbacks Joey Harrington (five starts) and Jeff Garcia (three starts).

- His blocking helped the Lions' ground game rush for four touchdowns against Baltimore (10/9), which are the most rushing touchdowns the Ravens have allowed in a game in franchise history. They also helped spring Shawn Bryson's career-long 77-yard touchdown run which was the longest run from scrimmage ever yielded by the Baltimore Ravens.

2004: Voted Eric Andolsek Top Offensive Lineman and Offensive Team Captain by his teammates.

- Started every game at right guard in his first season with the Lions.
- Led the way for rookie running back Kevin Jones, who vs. Arizona (12/5) and at Green Bay (12/12) became the first Lion in franchise history to record back-to-back 150-yard rushing games during his rookie season.
- Member of an offensive line that started the same five players in each of the first 13 games of the regular season.
- Member of an offensive line that allowed rookie running back Kevin Jones to become just the fifth player in franchise history to top 1,000 yards rushing in a single season.
- In Woody's first year, he pass-protected for QB Joey Harrington as Harrington set a career best with 19 touchdown passes.
- On December 5, Woody and the offensive line paved the way for Kevin Jones' 196-yard effort vs. Arizona. Jones' followed Woody and the offensive line to the second-highest single-game rushing total ever by a Lions rookie.

2003: Part of an offensive line that started the same five players in each of the last 12 regular season games, all Patriots victories. Missed the first game of his five-year professional career at Philadelphia (9/14).

- Opened holes for Patriots rushers to gain 161 yards on 27 carries (6.0 avg) and three touchdowns against Tennessee (10/5/03), the most productive rushing output for New England since it averaged 6.5 yards per carry (130 yards on 20 carries) against the New York Jets on December 27, 1998.
- Member of an offensive line that did not allow a sack on 35 pass attempts at Denver (11/3) in the Patriots thrilling 30-26 come-from-behind victory over the Broncos on Monday Night Football, and supplied Tom Brady with time in the pocket, allowing him to throw for 350 passing yards.
- Recovered a key fumble on the goal line at Indianapolis (11/30) after Joe Andruzzi caught a deflected Tom Brady pass and was stripped of the ball. Michael Cloud scored on a one-yard touchdown plunge on the next play to give the Patriots a 31-10 lead.
- Started in the divisional playoff game against Tennessee (1/10), a game in which the Patriots allowed no sacks in 41 pass attempts.
- Injured his knee against the Titans and was placed on injured reserve on January 17, 2004.

2002: Earned his first-career Pro Bowl selection, becoming the first Patriots offensive lineman selected since Bruce Armstrong in 1997.

- Part of offensive line that allowed only 31 sacks in 2002, the lowest total since 1997 (30).

- Member of a Patriots offensive line that did not allow a sack in four games in 2002, the first time the Patriots accomplished that feat since 1995.
- Part of an offensive line that allowed no sacks on 35 passing attempts and cleared the way for a season-high 163 yards rushing at the New York Jets (9/15).

2001: Selected to Dr. Z's All-Pro team in Sports Illustrated, as well as earning second-team All-Pro honors from Football Digest.

- Helped lead the offense to a season-high 432 yards of total offense against New Orleans (11/25), including 191 yards rushing on 38 carries (5.0 avg) and their third 100-yard rusher in four games (Antowain Smith's 111 yards).
- Powered the Patriots offense to a season-high 196 yards rushing on 44 carries (4.5 avg) against Miami (12/22) and their fourth 100-yard rusher of the season (Smith's 156 yards).
- Started at center and was part of an offensive line that led the way for a game-high 133 yards rushing on 25 attempts (5.3 avg) in the Patriots 20-17 victory over St. Louis (2/3) in Super Bowl XXXVI.

2000: Centered an offensive line that helped Patriot rushers eclipse the 100-yard rushing mark in six games.

- Cleared the way for the Patriots second-highest rushing performance of the season against Indianapolis (10/22), 155 yards, as they achieved season-highs in total rushes (24) and rushing first downs (11) and did not surrender a sack against the Colts.
- Blocked for rushing attack which amassed a season-high 189 rushing yards against Buffalo (12/17).

1999: Started every game and earned All-Rookie Team honors from Pro Football Weekly, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, Football News and Football Digest.

- The only rookie to start every game for the Patriots and only the fourth offensive lineman to start every game as a rookie since 1973.
- First center drafted in the first round (17th overall) since Cleveland selected Steve Everitt in the first round (14th overall) in 1992.
- Centered an offensive line that helped roll up 400 yards of offense in three games and allowed for over 100 rushing yards in six games, in which the Patriots were 4-2.
- Established a season-high with 451 yards of total offense in a 19-7 victory over Cleveland (10/3).
- Centered an offensive line against Dallas (12/5) which helped power the offense to over 100 yards on the ground for the fifth time of the year and sheltered quarterback Drew Bledsoe, allowing just one sack.
- Battled top-rated defense against Buffalo (12/26) and won the ground assault by compiling a season-high 158 yards rushing (4.6 avg).

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at Boston College (1996-98) and was responsible for making offensive line blocking calls during his career.

- Earned All-Big East Conference first-team honors in 1998 as a junior after starting every game at center and opened holes for running back Mike Cloud, who led the Big East and ranked third in the country with 1,787 yards rushing (156.9 ypg).
- Paved the way for Cloud's school record 10 100-yard games.
- Started all 11 games during his sophomore season and was voted All-Big East second team choice.

PERSONAL: Born Damien Michael Woody in Beaverdam, Va.

- Attended Patrick Henry High and earned all-state honors while leading school to 14-0 record and the 1994 Division 5 state championship.
- Captured all-metro, all-region, and all-district accolades as well as USA Today All-American honorable mention honors. Member of the Roanoke Times Top 25 and the Richmond Times-Dispatch Top 30.
- He and wife, Nicole, have three daughters: Kamille, Jalyann and Alexandra.

GRIDIRON HEROES...

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes—The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions." The sound of "Gridiron Heroes" has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular songs today, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

*(Verse) Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave,
Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game,
Dashing to victory as they go.*

*(Chorus) Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah, Rahl!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame
Down the field and gain, A Lion victory!*

2007 DRAFT CLASS

CALVIN JOHNSON

Wide Receiver
Georgia Tech
Ht: 6-5
Born: 9/25/85
Draft: '07, R1 (2)-Det

Rookie
Wt: 239
Hometown: Tyrone, Ga.

81

COLLEGE: One of most exciting players drafted in 2007, considered the premiere wide receiver, and brings and tremendous combination of size, speed and pass-catching ability to the pro level. Two-time All-America who claimed the 2006 Biletnikoff Award (nation's top receiver) and 2006 ACC Conference Player of the Year. He was named first team All-ACC three-straight years (2004-06), and was the first player in Georgia Tech history to earn that honor. He was also named ACC Rookie of the Year in 2004 and First-Team Freshman All-America. In 38 games, he set school records with 2,927 yards receiving and 28 touchdown receptions. Caught 178 passes to rank second in Georgia Tech history in career receptions. Also was third in the school's record book in career touchdowns and seventh in career scoring. In ACC annals, he is tied for fifth in career TD receptions, eighth in receiving yards and 12th in receptions. During his career, he was responsible for 42 percent of Georgia Tech's passing yards and 33 percent of the Yellow Jackets' pass completions, despite constant double teams. He also caught 28 of the Jackets' 55 touchdown passes during that time. Career average of 16.4 yards per catch, and had a school-record 13 100-yard games.

2006: Joined quarterback Joe Hamilton as the only Yellow Jacket to be named ACC Player of the Year, and was just the second junior (the other was Florida State's Charlie Ward in 1992) in the last 25 years to win the ACC Player of the Year award.

- Also joins Hamilton, the 1999 Davey O'Brien Award winner, as the only Tech players to win a national award.
- Tied for second in the nation with 15 touchdown catches, a Georgia Tech record, and only two players in ACC history have caught more (Clarkston Hines, Duke with 17 in 1989 and Torry Holt, NC State with 16 in 1997). Caught 15 of Tech's 25 touchdown passes.
- Had a school-record 1,202 yards receiving on 78 catches, the second-best season total in school history.
- Led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receptions per game (5.4) and receiving yards per game (85.9), and was named ACC Offensive Back of the Week three of the first five weeks of the season and four times overall.
- Attention he drew was a major contributor to the Yellow Jackets' running game that averaged 162 rushing per game (second in ACC).
- Finished 10th in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy.
- Had perhaps the best game of his remarkable career against West Virginia in the Toyota Gator Bowl with nine catches for a career-best 186 yards. Caught touchdown passes of 31 and 48 yards and set up a third score with a 35-yard catch at the three-yard line.
- Opened the season with seven catches for 111 yards against second-ranked Notre Dame, including a four-yard TD catch, and was named Co-ACC Offensive Back of the Week.
- Caught touchdown passes of five and 11 yards, then sat out the second half of Tech's victory over Samford.
- Had a sensational game in Thursday night win over Virginia, despite missing the entire week of practice with a leg injury. Had a then-career-best 165 yards receiving on five catches. Caught the two longest touchdown passes of his career at 58 yards and 66 yards on consecutive plays. Named ACC Offensive Back of the Week for the second time this season. Was also nominated for the Cingular All-America Player of the Week.
- Followed with another outstanding game to lead the Yellow Jackets to a 38-27 win at 10th-ranked Virginia Tech. Had six catches for 115 yards against the Hokies, with touchdown receptions of three and 53 yards on consecutive possessions in the first quarter. Named Cingular All-America Player of the Week and was selected ACC

Offensive Back of the Week for the second straight week and third time on the season. His 53-yard TD catch, on which he caught a short pass and outraced three defenders for the endzone and a 14-0 Tech lead. Was nominated for the Pontiac Game-Changing Performance of the Week.

- Added a career-best 10 receptions for 133 yards, including a 10-yard TD catch, in win over Maryland. His outing gave him a total of 22 catches for 413 yards and five touchdowns in a three-game span in which he led the Yellow Jackets to wins over Virginia, Virginia Tech and Maryland.
- His 1-yard touchdown catch against Miami was the go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter of Tech's crucial ACC win.
- Career-best 168 yards receiving on nine receptions in win at N.C. State, including two touchdowns. Caught touchdowns passes of 25 and 43 yards in the first quarter, then set up the clinching touchdown with a 33-yard reception down to the seven-yard line late in the game.
- Played just one half of win over Duke, but had two touchdown catches of 11 and 19 yards, one of which he set up himself with a 46-yard reception.
- Had eight catches for 117 yards, his sixth 100-yard game of the season, against Wake Forest in the ACC Championship game.

2005: First-team all-America by the American Football Coaches' Association (AFCA), the 48th first-team all-America in school history but first since offensive tackle Chris Brown in 2000. Also earned second-team all-America honors from Associated Press and Walter Camp, as well as first-team accolades from Rivals.com. The first Tech receiver to earn all-America recognition of any kind since Billy Martin in 1963.

- Unanimous first-team all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, earning all-ACC honors for the second straight year.
- Semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver.
- Led team with 54 catches for 888 yards and six touchdowns.
- Second in the ACC in receiving yards per game (74.0) and fifth in receptions (4.5).
- Opened the season with four catches for 66 yards in victory at 15th-ranked Auburn, highlighted by a 35-yard touchdown catch.
- Caught a 42-yard TD pass from backup QB Taylor Bennett on Georgia Tech's first play from scrimmage in win over Connecticut.
- Career-high 10 catches for 130 yards, including a 27-yard TD catch, against N.C. State.
- Had six catches for 89 yards to help Georgia Tech to a win at No. 3 Miami.
- Also caught touchdowns against fourth-ranked Virginia Tech, 13th-ranked Georgia and Wake Forest.

2004: Named first-team all-ACC, just the second true freshman in school history, and the 11th in league history, to earn first-team all-ACC honors. Becomes the sixth Tech player so honored.

- First-team Freshman All-America by The Sporting News and Rivals.com.
- The Jackets' leading receiver with 48 catches for 837 yards and seven touchdowns, all school freshman records.
- Among all-time ACC freshmen, ranks second in receiving yards (853, Koren Robinson, NC State, 1999) and third in receptions (58, Frank Wycheck, Maryland, 1990; 49, Derrick Hamilton, Clemson, 2001).
- Second in the ACC with seven touchdown catches; also second in receiving yards and third in receptions per game.
- Scored eight touchdowns on the season, also a Georgia Tech freshman record.
- Second in the nation among freshman receivers in yards per game despite playing in a run-oriented offense.

- Responsible for nearly one-third of team's pass completions and 40 percent of the Jackets' passing yards and had seven of Tech's 17 touchdown catches.
- Four-time ACC Rookie of the Week (Clemson, Duke, Connecticut, Virginia); no other freshman earned the award more than three times on the season.
- Caught three touchdown passes in Georgia Tech's comeback win at 18th-ranked Clemson. With Tech trailing the Tigers 24-14, Johnson hauled in two "jump balls," first from eight yards out with 1:50 left and then the game-winner from 11 yards out with just 11 seconds left. Also had a spectacular 37-yard TD catch in the first quarter. Finished with eight receptions for 127 yards against Clemson.
- Season-high 131 yards receiving on just six catches in Tech's win over Connecticut.
- Followed with five receptions for 108 yards against Virginia and was named ACC Rookie of the Week for the fourth time.
- Made two spectacular third-down catches on game-winning drive against N.C. State with a one-handed grab on third-and-four and then a leaping catch for 27 yards to give the Yellow Jackets first-and-goal at the four, then drew a pass interference penalty for another first down. His one-handed grab over the middle on a ball thrown well behind him was selected as the No. 1 Top Play of the Day on ESPN. The play was later tabbed as the No. 2 Top Play for the entire college football season.
- Added two TD receptions in win over Duke, catching a 20-yard scoring pass and a 13-yard TD pass from tailback P.J. Daniels.
- Put an exclamation point on his season with a standout game against Syracuse in the Champs Sports Bowl. Had just two catches, but both were spectacular—a diving, 10-yard catch in the end zone for Tech's first touchdown and then a 51-yard reception leaping over Syracuse safety down the sideline at the Orange 24-yard line. Six plays later, he scored on a five-yard reverse.

HIGH SCHOOL: One of Georgia Tech's most highly publicized signees in recent years. Rated among the nation's top 10 wide receivers and top 100 players by virtually every recruiting analyst.

- Tabbed the No. 4 wide receiver and No. 15 player in the nation by TheInsiders.com, and named to the Super Southern 100 by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, the Rivals 100 by Rivals.com, TheInsiders.com Hot 100, the SuperPrep All-America 275 and the Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team.
- First-team all-state selection (Class AAAA) by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, and was Tabbed to the AJC's preseason Super 11.
- Caught 40 passes for 736 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior.
- Added 34 receptions for 646 yards and 10 scores as a junior for two-year totals of 80 catches, 1,479 yards and 18 TDs.
- Coached by Rodney Walker at Sandy Creek High.

PERSONAL: Full name is Calvin Johnson and was born September 25, 1985.

- Parents are Calvin and Arica Johnson.
- Majored in Building Construction.

DREW STANTON

Quarterback

Michigan State

Ht: 6-3

Born: 5/7/84

Draft: '07, R2 (43)-Det

Rookie

Wt: 226

Hometown: Farmington Hills, Mich.

COLLEGE: An outstanding all-around athlete who combines accuracy as a passer with superb scrambling and running ability. In 45 games at Michigan State, Stanton appeared in 36 contests as a quarterback, starting 29 times. His pass completion percentage of 64.18 is a school career-record—only Chuck Long of Iowa (65.0%, 782 of 1,203 passes from 1981-85) has a better pass completion percentage in Big Ten Conference annals, and he boasts two of the school's three best season completion percentage marks (64.1% in 2004 and 66.7% in 2005). He ranks second in school history with 543 of 846 passes for 6,524 yards, fifth with 42 touchdowns and ninth with 28 interceptions. He carried 332 times for 1,512 yards (4.6 avg) and 15 scores. His 1,512 yards are the second-most ever by a Spartans quarterback. He saw action in 1,178 plays, ranking second in MSU annals with 8,036 yards in total offense. Gained 8,036 yards in total offense, ranking second on MSU all-time record list. Threw for at least 200 yards in 14 consecutive games (beginning with the 2004 season finale vs. Hawaii until the Eastern Michigan clash in 2006), setting a school record. His athletic ability was used as a freshman on special teams units, where he appeared in 13 games on cover units, garnering 13 tackles.

2006: An All-American and All-Big Ten Conference preseason selection, Stanton started the first 11 games for the Spartans, completing 164 of 269 throws for 1,807 yards and 12 touchdowns and ten interceptions.

- Finished second on the team with 445 yards and five scores on 110 carries.
- Also gained 2,252 yards in total offense on 799 plays.
- Suffered through an injury-plagued senior season that saw him sit out the season finale vs. Penn State.
- Still managed to become the first player in school history to complete over 60% of his passes in three consecutive seasons.

2005: Earned All-Big Ten Conference honorable mention from the league's media.

- Started every game, ranking eighth in the nation in total offense (310.5 ypg), 10th in passing efficiency (153.4), 11th in points responsible for (15.64 ppg) and 13th in passing yardage per game (279.73).
- 2005 semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award.
- Led a unit that ranked fifth nationally in total offense (497.27 ypg), 10th in third-down conversion percentage (69-of-146, 47%) and 11th in passing yardage (295.5 ypg).
- Became only the second player in school history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season.
- 236 pass completions rank second on the school's season-record list while his 354 pass attempts rank third. Only fourth MSU QB to complete 200 or more passes in a season, joining Jeff Smoker (2003), Jim Miller (1993) and Dave Yarema (1986).
- Pass completion percentage of 66.7 is surpassed only by Dave Yarema (67.3% in 1986) on MSU's season-record list and his 3,077 yards passing rank second in school annals behind Jeff Smoker's 3,395 in 2003.
- Threw 22 touchdown passes, setting a school season-record, but also registered twelve interceptions.
- Ranked fourth on the squad with 338 yards and four touchdowns on 121 carries (2.8 avg).
- Was responsible for five two-point conversions (three passing, two rushing).
- His 475 total plays rank second on the school's season-record list behind Smoker's 551 in 2003, and his 3,415 yards in total offense broke Smoker's old MSU record of 3,279 yards in 2003.
- A key to Stanton's throwing success in 2005 was his ability to utilize all of the weapons at his disposal in Michigan State's spread offense. Five Spartans had at least 27 receptions, and all five of those receivers had at least two touchdown grabs.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

- 131 of Stanton's 236 pass completions resulted in first downs, with 55 of those successful passes gaining 20 yards or more.
- Added 27 first downs rushing.

2004: Named Academic All-Big Ten Conference for the second year in a row. Honorable mention All-Big Ten selection by the coaches and media.

- Presented the Governor's Award as the team's Most Valuable Player.
- Played in 10 games, including seven starts at quarterback (vs. Indiana, Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, Penn State and Hawaii).
- Did not play in the season opener at Rutgers, plus sat out the second half of the Michigan game and the entire Ohio State game with a separated shoulder.
- Ranked among the Big Ten leaders in total offense (third at 228.8 yards per game), passing efficiency (third with 131.8 rating), rushing (eighth at 68.7 ypg.) and passing (10th at 160.1 ypg.).
- Completed 141 of 220 passes (64.1%) for 1,601 yards, eight touchdowns and six interceptions.
- Only Dave Yarema (67.3% in 1986) had a better pass completion percentage in a season than Drew's 64.15.
- Ranked third on the team in rushing with 687 yards on 96 carries (7.2 avg) and five scores.
- His 687 yards represent the second-best season rushing total by a quarterback in Spartan history and he posted the third-highest rushing average in school history, topped only by DeAndre Cobb (7.58 avg in 2004) and Lynn Chandnois (7.48 avg in 1948), averaging 7.2 yards per carry.
- Excellent scrambling ability gave opposing defenses fits, as Stanton was sacked only four times for losses of 15 yards and had three fumbles, with the opposition recovering one of those miscues.

2003: Academic All-Big Ten Conference choice. Appeared in 13 games on special teams, but only saw limited action at quarterback against Rutgers, Indiana, Wisconsin and Penn State game.

- Completed 2-of-3 passes for 39 yards and carried five times for 42 yards (8.4 avg), including a 13-yard touchdown that capped a 10-play, 96-yard drive in the Wisconsin clash.
- Also completed 1-of-2 passes for 8 yards vs. Wisconsin and threw a 31-yard screen pass to DeAndre Cobb vs. Indiana.

Hometown: Oahu, Hawaii

COLLEGE: Ikaika (ee-KY-kah) Alama (ah-LA-mah)-Francis was tabbed "the most talented defensive lineman I've ever coached," by former Hawaii defensive coordinator and former NFL head coach Jerry Glanville. Brings size, speed off the corner and athleticism to the defensive end position. In 41 games at Hawaii, Alama-Francis started 26 games, and recorded 112 tackles (62 solos) with 10 sacks (59 yds) and 21.5 stops for losses (96 yds). He was credited with 24 quarterback pressures and two blocked kicks while also deflecting four passes. Added six fumble recoveries and four caused fumbles to his career totals. Alama-Francis first began his athletic career at Hawaii as a walk-on for the school's basketball program, playing hoops for the 2002-03 season. He was noticed by the Rainbow Warriors Head Football Coach June Jones and was asked to join the football program due to the tremendous combination of size and athleticism. While in high school, Alama-Francis was an all-state selection in basketball and volleyball and helped lead his high school to a state basketball championship as a junior. His prior football experience was when he played Pop Warner football as a youth. Alama-Francis' father, Joseph, was a backup to Packers' legendary quarterback Bart Starr and played for Vince Lombardi.

2006: All-WAC first-team honors from the league's coaches and media, and was named to Super Sleeper Team and All-WAC first-team selection by The NFL Draft Report.

- Started 13 games at right defensive end, sitting out the Idaho game due to injury.
- Finished sixth on the team with 39 tackles (21 solos) and registered five sacks (34 yds). Led the squad with 16 quarterback pressures and ranked second with 11 stops for losses (57 yds).
- Paced the Warriors and WAC with four fumble recoveries and caused two others. Also deflected a pair of passes.
- Opened the season at Alabama with season-high six solo tackles and produced two quarterback pressures.
- Recovered three total fumbles against Fresno State and delivered three assisted tackles, two of which were for losses (10 yds).
- Collected five tackles (3 solos) against Utah State, with an 8-yard sack and two stops for losses (-10 yds).
- Posted three solo tackles, had an 11-yard sack and a quarterback pressure, and delivered two stops behind the line of scrimmage vs. Louisiana Tech.
- Closed out his career with three solo tackles and a pair of pressures against Arizona State in Hawaii Bowl, and recovered a fumble. With 2:01 remaining in the game, Alama-Francis sealed a 41-24 win when he sacked ASU QB for a 1-yard loss at the ASU 9-yard line.

2005: Started all 12 games at right defensive end and earned All-WAC second team honors.

- Led defensive linemen with 49 tackles (24 solos) as he finished second on the team with five sacks (25 yds) and 7.5 stops for losses (31 yds).
- Led the defense with seven quarterback pressures, caused two fumbles and recovered another. Also blocked one kick and deflected two passes.
- Made three solo tackles vs. USC and caused a fumble when he sacked QB Matt Leinart for a 4-yard loss.
- Added career-high seven tackles (2 solos), including a 6-yard sack of QB Drew Stanton at Michigan State.
- Against Boise State, posted five tackles (2 solos) and a stop behind the line of scrimmage.
- Registered six tackles against Louisiana Tech with a pass deflection and 1.5 stops for losses, including a 7-yard sack.
- Against Fresno State, had three tackles and two pressures, and caused and recovered fumble after sack for a 5-yard loss.
- Two tackles, blocked PAT and one sack (3 yds) vs. Utah State.

- Finished with five tackles (3 solo) and a 4-yard tackle for loss against RB Brian Calhoun in the Rainbow Warriors' game against Wisconsin.

- Has six tackles (2 solo) in season finale against San Diego State.

2004: Played in 10 games as a reserve left defensive end. Recorded 22 tackles (15 solos) with two stops for losses of 6 yards, and had one pressure and a blocked kick.

- Posted four tackles (3 solos) vs. Nevada.
- In first career start vs. Boise State, he had six tackles (4 solos), including one behind the line of scrimmage.
- Had three tackles and a stop for a loss vs. Michigan State.
- Blocked PAT and delivered two assisted tackles with a pressure vs. Northwestern.

2003: Was asked to tryout for Hawaii's football team by Head Coach June Jones after playing the 2002-03 season for the Rainbow Warrior basketball program.

- On the gridiron, he saw limited action in six games as a reserve defensive end and recorded two solo tackles.
- Had a stop for a 2-yard loss vs. Fresno State and recovered a fumble in the Texas-El Paso contest.
- As a member of the basketball team in 2002-03, he appeared in nine games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Kalaheo High School in Kailua, Oahu, Hawaii where he lettered in basketball, volleyball and baseball.

- Did not play football in high school.
- Member of the state championship basketball team as a junior.
- First-team all-state selection in volleyball and basketball.
- Two-time league player of the year in volleyball and basketball.
- Four-time all-league performer in basketball.

PERSONAL: Son of Rolanda Alama-Francis and Joseph Francis. Father was a reserve quarterback for the Green Bay Packers, playing behind Bart Starr in the late 1950s and early 1960s during the Vince Lombardi era.

- Father later served as the long-time head football coach at Pearl City High School in Hawaii.
- Physical Education major.
- Born December 4, 1984.

Hometown: Houston, Texas

COLLEGE: One of the most physical linemen in Texas Tech history and arguably one of the most talented. Was one of the top offensive linemen in the Big 12. The four-year starter's upper-body strength is off the charts, and was considered one of the strongest college offensive linemen. Tremendous strength and explosiveness off the line. He twice set the school bench press record, leaving the school with a 550-pound press in 2005, after first establishing the record with a 525-pound lift in 2004. Part of the most explosive aerial attacks in the nation during his four years at Texas Tech, as the Red Raiders led the nation during that span with 19,947 yards passing, an average of 398.94 yards per game. He was known at Texas Tech for his intelligence and leadership on the field as he called all the blocking schemes the last two years and served as the line's mentor for the younger players—blocking unit reduced the team's total of sacks allowed from 36 in 2005 to 19 in 2006.

2006: Started all but one game; missed Iowa State game with injury. All-Big 12 Conference first-team pick by The NFL Draft Report and the Austin American Statesman, and added second-team accolades from the Dallas Morning News and honorable mention from the league's coaches.

- Captained offensive line that allowed only 19 sacks, which was 17 better than the 36 allowed in 2005.

- Line yielded a sack once in every 35.4 pass attempts, which was the nation's best.
- Offense was in Top-10 in passing, scoring and total offense.
- Was graded 85.3% for blocking consistency and registered 88 knockdowns/key blocks with 13 TD-resulting blocks and 10 more blocks down field. Was penalized only four times and allowed only two quarterback sacks on 656 pass plays.
- Red Raiders finished sixth nationally with 448.8 yards in total offense and finished 13th with 32.46 points scored per game.

2005: Second-team All-Big 12 selection by the league's coaches.

- Set a school lifting record with a 550-pound bench press during spring training, topping his own mark of 525 pounds set in 2004.
- Provided stellar pass protection, as Texas Tech led the nation with 388.83 yards passing per game and ranked sixth nationally with an average of 495.83 yards in total offense. The offense averaged 39.42 points per game, the fourth-best total in the NCAA D-I ranks.
- Offensive unit tied nation in passing for the fourth-straight season.
- Also showed his drive blocking ability, as the team scored 25 times on the ground, the most by a Tech unit since the 1996 season.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

2004: Offensive guard who appeared in all 12 games and has started since his true freshman season in 2003.

- Anchored offensive line that protected first-year starting quarterback Sonny Cumble, who led nation in passing and total offense.
- Team led nation in passing (399.67 yds/g) and also finished sixth nationally with 491.67 yds/g in total offense and eighth in scoring with an average of 36.17 points per game.
- Bench a team-record 525 pounds at the "Night of Champions" in the Spring of 2004.

2003: Integral component of nation's top-ranked pass offense. Sacks allowed by the offensive line dropped from 46 in 2002 to 25 in 2003.

- Moved into starting lineup at right guard in team's game of the season vs. Mississippi and would remain there for the final nine contests.
- The offense was dominant throughout the year, leading the nation with 582.77 yards per game in total offense and 475.31 yards per game in passing. The Red Raiders also ranked fourth nationally with an average of 42.46 points scored per game.

2002: Redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Willowridge High School in Houston, Texas, and played for high school coach David Scurluck.

- Rated as the No. 95 prospect in the state by Superprep recruiting magazine and was named to Lubbock Avalanche-Journal Top 100 and Fort Worth Star-Telegram Top 100.

- First-Team All-District 20-5A selection as a junior and senior
- Sixth-best center in country (Rivals100.com).

PERSONAL: Born Manuel Ramirez February 19, 1983 in Houston, Texas.

- Son of Rosalinda and Manuel Ramirez. Has two siblings, Angel and Rosalinda.
- Majored in exercise sport science.
- Married to wife, Iris.

 North Carolina State Rookie
 Ht: 6-4 Wt: 224
 Born: 9/5/83 Fayetteville, Ga.
 Draft: '07, FA-Det

COLLEGE: Proved one of nation's most versatile kickers during his career at N.C. State. In 2006, was just one of eight kickers in country to handle all of team's kicking duties (field goals, kickoffs and punting).

- Played in 47 career games and handled all kicking responsibilities his last three seasons in the Wolf Pack program. Has school record with 76 consecutive PATs made.
- Heading into final season, he was the only player in the country in the Lou Groza (nation's best kicker) and Ray Guy Award (nation's best punter) preseason watch lists.
- Overall, he recorded a 40.2 punting average (208-8,366), including 61 punts downed inside the 20-yard line. On field goals he was 40-of-58 (69.0%) and was 84-of-85 on PATs.
- As a senior, he punted 76 times, which tied a school single-season, for a 39.1 average. His 2,968 punting yards set a single-season school record. Hit 12-of-16 field goals and 22-of-23 PATs.
- Both 72 punts and 2,884 yards (40.1 avg) in 2005 ranked third-highest in school history. Added 15-of-20 FGs and 28-of-28 PATs.
- As one of only 10 kickers in nation to handle all kicking roles in 2004, he recorded 60 punts (41.9 avg), nailed all 29 PATs and was 13-of-22 on field goals. Named team's Most Valuable Specialist.
- As redshirt freshman in 2003, handled kickoffs with 40 of 75 kickoffs resulting in touchbacks. Hit 5-of-5 PATs. Redshirted in 2002.

HIGH SCHOOL AND PERSONAL: Kicked for Fayette County High School in Fayetteville, Ga., and he was 21-for-21 on PATs and made six field goals (long of 48) as a senior.

- 80 percent of kickoffs resulted in touchbacks.
- Technology education major.
- Born September 5, 1983.

SUMMARY

In Head Coach Rod Marinelli's regular season debut, the Detroit Lions fell to the Seattle Seahawks in a low scoring, 6-9 contest at Ford Field. In the game's first offensive series Seattle, led by QB Matt Hasselbeck, moved the ball to the Detroit 23-yard line. The drive was highlighted by two consecutive passes for 43 yards, including a long of 36 yards to WR Nate Burleson to put the Seahawks in field goal range. However, the Detroit defense took an early stand as K Josh Brown's 41-yard field goal attempt was blocked by DT Shaun Rogers and recovered by LB LeVar Woods, giving Detroit possession on their own 27-yard line. On the ensuing drive the Lions marched down the field to the Seattle 26-yard line highlighted by QB Jon Kitna connecting with WR Corey Bradford for a long of 21 yards. K Jason Hanson capped the 9-play, 47-yard drive with a 44-yard field goal giving Detroit the 3-0 lead. In the final drive of the first quarter Hasselbeck completed 5-of-5 passes for 34 yards to bring the Seahawks to the Detroit 35-yard line setting up a second 53-yard Brown field goal attempt early in the second quarter, however, Lions DT James Hall denied Seattle with their second blocked field goal of the game. Unfortunately, on the Lions following drive RB Kevin Jones fumbled the ball and DE Bryce Fisher came up with the Seattle recovery at the Detroit 47-yard line. The Seahawks responded with a promising drive that stalled at the Detroit 2-yard line after the Lions defense held Seattle on third-and-goal and forced a Brown 20-yard field goal, tying the game 3-3. On the final drive of the second quarter, the Seahawks scored again with a Brown 51-yard field goal, giving Seattle the 6-3 lead as both teams left the field at the half. After a scoreless third quarter, the Lions opened the fourth quarter with a Kitna completion to TE Dan Campbell for 30 yards to the Seattle 34-yard line to help set up a Hanson 52-yard field goal, however, the kick was no good. On the following Detroit drive Kitna lead Detroit to Seattle's 19-yard line while completing 4-of-6 passes for 54 yards to set up a Hanson 37-yard field goal, tying the game 6-6. On the final drive of the game the Seahawks marched to the Detroit 24-yard line just after the two-minute warning to give Seattle a Brown 42-yard field goal and the 9-6 victory as time expired.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions fell in their first road game of the season to their NFC North division rival Chicago Bears at Soldier Field, 34-7. In the Lions' first offensive series, Bears DT Tank Johnson set the tone with a QB Jon Kitna sack and forced fumble and LB Brian Urlacher came up with the recovery, giving Chicago prime position on the Detroit 3-yard line. Chicago quickly capitalized on the turnover with a QB Rick Grossman 3-yard touchdown strike to TE Jon Gilmore for a 7-0 lead. On the ensuing drive, Lions RB Kevin Jones had a 29-yard rush, putting the Lions on the Chicago 41-yard line, however, Jones fumbled the ball and Bears DE Alex Brown recovered the ball at the Chicago 40-yard line. The Bears capitalized on the turnover with Grossman completing 3-of-5 passes for 34 yards to help set up a K Robbie Gould 32-yard field goal and increase the Chicago lead to 10-0. Detroit responded with a promising march down the field with Kitna completing 5-of-5 passes for 50 yards, however, several penalties stalled the Lions on their own 30-yard line and they were forced to punt. The Bears struck again within the first minute of the second quarter with a Grossman 41-yard touchdown completion to WR Bernard Berrian putting the Bears ahead 17-0. The Lions marched down the field on the following drive to the Chicago 22-yard line to set up a K Jason Hanson 40-yard field goal. However, Hanson's kick was wide right, and the Lions remained scoreless. On the following Chicago possession Grossman completed 4-of-5 passes for 63 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown completion to TE Desmond Clark ending the first half with the 24-0 lead. The Lions opened the third quarter led by Kitna who completed 6-of-7 passes for 83 yards and WR Roy Williams who caught three passes for 37 yards. Kitna capped off the 10-play, 86-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run, giving Detroit their first points of the game. On the Bears final possession of the third quarter the Lions defense responded with a Grossman 28-yard touchdown interception by LB Boss Bailey. However, due to a penalty on the defense the touchdown was nullified and Grossman led his team into the end zone again with a 5-yard touchdown completion to Gilmore. Chicago was able to put the final points of the game on the board in the fourth quarter as Gould connected on a 45-yard field goal ensuring Chicago the 34-7 victory.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions were defeated by the Green Bay Packers at Ford Field, 31-24. The Packers opened up the scoring when QB Brett Favre completed a 75-yard touchdown strike to WR Greg Jennings to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead. Detroit responded on their following possession with RB Kevin Jones rushing three times consecutively for 23 yards to help set up a QB Jon Kitna 37-yard touchdown pass to WR Shawn Bryson tying the game 7-7. After a Green Bay three-and-out, a Kitna pass that was intended for WR Corey Bradford, who appeared to be interfered with on the play, bounced off the receiver into the hands of CB Marquand Manuel who capitalized by returning the interception 29 yards for a touchdown to give Green Bay a seven point advantage, 14-7. On the following drive the Lions produced an offensive spark as Kitna orchestrated a 4-play, 76-yard drive completing two passes for 67 yards including a 42-yard touchdown pass to WR Roy Williams notching the game at 14-14. The Packers opened up the second quarter with a march down field to the Detroit 6-yard line, where they capped the 13-play drive with a K David Rayner 24-yard field goal. At the end of the second quarter the Packers drove down to the Detroit 9-yard line, however, the Lions defense made a play with a forced fumble by S Terrence Holt and a recovery by LB Paris Lenon giving the Lions possession on their own 3-yard line as the first half came to an end. The third quarter saw back-to-back touchdowns as Green Bay entered the red zone first en route to a Favre 5-yard touchdown strike to WR Donald Driver for a 24-14 lead. Detroit quickly responded as the offense marched down to the Green Bay 5-yard line. Kitna connected with Williams on two passes for 36 yards on the drive and Jones capped the 7-play, 58-yard drive with a 5-yard touchdown run. Green began the fourth quarter with an early score as Favre was 2-of-2 passing for 42 yards including a 10-yard touchdown pass to RB Ahman Green to increase their lead to 31-21. Detroit scored their final points of the game when Kitna completed 3-of-3 passes for 54 yards, including a long of 25 yards to WR Mike Furrey to set up a K Jason Hanson 40-yard field goal with 5:24 remaining. Despite recovering a fumble at the Green Bay 32-yard line, Detroit couldn't muster anymore points and the Packers prevailed, 31-24.

SUMMARY

In a hard-fought offensive battle, the Detroit Lions fell to the St. Louis Rams 41-34. On the game's first offensive drive Rams QB Mark Bulger connected with WR Isaac Bruce for a 33-yard reception to set up a K Jeff Wilkins 42-yard FG. After a Lions fumble (QB Jon Kitna), the Rams capitalized a Wilkins 19-yard FG for a 6-0 lead. On the following drive, the Lions K Jason Hanson capped off the drive with a 29-yard field goal that was set up by two consecutive receptions (43 yards) by WR Roy Williams. Two drives later a Kitna pass was intercepted by FS Oshiomogho Atogwe giving St. Louis possession on the Detroit 30-yard line. The Rams quickly used the turnover to their advantage as Bulger hit TE Joe Klopfenstein with a 16-yard TD pass for a 13-3 lead. Detroit lit up in the second quarter as they marched down the field to the St. Louis 1-yard line and Kitna connected with WR Mike Furrey to cap off the 82-yard drive. Shortly after, the Lions moved down the field for another score as Kitna was 8-of-8 passing for 73 yards, and he connected with Furrey for a 10-yard TD giving Detroit a 17-13 lead. St. Louis responded on the following drive with a Wilkins 46-yard FG trailing Detroit by one point at the half. St. Louis opened up the scoring in the third quarter as Bulger threw a 16-yard TD pass to WR Tony Holt. The Lions responded on the following drive as WR Eddie Drummond returned the ensuing kickoff 65 yards to help set up a Hanson 20-yard FG. Two drives later the Lions scored when Jones rushed for a 35-yard TD that gave Detroit a 27-23 lead. The Rams acted quickly on their following possession as Steven Jackson capped off the 7-play, 80-yard drive with a 1-yard TD run. Jones capped a Lions drive with a 7-yard TD run for a Lions 34-30 lead. The Rams responded as Wilkins hit a 47-yard FG. The Rams scored shortly after the two-minute warning as Bulger connected with Bruce for a 5-yard TD and the two-point try. The Lions attempted to score on their next drive, however, a Kitna pass intended for Furrey was intercepted by S Jerome Carter giving the Rams possession on the Detroit 37-yard line with 1:49 remaining in the quarter. The Rams tried to capitalize on a Kitna interception with 1:49 remaining, but Wilkins' 47-yard FG attempt was no good. The Lions took the ball with 0:47 seconds remaining in the game, however, were unable to score.

SUMMARY

After a promising start, the Detroit Lions ultimately fell short to their division rivals, the Minnesota Vikings at the Metrodome, 26-17. The Vikings opened up the scoring in the first quarter led by QB Brad Johnson who was 4-of-5 passing for 37 yards and RB Chester Taylor who rushed four times with a long of 28 yards to set up a K Ryan Longwell 26-yard field goal, giving Minnesota the initial 3-0 lead. In the second quarter the Vikings were continuing to build momentum on offense, however, the Lions made a defensive stand as a pass intended for WR Travis Taylor was intercepted by CB Lamar Fletcher on the Detroit 43-yard line. The Lions responded on the turnover with an 8-yard Kiltna touchdown run and their first lead of the game, 7-3. Shortly after the two-minute warning Detroit scored again after a Kiltna 21-yard pass completion to RB Kevin Jones helped set up a K Jason Hanson 53-yard field goal giving the Lions the 10-3 lead at the close of the second quarter. After back-to-back three-and-outs at the start of the second half, the Vikings were shut out for a second time by the Lions defense, as they forced their second turnover of the game. CB Dre Bly forced a T. Taylor fumble and DE Kalimba Edwards came up with the recovery giving Detroit possession on their own 44-yard line. The Lions capitalized on the turnover as Kiltna capped the 4-play, 56-yard drive with a 12-yard touchdown completion to TE Dan Campbell, giving the Lions the solid 17-3 lead. The Vikings responded on the following drive as they marched into the fourth quarter to the Lions 1-yard line. On third-and-goal, Johnson hit T. Taylor with a 3-yard touchdown strike, shortening the Lions lead, 17-10. On the ensuing kickoff, WR Eddie Drummond lit up with a 99-yard kick-return for a touchdown. However, due to a penalty on the kick return team, the touchdown was nullified. Two plays later, the Vikings defense made a big play as DT Pat Williams caused a Kiltna sack fumble on the Detroit 5-yard line with LB Ben Leber coming up with the recovery and a touchdown. The Lions held onto the lead though as DE Jared DeVries blocked the extra point, leaving Minnesota a point shy of the tie, 17-16. Minnesota's offense scored on their next possession, a Longwell 20-yard field goal, to regain the lead 19-17. With 3:00 remaining and two timeouts, the Lions offense moved the ball to midfield but on fourth down, a Kiltna pass intended for Jones was intercepted by LB E. J. Henderson who ran the ball back 45 yards for a touchdown allowing Minnesota the 26-17 lead. The Lions were given a final chance to score, however, Kiltna was intercepted again with 0:29 seconds remaining to preserve a 26-17 Minnesota victory.

SUMMARY

In a close scoring match-up, the Detroit Lions prevailed over the Buffalo Bills in their first victory of the season at Ford Field, 20-17. After the Lions opened up with a promising drive highlighted by a RB Kevin Jones 52-yard rush and a QB Jon Kiltna pass completion to WR Roy Williams for 20 yards the Lions were stalled on their own 1-yard line. However, after a three-and-out from the Bills the Lions re-gained control and drove down to the Buffalo 25-yard line to set up a K Jason Hanson 43-yard field goal, giving Detroit the first points of the game, 3-0. On the next Detroit possession the Lions were able to move the ball into the end zone as they started the 3 play, 24-yard drive from the Buffalo 24-yard line. Jones capped the drive with a 7-yard touchdown run giving Detroit the 10-0 lead. The Bills took the field on the next drive, however, the Lions defense ended their possession early as S Terrence Holt intercepted QB J.P. Losman at the Buffalo 37-yard line for a gain of 7 yards. As the game moved into the second quarter the Bills were quick to score as Losman completed a 44-yard touchdown strike to WR Roscoe Parrish capping the 4-play, 54-yard drive and giving Buffalo their first points of the game, 10-7. Both teams saw back-to-back scoring at the end of the second quarter as the Lions took the ball into the two-minute warning. Kiltna was 7-of-7 passing for 78 yards, highlighted by a 28-yard touchdown pass to Williams to increase the lead, 17-10. Buffalo responded on the next drive as K Rian Lindell connected on a 53-yard field goal to close the first half. In the third quarter the Lions defense made another big play as DE James Hall forced a sack fumble on Losman and DT Shaun Rogers came up with the recovery, giving Detroit possession on their own 30-yard line. The Lions capitalized on the turnover with a Hanson 29-yard field goal at the start of the fourth quarter and the 20-10 Detroit lead. The Bills offense took control on the ensuing drive as Losman completed 7-of-7 passes for 72 yards and capped the 9-play, 74-yard drive with a 4-yard touchdown completion to WR Ryan Neufeld shortening the Lions lead, 20-17. The Lions skillfully utilized their final possession in the remaining four minutes of the fourth quarter taking time off the clock to leave Buffalo with 0:09 seconds remaining in the game. Buffalo attempted to move the ball into the end zone as time ran out, however, WR Peersless Price fumbled a Losman lateral pass on the Buffalo 31-yard line and recovered by S Kalimba Edwards ensuring the Lions the 20-17 victory.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions fell to the New York Jets, 31-24 at the Meadowlands. The Jets opened up the scoring in the first quarter as QB Chad Pennington connected with WR Jericho Cotchery for 43 yards and RB Leon Washington rushed twice for 28 yards, including a 5-yard touchdown run giving New York the 7-0 lead. The Jets scored again on their next possession as Pennington connected deep on a 44-yard completion to WR Justin McCareins giving New York their second touchdown of the first quarter and the 14-0 lead. The Lions found their offensive spark and gained momentum early in the second quarter highlighted by a 24-yard rush from RB Kevin Jones and QB Jon Kitna connecting on 3-of-4 passes for 57 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown strike to WR Roy Williams putting the Lions on the board, 14-7. New York responded on the ensuing drive as RB Kevan Barlow made a 3-yard rush into the end zone extending the Jets lead to 21-7 as both teams left the field at the half. The Lions saw the only score of the third quarter as Kitna connected with Jones for a long 26 yards and RB Brian Calhoun for 18 yards to help set up a K. Jason Hanson 25-yard field goal and the 21-10 score. The Jets matched the Lions in the beginning of the fourth quarter as K Mike Nugent connected on a 33-yard field goal putting New York up 24-10. The Lions' offense lit up on the following drive as Kitna connected with WR Mike Furrey four times for 57 yards to help set up Jones who capped the 12-play, 79-yard drive with a 9-yard touchdown reception making the score 17-24. New York quickly responded on the following drive as Washington rushed for 16 yards for a Jets touchdown and the 31-17 lead. The Lions continued on their offensive march on the following drive as Kitna connected with Furrey on third-and-8 for an 18-yard touchdown, shortening the Jets lead by a touchdown. However, despite an offensive comeback, the Lions were unable to out score New York and the Jets made out with the 31-24 home field victory.

SUMMARY

With the return of several key players, the Detroit Lions were victorious in an exciting match-up vs. the Atlanta Falcons at Ford Field, 30-14. The Lions were the first to score as QB Jon Kitna connected on 3-of-5 passes for 58 yards, highlighted by a long 26 yards to WR Mike Furrey. The Lions drove to the Atlanta 10-yard line and settled for a K Jason Hanson 28-yard field goal giving Detroit the 3-0 lead. On the ensuing drive the Lions' defense took control as Falcons QB Michael Vick fumbled the ball and LB Ernie Sims came up with the recovery on the Atlanta 44-yard line. The Lions' offense capitalized on the turnover as RB Kevin Jones lit up the field rushing for 35 yards into the end zone putting Detroit up 10-0. The Falcons responded on the following drive as Vick connected with TE Alge Crumpler for a 19-yard touchdown completion handing Atlanta their first score of the game. In the second quarter the Lions' defense set up prime field position for their offense as a Vick pass intended for TE Dwayne Blakley was intercepted by CB Dre Bly giving the Lions possession on the Atlanta 2-yard line. Jones capped the drive with a 2-yard touchdown rush extending the Detroit lead, 17-7. The Falcons scored again shortly after entering the two-minute warning as Vick made a 33-yard rush to the Detroit 4-yard line to help set up a RB Warren Dunn 1-yard touchdown rush, shortening the score to 17-14 at the close of the first half. The Lions had the first and only scoring drive of the third quarter as Kitna connected for 56 yards, highlighted by a long 21 yards to Furrey on third-and-18 which ultimately led to a Hanson 19-yard field goal and the 20-14 lead. On the Lions' first possession of the fourth quarter Kitna orchestrated a 2-play, 65-yard drive including a 60-yard touchdown strike to WR Roy Williams handing Detroit a solid 27-14 lead. The Lions skillfully wound down the clock on their final drive of the quarter moving down the field for a Hanson 36-yard field goal leaving 2:58 remaining on the clock. The Falcons drove to the Detroit 10-yard line on their final possession, however, the Lions' defense made one final statement as a Vick pass intended for Blakley was intercepted in the end zone by S Kenoy Kennedy sealing the Lions' 30-14 victory.

SUMMARY

Despite a late game comeback, the Detroit Lions were defeated by the San Francisco 49ers at Ford Field, 19-13. In the game's opening drive, 49ers RB Frank Gore set the tone as he broke through the defense for a 61-yard touchdown rush, giving San Francisco the early 7-0 lead. After back-to-back punts, the Lions' took to the field, however, their offense was stalled as RB Kevin Jones fumbled the ball on the Detroit 24-yard line and 49ers S Keith Lewis came up with the recovery. San Francisco capitalized on the turnover as K Joe Nedney connected on a 28-yard field goal putting the 49ers up, 10-0. At the start of the second quarter San Francisco scored again as QB Alex Smith threw for a long of 23 yards to WR Antonio Bryant and Gore rushed four times for 34 yards to help set up a Nedney 23-yard field goal. The Lions put their first points on the board shortly after the two-minute warning as QB Jon Kilna orchestrated a 13-play, 68 yard drive and connected on 7-of-9 passes for 64 yards to set up a K Jason Hanson field goal, ending the first half trailing the 49ers, 13-3. The start of the third quarter saw another score for San Francisco as their defense set up field position with a Kilna sack and forced fumble from CB Shaunte Spencer on the Detroit 26-yard line. The 49ers capitalized with a Nedney 23-yard field goal and the 16-3 lead. On the ensuing drive WR Roy Williams completed a 22-yard reception from Kilna, however, LB Derek Smith forced a Williams' fumble and LB Manny Lawson came up with the recovery. The Lions' defense took a stand on the following drive as DE Cory Redding forced a Smith fumble and S Jon McGraw came up with the recovery on the San Francisco 48-yard line. The Lions found their offensive spark on the following drive as Kilna connected on 5-of-7 passes for 47 yards, including an 8-yard touchdown pass to TE Dan Campbell putting the Lions in the game with the 16-10 score. San Francisco responded at the start of the fourth quarter as Nedney connected on a 47-yard field goal, extending their lead, 19-10. The Lions' marched down the field on the ensuing drive as Kilna connected with Campbell for a long of 24 yards to help set up a Hanson 33-yard field goal and the 19-13 score. The Lions' had one last chance to get into the end zone as they started their final possession with 4:22 remaining in the quarter, however, the Lions' offense was ultimately stalled. Kilna completed on a long of 23 yards to Jones, to get to the 49ers 19-yard line, however a pass intended for WR Mike Furrey was intercepted at the San Francisco 2-yard line by Lewis, securing the 49ers 19-13 victory as time expired.

SUMMARY

In a heart breaking loss, the Detroit Lions fell to the Arizona Cardinals at the University of Phoenix Stadium, 17-10. The Detroit special teams unit started out the game strong with a blocked P Scott Player punt by TE Casey FitzSimmons setting up prime field possession on the Arizona 15-yard line. However, a QB Jon Kilna pass intended for RB Kevin Jones was intercepted by S Aaron Francisco. On the ensuing punt the special teams made another big play as PR Eddie Drummond received the ball and handed off to CB Dre Bly who completed a 36-yard return putting the Lions on their own 48-yard line. Unfortunately the offense couldn't convert and had to punt. The Cardinals opened up the game's scoring in the second quarter as QB Matt Leinart connected on 6-of-7 passes for 53 yards including a 2-yard touchdown completion to WR Bryant Johnson and RB Edgerrin James rushed six times for 37 yards to put Arizona on the board, 7-0. The Cardinals scored again as they marched down the field to set up a K Neil Rackers 36-yard field goal, giving Arizona the 10-0 lead at the end of the first half. At the start of the third quarter the Cardinals saw another score as Leinart completed 3-of-3 passes for 73 yards and made a 9-yard scramble into the end zone giving Arizona the solid 17-0 lead. The Lions finally put points on the board at the end of the third quarter as Kilna connected on 7-of-8 passes for 59 yards including a long of 20 yards with WR Roy Williams and two of the Lions' rushers helped move down the field as RB Arlen Harris rushed twice for 27 yards and RB Avelon Cason rushed twice for 24 yards setting up a K Jason Hanson 32-yard field goal and the 17-3 score. The Lions attempted a fourth quarter comeback with 9:46 remaining in the game as Kilna completed a long of 23 yards with WR Corey Bradford and Harris ran the ball in for a 1-yard touchdown, putting the Lions down by a touchdown at 17-10. However, it was not enough for the win as the Cardinals took a knee shortly after the two-minute warning sealing their 17-10 victory.

SUMMARY

In their 67th Thanksgiving Day Game, the Detroit Lions fell to the Miami Dolphins at Ford Field, 27-10. The Lions opened up the scoring on a 58-yard drive, including a QB Jon Kitna 41-yard pass completion to WR Roy Williams that ultimately led to a 2-yard touchdown completion from Kitna to TE Dan Campbell giving Detroit the 7-0 lead at the start of the first quarter. The Lions saw the second score of the game two drives later as K Jason Hanson connected on a 52-yard field goal, putting Detroit up 10-0. Miami responded on the following drive as QB Joey Harrington connected with WR Marty Booker on a long 42 yards to help set up a Harrington 8-yard touchdown completion to Booker putting Miami on the board, 10-7. The Dolphins scored again shortly after the two-minute warning of the second quarter as Harrington threw for a 5-yard touchdown pass to TE Randy McMichael giving Miami the 14-10 lead as both teams left the field at the half. The Dolphins opened up the scoring at the start of the third quarter as WR Wes Welker set up field position with a 45-yard kick return and RB Ronnie Brown rushed four times for 22 yards to help set up a K Olindo Mare 42-yard field goal as Miami moved their lead to 17-10. On their next possession Harrington yielded the offense into the end zone connecting on 5-of-8 passes for 56 yards including a 19-yard touchdown completion to Booker giving Miami the solid 24-10 lead. The Dolphins scored one last time at the start of the fourth quarter as RB Sammy Morris had a long rush of 55 yards to the Detroit 20-yard line to set up a Mare 28-yard field goal and the 27-10 victory. The Lions utilized their first possession of the fourth quarter using the no huddle offense as Kitna completed 5-of-5 passes for 55 yards to the Miami 25-yard line. However, the offense was stopped short as DE Matt Roth completed a Kitna sack-fumble and DT Vonnie Holliday came up with the recovery, giving Miami possession on their 32-yard line. Despite the fact that Miami turned the ball over on the ensuing drive with a S Daniel Bullocks forced fumble and a CB Fernando Bryant recovery, the Lions were unable to capitalize and the Dolphins got away with the 27-10 victory.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions played in a hard fought battle against the New England Patriots at Gillette Stadium but fell short, 28-21. The Patriots put the first points on the board after the Patriots moved the ball 72 yards to set up a K Stephen Gostkowski 25-yard field goal and a 3-0 lead. The Lions responded on the following drive as QB Jon Kitna connected on 5-of-8 passes for 83 yards, including a 5-yard touchdown strike to WR Mike Furrey, giving the Lions the 7-3 lead at the start of the second quarter. On the next Detroit drive, the Lions marched to their own 4-yard line, however, a RB Kevin Jones fumble prevented the Lions from scoring. The Patriots couldn't capitalize on the turnover as DE Corey Smith forced a fumble on RB Patrick Pass and CB Dre Bly came up with the recovery on New England's 14-yard line. Detroit capitalized on the turnover with a K Jason Hanson 29-yard field goal for a 10-3 lead. On the following drive the Patriots took the ball into the two-minute warning as Brady connected with TE Benjamin Watson for 23 yards to set up a RB Corey Dillon 6-yard touchdown, tying the game 10-10. The Lions took over with 1:10 left in the quarter, however, a pass intended for WR Corey Bradford was intercepted by CB Asante Samuel on the New England 30-yard line. The Patriots capitalized on the turnover with a Gostkowski 27-yard field goal for a 13-10 lead at the end of the half. The Lions scored early in the third quarter as the offense put Lions in position to kick a 38-yard field goal to even the score at 13. On the following drive Bly intercepted a Brady pass on the New England 47-yard line. The Lions earned points on the turnover as Kitna was 3-of-4 passing for 48 yards to set up a Hanson 49-yard field goal. On the ensuing drive Brady was sacked by S Kenoy Kennedy forcing a fumble recovered by FB Heath Evans who was then tackled by DE Jared DeVries in the end zone, for a safety and the 5-point lead. Kitna directed the offense down the field completing 7-of-10 passes for 125 yards, to set up a Hanson 26-yard field goal. The Patriots responded as Brady completed 5-of-5 passes for 49 yards; and Dillon rushed for a 2-yard touchdown. Brady then connected with WR Troy Brown on the two-point conversion, tying the game 21-21. After three consecutive turnovers, the Patriots scored again with a Dillon 4-yard touchdown. The Lions had one last opportunity to tie the game shortly after the two-minute warning. However, Kitna threw an interception to LB Mike Vrabel and the Patriots took a knee with 1:51 remaining to ensure their 28-21 victory.

SUMMARY

The Lions fell to the Minnesota Vikings 20-30. The Vikings opened up the scoring in the game's first drive as QB Brad Johnson completed 4-of-6 passes for 47 yards and RB Arlose Pinner rushed five times for 17 yards including a 3-yard TD run, handing Minnesota the 7-0 lead. The Lions took possession on the following drive, however, WR Roy Williams fumbled a pass from QB Jon Kita turning the ball over to the Vikings as CB Cedric Griffin came up with the recovery on Minnesota's 40-yard line. The Vikings capitalized as Pinner ran for a 4-yard touchdown, extending the Minnesota lead to 14-0. On the ensuing drive a pass from Kita, intended for WR Mike Furrey, was intercepted by FS Dwight Smith on Detroit's 22-yard line. The Vikings capitalized at the start of the second quarter as Johnson ran it into the end zone for a 3-yard score, but the kick failed. After the Lions went three-and-out on the next possession, the Vikings were able to drive the ball to Detroit's 13-yard line. However, the Lions stopped the drive as CB Jamar Fletcher picked off a Johnson pass intended for WR Travis Taylor on the 12-yard line and ran it back 88 yards for the TD and made the score 20-7. The Lions defense followed up with a DT Marcus Bell forced fumble on Pinner and S Kenoy Kennedy came up with the recovery on the Detroit 29-yard line. The Lions scored shortly after the two-minute warning as Kita connected on 5-of-8 passes for 49 yards to help set up a K Jason Hanson 53-yard field goal to shorten the Vikings lead 20-10 at the end of the first half. The Viking responded at the start of the third quarter as DE Damon Scott caused a sack-fumble on Kita and DT Kevin Williams were able to recover the ball at the Detroit 18-yard line setting up a K Ryan Longwell 30-yard field goal and the 23-10 Minnesota lead. The Lions scored on the following drive as the Lions marched down the field to the Minnesota 27-yard line to set up a Hanson 45-yard field goal, giving Detroit the 23-13 difference. The Vikings were able to capitalize once again on a Lions turnover at the end of the third quarter as a pass from Kita intended for Williams was intercepted by Griffin at the Detroit 30-yard line. Minnesota scored at the start of the fourth quarter as Pinner rushed four times for 17 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown run, putting Minnesota up 30-13. The Lions responded on the ensuing drive as Kita was 5-of-6 passing for 72 yards including a 23-yard touchdown strike to RB Kevin Jones to tighten the score, 30-20. The Lions took over on their final possession with 1:50 left on the clock, however their drive was stalled as a Kita pass intended for Williams was intercepted by SS Darren Sharper on the Minnesota 10-yard line. The Vikings took a knee on their final possession and got away with the 30-20 victory.

SUMMARY

In a game packed with turnovers, the Lions were defeated by the Green Bay Packers, 17-9, at Lambeau Field. The Lions were the first to score as QB Jon Kita completed 4-of-4 passes for 35 yards helping to set up a K Jason Hanson 42-yard field goal, landing Detroit with the 3-0 lead. The first turnover occurred on the following drive as a snap from C Scott Wells intended for QB Brett Favre was fumbled and DT Anthony Bryant came up with the recovery on the Green Bay 36-yard line. Detroit attempted to take advantage of the fumble recovery, however, a Kita pass intended for WR Roy Williams was intercepted by CB Al Harris who took the ball 34 yards to the Detroit 28-yard line. Green Bay was able to capitalize on the interception with a K Dave Rayner 24-yard field goal, notching the score 3-3. After a Detroit three-and-out, Green Bay carried the ball into the second quarter as Favre connected on 4-of-5 passes for 47 yards marching to the Detroit 14-yard line. However, a pass intended for RB Ahman Green was intercepted by CB Jamar Fletcher giving the Lions possession on their 17-yard line. On the ensuing drive the Lions went three-and-out and P Nick Harris punted the ball away. Despite a LS Don Muhlbach forced fumble on CB Charles Woodson on the kick return, LB Alex Lewis was unable to hold onto the fumble recovery and FS Charlie Peprah recovered the ball allowing Green Bay to retain possession. On the following drive Favre completed 7-of-8 passes for 63 yards to lead the Packers to the Detroit 14-yard line. RB Vernand Morency capped the 9-play, 53-yard drive with a 14-yard touchdown run, putting Green Bay in the lead, 10-3. The Lions closed the second quarter of the game as Kita took a knee with 14 seconds remaining and both teams left the field for the locker rooms at the half. After a Packers three-and-out at the start of the third quarter, the Lions were able to put points on the board as Kita connected on 3-of-4 passes for 34 yards highlighted by a 20-yard pass completion to RB Arlen Harris. Hanson capped the drive with a 42-yard field goal and the 6-10 score. After back-to-back interceptions at the end of the third quarter, the Lions defense took a stand at the start of the fourth quarter as a Favre pass intended for Green was intercepted by CB Dre Bly on the Green Bay 12-yard line. The Lions could only come away with a Hanson 23-yard field goal, tightening the score to 9-10. The Packers responded on the next drive as Green rushed seven times for 22 yards moving the offense down the field to the Detroit 21-yard line. Morency capped the 78-yard drive with a 21-yard touchdown run, giving the Packers a solid 17-9 lead. The Lions took the field with 2:48 left in the game, however, they were unable to muster any points. Favre took a knee with the remaining 35 seconds of the game and Green Bay left the field with the 17-9 victory.

SUMMARY

In a heart-breaking Christmas Eve loss, the Detroit Lions fell to the Chicago Bears, 21-26. The Bears were the first to score as QB Rex Grossman completed 6-of-9 passes for 38 yards and RB Thomas Jones rushed five times for 24 yards to help set up a K Robbie Gould 36-yard field goal and the 3-0 lead. The Lions quickly responded two drives later as WR Devalle Ellis returned the punt for 48 yards to the Chicago 49-yard line. QB Jon Kitna took advantage of the field position as he connected on a 26-yard pass to WR Roy Williams followed by a 23-yard touchdown strike to TE Dan Campbell to put Detroit in the lead, 7-3. The Bears drove down the field into the second quarter, highlighted by a Grossman 40-yard pass to WR Muhsin Muhammad. The 9-play, 75-yard drive was capped by a Grossman 13-yard touchdown pass to WR Bernard Berrian giving Chicago the 10-7 lead. The Bears scored again at the end of the second quarter as Grossman connected on 2-of-3 passes including a long of 22 yards to RB Adrian Peterson. Peterson capped the 7-play drive with a 2-yard touchdown running Chicago the 17-7 lead at the end of the first half. The Lions opened up the scoring in the third quarter as RB Arlen Harris rushed twice for 20 yards and Kitna connected on 4-of-4 passes for 57 yards including a 20-yard touchdown completion to WR Mike Furrey, tightening the score to 14-7. After a Chicago three-and-out, the Lions took the ball into the end zone again as Kitna connected on 5-of-6 passes for 49 yards, including a 2-yard touchdown pass to WR Roy Williams putting Detroit back in the lead, 21-17. The Bears took their possession into the fourth quarter as Grossman connected on a long of 27 yards to WR Rashied Davis on third-and-7 to ultimately set up a Gould 39-yard field goal and the 20-21 score. Chicago scored again on their next possession as QB Brian Giese entered the game and connected on four passes for 48 yards putting Gould in prime position to connect on a 39-yard field goal giving Chicago the 23-21 lead. The Lions took the field on the ensuing drive in attempts to move into the red zone, however, a Chicago sack-fumble from DE Mark Anderson and a fumble recovery by DE Adevalle Oguniye gave Chicago possession on the Detroit 32-yard line. Chicago capitalized on the turnover as Gould connected on a 44-yard field goal, giving Chicago the 26-21 lead. The Lions took the field with 2:50 left in the game as Kitna walked the offense to the Chicago 22-yard line, highlighted by a long completion of 19 yards on third-and-17 to Furrey. With 0:07 seconds remaining Kitna hurried the ball into the end zone to WR Mike Williams who jumped up to catch the ball, however, could not hold on as the ball dropped and the Bears took the 26-21 victory.

SUMMARY

In their season finale, the Detroit Lions defeated the Dallas Cowboys 39-31. The Lions scored on their first drive with a K Jason Hanson 33-yard FG. After a Cowboys three-and-out, Lions added another Hanson field goal (25 yards). KR Eddie Drummond aided the offense once again with a 32-yard punt return putting the Lions on the Dallas 21-yard line. Kitna connected on 3-of-3 passes for 41 yards, including a 20-yard TD pass to WR Roy Williams, putting Detroit up 13-0. Dallas responded at the start of the second quarter as QB Tony Romo orchestrated a 10-play drive ending with a RB Marion Barber 1-yard run. The Cowboys' defense got the ball back for their offense when a Kitna pass intended for WR Mike Furrey was intercepted by S Pat Watkins on the Dallas 19-yard line. Dallas capitalized as Romo culminated a drive with a 6-yard pass to WR Patrick Crayton. After a Lions three-and-out on the following drive, P Nick Harris punted the ball to CB Terrence Newman who fumbled the ball on the return and FB Cory Schlesinger came up with the recovery on the Dallas 40-yard line. With 0:02 left in the half, Kitna connected with Roy Williams for a 15-yard TD pass and a 20-14 halftime lead. The first scoring in the second half was courtesy of a punt return by Newman, who returned it 56 yards for a TD and a 21-20 lead. The Lions responded on the following drive as Kitna connected on 5-of-7 passes for 51 yards, including a long of 24 yards to Williams on fourth-and-one, ultimately setting up a Hanson 26-yard FG that gave the lead back to Detroit 23-21. On the following drive, S Kenoy Kennedy intercepted Romo to give Detroit the ball at Dallas' 28-yard line, and then Kitna hit Furrey with a 13-yard TD strike. The Cowboys moved down the field on their next possession and K Martin Gramatica hit a 39-yard FG. The Cowboys scored again to start the fourth quarter when Romo connected with WR Terrell Owens on a 56-yard TD for a 31-30 lead. Detroit retaliated as Kitna connected on a 21-yard TD pass to WR Mike Williams (two-point pass failed). Detroit's defense got the ball back on the first play of the following drive when DE Kalimba Edwards recovered a Romo fumble at the Dallas 13-yard line which led to a 23-yard Hanson FG. Dallas regained possession with 2:53 left in the quarter. The Cowboys drove 49 yards to the Detroit 6-yard line. However, the Lions made a defensive stand as Romo was stuffed on a quarterback scramble on fourth-and-6 before LB Paris Lenon stuffed him at the 2-yard line to secure the 39-31 New Year's Eve victory.

Kicker Jason Hanson leads all current Lions' players with 1,537 points and is the franchise's all-time leading scorer. In 2006, he became only the 13th player in NFL history to surpass the 1,500 career points mark. He is 63 points away from becoming the 11th player in NFL history to score 1,600 points and he needs 72 points to pass Lou Groza (1,608) and enter the Top-10 all-time NFL scorers.

CHARLIE SANDERS PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2007

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2007

Charlie Sanders, the greatest tight end in Detroit Lions history, joins guard Gene Hickerson, wide receiver Michael Irvin, center Bruce Matthews, running back Thurman Thomas and cornerback Roger Wehrli as the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007. Sanders is the 17th player in Lions' history to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. Sanders, and the Class of 2007, will be honored at an induction ceremony in Canton, Ohio, Saturday, August 4, 2007.

CAREER OVERVIEW

- Charlie Sanders is the finest tight end in Detroit Lions history and one of the best tight ends of his era. Sanders competed against four tight ends selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Mike Ditka, John Mackey, Jackie Smith and Dave Casper). Playing in an era when the tight end was a blocker first and a receiver second, Sanders' achievements rank him very favorably among the best to have played the game.
- Played in 128 games and missed only 12 games during his career.
- Sanders enjoyed his best year in 1969 when he gained 656 yards on 42 receptions (he also caught 42 passes in 1974).
- His best single-game effort was during his rookie season when he grabbed 10 passes for 133 yards against Washington (December 15, 1968).
- Drafted by the Lions in the third round from the University of Minnesota in 1968, Sanders was the only rookie that season selected to play in the Pro Bowl and he finished second to then-teammate Earl McCulloch for NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

RECEPTIONS LEADERS

- Sanders caught 336 passes (fifth on the team's all-time list) during his 10-year career (1968-77) for 4,817 yards. Finished career as Lions' all-time leader in receptions (336) and second in receiving yards (4,817).
- He set the all-time receptions mark (336) in 1977 and held that record for 20 seasons until the record was broken in 1996.
- He was at the top of the team's receptions chart in five (1968-70, 1973 and 1975) of his 10 NFL seasons, including his rookie season in 1968.

TEAM OF THE 1970S

- Chosen by the Hall of Fame committee as tight end on the NFL's

Team of the '70s.

PRO BOWLS & ALL-PRO

- He appeared in SEVEN Pro Bowls, and was twice named All-Pro.
- The 7-time Pro Bowler was selected in 1969-72 and 1975-77.
- He was the only rookie in the 1969 Pro Bowl.

HALL OF FAMER

- Along with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Sanders was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 1990, the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, his native state, in 1997, and the Guilford County (Greensboro, N.C.) Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

TWO-SPORT COLLEGE STAR

- As a two-sport star (football and basketball) at the University of Minnesota, Sanders concluded his senior season as the Gophers' leading receiver after hauling in 21 receptions for 276 yards and two touchdowns helping his team win a share of the 1967 Big Ten title.

"HONOLULU" BLUE AND SILVER

- TE Charlie Sanders earned SEVEN trips to the Pro Bowl during his 10 seasons in the NFL. He was voted to the NFC's all-star team during the first FOUR years of his career, including his rookie season.

PRO BOWLS (Year of Game): 1969-72, 1975-77

HALL OF FAME TIGHT ENDS AND PRO BOWLS

- There are currently six tight ends in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Sanders earned spots on the Pro Bowl squad AT LEAST TWO more times than the current tight end Hall of Famers.

PLAYERS ON WINNING TEAMS AND THE PRO BOWL

- Players who play on winning teams each year commonly hold advantages in earning Pro Bowl spots over players on losing teams. Sanders is an exception to this rule among tight ends in the Hall of Fame. Despite playing on just four winning teams, his performance was well respected during his career as his ratio of Pro Bowl selections to winning seasons (1.75) is much higher among the tight ends in the Hall of Fame.

Players	Pro Bowls	Winning Seasons	Ratio
Charlie Sanders*	7	4	1.75
Dave Casper	5	8	.63

* 2007 Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007

HALL OF FAMERS AND PRO BOWLS

- Among the 139 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame who played their entire career during the Pro Bowl era, the average number of Pro Bowl selections is SEVEN, the same number of Pro Bowls earned by Sanders.
- Among those 139 members, 60 were voted to the Hall of Fame and were selected in no more than SIX Pro Bowls.

ROOKIE PRO BOWLER

- In 1969, Sanders was the only rookie selected to appear in the Pro Bowl.
- When included among the tight ends in the Hall of Fame, only Sanders, Ditka and Mackey were selected to the Pro Bowl as rookies.

SANDERS HALL OF FAME NUMBERS...

- Charlie Sanders' trips to the Pro Bowl not only prove his place among Pro Football Hall of Fame tight ends, but his career numbers show that his production places him right beside the great tight ends enshrined in Canton.

YARDS PER RECEPTION AMONG HOF TIGHT ENDS

- Only Hall of Fame tight ends Jackie Smith and John Mackey averaged more yards per reception than Sanders.

Player	Yds/Rec
Jackie Smith	16.5
John Mackey	15.8
Charlie Sanders*	14.3
Dave Casper	13.8
Mike Ditka	13.6
Kellen Winslow	12.5

RECEPTIONS PER GAME AMONG TIGHT ENDS OF ERA

- Sanders' career overlapped with four other Hall of Fame tight ends, including Mike Ditka (1961-72), John Mackey (1963-72), Jackie Smith (1963-78) and Dave Casper (1974-94). Among this group, Sanders averaged more catches per game than Casper, Mackey and Smith.

Charlie Sanders*	2.63
Dave Casper	2.57
John Mackey	2.38
Jackie Smith	2.29

* 2007 Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007

RECEIVING YARDS PER GAME AMONG TIGHT ENDS OF ERA

- Again, comparing Sanders to Hall of Fame tight ends during his era, the receiving yards per game tallied by all five are relatively similar. In fact, the top four among this group, which includes Sanders, are separated by LESS THAN ONE YARD. Sanders is third on this list, less than one-tenth of a yard behind Jackie Smith.

Players	Yds/G

SANDERS' RELIABILITY

- Knee problems ultimately forced him to retire in 1978. Among those same tight ends whose careers overlapped with Sanders, only John Mackey and Mike Ditka missed fewer games than Sanders during their respective careers.

Players	Missed	Played	Total Games*
John Mackey	1	139	140
Mike Ditka	10	158	168
Charlie Sanders*	12	128	140

Jackie Smith	16	210	226

* 2007 Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007

* Total number of games played by players' teams during their career.

PASSING DEFICIENCY

- Unlike most of the other tight ends in the Hall of Fame, Sanders did not have the benefit of playing a significant part of his career with a Pro Bowl quarterback.

BOBBY LAYNE OFFENSIVE MVP

Bobby Layne Award is presented (since 1967) to the Offensive MVP. This award is given in memory of quarterback Bobby Layne who sparked the Lions to three NFL Championships and four Western Division titles during the 1950's, including back-to-back world championships in 1952 and '53. He established virtually every career passing record, including attempts (2,193), completions (1,074), yardage (15,710), and touchdown passes (118). Layne was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967.

LEM BARNEY DEFENSIVE MVP

Lem Barney Award is presented (since 1967) to the Defensive MVP. This award is given in honor of Lem Barney, one of the premier defensive backs in the history of football. As a rookie, Barney intercepted 10 passes - returning three for touchdowns - and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. He played in seven Pro Bowls, earning All-Pro honors three times. Barney played in 140 games, missing just 14, and totaled 56 interceptions. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

YALE LARY SPECIAL TEAMS MVP

Yale Lary Award is presented to the Special Teams MVP. This award is given in honor of Yale Lary, an all-Pro defensive back who was one of the NFL's greatest punters. While Lary collected 50 career interceptions playing safety, he became an even more valuable weapon on Detroit's special teams. Lary won NFL punting titles in 1959, 1961 and 1963, missing in 1962 by just 3.6 inches. Lary played in nine Pro Bowls and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979.

MEL FARR ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Mel Farr Award is presented to the team's outstanding rookie performer. This award is given in honor of Mel Farr who enjoyed one of the finest rookie campaigns in Lions' history. In 1957, Farr led Detroit in both rushing (860 yards on 206 carries) and receiving (39 catches for 317 yards) and tied for the club lead in scoring with six touchdowns. As a result, he was named the Lions' Offensive MVP and was honored as the NFL Rookie of the Year by the Sporting News.

ERIC ANDOLSEK TOP OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

Eric Andolsek Award is presented to the team's outstanding offensive lineman. This award is given in memory of Eric Andolsek, who was emerging as one of the top young guards in the NFL when he was killed tragically in an off-season accident in 1992. He started every game from 1989-91, making his 50th consecutive start in his final contest, the 1991 NFC Championship Game. He was named to the USA Today All-Pro Team that year, his first such honor as a Lion.

JOE SCHMIDT LEADERSHIP AWARD

Joe Schmidt Award is presented to the player who has displayed outstanding leadership, drive and achievement on the field and in the locker room. This award is given in honor of former linebacker Joe Schmidt who was named All-Pro in eight of his 13 seasons (1953-65), earning 10 consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl. He served as captain of the Lions for nine seasons. From 1967-72, Schmidt compiled a 43-35-7 record as Detroit's head coach. Schmidt was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973.

MIKE UTLEY SPIRIT AWARD

Mike Utley Award is presented to the player who exhibited tremendous spirit, desire, dedication and work ethic. This award is given in honor of former Lions guard Mike Utley, who suffered a career-ending neck injury which left him paralyzed on Nov. 17, 1991. Minutes after sustaining the injury, Utley flashed his teammates a "thumbs up" sign as he was wheeled from the field, a gesture that galvanized a team that went on to win its next seven contests and advanced to the NFC Championship game.

CHUCK HUGHES MOST IMPROVED PLAYER

Chuck Hughes Award is presented to the player who, because of hard work and determination, showed significant development and improvement during the past year. This award is given in memory of Chuck Hughes, a Lions' reserve wide receiver who played two seasons with the Lions (1970-71). Hughes is the only NFL player to have died during action on a football field, having suffered a fatal heart attack during Detroit's game against Chicago on October 24, 1971.

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. The Arizona Cardinals were located in Chicago from 1920-59 and in St. Louis from 1960-87 before moving to Phoenix, Ariz., in 1988. The team became the Arizona Cardinals in 1994.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals, and it ended in a scoreless tie. That game is one of two scoreless ties (other was a 0-0 tie played September 15, 1940) played between the Lions and the Cardinals in their series. The Lions own a 31-21-5 advantage over the Cardinals.
- September 30, 1934 marked the first occasion that the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals matched up, and the Lions were victorious 6-0.
- In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals. Detroit has registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Chicago Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals and have a 5-5 mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix. Detroit currently has a three-game winning streak against the Cardinals.
- The Lions-Cardinals series is one of four series (Chicago, Green Bay and New York Giants) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 at the Silverdome September 26 and 21-14 in Phoenix December 12.
- Behind the record-setting performance by QB Charlie Batch at Arizona November 18, 2001 (a franchise record 436 yards passing), the Lions' offense set several team records and collected some of the franchise's highest totals in other team offensive categories. The Lions' 62 pass attempts set the team's single-game record by surpassing the previous high of 57 attempts accomplished vs. Chicago 10/9/88. The team's 36 completions are better than the 33 completions tossed at Cleveland 9/28/86 and vs. Green Bay 10/25/87. The Lions' established a new record for net passing yards by airing out 429 yards, which is better than the previous high of 395 vs. Minnesota 11/23/95. And the 22 first downs gained on pass plays is a new team record, passing the old mark of 20 set vs. Minnesota 11/23/95.

Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak in the series in the 2003 season opener with a 42-24 win over the Cardinals at Ford Field. The win was the first for former Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci. QB Joey Harrington threw for a career high four touchdown passes in the game.

In Detroit's 26-12 win over Arizona December 5, 2004, RB Kevin Jones ran for a career-high 196 yards on 26 carries, 105 of which came in the first half. It is the second highest rushing total in a Lions rookie in team history, just one yard shy of Mel Farr's record of 197 yards on 24 carries at Minnesota (11/12/67).

In the same 2004 contest, K Jason Hanson became the 20th player in NFL history to reach the 1,300-point plateau.

WR Roy Williams caught a career-high three touchdown passes in the Lions 29-21 win over Arizona November 13, 2005 at Ford Field.

When the Lions traveled to Arizona November 19, 2006, it marked Detroit's first visit to the Cardinals newly-opened Cardinals Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have dominated the series against the Falcons, amassing a 22-9 record. The initial meeting took place at Tiger Stadium September 25, 1986, Atlanta's inaugural season, with the Lions running away with a 28-10 win. The Lions are 13-4 at home (5-0 in Tiger Stadium; 8-3 in the Silverdome, 0-1 at Ford Field). Detroit has won 10 of the last 14 games in the series.
- The Lions and Falcons met in the regular season opener or closer seven times between 1985-94. The two teams opened or closed the season every year from 1985-89, and met in the regular season opener again in 1997.
- Detroit was victorious 13-10 over the Falcons November 12, 2000 at the Pontiac Silverdome. The contest marked the first game and victory by Gary Moeller, who replaced Bobby Ross as head coach six days earlier.
- The Lions' 17-10 victory October 10, 2004, marked the first time the Lions won back-to-back road games since the 2003 season.
- With Detroit's 30-14 victory against Atlanta November 5, 2006, the Lions winning percentage against the Falcons (.719) is their highest among all NFC opponents and their second highest among all NFL opponents (Cleveland, .765).

SERIES NOTES

- The inaugural game between Detroit and Baltimore occurred December 27, 1998 at PSINet Stadium in Baltimore, with the Lions losing to the Ravens 19-10 in the '98 season finale.
- Detroit's first game with Baltimore ended up being RB Barry Sanders final game in his 10-year career. He rushed 19 times for 41 yards, finishing nine yards (1,491) shy of collecting his fifth-straight 1,500-yard rushing season.

In the Lions 35-17 win over Baltimore at Ford Field October 9, 2005, Detroit's rushing attack was stellar as the offense registered four rushing touchdowns, the most ever yielded by the Ravens defense. Among the rushing touchdowns were two scores by RB Kevin Jones and a 77-yard dash by RB Shawn Bryson.

SERIES NOTES

- Aside from the NFL's most recent expansion additions (Baltimore, Carolina, Houston and Jacksonville), the seven meetings between the Lions and Bills is the fewest number of games the Lions have played against any opponent.
- Two of the seven games have been played on Thanksgiving Day, with the Lions winning both outings. Detroit won the first Turkey Day game between the two clubs 27-14 November 25, 1976 and the second Thanksgiving Day affair 35-21 November 24, 1994.

- In the 1976 meeting, O.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in pro football history as he rushed for a then-NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough as the Lions prevailed 27-14.
- The Lions defeated the Bills 20-17 in their first regular season visit to Ford Field. The victory also was Rod Mannell's first as a head coach.
- Bills' owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school, is the Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resides in Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Panthers faced off in their inaugural contest October 24, 1999. Detroit visited Carolina's Ericsson Stadium and handed the Panthers a 24-9 loss.
- The Panthers made five trips inside the Lions' five-yard line, and the Detroit defense forced two turnovers and yielded only three field goals.
- The contest was also the first of two straight games in 1999 where Detroit's defense did not yield a touchdown. That accomplishment marked the first time since 1983 that the Lions have kept opponents out of the end zone in back-to-back games (45-3 win vs. Pittsburgh November 24, 1983 and 13-2 win vs. Minnesota December 5, 1983).

- The Panthers evened the series record at 1-1 with a 31-7 victory at Ericsson Stadium September 15, 2002.
- Despite having both a fumble return and a punt return go for touchdowns, the Lions fell short at the eventual NFC Champion Panthers, 21-14, on December 14, 2003.
- LB Boss Bailey (34 yards) and S Kenoy Kennedy (64 yards) each returned interceptions back for touchdowns in the Lions last-minute 21-20 loss against Carolina at Ford Field October 16, 2005. The last time the Lions had two interceptions for touchdowns in a game was at Seattle October 24, 1976 when Levi Johnson and Lem Barney both returned interceptions for touchdowns.

SERIES NINE

- The Lions hosted the Bears for the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game on November 29, 1934. The game, played in front of a then-record 26,000 fans at the University of Detroit Stadium, was won by the Bears, 19-16, giving the Bears the Western Division championship. NBC Radio Network broadcast the game coast-to-coast and a Thanksgiving tradition was born.
- Following the Detroit (November 27) in 1937 the Lions won the Bears 55-20 for their largest offensive output ever against Chicago. RB Barry Sanders rushed for 167 yards and three touchdowns in the win at the Silverdome. Earlier in the 1997 season, Sanders put up 161 yards on Chicago in a 3-27 victory over the Bears.
- Detroit beat the Bears twice in a three-week span in 1995 as part of the Lions' "Homecoming" series. The Lions won the first game, 27-10, at the Silverdome on November 12. The Lions won 24-17 at Soldier Field on November 19, and then won a playoff

Two weeks later on December 4, in the second game, WR Herman Moore had 183 receiving yards and set a franchise record with 14 catches, and WR Brett Perriman caught 12 passes for 142 yards in the November game.

- Detroit had its best stretch against the Bears when it won 11 of 12 games from September 22, 1968 to December 9, 1973.
- Five contests between the two teams have gone to overtime—including both in 2002—with the Bears winning three of them. The most recent tie of the series occurred last season when Bears S Charles Tillman picked off a Lions QB Jeff Garcia pass, and returned it for a score to claim a 19-13 win in overtime.
- In the 2004 season opener, Detroit topped Chicago 20-17 to end its 24-game road losing streak. S Bracy Walker returned a blocked FG on an NFL-record 92 yards to give the Lions a 10-7 advantage, and QB Joe Harrington found WR Az-Zahir Hakim for a fourth-quarter touchdown to give the Lions a 20-14 lead they would not relinquish.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Bengals met every year in preseason from 1970-2001 and the rivalry was renewed in 2003. The two teams have played a total of 33 preseason games, with the Bengals holding a slight 18-15 series edge.
- In the initial meeting of the series, the Lions jumped out to 31-0 halftime lead and never looked back as they trounced the Bengals 38-3 September 27, 1970. The Detroit defense limited Cincinnati to six first downs and 140 yards on offense. Mel

Farr led the Lions with 70 yards rushing on 13 carries.

- An eight-yard touchdown pass from Greg Landry to Charlie Sanders (now a Lions' scout) with 29 seconds remaining in the game gave the Lions a 23-19 victory at Cincinnati in the 1974 matchup.
- In the Lions' November 22, 1992 game at Cincinnati, RB Barry Sanders passed Billy Sims to become Detroit's all-time leading rusher. He rushed 29 times for 151 yards and scored a touchdown as the Lions won 19-13.

NFL Championship Game

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have played the Browns four times in postseason action, the most against any team (Lions own 3-1 edge). Also, Detroit has accumulated 35 preseason games against Cleveland, also the most against any team in that category. 2004 marked the 38th preseason meeting between the two teams. Detroit holds a 20-15-1 edge over Cleveland in preseason games. In 2002, the Lions and Browns kicked off the first Great Lakes Classic charity preseason game.
- The Lions hold a commanding 13-4 (.765) series lead over the Browns, dating back to the clubs' initial meeting in 1952. Detroit owns an 8-1 record in games played in Detroit, and the teams have yet to meet at Ford Field.
- Jason Hanson booted the longest field goal in franchise history against the Browns October 8, 1995. Hanson drilled a 56-yard effort on the last play of the first half.

The following are brief recaps of each of the four postseason games between the Lions and Browns.

- December 28, 1952 (NFL Championship Game) - The Detroit Lions claimed their first NFL title in 17 years with a 17-7 win over the Browns. The Lions scored the first touchdown of the game on a 67-yard scamper by Dock Walker. Detroit was outgained in total yardage by 151 yards and had 12 fewer first downs, but the Detroit defense stiffened at crucial times. The Lions came up with four important goal line stands. Layne attempted only nine passes, all coming in the fourth quarter. To pick up the slack, the Lions rushed for 199 yards with 97 yards coming from Walker. Detroit capped the title game win with a 36-yard field goal by Pat Harder.

- December 27, 1953 (NFL Championship Game) - The game evolved into a defensive struggle as 20 of the 33 points scored in the game were direct results of turnovers. The mistakes began when Otto Graham fumbled on his own 13-yard line, the Lions capitalized on a one-yard touchdown run by Dock Walker. Although Graham completed only two of his 15 attempts, the Browns managed to hold a 16-10 lead with less than five minutes to play. Then, Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne put together an impressive drive that culminated with a 33-yard touchdown toss to Jim Doran. The 17-16 victory provided the Lions with their second consecutive title.

- December 26, 1954 (NFL Championship Game) - The game began on a good note for Detroit as Cleveland quarterback Otto Graham turned the ball over on an interception. But the Lions could only manage a field goal after the turnover and the rest of the afternoon was all Cleveland. Graham bounced back from the early interception to pass for three touchdowns and run for another three touchdowns as the Browns captured the World's Championship with a 56-10 win. Lions quarterback Bobby Layne had a horrible day, as he threw six interceptions.

- December 29, 1957 (NFL Championship Game) - Tobin Rote, playing for injured QB Bobby Layne, directed a relentless offensive attack as the Lions posted a 31-7 halftime lead and coasted to their fourth NFL title. The highlight of the day came on a 78-yard bomb from Rote to Jim Doran that gave the Lions a 38-14 lead. Detroit went on to win 59-14, the second biggest title win ever.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's first regular season game, as well as its last, at the Pontiac Silverdome was played against Dallas. The Cowboys won the Monday Night contest 36-10 October 6, 1975 during the Silverdome's inaugural regular season game and the Lions won the finale 15-10 on January 6, 2002.
- The Lions have won seven of the last 12 regular season meetings with Dallas, in addition to Detroit's 38-6 win in the 1991 Divisional Playoff game.
- The Lions and Cowboys have squared off twice in postseason play, with each team claiming victory on its own turf. The first postseason contest occurred December 26,

- 1970 with the Dallas posting a 5-0 shutout against Detroit.
- The Lions captured the victory in the second playoff contest when they defeated the Cowboys 38-6 at the Silverdome January 5, 1992.
- Detroit and Dallas traditionally host Thanksgiving Day games each season. The Lions have played 66 games since the Thanksgiving Day tradition kicked off in 1934. The Cowboys have hosted 36 Thanksgiving Day games since 1966.
- Lions RB Barry Sanders set a Lions' record for most carries in a game (40) in a Monday Night contest in Dallas September 19, 1994. The Lions won the game 20-17 in overtime.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions are 3-6 overall against Denver. Their last victory occurred when they handed the Broncos a 40-27 loss on Thanksgiving Day at the Silverdome in 1990.
- Detroit posted a 24-20 win November 7, 1971 in the first meeting between the two teams. After a Detroit fumble and interception gave the Broncos a 10-0 halftime lead, the Lions roared back in the second half, scoring on their first two possessions, including a Greg Landry-to-Earl McCullough 76-yard bomb which gave the Lions the lead.
- Three of the seven regular season games between the Lions and Broncos have been - played on Thanksgiving Day, and five of the seven games have been in November, Denver's 31-27 win in 1974 was the last Thanksgiving Day game played in Tiger Stadium, with the Lions moving into the Pontiac Silverdome the next season.

- In 1999, the Lions hosted the Broncos on another holiday, Christmas Day, with the Broncos claiming a 17-7 victory at the Silverdome.
- The Lions fell 20-16 at Denver on September 28, 2003, their first trip to Denver since 1987, and the first game in the series played at Invesco Field.
- Denver will make their first regular season trip to Ford Field when the two clash November 4, 2006.

SERIES NOTES

- The Packers and Lions have met on Thanksgiving Day 17 times, with the Lions holding an 11-5-1 advantage in those games. The Lions have played the Packers more times on Thanksgiving than any other team in the league.
- The Lions and Packers met 13 consecutive years on Thanksgiving Day from 1951-1963 with the Lions winning nine of those contests. 2003 was the Packers' first visit to Ford Field on Thanksgiving.
- Each team has recorded five shutouts of one another since the beginning of the series in 1934, but there has not been a shutout between the two teams since the Lions held the Packers to zero points in a 20-0 win on December 20, 1970.
- The 11 consecutive wins that the Lions posted against Green Bay from December 11, 1949 to November 25, 1954 are the most by the Lions against any franchise. The 11-game streak came after the Lions were 8-29-1 in the first 38 games of the series.

- Frank Sinkwich set a Lions' record by intercepting seven passes in a 27-6 loss to the Packers on October 24, 1943.
- These two franchises played in 127 regular season games in 60 years before meeting in the playoffs for the first time following the 1993 season and then again following the 1994 season.
- The Packers came to Ford Field for its regular season opener on September 22, 2002 and defeated the Lions 37-31.
- K. Jason Hanson became the 18th player in NFL history to reach the 300-point mark when he kicked a 36-yard field goal against Green Bay December 12, 2004.
- On December 12, 2004 rookie RB Kevin Jones registered his second straight 150-yard rushing game, the first Lions rookie RB to do so since Barry Sanders in 1997.
- The 17-3 Lions win in the 2005 season opener was the lowest point total in any game (including postseason) Packers QB Brett Favre has ever started.

SERIES NOTES

- Houston is the only team the Lions hold an undefeated record against. In the teams only matchup September 19, 2004, Detroit topped the Texans 28-16 at Ford Field.
- Houston is the only team the Lions have faced just one time.
- WR Eddie Drummond returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, his longest career return and his first career kickoff return touchdown.
- The first and only matchup between Houston and Detroit featured two of the top three picks from the 2002 NFL Draft. Houston QB David Carr and former Detroit QB Joey

- Harrington were selected first and third overall, respectively.
- Drummond's kickoff return was the eighth longest in team history and the longest since Terry Fair returned a kickoff 105 yards vs. Tampa Bay 9/28/98.
- Harrington completed 18-of-25 passes for 176 yards and finished the game with the third-highest quarterback rating of his career (114.3) and the third-highest completion percentage of his career (72%).

SERIES NOTES

- The clubs have met just five times since the Colts moved to Indianapolis from Baltimore.
- A record-setting crowd of 63,107 witnessed the Lions take on the Colts November 25, 2004. The crowd was the Lions' largest at Ford Field, breaking the previous best of 62,938 set vs. Green Bay (10/17/04). The contest also marked the Colts' first visit to Ford Field and the first time the teams had met on Thanksgiving since 1965. The Lions and the then-Baltimore Colts tied 24-24.
- On October 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy with 46 seconds remaining in the game as Detroit overcame

- a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts 31-27 in one of the greatest comebacks in team history.
- In their meeting November 23, 1997, a 32-10 Detroit win at the Silverdome, Jason Hanson became the only kicker in team history to convert two field goals of more than 50 yards in the same game. Hanson booted 52 and 55-yarders in the contest.
- In that same game, Barry Sanders rushed for 216 yards on 24 carries, including an 80-yarder for a touchdown. It was Sanders' fourth 200-yard outing of his career and the first against an AFC opponent.
- The 1997 game was the Colts' second trip ever to the Silverdome, and the first since the club moved from Baltimore.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's 44-0 win over the Jaguars December 17, 1995 represents the largest victory margin in Lions' history and was the largest in the NFL in 1995. The game also marked the inaugural contest in the series between the Lions and the Jaguars.
- Lions RB Eddie Drummond had one of the finest performances by a returner in NFL history that ultimately forced the Lions' game at Jacksonville into overtime November 14, 2004. Drummond became the first player in NFL history to return two punts for touchdowns in the fourth quarter and the 11th (14th time) to return two punts for a touchdowns in a single game.

- Drummond's six punt returns against the Jaguars (11/14/04) for 199 yards (33.2 avg) is the third-best single-game total in NFL history and set a new Lions' franchise record for most punt return yards in a game.

His two punt returns for touchdowns (55 and 83 yards) at Jacksonville (11/14) marked the third time in Lions' history that a player recorded two punt return touchdowns in a game. Jack Christiansen accomplished the feat twice in 1951 (2 vs LA 10/14/51 and 2 vs GB 11/22/51).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Chiefs have played four of their 10 games on Thanksgiving Day—two of them were played on November 26 (in 1981 and 1987).
- The Lions are 1-2 in home games (0-0 at Ford Field) against the Chiefs and 2-5 in games played in Kansas City.
- In the inaugural meeting—the 1971 Thanksgiving Day classic—Errol Mann contributed three field goals while Greg Landry threw touchdown passes to Charlie Sanders and Earl McCulloch in a 32-21 Lions win. RB Ed Podolac scored all three touchdowns for the Chiefs.
- In the teams' first regular season meeting at the Silverdome, Detroit dominated defensively and claimed a 27-10 Thanksgiving Day win in 1981. The Lions held the Chiefs' top-ranked rushing attack to just 116 yards, and registered five sacks. The Lions held a 6-4 preseason edge in the series against the Chiefs, and have won five of the last six preseason matchups. The two teams met August 23, 1975 in an exhibition game that kicked off the opening of the Pontiac Silverdome. Detroit won the contest 27-24.

➤ Kansas City will be making their first ever trip to Ford Field December 23, 2007. It will mark the Chief's fourth ever trip to Detroit, with seven of the previous 10 matchups all being played at Kansas City.

SERIES NOTES

- The first two head coaches in Dolphins' history both had ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1968-69. He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95, and was an assistant under Wilson with the Lions from 1960-62.
- The first three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles

- for the Dolphins (in 1973, '79 and '94).
- Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions. The win marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers 23-21 only seven days earlier).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions trail 29-58-2 in the series with the Vikings in a NFC North Division rivalry that dates back to a 37-10 Detroit victory November 19, 1961 at Minnesota.
- With his opening kickoff return for a touchdown at Minnesota November 21, 2004, Drummond became the first player in NFL history to score three consecutive touchdowns for his team via punt and kickoff returns.
- Drummond became only the second player in NFL history to return two kickoffs and two punts for touchdowns in a single season, the other being Dante Hall (Kansas City) in 2003.
- The Lions won the first five outings and nine of the first 14 games in the series; however, Minnesota then won 13 straight contests and 19 of the next 21.
- On two occasions, the Lions have accumulated 45 points in a single game against the Vikings. Detroit defeated Minnesota 45-14 December 9, 1978 and 45-7 December 12, 1981, with both games taking place at the Silverdome.
- Barry Sanders scored four touchdowns in the Lions' 34-14 win at Minnesota November 24, 1991. His four touchdowns established a new Lions' record for Most Rushing Touchdowns in a single game. His four touchdowns and 24-point performance also tied Lions' single-game marks.

- Scott Mitchell set a Lions' single-game record for passing yards, breaking Bobby Layne's previous mark of 375, when he accumulated 470 yards vs. Minnesota in a memorable Thanksgiving Day clash November 23, 1995. Mitchell completed 30-of-45 passes and tossed four touchdowns. The wide receiver hit of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton each reached the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest. The Lions won the game 44-38.
- In their final road game and the second-to-last game of the 1997 season, the Lions claimed a 14-13 victory over the Vikings at the Metroland when Scott Mitchell tossed a one-yard pass to Herman Moore in the endzone to claim the come-from-behind victory with two seconds remaining to play. Mitchell engineered the game-winning 72-yard drive that began with 1:56 remaining to play and with only one timeout.
- After losing 13 straight games to open the 2001 season, the Lions rallied against the Vikings and won their first game of the season at the Silverdome vs. the Vikings on December 16, 2001.

SERIES NOTES

- New England has made just four regular season visits to Detroit, with each team taking a pair of victories.
- Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (renamed Ford Field). Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard touchdown catch from Greg Landry. The Lions also scored a defensive touchdown as Mike Lucio returned an interception 25 yards for a score.
- The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. Willie Clay (who later joined the Patriots as a free agent) recovered a New England fumble on the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown only 11 seconds into the game on September 12, 1993.

- In the 1993 matchup, the Lions edged New England 19-16 in overtime. The win gave Detroit its first 2-0 start since 1985, and was clinched on Jason Hanson's fourth field goal of the game, a 38-yarder.
- The Lions and Patriots met at Ford Field in 2002 in the 63rd Thanksgiving Day game and the first in the holiday tradition at Ford Field. The game marked the first Thanksgiving Day classic in downtown Detroit since 1974. The Patriots won, 20-12.
- Included in the Patriots three visits to the Silverdome was a Lions' 34-9 win November 23, 2000 in the 61st Thanksgiving Day classic.

* New Orleans split home games between San Antonio and Baton Rouge due to Hurricane Katrina.

SERIES NOTES

- In the second game ever played at Ford Field, the Lions claimed a 26-21 win over New Orleans for the first win at the team's new downtown Detroit home. Detroit also tied the series, 8-8-1.
- The first game played between the Lions and Saints was a 20-20 tie November 24, 1968 in Detroit.
- The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 5-2-1 mark at home (2-0-1 at Tiger Stadium; 3-2 in the Silverdome and 1-0 at Ford Field) while New Orleans has managed a 6-3 record at home (2-0 at Tulane Stadium; 4-2 in the Superdome; 0-1 at San Antonio).
- In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans kicker Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot stood alone as the longest field goal in NFL history until Denver's Jason Elam tied the record October

- 25, 1998 vs. Jacksonville.
- Despite a 310-yard passing game from Detroit's Greg Landry (27-of-38 with two touchdowns), the Saints ripped the Lions 17-16 in the Superdome in 1976. Detroit RB Dexter Bussey led all rushers in the contest with 82 yards on only eight carries.
- The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-most in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC Player of the Week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win over the Saints on December 3, 1989.
- The Lions kicked off the 2000 season by defeating the Saints 14-10 at the Superdome. The Lions' only touchdown of the game was courtesy of Desmond Howard's franchise record 95-yard punt return in the fourth quarter.
- K Jason Hanson nailed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in regulation that lifted the Lions to a 13-12 win over New Orleans in San Antonio. The final drive was set up by a Roy Williams 40-yard grab on 4th-and-17. Williams' four catches for 111 yards against the saints, all in the fourth quarter.

NFL Championship Game

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions-Giants series is one of four series (Arz, Chi and GB) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The Lions hold a 20-17-1 lead in the series which dates back to a 19-6 New York victory at Detroit November 5, 1930, when the Lions were known as the Portsmouth Spartans.
- Detroit dominated the series initially, claiming eight of the first 12 contests, but the Giants have won eight of the last 12 decisions.
- The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first-ever game in Detroit. The Lions won the game 9-0 September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.
- The Lions and the Giants played the NFL's last scoreless tie. The 0-0 game was played November 7, 1943 at New York.
- Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants December 15, 1935. The contest marked the only time the two teams have met in postseason action.
- In the Lions' 28-13 win over the Giants October 24, 2004, QB Joey Harrington had

- the most efficient outing of his career, completing 18-of-22 passes to set single-game career highs with an 81.8 completion percentage and a 140.5 quarterback rating. He finished the game with 230 yards passing, including four completions of at least 20 yards and seven completions of at least 18 yards to six different receivers.
- Rookie RB Kevin Jones scored his first career touchdown in Detroit's win over the Giants in 2004.
- Two of the last five outings between the two teams have gone to overtime, with the road team winning each. Detroit won a 28-15 decision on October 31, 1994 at Giants Stadium, while New York defeated the Lions 26-20 at the Silverdome October 19, 1997.
- In 2000, the Lions jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead en route to a 31-21 win at Giants Stadium November 19. The first half was highlighted by two Charlie Batch touchdown passes and a blocked punt by WR Larry Foster, which was the first by the Lions since Bernie Blades blocked a punt December 13, 1992 vs. Cleveland.
- The Giants will make their first ever trip to Ford Field when they travel to Detroit to face the Lions November 18, 2007.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit leads the all-time series 6-4, which dates back to a 37-20 Detroit victory November 23, 1972 at Tiger Stadium. Detroit has played seven of its 10 contests at home against the Jets with a record of 4-3 (1-0 at Tiger Stadium, 3-2 at the Silverdome and 0-1 at Ford Field).
- The Lions have won two of the three games played in New York/New Jersey: The Jets won 31-10 at Shea Stadium September 16, 1979 and Detroit defeated the Jets twice at Giants Stadium—18-7 December 10, 1994 and 10-7 December 17, 2000.
- The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets December 8, 1991.
- Detroit claimed a memorable 13-10 decision over the Jets at the Silverdome December 21, 1997 in a game in which the winner qualified for the playoffs and the loser was eliminated. RB Barry Sanders' 184 yards rushing in the contest made him only the third player in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in a season. The noise was so boisterous at the sold-out Silverdome near the end of the game that players reported the turf actually vibrating beneath their feet. Unfortunately, Lions' LB Reggie Brown suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth quarter of the game. The Lions defeated the Jets 10-7 at the Meadowlands December 17, 2000 in the Lions' final road game of the season. Detroit's lone touchdown was a fumble recovery in the endzone by G. Jeff Hartings.

SERIES NOTES

- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions defeated the Raiders 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day November 26, 1970. The win was the second of five consecutive wins by the Lions that year, which propelled them to their first playoff berth since 1957. In that contest between the two clubs, the Lions scored 14 fourth quarter points on the way to knocking off the Raiders. Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, rallying Detroit from a 14-0 deficit.
- The Lions shut out the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders 16-0 September 27, 1981. Detroit was the first team to shut out the Raiders in 15 years, as the Lions limited Oakland to only 131 yards in total offense. The Lions collected six sacks and Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. Billy

- Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game (133 yards) while Dexter Bussey passed Albie Taylor as the club's all-time leading rusher. Also in the game, Detroit QB Gary Danielson fractured his left wrist—an injury that would sideline him for 10 weeks.
- In the Monday Night meeting December 10, 1990, there were five former Heisman Trophy winners on the field—Barry Sanders and Andre Ware for Detroit, and Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson for the Raiders. Sanders finished the game with 176 yards rushing on 25 carries, while Jackson led the Raiders with 129 yards rushing on 18 carries.
- The Lions defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders on November 2, 2003 at Ford Field, the Raiders' first trip to Detroit since 1990.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit claimed victories in the first four games of the series, with each being a shutout.
- The Lions also won seven of the first eight meetings.
- In 24 regular season meetings, the Lions have scored more than 30 points only twice (35 points in both 1935 and 1965). Philadelphia, however, has also been limited to only three 30-point outbursts (45 points in 1948, 44 points in 1979, and 30 points September 26, 2004).
- The Lions' last tie in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23) November 4, 1984 at the Silverdome, and was the only tie in Silverdome history.
- In 2004, Philadelphia visited the Motor City for the first time since November 4, 1984.
- With nine receptions for 135 yards vs. Philadelphia September 26, 2004, WR Roy Williams became the first Detroit rookie receiver to top 100 yards receiving since Larry Foster caught eight passes for 106 yards at Minnesota (11/30/00). It marked Williams' first 100-yard receiving game of his career.
- In Detroit's last win over Philadelphia, the Lions' defense sacked Eagles QB Randall Cunningham 11 times to tie a club record in a 13-11 win November 6, 1986. Seven Lions' defenders recorded sacks, including four by Keith Ferguson and 2.5 by William Gay. A 72-yard scoring strike from Joe Ferguson-to-Jeff Chadwick, in the first quarter turned out to be the only touchdown of the game.
- Detroit will play at Lincoln Financial Field for the first time when the two teams meet in Philadelphia September 23, 2007.

SERIES NOTES

- The Detroit Lions played in Heinz Field's first game during the preseason (August, 25, 2001). In 2002, the Lions returned the favor as the Steelers played in the first game at Ford Field (August 24, 2002), which the Steelers won 34-22.
- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind a then-NFL record 425 yards rushing. Ernie Caddell scored three touchdowns in one of the more memorable games of the Lions' first season in Detroit.
- The Lions won the first four meetings of the series and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests, although the Steelers have bounced back to claim eight of the last 10 meetings.
- In the 1952 meeting, Bob Hoernschmeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions rolled up 321 yards rushing. The Detroit defense held Pittsburgh to minus-3 yards rushing in a 31-6 win in Pittsburgh.
- Detroit passed for a then-club-record 375 yards (364 by Bobby Layne) in a 38-21 Lions' victory September 27, 1953.
- Detroit's 45-3 win over the Steelers November 24, 1983 stands as the Lions' largest winning margin in the history of the team's Thanksgiving Day series (second-largest in team history).
- The Lions also defeated Pittsburgh 19-16 in overtime November 26, 1998 in the second Thanksgiving Day matchup between the two teams. Jason Hanson made his fourth field goal of the game (42-yarder) 2:52 into the extra period. The game marked the first Thanksgiving overtime contest since 1980, and also was highlighted by a gutsy performance by Pittsburgh native, Charlie Batch, who completed 16-of-23 passes for 236 yards and a touchdown despite leaving the game for a time with a strained neck. The game will be remembered by a strange coin toss to begin the overtime period.

SERIES NOTES

- The St. Louis Rams lead the Lions in the all-time series 40-37-1. In their series, the Rams have been located in three different cities, Cleveland (1937-45), Los Angeles (1946-94) and St. Louis (since 1995).
- Overall, Detroit was 8-7 vs. the Cleveland Rams, 27-32-1 vs. the Los Angeles Rams and are 2-1 vs. the St. Louis Rams.
- The inaugural game between the two teams was played September 10, 1937 when the Lions claimed a 28-0 shutout at Cleveland.
- After the Rams moved to Los Angeles, the clubs faced off twice each season from - 1946-66. The Rams owned a slight edge, 21-20-1, in those games played.

- The Lions played the Rams November 7, 1959 in the first meeting between the teams since the Rams moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Detroit won the affair 31-27 at the Silverdome in the final minute of the game when QB Gus Frerotte hit WR Johnnie Morton on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to play for the game winning score. On the final drive, Frerotte completed a 57-yard pass to WR Germaine Crowell on a fourth-and-26 play to keep the drive alive.
- In the 2003 season finale, the Lions defeated the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field, 30-20, denying the Rams' bid for homefield advantage throughout the playoffs.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions won each of the first three meetings between the two teams (all home games), but have dropped the five most-recent contests.
- Detriot recorded a 34-20 victory over the Chargers in the first meeting of the series October 22, 1972. Mel Farr ran for two touchdowns and gained 96 yards on 22 carries, helping the Lions rack up 182 yards on the ground for the game. Greg Landry also rushed for a touchdown and added 151 yards passing with a touchdown strike going to Larry Walton, who finished with seven catches for 101 yards. Detroit fell to the Chargers 27-24 September 20, 1984 at Jack Murphy Stadium. Billy Sims ran for two touchdowns and 119 yards, including an 81-yard touchdown scamper. Detroit CB Gary Danielson matched Hall of Famer Dan Fouts every step of the way, completing 20-of-25 attempts for 269 yards, while Fouts was 22-of-35 for 268 yards. The Chargers forged to a 24-7 halftime lead, but Detroit scored two third quarter touchdowns to narrow the gap to 24-21.

SERIES NOTES

- The 49ers have won nine of the last 10 meetings in the series to gain a 31-26-1 lead all-time in the series.
- Detroit is 16-12 in home games vs. the 49ers, including a 5-3 mark at the Silverdome. The teams have yet to meet at Ford Field.
- The Lions' dramatic 31-27 come-from-behind playoff win at San Francisco December 22, 1957 set the stage for Detroit's last NFL Championship. The week after the "Comeback at Kezar," the Lions routed Cleveland 59-14 for its third league title in six years.
- In Detroit's regular season finale December 23, 1996 at San Francisco, Barry Sanders cruised for 175 yards in claiming his third-career NFL rushing title. Sanders entered the game needing 161 yards to surpass Denver's Terrell Davis.
- Three of the last eight meetings between the two teams have been held in San Francisco on December Monday nights (all 49ers wins). The contests in 1992 (December 28) and 1996 (December 23) were regular season finales, while the 1998 outing (December 14) was the 14th game each team played that year.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions are 2-1 in the Silverdome vs. the Seahawks and 2-3 in the Kingdom. In the 2006 regular season opener, the Lions will host Seattle, the defending NFC champions, for the first time at Ford Field. It will mark Seattle's return to Ford Field after losing to the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL.
- The Lions opened up a 20-0 lead and rolled to a 41-14 victory over the Seahawks in the first-ever meeting between the two teams October 24, 1976. Greg Landry threw three touchdown passes for the Lions, and Jim Zorn was intercepted six times, including two that were returned for touchdowns (Levi Johnson and Lem Barney). Zorn was the Lions' quarterbacks coach from 1988-90.
- After winning the inaugural meeting between the two clubs, the Lions dropped four consecutive outings to the Seahawks before winning the last three games.
- The Seahawks defeated the Lions 37-14 in the third and final game during the - 1987 players' strike. In a game played predominantly by replacement players, Seattle QB Jeff Kemp passed for 344 yards and four touchdowns, while Hall of Famer Steve Largent caught 15 passes for 261 yards (both individual Silverdome records) and three scores.

- In the 1990 regular season finale played December 30, Barry Sanders rushed for 23 yards on nine carries to claim the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards.
- The Lions' game with the Seahawks played October 17, 1993, a 30-10 Lions' win, was Detroit's 800th contest (including regular and post-season games) since the Portsmouth Spartans moved to the Motor City in 1934.
- In the 1999 regular season opener, the Lions built a 25-7 halftime lead and held on for a 28-20 victory over Seattle for the club's first season opening road win since 1986.
- The Lions and Seahawks met outside for the first time in 2003, the Lions first trip to Seahawks Stadium. Seattle was victorious, 35-14.

SERIES NOTES

- 2001 marked the first year of the Lions and the Buccaneers annual home-and-home divisional series between the two teams. As the NFL re-aligned in 2002 with the addition of the Houston Texans, Detroit was grouped in the NFC North division (Chicago, Green Bay and Minnesota) and Tampa Bay shifted to the NFC South division (Atlanta, Carolina and New Orleans). The two teams, however, did play December 15, 2002 at Ford Field in the 49th game in the series' history. The Buccaneers won the game 23-20.
- The series went 23 games during 1983-94 without either team winning more than two games in a row. The streak ended when Detroit claimed five wins in a row, starting November 13, 1994 and continuing with season sweeps over the Bucs in 1995-96.
- Detroit has been victorious in two of the five games the Lions have played at Raymond James Stadium, including a 28-14 win in a Thursday night nationally televised game October 19, 2000.
- In Detroit's 14-9 win at the Silverdome November 13, 1994, Barry Sanders rushed for a franchise-record 237 yards (then-sixth-highest single-game total in NFL history). Sanders gained a NFL record 200 yards in the second half.
- Sanders made more history in Detroit's 27-9 win over the Buccaneers at Houlihan's Stadium October 12, 1997. Sanders became the first player in NFL history to record two runs of 80 yards or more in the same game. He broke off an 80-yard scoring play late in the first quarter, and added an 82-yard touchdown romp in the third quarter and finished the day with 215 yards rushing on 24 carries.
- The two clubs met for the only time in the playoffs December 28, 1997, with the Buccaneers coming away with a 20-10 win.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Titans have hooked up nine times in the regular season with Tennessee holding a 6-3 lead. The Lions were 2-3 in Houston and 1-1 in the Pontiac Silverdome.
- The teams first met October 17, 1971 in Houston, with the Lions coming away with a 31-7 win.
- The Titans have won six of the last eight contests.

- The Titans, then the Oilers, put a damper on Detroit's 1992 Thanksgiving Day festivities with a come-from-behind 24-21 win November 26 over the Lions in the Silverdome. Lorenzo White's 8-yard touchdown scamper with 1:17 remaining sealed the Titans' victory and ended Detroit's three-game Thanksgiving Day win streak.
- On December 10, 1995, QB Scott Mitchell set the Lions' all-time record for most touchdown passes in a season. Bobby Layne had previously owned the record (26 in 1951). Mitchell completed the '95 season with 32 touchdown passes.

NFC Championship Game

Note: The Lions were located in Portsmouth from 1930-33. The Redskins were located in Boston from 1932-36.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have never won a game in the Washington D.C. area—record of 0-20 vs. the Redskins either at RFK Stadium (0-18) or at FedEx Field (0-2). Of those 20 games, three were postseason losses (0-2 at RFK Stadium and 0-1 at FedEx Field).
- The last time the Lions defeated the Redskins away from the Motor City was October 13 1935, a 17-7 victory at Boston.
- Including postseason games, 11 of the last 14 contests between the two teams have been played away from Detroit—either at RFK Stadium or FedEx Field. The 2004 season marked the Redskins' first ever visit to Ford Field and their first to Detroit since November 9, 1997.
- Lions K Jason Hanson played in his 200th career game as a Lion when the Redskins visited Ford Field in 2004. Hanson's 200th game tied him for first on the Lions' all-time games played list with Wayne Walker (1958-72).

The Lions own a 3-0 mark against the Redskins when they played in Boston, including two victories in 1935 en route to the NFL Championship.

Detroit's 33-17 victory over the Redskins December 5, 1999 at the Silverdome snapped a 16-game regular season losing streak against Washington that dated back to a 14-10 Lions win at Tiger Stadium October 3, 1965. However, the Redskins however rebounded when they defeated the Lions 27-13 January 8, 2000 in a 1999 Wild Card contest at FedEx Field.

Detroit's win over Washington, 15-10, on September 10, 2000 at the Silverdome, the first time since the 1935 season that the Lions won back-to-back regular games against the Redskins. Washington was located in Boston when Detroit won both games played during the '35 season (17-7 at Boston and 14-0 at Detroit).

2007 DETROIT LIONS

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowski, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingham, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was at one time the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 19-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Utley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC

Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their first seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Periman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storied career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross abruptly resigned as head coach November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On January 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex features outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparked as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field August 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers September 22, 2002.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after going 5-27 over two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform now features black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey.

On November 28, 2005, Steve Mariucci was relieved of his duties as head coach and defensive coordinator Dick Jaaron was named interim head coach for the remaining five games.

After an extensive search, the Lions hired Rod Marinelli as the team's 24th head coach January 19, 2006. Marinelli was an assistant head coach and defensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and was part of a staff that helped win a Super Bowl title for that franchise.

LIONS THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

Dating to 1934, the Detroit Lions have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. G.A. Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions, was behind the Lions' inaugural Thanksgiving game in 1934. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the Lions from Portsmouth, Ohio, to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the Tigers of baseball. Despite the fact that the Lions had lost just one game prior to the Thanksgiving Day game in 1934, the largest crowd that season had been just 15,000.

The opponent for the Lions' first Thanksgiving Day game November 29, 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears of George Halas and the rising star of that era, fullback Bronko Nagurski. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations), and additionally, an estimated 26,000 jammed into University of Detroit Stadium while thousands of disappointed fans were turned away.

The Bears won the inaugural game, 19-16, and a classic was born. Since 1934, the Lions have played 67 Thanksgiving Day games with Detroit leading the series 33-32-2. A total of 3,740,275 fans have witnessed Thanksgiving Day games in Detroit, including 1,166,280 fans since 1990, which includes 13 sellouts. The Lions Thanksgiving Day classic has been sold out in each of the last 12 seasons (since 1994). This year, the Lions will host the Green Bay Packers on Thanksgiving, which marks the 18th game between the franchises in the holiday series and the most all-time between two teams on Thanksgiving Day in NFL history.

All-Time Lions' Thanksgiving Day Records by Decade

Decade	W	L	T	Pct.
1930s	3	2	0	.600
1940s	0	5	0	.000
1950s	8	2	0	.800
1960s	2	6	2	.250
1970s	6	4	0	.600
1980s	5	5	0	.500
1990s	7	3	0	.700
2000s	2	5	0	.286
Totals	33	32	2	.508

(1939-44: Series Interrupted During WWII)
 Note: Prior to 1972, a team's winning pct. was calculated using wins and losses, disregarding ties. (Ex: Detroit's record in the 1960s was 2-6-2 and their winning pct. was .250, two wins/two wins + six losses). Since 1972, ties have been calculated in winning pct. as a half-a-win.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

UNIFORM HISTORY

1934-1947: The first uniform donned by the Detroit Lions included a blue jersey with gleaming silver numerals, silver pants and a silver helmet. The shoes were black. The shade of blue used for the jersey became known as 'Honolulu' blue.

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors.

The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.

The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.

The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

on plastic headgear from the previous season.

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change - claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On October 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves - giving the appearance of only one or two stripes on the sleeves.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on October 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between to thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.

1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

1982-87:

1982: The Lions changed the color of the numbers on their home jerseys, making them white with silver trim.

1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.

1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away.

For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on November 17, 1991.

The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.

1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.

1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship.

Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

1998: In what turned out to be Barry Sanders final season, the Lions changed their look on the road, wearing blue pants with a white stripe between two silver stripes.

1999: The Lions returned to wearing silver pants (with white stripe between two blue stripes) on the road.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game in Ford Field on September 22, 2002, against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

The helmet has one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.

The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

DETROIT LIONS CHARITIES

Detroit Lions Charities grants average over $500,000 in each of past three years

Detroit Lions Charities (DLC) has awarded 108 grants totaling $500,663.70 to non-profit agencies in 2006-07. This year's awards bring DLC, the football organization's philanthropic foundation, to more than $4.3 million in total donations in its 17-year history.

DLC was established in 1990 to assist all age groups in a diverse range of needs and programs in Michigan. Particular emphasis is placed on programs that benefit the children and youth of Detroit.

"Detroit Lions Charities continues to seek ways to help non-profits that have demonstrated success in serving our community," said Lions' Vice Chairman William Clay Ford, Jr. "It is important that we be good corporate citizens by helping provide needed funds and resources to these outstanding organizations."

For the ninth consecutive year, a $60,000 grant will sponsor the Think Detroit PAL Football League. The league is operated by the newly merged Think Detroit PAL which combined the resources of the Detroit Police Athletic League (PAL) and Think Detroit. The football league involves 3,000 Detroit youngsters, ages eight through 14, playing in one of the nation's largest tackle football leagues. The Think Detroit PAL season will conclude with its annual championships to be held in November and hosted by the Lions at Ford Field.

"Detroit Lions Charities continues to seek ways to help non-profits that have demonstrated success in serving our community. It is important that we be good corporate citizens by helping provide needed funds and resources to these outstanding organizations," Vice Chairman William Clay Ford, Jr. said.

Another major commitment to Detroit was made through a $50,000 grant to Communities in Schools (CIS) of Detroit for the Detroit Lions Academy. The Academy has a student body of 132 sixth, seventh and eighth grade Detroit children who have had difficulties in traditional school settings. The Academy, which opened in 2001, is a cooperative effort between the Lions, Detroit Public Schools and CIS in association with several corporate sponsors including Costco Wholesale, Ford Motor Company and The Dow Chemical Company.

Approximately $38,000 in grants was awarded to the American Heart Association (AHA) for its "What Moves U" program in Michigan. Through a national campaign spearheaded by the AHA, the National Football League and its member clubs, "What Moves U" is a youth fitness program that combats child obesity through in-classroom motivation and instruction. More than 700 middle schools in Michigan have received the program materials. Shaun Cody, Kevin Jones and Roy Williams are spokesmen for the program.

DLC also assists several of the Lions' current and former players with grants to support their community efforts. Grants were awarded to offensive lineman Barry Stokes for his foundation that supports youth football in his hometown of Davison. Cornerback Fernando Bryant's 25-Sports Foundation provides assemblies with sports team and other academic incentives in Metro Detroit schools.

A grant will help provide special outdoor adventures for youth who suffer life-threatening or life-altering medical conditions through the Tony Semple Foundation for Hope. Grants will assist The James Cancer Center in support of Chris and Stefanie Spielman's breast cancer research fund in Columbus, Ohio and the Mike Utley Foundation to support spinal cord injury research, rehabilitation and education.

A donation went to former Lion Ernie Clark whose Life Long Fitness program provides Detroit senior citizens ways of staying fit and improving the quality of their lives. KOLO Charities, founded by former Lions Bob and Scott Kowalkowski, was funded as was The Eric Beverly Foundation which assists Alger County residents in Michigan's Upper Peninsula who are battling breast cancer.

A grant also will support a computer enrichment program in southeastern Michigan through the Family 2 Family Foundation of former Lion and Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Charlie Sanders and his family.

The Lions High School Football Coach of the Week program benefited 10 Michigan prep football programs from Detroit to Holt and from Dearborn to Saginaw. Muskegon's Tony Anness, whose Big Reds posted a perfect 14-0 record in 2006 and won their second state title in three years, was named High School Coach of the Year.

DLC raises funds from several sources. Major support comes from corporate sponsors as well as funds raised through in-stadium and NFL auctions of Lions' memorabilia and game-worn items. Lions' players, coaches and staff support the "CATS for Kids" program that provides free game tickets to youth groups and also raises funds for Detroit Lions Charities. Donations also come from the Detroit Lions Quarterback Club -- the official booster group of the Lions -- and the "Up in Lights" program on game days.

DLC fundraisers include the Lions' Kickoff Luncheon, Detroit Lions Invitational (DLI), and the Lions' Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Tournament. The bocce tournament was held May 16 at Palazzo di Bocce in Orion Township, and that event supports the Athletes with Disabilities Hall of Fame founded by the late Tony Filippis. This year's DLI, featured several current and former Lions' players, and took place at the TPC Michigan in Dearborn June 5. The Lions' Kickoff Luncheon is set for Friday, August 24 at Cobo Center in Detroit.

For tax-exempt Michigan organizations interested in filing for future funding, grant requests will be accepted from October 1 through December 31. Further information on grant eligibility guidelines and application procedures is on the Detroit Lions website (Detroitlions.com) or can be obtained by writing Detroit Lions Charities, 222 Republic Drive, Allen Park, MI, 48101.

LIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

DETROIT LIONS

The Ford Family's commitment to community service and dedication to making an impact in the lives of the citizens of Michigan is evident by the contributions made all year long by the Detroit Lions players, coaches and staff. The Lions take great pride in supporting those in need and make every effort to lend a helping hand to the community that has always supported the Detroit Lions. The following is just a sample of some of the programs and events the Lions have been involved in during the past year.

DETROIT LIONS ACADEMY

The Detroit Lions Academy is a collaborative effort between Detroit Public Schools, Communities in Schools of Detroit, the Detroit Lions and corporate sponsors including Costco Wholesale, Dow Chemical Company and Ford Motor Company.

At the grand opening, Dow Chemical announced a $120,000 commitment to the school for its science classroom. Ford Motor Company presented a check for $85,000 to sponsor the Academy's Media Resource Center and the paving of the school's parking lot and basketball court. Previously, Costco Wholesale and the Lions each made commitments for $50,000 a year.

The school first opened its doors in Fall 2001 with around 60 middle school students and expanded to over 130 students in the fall of 2006. The Academy is an alternative school for students who have not been successful in traditional middle school settings. Students accepted into the Academy must have demonstrated prior academic or behavioral problems.

The Lions continue their involvement with the Academy throughout the year through player and staff appearances.

THINK DETROIT PAL YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Detroit Lions were once again a major sponsor for Think Detroit PAL (TDP) youth football and host to the TDP football championships at Ford Field in 2006. The league features 80 teams and more than 3,000 youngsters, ages 8-14, making it among the largest leagues for tackle football in the nation.

Founded in 1970, Detroit PAL annually serves over 8,000 youth ages six-to-18 with 10 sports programs, six tutorial sites, and two multi-purpose activity centers. The Lions not only provide financial backing for the league, but also have players participate in the development of the youngsters. Think Detroit and PAL merged early in 2006.

The Detroit Lions have sponsored the TDP Football League since 1999. Each year, the Lions host the league's championships at Ford Field and designate the proceeds from their annual kickoff luncheon to support the Think Detroit PAL football program.

The Lions not only provide financial backing for the league, but also have players participate in the development of the youngsters. In May of 2007, TDP golfers and Lions' players received free golf lessons at TPC Michigan during PGA Free Lesson Month.

A new event in 2007 will be the introduction of the NFL's Punt, Pass & Kick competition to TDP children with the state finals being conducted during pre-game and halftime at a Lions' game at Ford Field in December.

It is also hoped that the TDP's flag football program, conducted in the spring, can be expanded as well as the initiation of a coaching and mentorship clinic for TDP coaches.

17TH ANNUAL DETROIT LIONS INVITATIONAL

Detroit Lions Charities raised $100,000 at the Detroit Lions Invitational, the 17th annual golf tournament held at the prestigious TPC Michigan in Dearborn.

Factoring in this year's substantial contribution, Detroit Lions Charities has now generated approximately $1.7 million in the 17 outings. This year's event was sponsored by Tribute Restaurant and the Wisne Family. Approximately 175 golfers enjoyed good golf and great fellowship at TPC Michigan's championship course -- including the Lions' kicking trio of Jason Hanson, Nick Harris and Don Muhlbach, who served as the event's chairmen.

Numerous Lions' players, alumni, coaches and others surrounding the team also attended the event for an afternoon of golf and good food with Head Coach Rod Marinelli speaking at the event's dinner and awards program.

A silent auction was featured at the annual golf outing. Participants were vying for unique gifts from the Lions, Pistons, Red Wings and Tigers as well as other sports memorabilia and concert packages.

TONY FILIPPIS MEMORIAL BOCCIE BALL TOURNAMENT

The Lions' fourth annual bocce tournament, May 24, at Palazzo di Bocce in Orion Township, Michigan, raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities. The fund-raising event, held in association with the Athletes with Disabilities Hall of Fame (ADHOF), will benefit the ADHOF and various other charities throughout Michigan.

The tournament was recently named in honor of the late Tony Filippis, long-time advocate for the disabled community who died at age 91 earlier this year.

This year's event was led by honorary chairmen Tony Battaglia, AJ Filippis, Hoot McInerney, Oakland County Executive L. Brooks Patterson and former Lions' lineman Mike Utley.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

Bocce players included current Lions' players, alumni, celebrities, fans and people who are part of the numerous groups Detroit Lions Charities raised money to support. Like many of the fundraising events the Lions hold each year, a portion of the money raised was through live and silent auctions featuring various unique items and sports memorabilia.

The tournament has raised more than $640,000 since it first originated in 2004 with the help of former head coach Steve Mariucci.

The event is held in the nation's newest and finest indoor facility for bocce ball. The Palazzo di Bocce was built by owner Anthony Battaglia in Orion Township, near M-24 (Lapeer Road) and Silver Bell Road, just north of the Palace of Auburn Hills. The 32,000 square foot facility has 10 indoor championship courts, spectator seating, a pro shop and a restaurant that features Italian cuisine and wines.

KICKOFF LUNCHEON

On August 24, 2006, the Detroit Lions 10th Annual Kickoff Luncheon acted as the first opportunity for Head Coach Rod Marinelli and the 2006 Lions' team to meet face-to-face with Lions' fans.

Nearly 1,500 people attended the sold-out luncheon at Burton Manor in Livonia, presented by Tribute Restaurant and the Wisne Family and hosted by the Detroit Economic Club.

It was an event that acted as a window for fans to hear Lions' Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer Tom Lewand, Lions' President & CEO Matt Millen and Head Coach Rod Marinelli speak about their thoughts on the upcoming season.

Prior to Marinelli's address to the fans, masters of ceremonies Dan Miller and Jim Brandstatter helped introduce the player award winners from the 2005 season.

Proceeds from the luncheon go to Detroit Lions Charities. The primary recipient of Charities' proceeds from the luncheon is Think Detroit PAL youth football. The league features approximately 3,000 Detroit children playing in one of the nation's largest after-school tackle football leagues.

COURAGE HOUSE DINNER

A crowd of nearly 500 persons filled the atrium of Ford Field for the 13th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner on October 17, 2006. Approximately $75,000 was raised to support the Courage House's -HAVEN's - child abuse prevention and treatment programs.

Ricky Sandoval was presented the Detroit Lions' 2006 Ed Block Courage Award, which recognizes men of courage in the NFL. The popular Lions' Director of Security is battling a rare form of cancer but has not missed a beat in continuing to be a valuable member of the Lions' staff. Many current and former Detroit Lions were on hand to help honor Sandoval including previous Ed Block Courage Award recipients Mike Utley (1991), Ken Dallafior (1992), Victor Jones (1994), Dan Owens (1999), Jared DeVries (2004) and Boss Bailey (2005).

Dallafior and former Lions' equipment manager and current Ford Field Director of Sports Events Dan Jaroszewich founded the Lions' Courage House in 1993. They selected HAVEN, Oakland County's (Mich.) premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse, as the recipient of Courage House Dinner proceeds. Nearly $1.3 million has been raised for HAVEN in the 13-year history of the Detroit Lions Courage House Dinners.

In addition to the presentation of the award to Sandoval, the special guest speaker for the event was Pro Football Hall of Famer Bart Starr. Also, the Detroit Lions Courage House Community Award went to Detroit native and NFL great Jerome Bettis. Starr joined an impressive list of previous guest speakers for the Courage House Dinner. Previous speakers have been Art Donovan, Bo Schemmbecher, Joe Theismann, Bobby Ross, Boomer Esiason, Mike Utley, Chris and Stefanie Spielman, Howie Long, Rocky Bleier, Reggie White, Steve Largent and Chris Berman.

The 14th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner will feature former Baltimore Colt and Detroit Lion defensive lineman Joe Ehrmann. The event will be held at Ford Field on November 13, 2007.

GAME DAY DRIVES

The Lions, with the assistance of many sponsors and fans, were able to help out many people in need through annual game day collection drives.

16th Annual Thanksgiving Day Coat Drive

During the Lions-Dolphins game on November 23, 2006 fans donated thousands of coats to the 16th Annual Thanksgiving Day Coat Drive that benefits the Salvation Army. Along with the Detroit Lions, Pepsi was the lead sponsor for the coat drive. Additional sponsors were LIVE 97.1 FREE FM and WJBK FOX 2. The annual coat drive has collected more than 60 tons of coats since its inception in 1991 when former Lions' equipment manager Dan Jaroszewich, now of Ford Field, started the program.

Annual Toy Drive: The 12th Annual Toys for Tots Toy Drive sponsored by LIVE 97.1 FREE FM, Two Men and A Truck, Value City Furniture and WJBK FOX 2 was held prior to the Lions-Vikings game on December 10, 2006 and collected more than 4,500 toys. The toys were distributed to less fortunate children in the metro-Detroit area by the United States Marines Corps in Detroit through their Toys for Tots program.

LIONS HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE WEEK

For the tenth consecutive season, the Detroit Lions and Detroit Lions Charities, in association with the NFL, presented the Detroit Lions High School Coach of the Week Program. The winning coaches were honored at the Lions' game against the Chicago Bears on December 24, 2006 at Ford Field.

Each week throughout the 2006 regular season, one Michigan high school coach that best developed his players' character, discipline, and football skills was recognized for his commitment to the team, school and community. Each winning coach throughout the regular season received a $1,000 donation to his school's football program and the Coach of the Year received $3,000. The Detroit Lions High School Coach of the Week program has awarded more than $220,000 to high school football programs throughout the state of Michigan.

The winners were selected by a panel of three sportswriters – Hugh Bernreuter of the Saginaw News, Jane Bos of the Grand Rapids Press and Mick McCabe of the Detroit Free Press. In addition to the monetary award, all winners received a framed certificate signed by Lions' Head Coach Rod Marinelli, Commissioner Roger Goodell, as well as former Detroit Lion and current NFL Director of Football Development, Gene Washington. They also received a personalized NFL football and a Coach of the Week hat.

In addition, the coaches were honored at a brunch held at the Marriott Dearborn Inn prior to the December 24 game.

2006 Coach of the Year, Tony Anness (Muskegon), was also honored by having two congratulatory billboards displayed in Muskegon and metro Detroit, which were made possible through a grant from the NFL "Join the Team" initiative.

2006 Coach of the Year: Tony Anness (Muskegon).

2006 Coach of the Week Winners: Jeff Stergalas (Dearborn Fordson), Mike Boyd (Saginaw Nouvel), Kurt Richardson (Clarkston), Drake Wilkins (Detroit Denby), Bruce Bendix (Saginaw Heritage), Charlie Ollewski (Haslett), Jeff Bisel (Bay City), Mike Smith (Holt), Joe Groh (Decatur).

UNITED WAY OF AMERICA/LIFT UP AMERICA

The Lions and United Way once again continued their partnership of helping the community in 2006. This year marked the 33rd anniversary of the NFL and United Way's partnership. The Lions and Ford Field continued to support United Way's annual campaign with thousands of dollars in contributions coming from coaches, players and staff.

United Way for Southeastern Michigan and the Detroit Lions teamed up with Lift Up America, Tyson Foods, Inc. and Gleaners Community Food Bank for the 8th Annual Hometown Huddle on December 5, 2006 at Ford Field. The purpose of this year's event was to feed thousands of metro Detroit's hungry. The distribution of food and products included 30,000 pounds of frozen chicken, donated by Tyson Foods, Inc.; 1,000 cans of Chunky Soup, donated by Campbell's® Chunky™; and 3,000 battery packs, donated by Interstate Batteries.

United Way volunteers and Detroit Lions' players and alumni loaded the product into the vehicles of more than 30 (pre-selected) non-profit agencies that run food pantries. The distribution of food and product benefited more than 3,000 metro Detroit families in time for the holidays.

Hometown Huddle celebrates the 33-year partnership of United Way and the NFL and supports both organizations' work to make a positive and lasting impact on our region. Lift Up America works with corporations and professional sports teams to provide far-reaching aid to the less fortunate. They are involved in 25 similar events throughout the country.

For the 10th-straight year, the Lions hosted a nationally televised halftime show on Thanksgiving that carried the United Way's message to millions of viewers. Rock 'n' Roll Hall of Famer John Fogerty hit the field for the NFL, Detroit Lions and United Way of America during the Thanksgiving Day Halftime Show as part of the Lions vs. Miami Dolphins game.

The partnership between the NFL and United Way is the longest running charitable collaboration of its kind. The PSA series, broadcast each week of the season to more than 120 million viewers has kept United Way in the forefront of people's minds for three decades. No other vehicle has been more effective in providing visibility for United Way. Since the NFL and United Way combined forces, resources to United Way have grown from $800 million annually to nearly $4 billion to strengthen local communities across America.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

PUNT, PASS & KICK

For the 20th consecutive year the Detroit Lions in partnership with the Michigan Recreation and Park Association (MRPA) hosted the Michigan NFL-Pepsi Punt, Pass & Kick Championships. The championships were held Sunday, December 10, 2006 at Ford Field. Forty (40) youngsters age 8-15 competed for state titles in four age divisions for both boys and girls.

Eight division winners were then crowned state champions. Those eight team champions then had their scores compared to other team champions from the 32 NFL markets with the top four team champions advancing to the national finals. Among those advancing were Samantha Cormier of Frankenmuth who represented the Lions and the state of Michigan at the national championship in New Orleans on January 13, 2007.

Also honored as part of Michigan's 20th Anniversary of PPK were the five past national champions from the state - Adam Thomas, Hazel Park (1991); Kelsey Ketsik, Mason (1997); Kristen Eible, Lansing (1998); Cara Miller, Farmington Hills (2003); and Jacob Santure, Saline (2003).

The NFL-PP&K competition is coordinated through the NFL and sponsored by Pepsi. The Michigan program is coordinated through the Michigan Recreation and Park Association and is free to all youngsters.

The NFL Punt, Pass and Kick program is part of the NFL's "Dream Big. Play Big." initiative that provides exciting ways for even more children to play, watch and experience the game of football. According to a recent ESPN Sports Poll, football is the favorite sport of kids.

DETROIT LIONS PET CALENDAR

Detroit Lions' players and their pets were photographed at Ford Field and at the Lions' Headquarters and Training Facility as part of a project with the Friends for the Dearborn Animal Shelter (FFDAS). Photos were used for the 2007 Detroit Lions Pet Calendar with all proceeds to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter.

This is the fourth annual Lions' pet calendar with FFDAS. Most players were photographed with their families and their pets. Others were photographed with a pet from the shelter.

Proceeds from this year's calendar will help the Friends for the Dearborn Animal Shelter to build the New Dearborn

Friends For The Dearborn Animal Shelter

Animal Shelter Facility. The facility is planned to be the first animal shelter facility of its kind in Michigan, utilizing state-of-the-art innovation and design that will positively enhance the experience of both people and animals.

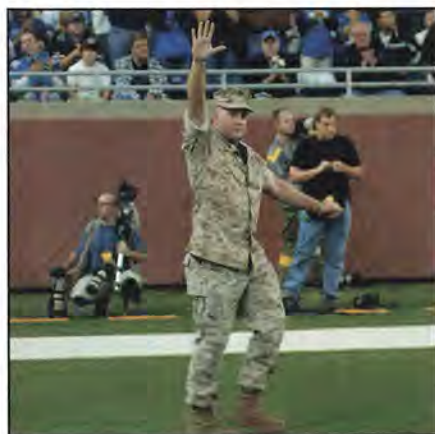

HOMETOWN HEROES

The Detroit Lions continued to honor Michigan military personnel at Lions' home games in 2006 with their "Hometown Heroes" program. The Lions honored a Michigan National Guard soldier in-person during the third quarter of Lions' home games at Ford Field.

The soldiers were selected by their highest ranking officers in the state and were honored for having served their country overseas. The soldiers received a warm welcome home from Ford Field fans who greeted them with a standing ovation each game as they were introduced.

As part of the program, honored soldiers received four premium club tickets to the game, a personalized letter from Lions' Head Coach Rod Marinelli and a personalized game ball on behalf of the Lions.

LIONS ALUMNI

Alumni Day: The Lions hosted more than 60 of its former players at their October 15, 2006 Lions game at Ford Field as part of the annual Lions Alumni Day festivities. The Lions also hosted a brunch at the Marriott Dearborn Inn for the alumni prior to the game, provided tickets and bus transportation to the game, and introduced the players on the field during special halftime ceremonies. The range of alumni that attended the event played for the Lions from the 1940s to 2003.

The Lions also hosted a group of alumni at a Lions' training camp practice before the 2006 season. The alumni were given the unique opportunity to watch practice, enjoy a barbecue lunch and meet many of the current faces of the Lions, including President and CEO Matt Millen and Head Coach Rod Marinelli who addressed the former players on the upcoming season.

Honorary Alumni Captains: This year marks the sixth consecutive season that the Lions have honored former players at their home games. The alumni captains are guests at the game, are introduced to the Ford Field crowd, and participate in the coin-toss ceremonies.

Lions alumni are also frequent visitors at many Detroit Lions events throughout the season including the annual Lions' Celebrity Bocce Tournament, Lions' Invitational Golf Tournament and the Lions' Courage House Dinner.

WHAT MOVES U

Responding to the continuing decline of physical education programs in many of America's schools and the lack of physical activity for today's youth, the Lions joined the American Heart Association (AHA) and the National Football League (NFL) to create a national program that encourages physical activity among young people. What Moves U is a national youth movement and awareness campaign designed to promote physical fitness and healthy living to an increasingly inactive generation of children.

To support the campaign, Detroit Lions Shaun Cody, Kevin Jones and Roy Williams participated in a promotional photo campaign with students from O.W. Best Middle School of Dearborn Heights in June 2006 at the Lions Headquarters and Practice Facility. The photos were used both locally and nationally to support the youth fitness campaign. The Lions joined the O.W. Best students in numerous exercises and games to promote the What Moves U campaign. Additionally, Cody recorded a video public service announcement on the campaign that was made available to television stations throughout Michigan.

AquaFina also committed to serving as a presenting sponsor for local components of the campaign, including an essay contest for 6th, 7th, and 8th graders attending school in Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb Counties, which asked students to explain what inspires them to be physically active on a regular basis. Seven metro Detroit youngsters who wrote winning essays were honored at the Detroit Lions-Minnesota Vikings game, December 10, 2006 at Ford Field. The winners and their families were guests of the Lions at the game and were introduced on the field during special pre-game ceremonies.

This What Moves U initiative incorporates several key elements: an in-school activity kit created for teachers, by teachers, which includes curriculum-based activity sheets, program-specific learning materials and school promotional materials; and an interactive fitness-focused website for children. A national public awareness campaign including television, radio, print, PSAs, and community outreach events through NFL teams and American Heart Association divisions are also a part of the initiative.

Unique to other physical fitness programs for students, the What Moves U in-school activation kit was developed for teachers of various academic disciplines to help them find ways to integrate physical activities into their existing lesson plans.

More than 25,000 middle schools nationwide including 740 middle schools in Michigan received the activation kit, and teachers have the opportunity to download the kit on the program's website. To learn more, call 1-800-AHA-USA1 or visit americanheart.org.

NFL YET CENTER

The Detroit Super Bowl XL Host Committee (DSBXLHC), National Football League (NFL), Detroit Lions, and leading Detroit community sponsors teamed to build the Detroit NFL Youth Education Town (YET), managed by Boys & Girls Clubs of Southeastern Michigan. The Detroit YET is located on the far west side of Detroit as part of the larger Gardenview Estates (formerly Herman Gardens) HUD Hope VI Project.

For more than a decade, the NFL, Super Bowl Host Committees, and community partners have constructed YETs in Super Bowl host cities. A primary Super Bowl XL legacy, the YET initiative is aimed at positively impacting youth in at-risk neighborhoods. The NFL and DSBXLHC each donated $1 million to the construction of the center.

The $6 million facility has received many donations including a major donation from Richard and Sandra Dauch (Richard Dauch is chairman of American Axle Manufacturing), and the grounds encompassing YET, which was named the Dick & Sandy Dauch Campus. Detroit Lions Charities has also donated to the center.

The new YET opened in May 2007 and is a 30,000 square-foot facility situated on a 4.77-acre site. The new facility consists of a gymnasium (sized to regulation for high school competition) and locker rooms, games room, teen center, technology center and multi-media studio, learning center, arts and crafts center, community room, snack area and numerous other spaces for youth programs. It also will include an outdoor athletic field sponsored by Buffalo Bills' owner and Detroit native Ralph Wilson that will accommodate youth football programs, soccer and other team sports.

Given that the area surrounding YET is already home to approximately 34,000 school-age youth, it is projected that the center will serve some 25,000 members annually.

DETROIT LIONS YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Detroit Lions Youth Football Initiative has been created for the sole purpose of making a positive impact on children's lives both on and off the field through football. Many life lessons can be learned by playing the game, and the Lions' organization would like to play its part in the positive development of Michigan's youth. The implementation of the following state-wide programs will help increase interest in children playing organized football as well as aid in the development of those coaching the game.

The goal of the Detroit Lions Youth Football Program is simple: To make a difference in children's lives through football.

For more information on any of the Detroit Lions Youth Football Programs or to join the mailing list, please call (313) 262-2248, e-mail cfritzsching@detroitlions.com or visit www.detroitlions.com/youthfootball.

SUMMER YOUTH FOOTBALL CAMPS

Camps will be conducted 8 weeks during the summer. Non-contact, fundamental football camps designed to improve child's beginning, intermediate and advanced skill levels, will be held from 8:30 a.m.-noon, Monday-Thursday for children ages 6-14. Participation from former or current Lions' players adds to the quality of the experience. Fundamentals of all positions on offense, defense and special teams are taught during the instruction.

Lions Youth Football Camp includes: Four days of non-contact fundamental football instruction; Lions Camp T-shirt; Guest appearance from a current or former Lions player; Chalk talk & video sessions; Skills contests & scrimmages; Opportunity to earn week-long awards such as the Leadership Award, Attitude Award, Extra Effort Award, Future Star Award, Consistency Award, and the Hustle Award.

Summer camp schedule is available in February of each year.

SKILL DEVELOPMENT SESSIONS

Take your game to the next level! Sign up for Detroit Lions Skill Development Sessions! Members of the Detroit Lions Youth Football Camp Coaching Staff conduct one hour sessions that include detailed, one-on-one, position-specific instruction, video analysis, and a written evaluation. Video analysis and comparison to other football players helps in the overall development of the participant. Participants receive a DVD of their Skill Development Session.

LIONS "L.E.A.D.ERS FOR LIFE"

Exciting, interactive 45-minute assemblies are conducted September-April at elementary schools around the state of Michigan. Character education is the focus revolving around discussion of the Lions Leadership List.

First Half: "Lions L.E.A.D.ers for Life" assembly is designed to discuss the development of character, academic and athletic values through goal-setting. Interactive vignettes will discuss the Lions Leadership List (Listen & Learn, Educated, Ambitious, Disciplined, Encouraging, and Responsible), all qualities necessary to be a successful leader.

Second Half: During after-school football clinics, beginning in November, Lions youth football coaching staff members teach participants the fundamentals of football during this 90-minute clinic. Clinic includes fundamental football instruction, a Detroit Lions Clinic T-shirt, a Lions Pride game program and a certificate of participation!

FUNDAMENTAL YOUTH FOOTBALL CLINIC

Clinics are conducted at elementary schools, Recreation Departments, YMCA's, Boys and Girls Clubs and local parks or for youth football organizations. These one-and-a-half hour clinics can be held indoor or outdoor, September-May, and teach the fundamentals of quarterback, running back or wide receiver play in a safe, fun and educational manner.

HALFTIME YOUTH FOOTBALL GAMES

Be part of the halftime entertainment! Experience the thrill of playing at Ford Field in front of 65,000 people during halftime at a Detroit Lions game. Youth football teams have the opportunity to suit up like the pros, play at Ford Field, and feel what it is like to walk out of the players' tunnel! Three to five games are conducted every football season which provide great team building opportunities for youth football organizations!

YOUTH FOOTBALL TEAMWORK AWARD

The Detroit Lions would like to recognize youth football teams and their head coaches around the state of Michigan not only for their success on the field, but more importantly, for their success off the field. Developing student-athletes to be their very best on the football field, in the classroom and in the community is an important component of the coaching profession.

At the youth level, it is not the wins and losses, it's how teammates work together and become productive and successful on and off the field. Hard work, communication, being prompt, and being disciplined are just some of the life skills the great game of football can teach.

One youth football team and their head coach will be selected each week for nine weeks beginning the first week of September.

HIGH SCHOOL 7-ON-7 TOURNAMENT

The Detroit Lions High School Football 7-on-7 Passing Tournament is open to 12 varsity high school football teams. The double-elimination passing tournament is held in June or July at Ford Field, Home of the Detroit Lions and site of Super Bowl XL.

YOUTH FOOTBALL FORUM

The Detroit Lions have created an exciting new program entitled the "Detroit Lions Youth Football Forum," designed to discuss issues critical to the day-to-day operation of youth football conferences, organizations and teams.

The purpose of the Youth Football Forum is to allow for discussion of key topics, meet new league representatives and share innovative ideas with the hope of gathering new programs, concepts and rules for the betterment of the youth football experience. Topics include age and weight restrictions, coaching education, background checks, equipment, insurance, fundraising and much more.

The Youth Football Forum consists of three to four meetings per year with members being selected by the Detroit Lions organization. The 2007 Forum consists of 38 members from 26 different Youth Football Organizations around the state of Michigan, representing over 62,000 youth football players.

DETROIT LIONS COACHING ACADEMY

The Detroit Lions, the National Football League and the National Football Foundation (NFF) have developed a football education program designed to elevate the quality of coaching at the youth, middle and high school levels across the State of Michigan and the greater Midwest area.

Topics covered include Coaching Philosophy; Football Skills, Strategy & Drills; Health, Fitness, Nutrition & Strength Training; and On-Field Demonstrations, along with several specialty sessions.

In addition to the valuable coaching segments, participants receive a Coaching Academy t-shirt and a completion certificate.

The Coaching Academy is conducted at the Detroit Lions Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park every June.

DETROIT LIONS KIDS CLUB

The 2007-08 Detroit Lions Kids Club is new and improved. Membership includes a Kids Club t-shirt, school folder, notepad, pen and pencil set, membership card, welcome letter from a Detroit Lions player or coach, video birthday greeting from a Detroit Lions player, Detroit Lions yearbook, quarterly newsletters, an invitation to Kids Club Day during a 2007 Lions preseason game and more!

- July 16: Deadline at 4:00 p.m., New York time, for any club that designated a Franchise Player to sign such player to a multi-year contract or extension. After this date, the player may sign only a one-year contract with his Prior Club for the 2007 season, and such contract cannot be extended until after the Club's last regular season game.
- July 22: Signing period ends at 4:00 p.m., New York time, for Transition Players with outstanding tenders. After this date and through 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday after the 10th regular season weekend, Old Club has exclusive negotiating rights to these players. Signing period ends at 4:00 p.m. (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp, whichever is later) New York time, for Unrestricted Free Agents to whom a June 1 tender was made by Old Club. After this date and through 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday after the 10th regular season weekend, Old Club has exclusive negotiating rights to these players.
- Aug. 3-5: Hall of Fame Weekend, Canton, Ohio.
- Aug. 5: Hall of Fame Game, Canton, Ohio. New Orleans vs. Pittsburgh.
- Aug. 7: Deadline for players under contract to report to earn a season of free agency credit.
- Aug. 10: If a Drafted Rookie has not signed with his club by this date, he may not be traded to any other club in 2007.
- Aug. 11-15: Clubs have until five days prior to their game on the second preseason weekend to provide written notice to certain unsigned players and the NFLPA of their intent to place them on the Exempt List if they fail to report no later than one day prior to that weekend's game. Any player who fails to report prior to the deadline will be ineligible to play or receive compensation for at least three games (preseason or regular season) from the time that he reports.
- Aug. 28: Roster cut-down to maximum of 75 players on Active List by 4:00 p.m., New York time. All NFL Europa exemptions expire.
- Aug. 29: All tryouts on this date and for the remainder of the season must be reported to the League office.
- Sept. 1: Roster cut-down to maximum of 53 players on Active/Inactive List by 6:00 p.m., New York time. Clubs may dress minimum of 42 and maximum of 45 players and Third Quarterback for each regular season and postseason game.
- Sept. 1: Simultaneously with the cut-down to 53, clubs that have players in the categories of Active/Physically Unable to Perform or Active/Non-Football Injury or Illness must take one of the following options: place player on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform or Re-

- serve/Non-Football Injury or Illness, whichever is applicable; ask waivers; terminate; trade; or continue to count him on Active List.
- Sept. 2: Claims on players placed on waivers at the final roster reduction will expire at 12:00 noon, New York time. After 12:00 noon, New York time, clubs may establish a Practice Squad of eight players by signing free agents who do not have an accrued season of free agency credit or who were on the 45-player Active List for less than nine regular season games during each of any Accrued Seasons. A player cannot participate on the Practice Squad for more than three seasons.
- Sept. 5: All clubs are required to file a personnel (injury) report with their conference information manager by 4:00 p.m., New York time. Reports are to be filed every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday before a regular-season game by 4:00 p.m., New York time (or as soon as possible after the completion of practice). An update must also be reported if there is any change in a player's condition after Friday. Beginning at 4:00 p.m., New York time, Team Salary includes all players receiving compensation under their 2007 contracts. Top 51 rule is no longer in effect.
- Sept. 6-10: Regular Season opens.
- Sept. 7-11: Beginning on these dates vested veterans terminated from the Active List or Inactive List (and from Reserve/Injured if the player is placed on Reserve/Injured after the beginning of the regular season) are entitled to receive, after the end of the regular-season schedule, Termination Pay pursuant to the terms of the 2006 CBA.
- Sept. 25: Priority on multiple waiver claims is now based on the current season's standing.
- Sept. 30-Oct. 1: Fourth Regular Season Weekend.
- Oct. 16: Beginning the day after the conclusion of the sixth regular season weekend and continuing through the day after the conclusion of the ninth regular season weekend, clubs are permitted to begin practicing players on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform or Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness for a period not to exceed 21 days. Players may be activated during the 21-day practice period or after 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the day after the conclusion of the 21-day period.
- Oct. 16: All trading ends at 4:00 p.m., New York time.
- Oct. 17: Players with at least four previous pension-credited seasons are subject to the waiver system for the remainder of the regular season and postseason.
- Nov. 5: Deadline at 4:00 p.m., New York time, for an increase in a player's 2007 Salary to be counted as Salary for the current year. Any notice of an increase in a player's 2007 Salary received by the NFLMC after this deadline will be treated as - a Signing Bonus.

- Nov. 13: Signing period ends at 4:00 p.m., New York time, for Franchise Players who are eligible to receive Offer Sheets. Deadline for clubs to sign by 4:00 p.m., New York time, their unsigned Franchise and Transition Players, including Franchise Players who were eligible to receive Offer Sheets until this date. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2007. Deadline for clubs to sign by 4:00 p.m., New York time, their Unrestricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2007. Deadline for clubs to sign Drafted players by 4:00 p.m., New York time. If such players remain unsigned, they are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2007.
- Nov. 30: Deadline for reinstatement by 4:00 p.m., New York time, of players in Reserve List categories of Retired, Did Not Report, and Exclusive Rights, and of players who were placed on Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season.
- Dec. 28: Deadline for waiver requests in 2007, except for "special waiver requests" which have a 10-day claiming period, with termination or assignment delayed until after the Super Bowl.
- Dec. 31: Clubs may begin signing free agent players for the 2008 season.

2008

- Jan. 5-6: Wild Card Playoff Games.
- Jan. 12-13: Divisional Playoff Games.
- Jan. 20: AFC and NFC Championship Games
- Jan. 26: Senior Bowl, Mobile, Alabama.
- Feb. 3: Super Bowl XLIII, Glendale, Arizona.
- Feb. 10: AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, Honolulu, Hawaii.

2009

- Feb. 1: Super Bowl XLIII, Raymond James Stadium, Tampa, Fla.

2010

- TBD: Super Bowl XLIV, Dolphin Stadium, South Florida

2011

- TBD: Super Bowl XLV, new Cowboys Stadium, North Texas.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

FORD FIELD

Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions, is one of the premiere sports and entertainment stadiums in the world, and that fact has been proven over and over again the past few years with such high-profile international events like Super Bowl XL.

Every event at Ford Field impacts the city of Detroit beyond the event itself inside the stadium. For example, by hosting the Super Bowl in Detroit, Ford Field stood as the centerpiece to an over $260 million economic impact on Metro Detroit.

And none of that would have been made possible without the vision and investment made by Lions Owner and Chairman Williams Clay Ford and the Ford family to not only construct a fine football stadium but an unrivaled sports and entertainment venue.

HOME FOR FOOTBALL

More than just a host site for the Super Bowl XL in 2006, few stadiums in the country hold a football schedule as aggressive as Ford Field. Football championships are held at virtually every level ranging from youth football to the Super Bowl.

2006 FALL SCHEDULE:

- 10 sold-out Lions games, including the Lions 67th Thanksgiving Day Classic
 - 10th annual Motor City Bowl: Middle Tennessee State vs. Central Michigan
 - MAC Football Championship: Ohio vs. Central Michigan
 - MHSAA High School State Championships
 - Eastern Michigan vs. Navy
 - Annual Detroit PAL Football Championships
 - Detroit Public Schools Football Championships
 - High School Catholic League Championship
 - Fourth annual Detroit Football Classic
- Ford Field is busy during the summer time as well when the Detroit Lions Youth Football Programs host both summer camps and a high school 7-on-7 tournament at the stadium.

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

In 2006, Ford Field and Metro Detroit sparked as the international sports community converged for the NFL's championship game.

"Much changed for the city of Detroit in 25 years since the Super Bowl was played there last," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations."

"From the media center and NFL headquarters at GM World Headquarters and the Renaissance Center, to the NFL Experience at Cobo Center, to the events at some of downtown's historic theatres, to the game at Ford Field, our fans, teams, business partners and media enjoyed their Super Bowl experience in Detroit."

THE ROAD AHEAD

Football events are not the only major events on the docket at Ford Field. The future is gearing up for several spectacular events, including the return of Kenny Chesney's "The Road and The Radio" Super Show in August, NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four and the NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four. These events are anchors in an impressive entertainment schedule that continues serving as a centerpiece to growth in Detroit's downtown business district.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The NCAA's premiere sporting event, the men's basketball tournament, has its sights on Ford Field in 2008 and 2009. Ford Field is set to host for the first time the Men's Basketball Final Four in 2009 and the Midwest Regionals, including the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds in 2008. The Final Four and Midwest Regionals at Ford Field will mark the first time either events have been held in downtown Detroit.

Both the Regionals and the Final Four are on track to eclipse the all-time attendance record for the NCAA Regional Games. The current attendance record for a single Regional game is 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans World Dome in 1999. The highest attendance mark at the 2007 Regional Games was 26,776 at the Ohio State vs. Tennessee game in the Alamodome in San Antonio. The attendance record for a single tournament game is 64,959, which was set during the Indiana vs. Syracuse 1987 National Championship Game at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans. The BasketBowl at Ford Field, which featured Michigan State vs. Kentucky in a regular-season match-up on December 13, 2003, holds the NCAA attendance record for a single game at 78,129.

Excitement for the upcoming NCAA basketball events was illustrated in just a short period following the release of general tickets for the 2008 NCAA Regionals. Following two months of the initial release of tickets, more than 35,000 were sold in that short span of time.

Beyond 2009, Ford Field will elevate collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosts the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which will be the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, is the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before. In the state alone, there are eight Division I men's hockey programs, and in the 60 years of crowning an NCAA champion, five schools from Michigan have won the title a combined 19 times.

A LOOK AT THE PAST

On November 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 65,000-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, August 24, 2003 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, September 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following this grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was October headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 Men's Basketball Final Four to be held April 4 and 6. Ford Field will warm-up for that championship event by hosting one of the four Men's Basketball Regional Finals in 2008 (March 28 and 30). In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA will return in 2010 as Ford Field hosts the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

This past spring, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the United States Hot Rod Association's Monster Jam monster truck series for the past two years and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crowning jewel of new stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact will continue to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, tradeshows and concerts.

will host the Men's Hockey 2010 Frozen Four.

2006

April 3: World Wrestling Entertainment® announced that it will present its cornerstone annual event, WrestleMania® 23, on Sunday, April 1, 2007, at Ford Field.

FEATURES

Ford Field is nestled at the intersection of I-75 and I-375 in downtown Detroit, Mich. The 40-foot glass wall entrance is located at the corner of Adams and Brush Street. Brush Street runs between Ford Field and Comerica Park, the home of the Detroit Tigers. St. Antoine Street runs on the east side of the stadium and Beacon St. borders Ford Field on the south side.

LUXURY SUITES

The luxury suite options are like no other in the sports industry. Ford Field incorporates 132 luxury suites, including 115 in the warehouse and 17 on the north side of the stadium. The 115 suites in the warehouse are located on four different levels.

- The inspired design that integrates luxury suites into the historic Hudson's warehouse affords each suite holder significant opportunities, including optimum views, easy access and customized floor plans. By eliminating end zone suites, Ford Field luxury suites offer goal-line-to-goal-line, corner-to-corner views of every play. Since suites are centrally located, access is simple and direct, and creative use of warehouse space provides flexibility to create a wide selection of suite shapes and sizes.
- Suites can accommodate from eight to 30 people, which allows for a wider variety of suites than any other football stadium.
- Suite holders receive amenity packages consisting of tickets for all Lions' home games, tickets for most non-Lions events, first option on additional tickets to non-Lions events, VIP parking, private entrance, private concourse, private bathroom access, premium catering, in-suite televisions to view additional NFL action, full concierge service and day use of suite (during normal business hours).

CLUB SEATS

There are 8,700 club seats at Ford Field, 4,300 club seats are located on the north side, and 4,400 are located on the club level that is adjoined to the warehouse. Club seats at Ford Field represent the ultimate in club experience with an unrivaled game day opportunity.

- Club seat ticket holders have access to four exclusive clubs in the stadium with expanded food selection of upscale cuisine.
- Amenities include: wide, leather padded seats (manufactured by Visteon) with cupholders, elevator and escalator services from main entrances, two private entrances, climate controlled atmosphere, televisions and video walls in club lounges, club level concierge service, exclusive Lions merchandise store, opportunities to purchase tickets to other Ford Field events and opportunities for year-round use of club lounges for business meetings and social functions.

THE ROAR & MORE

The Detroit Lions' official merchandise store, The Roar & More, is located inside Ford Field on the Adams St. Concourse. The team store is open for business Monday-Friday from 10:30 a.m.-3 p.m. and during select events.

LIONS HEADQUARTERS AND TRAINING FACILITY

The Ford family not only made a commitment to bring the pride of the Detroit Lions back into downtown Detroit with the construction of Ford Field, but they also decided that the new training and practice facility would be rivaled by no other team in the National Football League.

The Lions' $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility is built on a 22.7-acre parcel and is located just west of Detroit on the border of Allen Park and Dearborn. In fact, the facility is just down the street from Ford Motor Company's World Headquarters.

The franchise broke ground on the new world-class facility in August 2000 and moved into its new digs in April 2002. The 460,000 square foot complex includes a full indoor practice field, 2.5 outdoor practice fields, a state-of-the-art weight and training room, a massive locker room, a hydrotherapy room, a spacious equipment room, a cafeteria, meeting rooms for each position, a player lounge, a 106-person auditorium for full team meetings and large press conferences, a broadcast studio, a library and archive room, a media room along with offices for all personnel.

When entering the building from the main entrance, one is immediately hit with flashbacks of Lions' football. A 23-by-26 foot mural is covered with the likenesses of nine Hall-of-Fame Lions players.

In an effort to keep the environment clean, William Clay Ford, Jr. also made sure the building was built with renewable and recyclable products. The bamboo floors in the lobby, latex paint and rubber flooring have all contributed to this cause.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

MEDIA POLICIES

The Lions Media Relations Department has compiled the following information to assist the media in their coverage of the Detroit Lions. Adherence to the following procedures will prove beneficial to both the Detroit Lions and the media assigned to cover the team. If you have any questions or need any additional information, please contact any member of the Lions Media Relations staff.

DETROIT LIONS MEDIA RELATIONS STAFF

Matt Barnhart Director of Media Relations
Deanna Caldwell Manager of Creative Services
Ben Manges Assistant Director of Media Relations
Chrissie Wywrot New Media Coordinator
Ben Herman, Charlie Searly and Tom Valente Interns
Bill Keenist Sr. V.P. of Communications

MEDIA ACCESS AND INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All interview requests for players, coaches, executives and staff should be directed to the Lions Media Relations department.

Head Coach: Head Coach Rod Marinelli will be available for interviews immediately following designated practice sessions, typically occurring on the field. During training camp, Coach Marinelli's designated post-practice media sessions will generally occur following the morning practice session.

Following select practices, there will be a designated media interview area equipped with a sound distribution system that the media is encouraged to use. One-on-one or special requests for Coach Marinelli should be directed to Bill Keenist or Matt Barnhart.

- Players Access: Players are available during open locker room sessions and on the field immediately following practices. Please coordinate special requests for an individual player with a member of the Lions Media Relations department.
- Assistant Coaches: Requests for assistant coaches should be submitted to a member of the Lions Media Relations Department with at least 24 hours advance notice. Coordinators are typically available on a designated day once a week from the beginning of training camp through the regular season. Members of the media with an approved request to interview an assistant coach should be prepared to conduct the interview on the field following practice sessions, though interview availability may vary due to meeting schedules.

PRACTICE GUIDELINES

- Lions' team practice sessions will meet the media access policy standards set forth by the NFL for training camp and regular season sessions.
- The media should respect the proprietary nature of open practice opportunities, and will be expected not to disclose those occurrences in either print or electronic news stories. If there is a question whether an incident is considered "of proprietary nature," the media person should ask a media relations staff member for clarification. No portions of practice should be reported unless commented on by the head coach.
- Outdoor Practices: Members of the media covering practice outdoors should enter the practice area using the fire lane on the south side of the facility. Media observing practice should remain on or behind the track surrounding the practice fields. Tripods may not be used at any time during outdoor practice sessions.
- Indoor Practices: Members of the media view indoor practice sessions from the second level balcony. Media will be escorted to and from the viewing area by a member of the Lions Media Relations department. Since members of the media must be escorted to the viewing area, covering practice beginning at the starting time is the best way to insure complete access to practice. Media will be escorted to field level for post-practice interviews at the end of the practice sessions. Tripods may be used on the balcony during indoor practices.

- Photographers and television camerapersons will be allowed to shoot individual drills only as set forth by the Lions' media policies. A member of the Lions Media Relations staff will be there to assist during practice times.
- Please silence or turn off cell phones and pagers when entering practice areas. If a call must be made, please exit the viewing area.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Detroit Lions home games must be submitted through Media.Detroitlions.com. Instructions, as well as the request form, are posted on the Lions' media website. Access to all other Lions events, such as training camp, can be requested via e-mail to a member of the Lions Media Relations Staff. Contact information and e-mail addresses for Lions Media Relations Staff members are posted on Media.Detroitlions.com.

- Road Credentials: Members of the Lions' media traveling to road games should submit requests for credentials to Matt Barnhart no later than nine days prior to the road game.

SEASON GAME CREDENTIALS

Many members of the media who are assigned to cover all Lions' games (preseason and regular season) will be issued a season credential with photo identification. If a member of the media is assigned a season-long, laminated credential without a photo identification, then government-issued photo identification must be shown to enter Ford Field. If a member of the media is issued a game pass (paper), this must be picked up at Will Call (located at Gate G off St. Antoine Street) the day of the game. Government-issued photo identification, along with business identification, must be presented to receive credential.

LIONS MEDIA WING

All members of the media covering the Lions at the Headquarters and Training Facility are welcome to use the work area designated for the media. In the Media Workroom (Room 111), there are workstations set aside for the Detroit Free Press, Detroit News, Booth Newspapers, Oakland Press, Associated Press and Lions Radio Network. All other stations within the workroom are available on a first-come, first-serve basis and are equipped with pool phones.

The Radio Room (Room 108) is outfitted for WKRR, WXYT, WWJ, WJR and WDFN. Live long-form broadcasts originating from Allen Park are permitted only for the Lions' flagship partner WKRR 97.1 FREE FM. Live radio updates by reporters and short-segment call-ins are permitted as long as radio show does not originate from Allen Park.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Lions' press conferences are held in the Lions Broadcast Studio (Room 200) located on the second floor of the Headquarters and Training Facility. Use staircase closest to Media Work Room to access the Broadcast Studio. A sound distribution system is available for electronic news outlets. Members of the print media are also encouraged to use the sound distribution system for a high-quality recording of the press conference. For electronic news outlets taking a press conference "live", please coordinate with the Lions Media Relations Staff.

CONFERENCE CALLS

Weekly conference calls and other media conference calls take place in the Lions Library (Room 113) located in the Lions Media Wing. Typically, weekly conference calls take place around Noon each week. Weekly conference call times are available through a member of the Lions Media Relations department.

TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts of all Lions press conferences, conference calls and most general interview sessions (Head Coach Rod Marinelli and select players) are transcribed. Transcripts are distributed to the media filing reports from the practice facility, e-mailed to the Lions Media Distribution list, and posted on Media.Detroitlions.com.

PRESS INFORMATION

All Lions press releases are distributed via e-mail and posted on Media.Detroitlions.com. Most general press releases are also posted on Detroitlions.com. To receive team press releases, please register on Media.Detroitlions.com.

ELECTRONIC MEDIA BROADCASTS

Television and radio stations needing to produce "live shots" should coordinate their broadcasts through the Lions Media Relations department. Technical questions regarding hook-ups should be directed to Bryan Bender.

2007 DETROIT LIONS

DETROIT LIONS RADIO NETWORK

The Detroit Lions enter their 12th year with Infinity Broadcasting Corporation and their fourth season on flagship station WKRK 97.1 FREE FM. In February 2005, the Lions and Infinity renewed their broadcast partnership by inking a new five-year deal.

In 2007, all Lions games will be carried live on flagship station WKRK 97.1 FREE FM. The Detroit Lions Radio Network will comprise of 36 stations throughout Michigan, Ohio and into Canada.

The Lions' broadcasting team features Dan Miller, who is in his third season as the Lions Radio Network's play-by-play announcer. Alongside Miller in the booth will be Detroit radio and television sports personality Jim Brandstatter, a former star lineman for the University of Michigan, who will provide the color commentary. In his seventh year as the Detroit Lions Radio Network sideline reporter is Tony Ortiz. Rounding out the team and working behind the scenes is Al Rosenberg, who enters his 13th season serving as the engineer and on-site producer.
